

WOULD GO FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE

Tennessee Farmer Wants to Go From House to House and Tell Everybody About Tanlac.

"If I were not so busy with my farm work I would go from house to house and tell the people about Tanlac," said A. J. Livingston, a well-known farmer, living near Ashland City, Tenn.

"I had stomach and kidney trouble and suffered torment with my back and side. The doctors could do nothing for me, so I wrote to a friend of mine in Nashville about Tanlac, and he advised me to try it, saying he had heard so many favorable reports about it and sent me a bottle.

"After taking the first bottle I felt so much better that I ordered another bottle myself and the result is I am a well man. I told a friend of mine about it and ordered a bottle for him and he had good results. I can eat anything I want and it don't hurt me, and can sleep like a log. To tell you the truth, I just simply feel like a new man and have more strength and energy than I have had in years. It is simply the grandest medicine in the world. I would like to see all of my friends and get those who are suffering to try it, and I hope you will reach them through this testimonial, which I have gladly given."

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, which accomplished such remarkable results in this man's case, is a wonderful tonic, appetizer and invigorant. It builds up the system, creates a healthy appetite, promotes digestion and assimilation of the food and makes you feel strong, sturdy and well as nature intended.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.

Resignation is a virtue to cultivate.

Duluth—Fred B. Ferguson, a bank teller, was killed and F. F. Leach, his cousin, was seriously bruised and burned when an automobile in which they were riding overturned here, after skidding and striking a curb.

St. Paul—About 30 employees of the automobile license department, under Secretary of State Mike Holm, have been laid off. This was made possible by the letting up of the rush of applications for automobile licenses.

Hastings—Gertrude Gerlach, Red Wing, was drowned at St. Mary's point, Lake St. Croix, while learning to swim. Her body was recovered two hours later by a boy with a casting rod and a spoon hook, while others were diving for it.

Duluth—William O'Brien, a contracting foreman, was blown to pieces when 40 pounds of dynamite which he carried in a box exploded. A spark from the pipe the dead man was smoking, is believed to have caused the explosion.

St. Cloud—The suit of J. M. Arrowwood, former banker of Kimball, who sought $200,000 damages against F. E. Pearson, A. H. Turritin, O. J. Brandvoed and Andrew P. Rotert, all present or former state banking officials, and several other defendants, was dismissed by Judge John A. Roeser on motion of the defense.

St. Paul—Minnesota Thursday night ended the fiscal year with the largest cash reserve in the state treasury that there has been in the history of the state, M. J. Desmond, deputy state auditor, announced. Books will be balanced in the office of Henry Rines, state treasurer, to show the financial standing at the close of the fiscal year.

Faribault—Bothered by a guilty conscience for five years, a man who stole groceries from a store here has sent the proprietor of the store a money order covering the cost of the purloined articles. Writing to the store owners after he had moved from Faribault, the man inclosed an itemized list of the things stolen and asked that a bill be sent him.

St. Paul—Beginning July 1, commission men and dealers handling any cold storage products will be required to display placards announcing that the store in which the placards are displayed deals in cold storage products. These placards are being distributed through the state department of agriculture. The 1921 Legislature authorized the commissioner of agriculture to require the release or immediate sale of food stuffs held in storage when conditions warrant it.

Winona—More than 300 physicians and surgeons and their wives attended the banquet which was the principal feature of the opening day's program of an annual midsummer session of the Southern Minnesota Medical association in this city.

St. Paul—Minnesota's fiscal year began Friday, and all appropriations made by the recent legislature, totaling about $18,000,000, are now available. A new feature in appropriations this year is an allowance of $200 a month for the governor to be spent "without audit." This is to cover the expense of employing special investigators.

Minneapolis—Pearl Garret, aged 4, is in a serious condition in General hospital from burns suffered when matches with which she was playing in the yard of her home ignited her clothing.

Minneapolis—Minnesota Committee for the Relief of German Children reported that more than 1,000,000 German children were fed last week in the 20,271 kitchens maintained by the committee.

Pipestone—Rains and cooler weather have been of great benefit to the crops in this section of the state. All small grains and corn and potatoes are in good shape, while corn never was so far advanced as now.

Luverne—A near cloudburst, accompanied by high winds and hail, swept over the northern and western portions of Rock county this evening. It is estimated considerable damage was done to growing crops by the wind, rain and hail.

Rochester—While swimming in the Zumbro river here with several companions, William Twiete, a young farmer, suffered an attack of heart disease. His body was found in three feet of water, after a search by his companions.

St. Paul—F. A. Wildes, state superintendent of mines, who has been in charge of the state department at Hibbing for 15 years, will be moved to St. Paul and will have his office in the State Capitol, Ray P. Chase, state auditor, announced.

Duluth—One thousand lawyers from all parts of Minnesota are expected to gather here July 26 for the annual three day session of the Minnesota State Bar association. Men of state and national fame are scheduled for addresses during the business sessions.

St. Paul—About twenty men, employees of the state department of agriculture and the Federal government have started a campaign for eradication of barberry bushes in the state. The campaign will extend through the wheat-growing section of Minnesota. Competent men will identify the plants and assist farmers in their destruction.

Duluth—On the present basis of receipts from the East and Ontario shipments, coal dock operators at Duluth and Superior estimate that the docks will be filled by August 1, unless there is a marked increase in shipments inland to dealers. Should the docks become filled to capacity dock operators say a complete embargo against any movement this way would be instituted.

Minneapolis—With prohibition's second anniversary ushering in a new federal enforcement administration and falling on the eve of a new Minneapolis police administration, officials were concerned over reports from municipal court, the clearing house for most offenders, showing that drunkenness is taking a marked upward turn. It is still short of the pre-prohibition indulgence but it is more than twice as prevalent as it was the first year of prohibition.

Minneapolis—Preparations were made to file contest proceedings in behalf of Thomas Van Lear, seeking to nullify the election of George E. Leach as mayor of Minneapolis by 13,907 majority. Grounds for the contest will be the speeches by Mr. Leach, in which he quoted the charge by J. P. Konkell, former mayor of Superior, that Mr. Van Lear on one occasion referred to the American flag as a "dirty rag" while speaking at Billings park, Superior. Mr. Van Lear denies having made such a remark, and the petitioner in the contest will contend that Mr. Leach is disqualified from serving as mayor under the corrupt practices act of Minnesota.

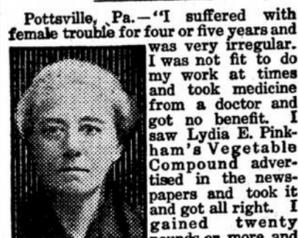

St. Paul—In a ruling handed down by C. H. Christopherson, Assistant Attorney General, relative to the application of the commission merchant's license law to dealer's handling general farm produce outside of hay, grain, straw and livestock, Mr. Christopherson took the position that the generally understood definition of the term "commission merchant" was broadened out by the legislature for the express purpose of doing away with frauds that have been perpetrated in the past upon shippers by irresponsible dealers masquerading as wholesalers or as retailers. The law as written and as affirmed by Mr. Christopherson's opinion makes all dealers in farm produce, in cities of the first class, other than those who buy direct of the farmer and settle with him in such fashion that the transaction is completed at the time the goods are delivered, "commission merchants" in the sight of the law. Such dealers, in cities of the first class, whether their general business is wholesale or retail, are required by the law to take out a commission merchant's license and to make out a bond to the state in an amount sufficient to protect shippers against loss.

Ellsworth—While bathing in the Kanranansi river near here, Sydney Barnes, aged 40, was drowned. After making a dive, Barnes failed to come up and his body was found at the bottom of the stream. An injury on his head showed that he had struck a rock when diving.

Crookston—Arthur Pearson, charged with the death of a new born baby, was convicted of manslaughter, in the second degree by a jury in Polk county district court here after five hours deliberation. Pearson is still out on bond but it is expected he will be sentenced late this week.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Siefert Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pottsville, Pa.—"I suffered with female trouble for four or five years and was very irregular. I was not fit to my work at times and took medicine from a doctor and got no benefit. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and took it and got all right. I gained twenty pounds or more and am now able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. SALLIE SIEFERT, 313 W. Fourth Street, Pottsville, Pa.

The everyday life of many housewives is a continual struggle with weakness and pain. There is nothing more wearing than the ceaseless round of household duties and they become doubly hard when some female trouble makes every bone and muscle ache, and nerves all on edge.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Siefert did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Who Were Mark Twain's Corncob Starters?

Mark Twain's favorite pipe was a corncob. Perhaps you've never heard how his new corncobs were broken in.

He said: "I get a cheap man—a man who doesn't amount to much anyhow, who would be as well, or better, dead—and pay him a dollar to break in the pipe for me. I get him to smoke the pipe for a couple of weeks, then put in a new stem, and continue operations as long as the pipe holds together."

We wonder how many, if any, of Mark Twain's corncob starters are alive today.

If there ever were any, we don't believe that a great enough number survive to overwork our mail-desk.

We're going to send samples of Edgeworth Tobacco to any who send us their names and addresses. We're not going to ask them to produce the stems as proof.

We put writers on their honor. In fact, we're inclined to send samples to all who write to us that they knew the grand old American humorist and smoker. He knew a lot of people, but we guess we can risk sending out a little more Edgeworth. It seems to make regular Edgeworth smokers in a big majority of cases.

We promise not to publish their letters, no matter how well they speak of Edgeworth in both forms—Plug Slice and Ready-Rubbed.

In any case, we'll send you samples, whether you have a good story to tell us or not.

Edgeworth Plug Slice is shaped into flat, oblong cakes. Through these cakes keen knives are run that cut them into thin slices. In its box it appears a solid cake, but each slice separates easily from the cake and when rubbed between the hands furnishes an average pipeloc.

Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed is exactly the same as Plug Slice, except that it is rubbed up before packing.

Both kinds pack so well that they light quickly and burn evenly to the bottom of your pipe.

Edgeworth is sold in various sizes to suit the needs and means of all purchasers. Both Edgeworth Plug Slice and Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed are packed in small, pocket-size packages, in handsome tin humidors, and glass jars, and also in various handy in-between quantities.

We will send you samples of both kinds, postpaid.

Address Larus & Brother Company, 41 South 21st Street, Richmond, Va. To Retail Tobacco Merchants—If your jobber cannot supply you with Edgeworth, Larus & Brother Company will gladly send you prepaid by parcel post a one- or two-dozen carton of any size of Edgeworth Plug Slice or Ready-Rubbed for the same price you would pay the jobber.
