

BEFORE AND AFTER CHILD BIRTH

Mrs. Williams Tells How
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health

Overpeck, O.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me both before and after my baby was born. I suffered with backache, headache, was generally run down and weak. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and decided to try it. Now I feel fine, take care of my two boys and do my own work."

I recommend your medicine to anyone who is ailing. You may publish my testimony if you think it will help others."—Mrs. CARRIE WILLIAMS, Overpeck, Ohio.

For more than forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring women to health who suffered from irregularities, displacements, backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness or "the blues." Today there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman does not reside who has been made well by it. That is why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is now recognized as the standard remedy for such ailments.

Some Men Swear— Others Just Smoke

This is just another fisherman's story. A pipe and tobacco have something to do with it. Somehow when a man's in the worst luck, a few pulls at the little old pipe help to buck up his courage, make him able to grin and yell, "Next!" But the story:

The late William Marion Reedy went tuna fishing off the Pacific Coast. "The tuna are kept in a roundhouse somewhere over near Japan," he wrote, "and one of them is released every so often to make the round trip of the Pacific."

Out in a motor launch with a boatman, he finally hooked one—a sixty-pounder—no, by Jove, an eighty-pounder. The boat had to do a merry-go-round to keep the line from going under the keel. He reeled and unreeling to keep the line from parting. For 1 hour and 11 minutes man and fish fought. Then the tuna seemed tired out; it began to come in, when the boatman stoops for the gaff and the fisherman raises the pole to an approximation of the perpendicular—crack! The line parts like a fiddle-string and one end whips around the pole. The fish sinks like a stone.

"The fisherman looks at the boatman, who looks back one glance, then turns to his levers. Not a word! The fisherman sits down and looks at the sea as if it were not there—as if the tuna had plunged away with the life of him.

Wearily, almost somnambulistically, he reaches for pouch and pipe and fills the latter from the former and strikes a match."

Some men swear—others just smoke. It helps a lot to have the right tobacco at hand in times of hard luck.

That may be Edgeworth. Only you can tell that. Without making any foolish claims that it must be the right tobacco for you, we invite you to try it and judge it. Simply send us your name and address on a postcard. If you will add the name of the dealer to whom you will go for more in case you like Edgeworth, we would appreciate that courtesy on your part.

We will despatch to you samples of Edgeworth in both forms—Plug Slice and Ready-Rubbed.

Edgeworth Plug Slice is formed into flat cakes and then sliced into thin, moist wafers. One slice rubbed for a second between the hands furnishes an average pipeful. Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed is already rubbed for you. Both kinds pack nicely, light quickly, and burn freely and evenly.

You will load up the little old pipe, tilt back your chair, put your feet on the desk or mantelpiece, and—puff, puff, puff—decide for yourself just how good a smoking tobacco Edgeworth is.

Both Edgeworth Plug Slice and Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed are packed in small, pocket-size packages, in handsome tin humidors and glass jars, and also in various handy in-between quantities.

For the free samples which we would like you to judge, address Larus & Brother Company, 41 South 21st Street, Richmond, Va.

The Retail Tobacco Merchants—If your jobber cannot supply you with Edgeworth, Larus & Brother Company will gladly send you prepaid by parcel post a one- or two-ounce carton of any size of Edgeworth Plug Slice or Ready-Rubbed for the same price you would pay the jobber.

Kill All Flies! THEY SPREAD DISEASE. Destroy them. DAILY FLY KILLER attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient and safe. Made of metal. Will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed.

DAILY FLY KILLER

By EXPRESS, prepaid, 15¢ per dozen or $1.50 per gross. Write for details to ROBERT SOMMER, 126 1/2 East Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

No Soap Better —For Your Skin—
Than Cuticura

Soap 25c, Ointment 25c and 50c, Talcum 25c.

POWER TO CUT WAGES 12 PER CENT GRANTED BY RAIL LABOR BOARD

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

Attitude of Union Leaders Not Yet Known—Will Show That Wages Are Not Cause of Railroad Difficulties—Senate Approves of $500,000,000 for Navy by 54 to 17—British-American Alliance Grows Rapidly—Hays Pays $11,000 Damages to Liberator—Railroad Executives Stage Parade Before Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Permission has been granted to the railroads to cut wages 12 per cent by the United States railway labor board. The new rates of pay can go into effect on July 1, at which time the contract for the present national agreement with the railroad workers expires. This agreement includes 104 railroad corporations and most of the important railroad mileage of the country.

Officials of the railroad unions have not yet stated their position and that of their men on this order. Except that they do point out how the present agitation for low wages on railroads is part of a war against labor unions directed from the country's financial center.

Railroad executives had asked a decrease in wages of 25 per cent and hence the reduction to 12 per cent may be regarded as an acceptable compromise by the employees, especially so if they can get other points they are fighting for in the new agreement to be drawn up. Hours and conditions of labor as well as pay are important considerations in railroad work.

Consideration of the cost of living apparently did not have much to do with the government labor board's decision. A decline in a few commodities like sugar has been offset largely by increases in some others, particularly the important item of rent. Railroad labor representatives claim that the cost of living has declined not more than 4 per cent and that during the war and up to 1921 wages dragged behind increases in cost of living.

So much has been said in the last two years to induce people to believe that the chief trouble with railroads was high wages that one good result is bound to come from the wage cut if it is accepted.

While railroad workers will suffer, the public will learn more of the truth about private railway management. The highest estimate of the cost savings through wage reductions is $400,000,000 a year.

The deficit for the past year has been about twice this sum, with record freight and passenger rates. The financiers drain away the resources of the roads for their own benefit and will continue to do so.

We shall all know that wages are not the cause.

SENATE PASSES NAVY BILL

On June 1 the senate passed the $500,000,000 navy budget bill by a vote of 54 to 17. Aware that the sentiment of the country was overwhelmingly against such a huge appropriation a rollcall to show who voted for the bill was not permitted.

"BUSINESS IN GOVERNMENT"

A "meeting of the best financial minds" was called by President Harding on May 24. In addition to Secretary Mellon, Secretary Hoover and the president, J. P. Morgan, Paul Warburg and a half dozen other men "of great influence and power in financial circles" were present.

It appears that such meetings are to be held frequently. They are to be a substitute for the dollar-a-year-man institution under the Wilson regime.

The dollar-a-year men took possession of the government, and the best financial minds are likely to be no less ambitious.

Harding's policy of business in government rather than government in business has the full right of way and can be judged by results.

THE ANGLO-AMERICAN ALLIANCE

Speeches of Colonel Harvey, our ambassador to England, in London and Paris strengthens the impression that a close alliance between America and England is rapidly taking shape. With American aid England can replace France as the dominating factor in Europe.

Matters of big business calculations appear to make such an alliance practically inevitable. New York and London financial powers have been closely connected since the Civil war. Previous to the World war English capitalists had claims to about five billions of securities and other property in this country.

The war wiped out most of these foreign holdings here and left the English a debtor to our financiers by about two billions and to our government by over four billions. The Morgan syndicate did all the buying for England in this country from 1914 to 1918 and this tied us up still more closely with England. The new creditor must help strengthen the debtor's possibilities of paying.

An Anglo-American working agreement can bring about temporary pacification by eliminating France, Italy, Greece and Germany from imperialistic activity. In other words, the alliance will hog the world until the next world war of retribution against its power occurs.

Denial of the normal capitalist privileges to other nations must sweep them rapidly toward Socialist forms of business and government.

DR. ROSA IS DEAD
Dr. Edward Bennet Rosa, chief

physicist of the bureau of standards, died suddenly while seated at his desk on May 17. He was well known as a scientist among the scientists, and he recently made an analysis of government expenditures which is aiding greatly the move against militarism. His figures classifying the government appropriations for 1920 run as follows:

	Amount	Pct.
Past wars	$3,855,482,586	68
Future wars	1,424,138,655	25
Civil departments	181,087,225	3
Public works	169,203,557	3
Education and science	57,093,661	1

Total $5,686,005,706 100

This analysis, popularized by the powerful cartooning of ex-Congressman John M. Baer, has awakened more minds to the menace of militarism than any other one factor or argument.

A JUDGE ON COURTS

Justice Van Sicken of the New York supreme court has no doubt about the duty of courts in America. In granting an injunction against a labor union recently this judge used the following words:

"The court must stand at all times as the representative of capital and of the captains of industry devoted to the principle of individual initiative."

The phrase "captains of industry" indicates the kind of capital the court, in his opinion, should represent. As between a farmer's hogs, which are capital, and Armour's capital stock, the court stands with the latter. As between the dollar in the workingman's pocket and 50 cents' worth of goods which a captain of industry wishes to sell him for that dollar, the court is with the latter.

How the press would ring with denunciation if some "radical" had exposed courts as much as does this class-conscious judge!

DAMAGES PAID TO LIBERATOR

Postmaster Hays has paid the Liberator, a radical monthly magazine in New York, $11,000 as an offset to damages sustained by the paper during the autocratic rule of Burleson. The Liberator was denied second class mailing privileges at times, and occasionally was denied the mails altogether—all of which was decidedly contrary to the first amendment to the federal Constitution.

Two Socialist daily papers, the Milwaukee Leader and the New York Call, have been given the second class mailing privileges again after more than three years of exclusion.

A PARADE OF RAIL MANAGERS

Senator Cummins' report to the president to the effect that cuts in rail rates can not be made until operating costs have become lower except at the price of return to government control, is a remarkable admission.

It admits that government control or ownership would be cheaper. It admits that the country has been paying out millions of dollars more than necessary to avoid the alleged evil of socialistic methods. It admits that government operation would be more efficient, as our war experience proved beyond doubt to reasonable minds.

Return to private operation had two major motives: A gigantic stock speculation opportunity for the financiers and a quick backswing from the "socialism" found so effective during the war before the people became wise.

For more than two weeks the investigating committee of which Cummins is chairman has staged a parade of railroad executives before itself. Each executive speaks about the same piece and departs. "Rates can't be lowered. Government ownership is a terrible thing. Wages must go away, way down."

No other interests have been heard so far and thus a vast amount of propaganda has gotten out before the others can state their viewpoints.

COOLIDGE ON A "RED" HUNT

Vice President Coolidge has broken into print with an article in the June number of the Delineator entitled, "Enemies of the Republic." The sub-title is: "Are the 'Reds' Stalking Our College Women?"

He reviews the different colleges for women to learn the correct answer to this "terrible" question. Smith, Mount Holyoke, Bryn Mawr are found to be fairly sane. Barnard college in New York and Wisconsin university he finds doubtful. And Radcliffe in Boston he finds deserving of its reputation as a "hotbed of bolshevism."

His evidence on this last point is interesting. The students' newspaper at Radcliffe college condemned the expulsion of elected Socialists from the New York assembly. Again this paper once expressed the hope that colleges would find through the war "a means of active service to the principles of democracy and internationalism."

Such evidence may not reflect on the vice president's good intentions, but it certainly doesn't advertise his intelligence.

LIVE STOCK

PLAN TO ERADICATE CHOLERA

Swine Breeders of Indiana County Working to Stamp Out All Traces of Disease.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

A county free from hog cholera this year is the goal to which swine breeders in Steuben county, Ind., are working under the guidance of the local county agent and the district veterinarian of the United States Department of Agriculture. As a result of a persistent campaign for the control of cholera and strict organized effort to eradicate it, there has been a remarkable decrease in the disease in the county during the last two years. In 1917 the loss from cholera in the county, according to the county agent, was about $10,000. In 1918 it was a little less than $5,000, and in 1919 it was about the same. In 1920, however, only three cases occurred in the county, which leads the swine breeders to believe that if their efforts to control the disease are continued cholera can be practically eradicated.

County Agent Inoculating Pigs With Hog Cholera Serum.

CLUB MEMBERS SECURE PIGS

Registered Animals Given to Boys and Girls in Mississippi—Scholarship at End.

A public-spirited man in Fayette county, Mississippi, gave six registered pigs to the boys' and girls' pig-club work last year, with the understanding that each one who received a pig was to give back to the club one pig from the first litter and one from the second. The donated animals were drawn for by members from each beat and one from the county at large. The recipients were very proud of their pigs. The six from the first litters were distributed in December. If the plan is continued for five years it is estimated that 204 registered pigs will be given away at the close of that time, and it is hoped that purebred hogs will be found on every farm in the county. If these plans mature as is hoped, the 204 which will be available for gifts at the end of the five years will be put up at auction and the proceeds used for a scholarship to the State Agricultural and Mechanical college, which will be awarded yearly to the winner of the county pig-club championship.

ALFALFA AS HORSE ROUGHAGE

Plant is High in Protein and Minerals and is Especially Good for Young Stock.

Alfalfa receives great favor as a horse roughage. It is high in minerals and protein and is especially good for young stock. Because it is laxative in effect and high in protein, it is always best to limit the amount of alfalfa to one-half or two-thirds of the total hay ration. The rest may be timothy hay. Use alfalfa with a ration that is low in protein. Corn as a grain and alfalfa as a roughage make a balanced ration.

BEST LIVE STOCK CHEAPEST

Opinion of Virginia Farmer Who Thinks Breeders Are Aiming to Procure Purebreds.

"From 30 years' experience in breeding thoroughbred horses and later dairy cattle, I have found that the best is the cheapest." This is the opinion of a Virginia farmer in a statement to the United States Department of Agriculture. "I think all raisers of live stock in Virginia are aiming to procure purebred sires."

Good Mixture for Hogs.

It is good policy, where possible, to keep charcoal, wood ashes, slaked lime and salt in a sheltered trough where hogs can have access to same at will.

Silage for Horses.

Silage should not be considered as a mainstay for horses, as its use is preferable only in limited amounts as a small supplement to the regular ration.

Important in Sow's Ration.

High content of protein and mineral matter is required in the sow's ration, because her milk is high in these materials which form the bone and muscle of the young pigs.

No Tides in the Great Lakes. There are no recognized tides in the Great Lakes similar to what occur in the oceans, for the reason that those bodies of water are too small and irregular. Occasionally, however, tidal waves occur in one or more of the lakes, due to atmospheric conditions, such as great differences in atmospheric pressure and the prevalence of gales.

Important to Mothers
Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch.

In Use for Over 30 Years. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria

He Got It. "If Crabbe ever comes around your place to borrow anything don't you let him have it."

"You've spoken too late. He was around yesterday."

"You chump! What did he borrow?"

"Trouble. He's in the hospital now."

—Boston Transcript.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

Take Aspirin only as told in each package of genuine Bayer Tablets of Aspirin. Then you will be following the directions and dosage worked out by physicians during 21 years, and proved safe by millions. Take no chances with substitutes. If you see the Bayer Cross on tablets, you can take them without fear for Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Earache, Toothache, Lumbago and for Pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve tablets cost few cents. Druggists also sell larger packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.—Adv.

MORE THAN HE COULD STAND

Mr. Cityman Changed His Mind When Business Partner Began to Brawl About His Garden.

What He Said to His Wife—If you want a garden this year you had better hire somebody to make it. I'm not going to try it again. I've figured it out; and if I would spend on my business the time I put in on that garden I would make enough money to keep us in vegetables for fifty years. I am off it for life.

What He Said to His Neighbor—I don't think I'll bother with a garden this year. It doesn't pay; I may do a little; but the digging and the labor—I'm off that for life.

What He Said to His Partner—Well, how's the garden coming along? I'm not doing much with mine this year. What? How high did you say? Already? What seed did you use?

What He Said to His Wife When He Got Home an Hour Early That Day—Call me when dinner's ready. I've got to get the garden started today or I'll never raise a thing.—Life.

But This Isn't London. "Here you are, gentlemen, the greatest invention of the age!" bawled the street peddler.

"What is it?" inquired an onlooker. "A magnetized keyhole plate for front doors. It will attract an ordinary steel key from a distance of two feet. All you have to do to find the keyhole is to take out your key and hang on to it."

Three men were injured in the crowd that rushed to buy.—Tit-Bits.

Resigned the Vice Presidency. The only vice president to resign was John C. Calhoun, who gave up the vice presidency to become a United States senator.

Andrew Carnegie told a good story at the expense of Matthew Arnold in his "Autobiography." It seems that the English critic was not successful in his lectures in the United States, but he was anxious to learn, and he asked how Josh Billings held his audience. The American humorist replied: "Well, you mustn't keep them laughing too long, or they will think you are laughing at them. After giving the audience amusement you must become earnest and play the serious role. For instance, 'There are two things in this life for which no man is ever prepared. Who will tell me what these are?' Finally some one cries out, 'Death.' 'Well, who gives me the other?' Many respond—wealth, happiness, strength, marriage, taxes. At last Josh begins solemnly: 'None of you has given the second. There are two things on earth for which no man is ever prepared, and them's twins,' and the house shakes." Mr. Arnold did also.

Even Stolid Englishman Saw the Humor in One of Josh Billings' Famous Jokes.

Two THINGS NOT LOOKED FOR

Even Stolid Englishman Saw the Humor in One of Josh Billings' Famous Jokes.

Andrew Carnegie told a good story at the expense of Matthew Arnold in his "Autobiography." It seems that the English critic was not successful in his lectures in the United States, but he was anxious to learn, and he asked how Josh Billings held his audience. The American humorist replied: "Well, you mustn't keep them laughing too long, or they will think you are laughing at them. After giving the audience amusement you must become earnest and play the serious role. For instance, 'There are two things in this life for which no man is ever prepared. Who will tell me what these are?' Finally some one cries out, 'Death.' 'Well, who gives me the other?' Many respond—wealth, happiness, strength, marriage, taxes. At last Josh begins solemnly: 'None of you has given the second. There are two things on earth for which no man is ever prepared, and them's twins,' and the house shakes." Mr. Arnold did also.

Resigned the Vice Presidency. The only vice president to resign was John C. Calhoun, who gave up the vice presidency to become a United States senator.

Andrew Carnegie told a good story at the expense of Matthew Arnold in his "Autobiography." It seems that the English critic was not successful in his lectures in the United States, but he was anxious to learn, and he asked how Josh Billings held his audience. The American humorist replied: "Well, you mustn't keep them laughing too long, or they will think you are laughing at them. After giving the audience amusement you must become earnest and play the serious role. For instance, 'There are two things in this life for which no man is ever prepared. Who will tell me what these are?' Finally some one cries out, 'Death.' 'Well, who gives me the other?' Many respond—wealth, happiness, strength, marriage, taxes. At last Josh begins solemnly: 'None of you has given the second. There are two things on earth for which no man is ever prepared, and them's twins,' and the house shakes." Mr. Arnold did also.

Resigned the Vice Presidency. The only vice president to resign was John C. Calhoun, who gave up the vice presidency to become a United States senator.

Andrew Carnegie told a good story at the expense of Matthew Arnold in his "Autobiography." It seems that the English critic was not successful in his lectures in the United States, but he was anxious to learn, and he asked how Josh Billings held his audience. The American humorist replied: "Well, you mustn't keep them laughing too long, or they will think you are laughing at them. After giving the audience amusement you must become earnest and play the serious role. For instance, 'There are two things in this life for which no man is ever prepared. Who will tell me what these are?' Finally some one cries out, 'Death.' 'Well, who gives me the other?' Many respond—wealth, happiness, strength, marriage, taxes. At last Josh begins solemnly: 'None of you has given the second. There are two things on earth for which no man is ever prepared, and them's twins,' and the house shakes." Mr. Arnold did also.

Resigned the Vice Presidency. The only vice president to resign was John C. Calhoun, who gave up the vice presidency to become a United States senator.

Andrew Carnegie told a good story at the expense of Matthew Arnold in his "Autobiography." It seems that the English critic was not successful in his lectures in the United States, but he was anxious to learn, and he asked how Josh Billings held his audience. The American humorist replied: "Well, you mustn't keep them laughing too long, or they will think you are laughing at them. After giving the audience amusement you must become earnest and play the serious role. For instance, 'There are two things in this life for which no man is ever prepared. Who will tell me what these are?' Finally some one cries out, 'Death.' 'Well, who gives me the other?' Many respond—wealth, happiness, strength, marriage, taxes. At last Josh begins solemnly: 'None of you has given the second. There are two things on earth for which no man is ever prepared, and them's twins,' and the house shakes." Mr. Arnold did also.

Resigned the Vice Presidency. The only vice president to resign was John C. Calhoun, who gave up the vice presidency to become a United States senator.

Andrew Carnegie told a good story at the expense of Matthew Arnold in his "Autobiography." It seems that the English critic was not successful in his lectures in the United States, but he was anxious to learn, and he asked how Josh Billings held his audience. The American humorist replied: "Well, you mustn't keep them laughing too long, or they will think you are laughing at them. After giving the audience amusement you must become earnest and play the serious role. For instance, 'There are two things in this life for which no man is ever prepared. Who will tell me what these are?' Finally some one cries out, 'Death.' 'Well, who gives me the other?' Many respond—wealth, happiness, strength, marriage, taxes. At last Josh begins solemnly: 'None of you has given the second. There are two things on earth for which no man is ever prepared, and them's twins,' and the house shakes." Mr. Arnold did also.

Resigned the Vice Presidency. The only vice president to resign was John C. Calhoun, who gave up the vice presidency to become a United States senator.

Andrew Carnegie told a good story at the expense of Matthew Arnold in his "Autobiography." It seems that the English critic was not successful in his lectures in the United States, but he was anxious to learn, and he asked how Josh Billings held his audience. The American humorist replied: "Well, you mustn't keep them laughing too long, or they will think you are laughing at them. After giving the audience amusement you must become earnest and play the serious role. For instance, 'There are two things in this life for which no man is ever prepared. Who will tell me what these are?' Finally some one cries out, 'Death.' 'Well, who gives me the other?' Many respond—wealth, happiness, strength, marriage, taxes. At last Josh begins solemnly: 'None of you has given the second. There are two things on earth for which no man is ever prepared, and them's twins,' and the house shakes." Mr. Arnold did also.

Resigned the Vice Presidency. The only vice president to resign was John C. Calhoun, who gave up the vice presidency to become a United States senator.

As One Raised From Dead

STOMACH PAINS GONE

Eatonio Made Him Well

"After suffering ten long months with stomach pains, I have taken Eatonio and am now without any pain whatever. Am as one raised from the dead," writes A. Percifield.

Thousands of stomach sufferers report wonderful relief. Their trouble is too much acidity and gas which Eatonio quickly takes up and carries out, restoring the stomach to a healthy, active condition. Always carry a few Eatonios, take one after eating, food will digest well—you will feel fine. Big box costs only a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

Liver Trouble?

For relief go to

Mudbaden
BEST FOR RHEUMATISM

For rates, etc., write
Mudbaden Sulphur Springs Co., Jordan, Minn.

Possibly. An expert announces that there are ten causes of crime. Wonder if belief in the old adage that "the good die young" is one of them.

A Feeling of Security

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.

Such a medicine is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy. The same standard of purity, strength and excellence is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.

It is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs.

It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses.

It is not recommended for everything. It is nature's great helper in relieving and overcoming kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

A sworn statement of purity is with every bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

If you need a medicine, you should have the best. On sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to try this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

TWO THINGS NOT LOOKED FOR

Even Stolid Englishman Saw the Humor in