KNAPP IS FOUND GUILTY.

Jury Returns Verdict of Murder in First Degree in Case of Ohio Wife-Slayer.

NO RECOMMENDATION OF MERCY MADE.

Conviction Probably Means Electro-cution of the Prisoner, Who Hears Sentence with Composure—Crimes to Which the Convicted Man Has Confessed.

Hamilton, O., July 17.—Alfred A. Knapp was convicted of murder in the first degree for the murder of his wife, Hannah Goddard Knapp, by Judge Belden's jury here Thursday. The verdict was reached at 7:30 o'clock, the jury having been out since 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night. To the surprise of everybody there was no recommendation of mercy and the famous criminal must go to the electric chair. It was thought that the long deliberation argued that the degree of the crime would be reduced. The jury stood ten for conviction without mercy and two for conviction with mercy, being unanimously for guilt. Repeated ballots were taken, and shortly after seven o'clock it was found that an agreement had been reached. Judge Belden was sent for and arrived about 7:30. Knapp was brought into court by Sheriff Bisdorf. There were but few spectators present and there was no excitement. Knapp took his seat quietly and did not appear alarmed. When the verdict was returned convicting him without recommendation of mercy he did not show any sign of emotion or make any comment. He seemed to have steeled himself for the ordeal. Knapp was taken back to jail at once and Sheriff Bisdorf will allow no outsiders to see him. The result of the trial is accepted with great satisfaction by the public, as hope of a conviction became low when the jury remained out so long. Knapp's mother and sister were very much affected when they heard the verdict.

The case will be carried higher on the usual appeals, but it is generally believed that Knapp will now be electrocuted.

A motion for a new trial was filed in the afternoon by Knapp's counsel. It will not be heard until next fall as Attorney Darby will go away to recuperate. Knapp's relations visited him at the jail. The meeting was pathetic as he tried to comfort his mother.

Crimes of Convicted Man. The five cases to which Knapp confessed February 26 to officials here are as follows:

Emma Littelman, killed in lumberyard at Cincinnati, June 21, 1894.

May Eckert, murdered in room on Walnut street, Cincinnati, August 1, 1894.

Jennie Knapp, thrown into canal at Liberty street, Cincinnati, August 7, 1894.

Ida Gebhard, four, strangled at Indianapolis in July, 1895.

Hannah Knapp, murdered at Hamilton, September 22, 1902, and thrown into the river at Lindenwald.

Regarding the killing of his wife, Hannah Goddard Knapp, for whose murder he has been convicted, he said:

When he awoke the morning of the crime he was seized with an impulse to strangle his wife. After accomplishing her death he got a box and nailed her up. He hauled the body two miles from here and threw the corpse into the Miami river. The body was found March 2 in the river at New Albany, Ind.

Knapp has spent two-thirds of his life in prison, but for the five murders to which he confessed he had gone unsuspected until a few unguarded words let drop by him set the law upon him.

For years he had been a stranger, he admitted, pouncing upon innocent children and choking them to death. He was twice in state's prison for fendish assaults upon women.

Insanity was the only defense made by his parents and sisters as well as by attorneys. All of his victims were strangers.

Knapp's first wife was Emma Stubbs, of Fort Wayne. She secured a divorce. Knapp's fourth and surviving wife lives at Indianapolis, where he was arrested last February.

No visitors were allowed to see Knapp Thursday. Three hours after conviction Knapp said: "I suppose it's all off with me."

No Official News in London. London, July 17.—The foreign office here has no information of the reported seizure of some 20 islands off the coast of Borneo by American warships. Not much importance is attached to the report, although an inquiry will be made. It is asserted here that the United States navy department has prepared a chart, showing the American possessions in the far east, which was submitted to the state department and approved by Secretary Hay, but Great Britain has received no official notification on the subject.

Kelley, of Balliol college, Oxford, winner of the Diamond sculls at Henley last week, Thursday won the Wingfield sculls and the amateur sculling championship of England over the Putney to Mortlake course. He easily defeated A. H. Cloutte, the former champion.

Home Duties

The real heroines of every day are in our homes. Frequently, however, it is a mistaken and useless heroism.

Women seem to listen to every call of duty except the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. How much harder the daily tasks become when some derangement of the female organs makes every movement painful and keeps the nervous system unstrung? Irritability takes the place of happiness and amiability; and weakness and suffering takes the place of health and strength. As long as they can drag themselves around, women continue to work and perform their household duties. They have been led to believe that suffering is necessary because they are women. What a mistake!

The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will banish pain and restore happiness. Don't resort to strong stimulants or narcotics when this great strengthening, healing remedy for women is always within reach.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN.

If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. No man will see your letter. She can surely help you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treating female ills as she has had. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

For proof read the symptoms, suffering and cured in the following letters:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express to you the great benefit I have derived from your advice and the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My trouble was female weakness in its worst form and I was in a very bad condition. I could not perform my household duties, my back ached, I was extremely nervous, and I could not eat or sleep, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. My husband spent hundreds of dollars to get me well, and all the medicine that the doctors prescribed failed to do me any good; I resorted to an operation which the physician said was necessary to restore me to health, but I suffered more after it than I did before; I had hemorrhages of the womb that nothing could seem to stop.

"I noticed one of your advertisements and wrote you for advice, I received your reply and carefully followed all instructions. I immediately began to get stronger, and in two weeks was about the house. I took eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and continued following your advice, and to-day I am a well woman. Your remedies and help are a Godsend to suffering women, and I cannot find words to thank you for what you have done for me."—Mrs. LORIE V. NAYLOR, 1328 N. J. Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me.

"I was suffering with falling of the womb and could hardly drag about, but after taking five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was completely cured. I am now a well woman and able to do all my work.

"I think your medicine one of the best remedies in the world."—Mrs. J. M. LEE, 141 Lyndal St., Newcastle, Pa.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done a great deal for me. I suffered so much from falling of the womb and all the troubles connected with it. I doctored for years with doctors' and other remedies but received only temporary relief.

"I began taking your medicine, and had not taken it long before I was feeling better. My husband said that I should keep right on taking it as long as it gave me relief from my suffering, as I could not expect to be cured by one or two bottles. I did so and am now able to be on my feet and work hard all day, and go to bed and rest at night. Thanks to your Vegetable Compound I am certainly grateful for the relief it gave me. It is the mother's great friend. I would not be without it in my house, for when I feel tired or out of sorts I take a few doses and feel all right.

"I would recommend your medicine to all tired mothers, and especially to those suffering as I was."—Mrs. R. F. CHAMBERS, Bennet, Neb.
