

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WHITE EARTH, MINNESOTA

Day-bway, White Squaw Chief!

Among the many notable persons the members of the Legislative Committee have had the good fortune to meet in Washington was Hon. Jannette Rankin, M. C., the only woman ever elected to Congress. In writing of the incident one of the members of the committee recites: "We were all introduced to Miss Rankin, the Montana Congresswoman, she seemed particularly glad to meet us. She stated that if she had her way in Indian matters, she would abolish the Indian office the first thing, and she means just what she says, as she voted to kill the 185,000 item in the Indian appropriation bill in the House." Gay-gaite, ah-pe-chee day-bway-wug!

Indian Shops Will Be Rebuilt.

An item of $6,500 was inserted in the Indian appropriation bill for rebuilding the machine shop and other building at the Flandreau, S. D., Indian school, which were partially destroyed by fire last summer.

Men Wanted for Aviation Section of the Signal Corps.

Recent reports from France, to the effect that the Germans have the mastery of the air over the American sector, on the western battle front in France have prompted Major John D. Yost, recruiting officer for the Minnesota District, to make a further appeal for men for the Aviation Section of the Signal Corps. Mechanics and men familiar with gas engines are particularly desired, but there are openings in that branch of the service for tradesmen of all kinds. Garage men and chauffeurs, vulcanizers, any and all men who have had experience with gasoline motors are urged by Major Yost to come forward and join the ranks of the Regular Army for the period of the war. For every aviator in active service at the front, 50 men are required for ground work to maintain him as an active fighting individual.

The need for men is most urgent at the present time, and wonderful opportunities are open for men to advance in the Aviation Section. Applicants for enlistment are accepted at any U. S. Army Recruiting Station in the State.

Now is the time to pay that subscription.

QUEER TRAITS OF CRIMINALS.

Sentenced to Prison Terms, They Frequently Mourn for Pets They Are Leaving Behind Them.

The New York central office detective had just sent one of the worst criminals in the city away for a long, long rest.

"Did he give you any trouble?" asked a friend.

"No, he did a good deal of crying though."

"For some woman, I suppose?"

"Woman? Rather not! They never cry for human beings. This fellow had a wife who had stuck by him through the trial and who, before he was caught, worked her fingers off for him. Then there were two children but he never mentioned them. He was crying about his flight, his pig pens, you know. He had about 60 fancy ones, and whenever he thought of what would become of them while he was away tears would spring to his eyes. A lot of the worst crooks and gangsters in the city are fanciers, and a kid couldn't be more sentimental than they are. Sometimes, too, they are sorry for dogs. I knew one who was more anxious about his ferret than anything else. At the same time I never knew a criminal, man or woman, who had a cat among the things they were sorry to leave behind."

Under a new ruling of the national Red Cross, all memberships will hereafter terminate December 31st of each year. As to present memberships expiring in 1918, it is up to each individual member to decide whether he will renew for the balance of the year by paying a dollar or let his membership lapse until the first of 1919. If members can do so without hardship it is urged that they renew for the balance of the year after the expiration of their present membership. Even though not renewing until 1919 these members will be allowed to work.

New members are: Mrs. Cassie King, C. D. Wilkinson, A. Chesney, Mr. Jaskin.

The Growth of Insanity.

Statistics serve to show a steady increase in the number of the insane. The most reliable statistics known to us, these taken in Massachusetts, show that in that state the number of insane in the asylums is increasing from 250 to 300 a year, which is a much larger proportionate increase than that of the sane population. Reports from other states show similar results. Some of the more generally accepted causes of the increase of insanity are given as follows: The over-tension of modern life, brought on by the keen struggle for life; the congestion and excitement of city life, and the fact that insanity is becoming more and more an incurable disease.

Taking Care of the Flowers.

One young woman who loves flowers and keeps them about in profusion says that she devotes one morning weekly to washing out the vases with hot soda water, made very strong. After each vase has stood filled with this cleansing fluid for fifteen minutes she goes to work with bristle brushes, of which she has a collection, and removes the deposit of the flower stems from every nook and corner. Brown soap and water follow this, and, lastly, two rinsings in clear water. And the drying is done with clean glass towels, followed by a polish with a chamolis skin. The process sounds laborious, but the result repays all effort, for each piece looks like new and the flowers last much longer because of the cleanliness inside.

Kindly Polygamist.

The sleepy Lithuanian town of Minsk, Russia, has been harboring a man who has married twenty women. John Pries' twentieth wife had him arrested the other day for "bigamy," but at the trial it developed that he had committed polygamy. With great confidence the accused called some of his wives to testify in his behalf, and each one of them spoke highly of him. In his defense Pries testified: "I know there is some law about a man having only one wife, but, your honor, I know there are many more women than men in Minsk and I could not bear to see so many fine women become old maids." The judge dealt mercifully with him, sentencing him to only three months in prison.

Just "Loved to seeng."

"One of the most persistent sinners we ever had for a cook was a girl from St. Kitts. Agnes was her name. Agnes was a good girl. I should have liked to keep her if only I could have learned to appreciate her musical ability. She had left a sweetheart down in the British possessions. Correspondently her sentimental moonings materialized in love songs.

"How much will it cost," said I to her one day, "to get that young man of yours up to New York? If you'll stop singing I'll advance you enough money to bring him up here."

"Agnes stopped singing then for about two minutes.

"Oh, Mistah Green," she said, "you've'y kin, but I could never stop seengin'." I loves to seeng. If Joseph comes to America we seeng together.

"That settled it. I didn't bring Joseph to New York, and I shipped Agnes back to St. Kitts."
