The St. Paul Weekly Dispatch,

AND THE

New Ulm Weekly Review.

ONE YEAR FOR $2.10

We have made arrangements with the St. Paul Weekly Dispatch, the only Republican journal at the capital, and a live, vigorous and independent newspaper, whereby we are enabled to furnish both it and the Review, at the low rate of $2.10 a year postage prepaid. Cash invariably required in advance. Specimens of the Dispatch may be seen at the office. The Daily Dispatch and the Review will be furnished for $7.50.

Under the present arrangements of mails, the Daily which is published at 3 o'clock p. m., arrives here the same night and is distributed early the next morning.

All quiet on the Rio Grande.

Victor Emanuel, King of Italy, died last Wednesday, after a short illness. Prince Humbert, Victor Emanuel's eldest son, has been proclaimed King of Italy.

The Republicans of New Hampshire, in convention assembled, passed very strong resolutions endorsing the administration of President Hayes, last Wednesday.

The steamer Atacama went to pieces on the rock known as Guelera Alas., a short distance from Caldera, on the Chilean coast, on the night of Dec. 20th, and 101 persons were lost.

A new daily morning paper, called the DAILY GLOBE, edited and owned by H. P. Hall, made its debut in St. Paul yesterday. It is Democratic in politics, and judging from the prospectus, published in the Dispatch, it will be "red-hot."

The official canvass, made by the Legislature last Friday, of the votes cast at the November election, figures out the following pluralities for State officers: Governor Pillsbury, 17,991; Lieut. Governor Wakefield, 18,101; Secretary Irgens, 18,054; Treasurer Pfander, 20,930; Attorney General Wilson, 19,274; Railroad Commissioner Marshall, 24,137.

The message of Governor Pillsbury delivered to the Legislature last Friday and which we send out with this issue in supplement form, will be well worth a perusal, for it is something more than an executive message; it is partly an address to the people on topics which do not usually find place in documents of this kind. Read it and follow the Governor's advice.

From the Waseca RADICAL we learn that Mrs. S. J. Stevenson, wife of the late deputy sheriff of Waseca county, was found frozen to death in that village Sunday morning, Jan. 6th., only a few rods from her own house. When found she had an empty whisky bottle in one hand, and a cork in the other, and as she was addicted to the use of liquor, it is supposed that she came to her death while in a drunken condition.

Minnesota Legislature.

TWENTIETH SESSION.

The twentieth legislature of the State of Minnesota assembled at St. Paul, Tuesday, January 8th, at 12 m., and organized by the election of the following officers:

SENATE.
Chas. Johnson, Secretary.
Ed. H. Folsom, Asst. Sec.
C. R. McKenney, Enrolling Clerk.
M. Anderson, Sergeant-at-arms.
A. Langhous, Asst. "

HOUSE.
Speaker - Hon. C. A. Gilman.
Chief Clerk - M. D. Flower.
First Asst. Clerk - Robert Deakin.
Second " - J. B. Hopkins.
Ingrossing Clerk - J. G. McGrew.
Enrolling Clerk - G. E. McKibben.
Asst. Enrolling Clerk, H. B. Cory.
Sergeant-at-arms - A. Slotten.
Asst. " - L. H. Dayton.
Chaplain - Rev. Chauncey Hobart.

After the organization of both houses the legislature adjourned until Wed. at 10. a. m.

Second day - Senate - Mr. Donnelly introduced a resolution in favor of the Bland Silver bill, which was made the special order of Tuesday. Mr. Doran offered a concurrent resolution, which was also made the special order of Tuesday, requesting the repeal of the specie resumption act.

On the 3d. day of the legislative session but little was done besides canvassing the votes cast at the November election for State officers and constitutional amendments. The vote on the constitutional amendments was decided to have been lawfully cast and those having received a majority were duly declared adopted.

4th day - Senate - On motion of Senator Linou, a resolution was adopted, providing for a special committee of two Senators and three Representatives on Paris exposition. A bill was introduced by Senator Rice, on abatement of tax penalties to grasshopper sufferers. In the House, no business worthy of mention came up, and at 11 a. m. the two houses met in joint convention and proceeded in a body down Wabashaw street to the Opera House to attend the inauguration of the Governor, and receive his message. Both houses then adjourned until Tuesday the 15th. at 2.30 p. m.

We are informed that part of the books ordered by the Superintendent, from the State, have been forwarded and can be had from the County Auditor on application. Some of the books are not yet ready for delivery, but will be sent up next week.

The war in Europe seems to be virtually over, and no more heavy fighting may be expected unless it will be in a last desperate effort to keep the Russians out of Constantinople. During the last ten days the Turks have lost heavily. At Schipka Pass the Russians captured 28,000 men, 1,000 horses, 12 mortars, 12 siege guns and 80 field guns. At Nisch the Servians captured 8,000 men, 90 cannon and 12,000 rifles, and on the 10th Antivari surrendered unconditionally to the Montenegrins. At this ratio the Turks cannot hold out much longer, and seeing this, they have applied to Russia direct for an armistice, which no doubt will be granted.

STILL THEY COME!

Window Reporter:
Vol. 1 No. 1, of the New Ulm REVIEW, a neatly printed paper just established at New Ulm, by Maj. Bobleter, is on our table. New Ulm has long needed a good English newspaper, and we believe that the Maj. will fill the bill. We hasten to put the REVIEW upon our exchange list. It looks and reads well.

Read's Landing Press:
We have received No. 1 of the New Ulm Review, which has evidently been commenced in reliance that better times are coming for that city and county, and for the State generally. Maj. Bobleter, its editor, receives strong support from the business men, and under such encouragement we have no doubt he will give them valuable aid in hastening the "good time coming."

THE WORLD'S POPULATION.

Figures from All Countries and Climes, With Comparisons.

According to recent careful computations, says the Scientific American, the population of the world is 1,423,917,000, or 28 persons for every square mile. The following table shows the population of the great divisions of the earth:

Europe	209,178,300	Australia	4,748,600
Asia	824,548,509	America	85,510,290
Africa	199,921,500

The combined populations of 1876 exceed those of 1875 about 27,000,000. The inhabitants of different States of Europe are divided as follows:

Germany	42,723,000	France	36,102,921
Austria-Hungary	37,700,000	Great Britain	35,450,000
Switzerland	2,699,147	Spain	16,551,649
Holland	3,569,527	Portugal	4,298,881
Belgium	5,536,634	Italy	27,524,174
Luxemburg	265,153	Turkey in Europe	5,000,000
Russia	71,730,980	Roumania	5,073,000
Sweden	4,381,291	Serbia	1,376,078
Norway	1,802,882	Montenegro	100,000
Denmark	1,903,000	Greece	1,467,594

The population of Turkey in Europe, Asia and Africa reaches 47,600,000 souls of whom 29,500,000 are divided between Egypt, Tripoli and Tunis, Asia having 18,000,000. The population of the Russian empire is estimated at 85,586,000 or 900,000 over the population of 1875. The population of the British Indies numbers 289,000,000, that of China 405,000,000 and of Japan 31,299,015. London has 3,489,428 souls, Paris 1,851,792, New York and Brooklyn 1,535,622, and Berlin 1,045,000.

THE MULE OF SUMTER.

A wonderful race for life under the fire of thirty guns.

When Dahlgren's iron-clads began operations in Charleston Harbor the Tenth Army Corps made a sudden dash and drove in the thin lines of pickets which the rebels had posted on the eastern end of Morris Island. When daylight came every gun which Beauregard could bring to bear upon the new work began to rain shot and shell, and from daylight till noon there were lively times in and about Charleston Bay. Shortly after noon Fort Sumpter opened furiously, and it was feared that an attempt was about to be made by the enemy to advance. There were enough men there, it was thought, to hold it, but there was a deficiency of ammunition, and so a mule-drivers volunteered to deliver the ammunition. The only road was the smooth and sandy beach along the bay, and the distance between the two points is about a mile and a half. Half that distance was in easy range of Fort Sumpter, and Battery Wagner's guns covered all the way to the sand hills, behind which was the Federal camp.

I am describing the incident as it appeared from the shipping in the bay, and what called attention to it was the sudden waking up of every gun on the southeast angle of Sumpter. Looking to see the cause of the furious cannonading, every body was surprised to see a mule team tearing up the beach in the direction of the new work. The driver was laying the lash on, and that mule had its ears laid straight back and was making its legs go. Occasionally a shell would touch the beach bound up and explode, and the mule would then hesitate and try to turn back, but the driver would lay the cowhide on with renewed vigor; then the mule put on another spurt, until at last it became entirely demoralized by the explosion of a ten-inch shell almost under its belly. Every glass in the squadron was leveled at the spectacle. The driver got off his seat, took the animal by the head, whirled it around once or twice and started it up the beach once more. Fort Sumpter flashed and rained, Battery Wagner belched and thundered, and still that daring driver urged his mule along, though the way was swept by at least thirty guns.

At last he reached his destination, but he could not stop there, and in a moment he was turned around and exerting that animal to its level best. The mule did not need to be told to step out, for in its rear there was roar and ruck, and about its ears were flying sand and scorpion, which seemed to stimulate its fleetness. Down that hard beach flew the mule, the light cart bobbing and swaying and the driver's arm rising and falling as he dealt out lash after lash. At last they neared the friendly shelter of the sand hills. In another minute they will be safe, but just as they near the place to turn aside a shell came screaming from Sumter. Every body could see the huge mass of iron as it roared through the air. It struck the beach in the rear of the mule and with a bound it overtook it and exploded with terrific violence. A general exclamation is heard from Dahlgren's flag-ship, where the admiral and his staff are earnestly gazing at the adventurous mule and his daring driver. Fort Sumter's ramparts are black with men, they, too, willing witnesses of Yankee pluck. Along the swell of Morris Island, and covering every elevation, can be seen the Union soldiers, who stand with bated breath, anxious and full of suspense, and every eye intently taking in the scene. When the shell exploded a circle of smoke hid the mule for a moment, but when the smoke cleared Mr. Mule had his ears laid back, and, with head down, and legs dashing wild out, he was making kindling wood of the cart, which had been badly demoralized by a fragment of the shell. Presently the driver is seen limping to the side of the mule; in the second the mule is free from the cart, and with the driver on his back, and a farewell whisk of his tail, disappears behind the cover of the hills.

The thousands of boys in blue unite in a long and hearty hurrah; the sailors wear their hats and shout themselves hoarse, and, hark the rebels have caught the infection, and are cheering too.

Probate Notice.

State of Minnesota, }
County of Brown, } ss
In Probate Court. Special Term.
In the matter of the Estate of Nicolaus Heinen deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of M. Mullen, Administrator of said estate, therein setting forth among other things, that he failed in all his efforts to sell so much of said real estate as necessary to pay the debts of said deceased, and that every attempt to have another sale before the fall of 1878 is useless therefore praying that the time to pay the debts of said deceased be extended for one year from date hereof.

It is ordered, that Monday the 28th of Jan. 1878 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and at the Probate Office in New Ulm, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that all persons interested in said estate be required to appear and show cause if any there be, why the petition of said Administrator should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice of the hearing of said petition by causing a copy of this order to be published in the New Ulm WEEKLY REVIEW, a weekly news paper printed and published at New Ulm in said County of Brown, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

Dated at New Ulm this 24th day of December 1877.

A. WESTPHAL Judge of Probate.

1878. The Pioneer Press

The Leading Journal of the Upper Mississippi Valley.
Published Simultaneously at
St. Paul and Minneapolis,
An Eight-Page Daily of the Size of the New York Herald, IS THE
Only Morning Paper Published in MINNESOTA.

And has no competition in a vast field of circulation covering Minnesota, Northern Iowa, Northwestern Wisconsin, Dakota and Manitoba, embracing a population of over a million; because it reaches every part of this region from Eight to Twenty-Four Hours Ahead of the Chicago papers; because in all the essential requirements of a First-Class Newspaper. It is as far better adapted than any outside paper to the local wants and interests of the Upper Mississippi valley, and of the great region West and North of it.

This Magnificent Metropolitan Daily is individualized by its geographical position and domain, as the organ and Representative of this New Northwest, to the material and social development of which it is primarily devoted, and its telegraphic, general and local news department, its market reports, its editorial discussions, correspondence, &c., are especially adapted to the local requirements of this great Northwestern region. New and attractive features have recently been added to the news and literary departments of the Pioneer Press, among which are extended Daily Washington Specials, whose great cost confines them to news papers of the first class.

The Pioneer Press is the only eight-page paper in the West which has its leaves cut and pasted by machinery—a feature which adds greatly to the convenience of the reader, and the value of the inside pages.

THE WEEKLY PIONEER PRESS,

The Best Family Journal
in the Northwest
A Splendid Premium Wall
Map Worth the Whole
Subscription.

The Most Attractive Offer Ever Made to the Farmers of Minnesota and Adjacent States.

No intelligent family in Minnesota or in the Northwest, which does not take the Daily, can afford to do without the Weekly Pioneer Press.

No other weekly in the State compares with it in the extent, completeness, variety and interest of its news and reading matter, and no weekly published outside of the State is adapted like the Pioneer Press to the Local Wants and Interests of Minnesota and the adjacent States and Territories. In addition to the general features of a newspaper and family journal, its full and accurate MARKET reports of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Chicago, and all great grain and produce centres, and its FARM and STOCK department, edited by a leading agricultural writer of long experience, render it especially valuable to farmers; while its HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT made up of the contributions of intelligent Minnesota women in every part of the State, is a universal favorite with the family circle. The PIONEER PRESS is indispensable to any family in this northwestern region which wishes to keep posted on its local events, enterprises, politics, public affairs, and discussions, affecting the interests of all classes of its people.

Two Splendid Premium Wall Maps

The Pioneer Press Premium Map of the Northwest,

Which proved so acceptable to our subscribers last year, has been corrected up to October 1st, 1877, and includes all the railroads constructed this year in the region described. To meet the wants of those who were supplied with this map last year, the publishers have procured a new map covering a much larger territory, and entitled,
The Pioneer Press Household Map of the Western States.

This valuable map covers the territory between Lake Michigan and the 104th degree of longitude, including the famous Black Hills, while it extends from the Minnesota boundary line to the southern boundary of Missouri, including Nebraska, Kansas and all of the states of Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota. In addition it will contain a map of Manitoba.

Either of the above maps and the Weekly Pioneer Press for one year will be sent, post paid, to any Post office in the United States or Canada, for Two Dollars.

For terms to clubs, call at any post office in the Northwest. Address PIONEER PRESS CO. St. Paul Minn.

ANOTHER REDUCTION IN FARE!

The Saint Paul & Sioux City,
AND
Sioux City & Saint Paul
RAILROADS,

Will celebrate the coming in of the New Year by a general reduction of local ticket fares from Five Cents to Four Cents, per mile on all divisions of their roads, to take effect January 1st, 1878.

It appears from the official reports in the Railroad Commissioners office that these companies in more than twelve years operation have never killed or injured any passenger or lost a piece of baggage. Their express trains are equipped with the Miller platforms, and in everything, pertaining to the safety and comfort of passengers, and to regular speed and connections, are not excelled by any in the country.
