

Why That Lame Back?

Morning lameness, sharp twinges when bending and an all day back-ache each is cause enough to suspect kidney complaint. If you feel tired all the time and are annoyed by dizzy spells, headaches and irregular kidney action, you have additional proof and should act quickly to prevent more serious kidney trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that is recommended everywhere by grateful users. Ask your neighbor!

A Minnesota Case

Anthony Wood, farmer, Fourth St., Grand Rapids, Minn., says: "My back was lame and to bend over was impossible. A cold weakened my kidneys and the aches and pains passed irregularly. I had to get up often at night. I often had dizzy spells. My friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and after using three boxes, I was sound and well."

News From All Parts of Minnesota Given in Condensed Form.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD

Where Busy Readers Will Find News From All Parts of State Tersely Chronicled for Their Benefit.

St. Paul—J. S. Arneson, commissioner of immigration, returned after visiting at towns in Iowa, where the Minnesota agricultural exhibit has been shown.

St. Paul—The United States Geological Survey's report, issued in Washington, shows that the northernmost point on the United States mainland is in Minnesota.

St. Paul—Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner is attending the fifth annual convention of the American Fisheries society, of which he is president, at Ottawa, Can.

Canby—John Viborg was seriously cut about the head and face when he was thrown through the windshield of a car in which he was riding when it collided with another auto.

Slayton—A contract has been let for the construction of a new steel bridge over the Des Moines river near Currie by the county. The bridge will be 60 feet long and will cost $15,600.

Redwood Falls—Thieves entered the jewelry and drug store of Hesnaults & Keller, Walnut Grove, and escaped with all the watches and rings in the store, except a tray of baby rings.

Jackson—Because the annual county fair was rained out this year, the directors of the agricultural association are making plans for a big corn show and race meet in this city Oct. 6 and 7.

Duluth—The five district court judges sitting en bloc in the Moose Lake $10,000,000 damage case against the Soo railroad, growing out of the forest fires of 1918, will hear more than 200 witnesses.

Duluth—John Edwin Rice, for the past five years managing editor of the Duluth News-Tribune, has been called to Washington to take over business and editorial management of the Washington Herald.

St. Paul—The estate of the late Duchess of Connaught, who died in London March 4, 1917, which included part ownership in the Great Northern and Soo line railroad, has paid an inheritance tax of $485 to Minnesota.

St. Paul—Minnesota dealers were warned by Dr. C. E. Smith, Jr., secretary of the state board of health, to guard against a certain kind of shaving brushes, one of which caused the death by anthrax of a man at Ridgefield, Ill.

Minneapolis—Because J. L. Fox, secretary, could not give a satisfactory account of the alcohol used by the American Sugar Refining company, Jesse G. Steenson, prohibition director, revoked the concern's permit to manufacture flavoring extracts.

St. Cloud—Picking up a shotgun her brother had laid on a bed on returning from a hunting trip, Elizabeth Fischer, 16, living two miles west of Eden Valley, was accidentally killed when the gun went off, a charge of shot piercing her right lung.

St. Paul—In a statement made, A. S. Peck, United States district forester, warned hunters, campers and tourists of the danger of forest fires in Northern Minnesota. According to Mr. Peck, carelessness in guarding camp fires may start a huge forest conflagration.

Willmar—Corn cutting is now going on here at full blast. The stalks are of more than usual value for winter fodder as they have not been touched by frost. All corn in this county is now out of frost danger. Some of the corn already has been husked in the field and the yield is nearly as heavy as last year.

Montevideo—Members of the American Legion in the seventh Minnesota district, comprising 14 counties, will form a permanent organization at a convention in Montevideo, Friday, Oct. 8. The Legion has 68 posts in the district. Officers of the Minnesota department will attend the meeting and State Commander A. H. Vernon will deliver an address.

Duluth—Rewards of $500 for the arrest and conviction of each of the murderers of John Greivisch, Mountain Iron man, murdered May 23, and John L. Jones, Duluthian, murdered on June 5, will be paid out of the state treasury, according to an official communication received from Governor J. A. A. Burnquist. If there is more than one murderer an additional $500 will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the second man in either case, the governor said.

Northome—Falling into a heavy wooden candy pail containing a few inches of water caused the death of the 10 months' old baby of Mr. and Mrs. William Engelking at their farm home near here. The child was left alone but a few minutes, but was dead when found.

Brainerd—Perry Werden of Minneapolis, former home run king until dethroned by Babe Ruth, was in Brainerd preparing for a hunting trip to Moose Lake. The eyes which spotted a pitcher's delivery in the old days are just as keen in getting the range on ducks. It is said.

I SUFFERED THREE YEARS

Finally was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lowell, Mass.—"I was all run down and had an awful pain in my right side, was persistently constipated and had very dizzy spells. I suffered for three years and was perfectly miserable until a friend was telling me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it a wonderful medicine. I can now do twice as much work and I recommend the Vegetable Compound to other women. You can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. T. Bessy, 188 Appleton Street, Lowell, Mass.

Why women will continue to suffer so long is more than we can understand, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound! For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Clinton—A terrific wind and hail storm passed over this section, doing considerable damage.

Albert Lea—John Veld is dead of lockjaw brought on by injuries sustained five weeks ago when cranking a car that backfired.

Fergus Falls—Crushed beneath a tree he felled, Christian Zorn died shortly after help arrived. He had struggled for hours to free himself.

Virginia—Judge Hughes and Federal Examiner R. K. Doe are hearing the applications of sixty would-be citizens at a term of naturalization court.

Hastings—Walter Stone of Denmark, Washington county, was injured in a 30-foot fall from a silo on the farm of Henry Foley. He will recover. Stone is a prominent stock raiser.

Canby—Pouring kerosene on live coals in the kitchen range caused an explosion in the home of James Nugent here, and three members of the family were seriously burned.

St. Paul—The state securities commission has denied a charter to the Citizens State bank of Starbuck, stating that the business done in the vicinity did not warrant an additional bank.

Winona—While picking apples from a tree, August Miller, 45 years old, a farmer living near Alma, Wis., lost his grip and fell to the ground fracturing his skull. He died a few hours later.

Minneapolis—Walter A. Williams, former secretary of the South St. Paul Commercial club, will direct a campaign backed by the South St. Paul live stock interests to eradicate tuberculosis in livestock.

Winona—After being knocked unconscious by a dehorned bull, Ray Tschamper, 20-year-old son of a farmer near here, was saved from further injury by his dog, which kept the animal at bay until assistance arrived.

Red Wing—The Goodhue county grand jury which convenes in October, is expected to conduct an extensive investigation into the alleged automobile ring which was believed to have headquarters at a garage in this city.

St. Paul—Several persons were cut and bruised when a Mahtomedi car crashed into the rear of a Snelling-East Seventh st. car on the Seventh st. hill in St. Paul. Most of the injured were on the Snelling car platform.

Duluth—John B. Richards's election contest against Hans B. Haroldson for district judgeship nomination came to an abrupt end when it was learned that City Clerk Ash had destroyed 15,000 votes cast in Duluth at the June primaries.

Red Wing—One man is dead and six others injured, one probably fatally, as the result of a collision between a freight train and a section motor car on a 30-foot bridge over Hay Creek about 5 miles from here on the Chicago Great Western railroad.

Little Falls—James McCall, Negro, charged with murdering James Clark on a freight train a week ago, attempted suicide in the jail here. The jailer discovered McCall hanging by a belt from the roof of his cell and cut him down. A physician saved his life.

Minneapolis—Practical jokers are blamed for a bomb scare at the city hall, when J. F. Walker, superintendent of police, received a postcard warning that the building would be blown up at 2 p. m. Detectives searched and guarded the building for an hour.

Stillwater—The five steel barges built here a year ago by the Twin City Forge & Foundry company, will be taken from the piers where they have been moored to the east side of Lake St. Croix where they will be anchored until next spring. They will be taken down the Mississippi river at that time.

Minneapolis—To determine whether physicians are writing whisky prescriptions for their friends rather than their patients, five men are now checking the prescription blanks issued in the state of Minnesota, Jesse G. Steenson, state federal prohibition director, said. Few irregularities have been found so far, Mr. Steenson reported.

St. Paul—Violators of the game laws who use automobiles will face the danger of having their machines confiscated, if they are being used while the owners are violating the law, Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner said. He has sent orders to all game wardens to confiscate the automobiles of violators of the law as well as to seize their guns.

Moorhead—O. M. Olson, Clay county agent, reports a short potato crop. The crop is cut at least 35 per cent, and in many cases is cut down to 50 per cent. This condition applies in general to the Red River valley on the Minnesota side and extends practically to the Canadian line. The quality is from fair to good. The decrease in the yield is due to lack of tubers in the hill rather than to the size.

Stillwater—Members of the Old Settlers association of St. Croix county, will give "Uncle" John Daubeny of Taylor's Falls a banquet in this city on Oct. 6, next, at which time Daubeny will be 101 years old. "Uncle" John asserts he has never taken a drink and that he had always voted the democratic ticket since he became of age. "I hope to be able to cast my vote in November for Governor James M. Cox," said Mr. Daubeny a few days ago.

Minneapolis—The horse is "coming back" and dealers report a good year, according to information gathered by the Horse Association of America and transmitted to J. F. Kuehn, of the University farm, secretary of the Minnesota Horse Breeders' association. More draft horses are now being sold for city use than for several years, it is asserted.

Luverne—Otto Selle, an employee of a road gang working near here, has been arrested for having liquor in his possession. He is being held on a $500 bail. Selle had a home brew. It is alleged with a "kick" in it.

A CARD OF GREAT IMPORTANCE!

Today I make the most interesting announcement I have ever made in my career as a theatrical manager.

I believe the information contained in the following statement will be read with intense interest by all who value the best and most artistic in the world of amusement.

I have always faithfully endeavored to bring to my patrons the biggest and the best theatrical attractions of all times, for I know that only the biggest and the best appeal.

Now I am happy and proud to announce that I have contracted with F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, producers of the world-famous "Chu Chin Chow," whereby that brilliant and gorgeous spectacle of ancient Bagdad, the world's most beautiful production, will appear at Metropolitan Theater, Minneapolis, Week of Oct. 4th and the Metropolitan Theater, St. Paul, Week of Oct. 10th.

"Chu Chin Chow" is a gigantic and gorgeous musical extravaganza, in 14 scenes, with 15 musical numbers, produced on a scale of colossal grandeur, employing the services of 300 people. It was originally presented in London at His Majesty's Theater, nearly four years ago by Oscar Asche, in association with the late Sir Herbert Tree, and is still playing there to capacity. The American production of "Chu Chin Chow" was made by Messrs. Comstock and Gest, after the payment of the biggest royalty ever known in the theatrical world, in New York more than two years ago, the scenery and costumes being imported from England and being exact duplicates of the originals.

"Chu Chin Chow" ran one entire season in New York at the Century Theater and then played an entire season in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, and several other big cities.

This great production, once more presented in New York at the Century Theater in August, for a return engagement, and now embellished with many additional scenes and new costumes, comes here direct from its second engagement on Broadway.

Owing to intense interest in the engagement, MAIL ORDERS for this important theatrical event will now be received. Send remittance with self-addressed stamped envelope for return of tickets, and as there will unquestionably be an avalanche of mail orders, please name choice of two performances to insure getting seats.

Prices: Nights and Saturday matinees, $1.00, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00; Wednesday matinee, $1.00, $2.00 and $2.50.

I believe the engagement of "Chu Chin Chow" will be the most notable event ever known at my theaters.

L. N. Scott, Mgr. Metropolitan Theaters, Minneapolis and St. Paul.

SOMETHING JOB NEVER DID ADMITTED HE WAS LOSER

Possibly an Experience Like Mr. Brown's Would Have Shattered His Reputation for Patience.

Convivial Gentleman Preferred to Buy His Wine Rather Than Comply With Wife's Request.

Filled with pride, Mr. and Mrs. Brown started out for a drive in their new motorcar. Mrs. Brown was hoping the neighbors were watching, but her husband was too busy steering to care about anything.

Alack! Before they reached the end of the road the car stopped, and stayed that way with a mule-like persistency. Mr. Brown tried every lever and handle in turn. Then he got down from his seat and began to investigate.

Presently he lay down and crawled underneath the car until only his number nine were left visible. In a few moments the car gave a sudden jolt and then stopped, and a terrible flow of language, more forcible than polite, became audible.

"Oh, John," exclaimed the wife, in horrified tones, "don't swear so! Have patience, like Job did."

"Job," shrieked Mr. Brown, in a stifled voice. "Job would have sworn, too, if he'd been underneath this beastly car with his mustache caught in a cogwheel."

Every boy should learn to write, and as a man he should learn what not to write.

Three men about town had a very good day at the races. Each vowed that he would go home and cheerfully obey the first request that his wife made him. A bottle of wine depended upon the result.

The following night they compared notes.

"My wife told me, as I slipped on the cat's saucer, to break all the china in the house, so I did," said No. 1. "I happened accidentally to sit on the piano," said No. 2, and my wife suggested that I should utterly ruin it, so that instrument will be heard no more."

Then No. 3 spoke. "I went for the top step that was not there and fell full length," he explained, "and my wife remarked that she would be pleased to see me break my neck."

"And—?" queried his companions, breathlessly.

"Oh, I am paying."
