Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto, patriarch of Venice, was elected pontiff by the cardinals at Rome on the seventh ballot, and the title of Pius X. was chosen by him. The new pope is 68 years of age.

Large crowds about St. Peter's cheered the new head of the Roman church on his first appearance in public and the city was illuminated at night.

At ten minutes after 12 Pope Pius X. appeared inside the balcony of the Basilica and blessed the populace, amid the acclamation of the enormous crowd assembled upon the piazza.

The choice was made on the seventh ballot and carries out the oft-repeated prediction that the new pontiff would be of Italian birth.

What is regarded as even more significant than the new pope's nationality is the fact that he is generally believed to have been favored by Leo XIII. for the august office to which he has now been elected.

It was not more than a year before his death that Leo, in conversation with Father Lorenzo Perosi, the Italian composer, referred to Cardinal Sarto, the patriarch of Venice, in now historic terms.

"Hold him very dear, Perosi," said his holiness on that occasion, referring to Sarto, "as in the future he will be able to do much for you. We firmly believe he will be our successor."

Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto was born in 1835 and in his sixty-eighth year is raised to the papacy. He was created Cardinal and Patriarch of Venice by the consistory of June 12, 1893.

His work as a priest lay within Venice, where he had a parish in one of the poorer districts, to the members of which he gave close attention, ministering to their wants and infirmities.

From this ecclesiastical position he became bishop of Venice, rising from that post to the cardinalate. During his career as a priest he attained a considerable reputation as a preacher and an author, and it is said of him that he has never yet failed to accomplish what he set out to do.

Shot Her Husband. Wife of a Wealthy Farmer in West Virginia Uses a Rifle with Deadly Effect.

Matewan, W. Va., Aug. 4.—William Adair, a prosperous farmer and timber dealer, was shot and killed by his wife in front of their home on Pidgeon Creek, in this county. Adair, who had been in Cincinnati disposing of some timber, returned here rather unexpectedly and found his wife away from home.

He went in search of her, and finding her in the home of a neighbor, became jealous and, pulling a revolver from his pocket, fired three shots at her, all of which went wild. Mrs. Adair ran into her house, seized her husband's Winchester and returned to the yard just as he was entering the gate. He attempted to escape by running toward the woods near by, but a bullet from the Winchester in the hands of the infuriated woman laid him low. He fell to the ground, mortally wounded, and died without uttering a word. The woman rode horseback to Williamson, where she surrendered and is now in jail. Mrs. Adair comes from one of the wealthy families of Mingo county. She will enter a plea of self-defense.

GIUSEPPE SARTO IS ELECTED POPE

The Italian Cardinal Is Chosen as Leo's Successor on the Seventh Ballot.

His Selection Is Generally Supposed to Have Been Favored by the Dead Pontiff—New Head of the Church Is Now in His Sixty-Eighth Year—Born in Province of Venice.

Rome, Aug. 4.—Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto, an Italian, has been elected as the successor of Pope Leo XIII. to preside over the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

The new pope has chosen the name of Pius X.

VALUABLE LAND.

Homesteader "Ran In" Half His Claim on an "Innocent" for Good Measure.

Through the hot, dusty roads of Kansas a would-be homesteader was pursuing his way to the Cherokee strip in search of one of Uncle Sam's free homes. He had his family and goods in a shabby wagon, which was drawn by two feeble horses near dissolution, says the Kansas City Journal.

"What you bound?" asked a farmer at whose house he stopped for water.

"For a hundred an' sixty acres of government land in th' strip," responded the traveler, bombastically.

A few months later the same man stopped again at the Kansas farmer's for water, this time traveling north.

"Wather done with yer hundred an' sixty acres?" asked the farmer, with a note of suspicion.

"See them mules thar?" queried the homesteader, pointing to a fine pair of animals which were harnessed to the prairie schooner.

"I traded 80 acres of my claim fer 'em." "Wather do with th' other 80?"

"Don't give it away till I get farther off. Th' feller was an innocent, an' I run th' other 80 acres in on 'im without his knowin' it."

"This," said the young and timid lawyer, "but a rough draft of the will." Then, said the old lawyer, curtly, "it needs filing."—Baltimore American.

Another club woman, Mrs. Hauke, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in my back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. MARY HAUKE, Edgerton, Wis., President Household Economics Club.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Women should remember there is one tried and true remedy for all female ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Refuse to buy any other medicine, you need the best.
