

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Yorlen, of the Fargo Merchantile grocery company was here today.

Services were held at the Catholic church today for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo.

Dr. S. W. Smith, Agency physician, left for Minneapolis last Friday, to be absent a week or ten days.

Mrs. George Finley of Miami, I. T., accompanied by her little boy, are visiting her daughter Mrs. N. B. Herr.

Joseph F. Ketten, representative of the Blanding & Norby Co., is putting on water spouts for the large new cistern at Hotel Leecy.

Frank Clark, traveling salesman for the Foley Bros. and Kelly Merchantile Co. of St. Paul, was at this village to-day on business.

Mrs. Emma Nixon, nee Monchamp, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, was an agency caller today. Mrs. Nixon is visiting her mother on this reservation.

Manager D. S. Morrison, of the White Earth team, is trying to arrange for a series of ball games with the Hawley, Staples, Brainerd and St. Cloud teams.

The Indians think they can play ball, but we are afraid that if they reach St. Cloud without meeting defeat they will surely meet their Waterloo there.

J. T. Vanmetre and wife, paid Fargo, N. D., a visit on Friday of last week, returning home on Sunday afternoon. Their niece, Miss Oakes, returned with them for a few weeks' outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Metre and Mrs. Michelet started on Wednesday for Un-way-be-win, on the shores of White Earth Lake, where they will spend several days in their cottages.

DENTISTRY—For first class dentistry, call on Dr. R. H. Phalon. Teeth extracted without pain. Crown and Bridge work a specialty. Office over First State Bank, Detroit, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Desotel, of the Pembina Settlement, visited the Agency to-day to consult with Agent Michelet on business matters connected with the sale of inherited Indian lands.

Miss Julia Roy, daughter of Frank Roy, who is in the government service at the Flandreau, S. D. Indian School, returned home, with several children from that school, last Tuesday to spend her vacation.

Judge Collins, associate justice of the Supreme Court of Minnesota, who, with his three sons, Stewart, Louis and Lorren, spent several days at the cottages at Un-way-be-win on the shores of White Earth Lake, returned to St. Cloud yesterday.

Any one who wishes to buy red raspberries can get all they want by watching for "Tobacco" Jackson to-morrow. Mr. Jackson is doing a flourishing business now a days, for he has a raspberry patch from which he expects to furnish a full supply of the berries to all who may want them on this reservation.

Oscar Davis, who has been living here since he graduated from the Carlisle school this year, and who had occasionally worked in the TOMAHAWK office as a printer since his return from school, left this morning for Lisbon, N. D., where he will join his mother, Mrs. Maggrah, wife of Rev. J. A. Maggrah who lives there. Oscar is a steady, reliable young man and our best wishes for his further success go with him.

There was an unusually large prairie fire on the prairie west of this village to-day, and Joseph Louzon, captain of Indian police, stated that several valuable hay meadows were destroyed. Owing to the scarcity of grass occasioned by the long drought during the last two months, hay meadows are in much demand, and the loss of the grass on the meadows that were destroyed to-day will be felt by the owners.

John Weendigo, a descendant of the famous Weendigo family, which had such an appetite for human flesh during Way-nah-boozho's time, is now languishing in the Agency jail. Mr. Weendigo has not inherited any of the depraved tastes for human flesh that his ancestors had, but his taste for fire-water is as strong as the taste of these ancestors for human flesh. Mr. Weendigo is a prominent and leading Republican politician on this reservation, while this counts for much with Agent Michelet, we are inclined to think that John will have to take his medicine the same as any other Indian who introduces whiskey into the reservation.
