

NEW ULM REVIEW.

JOS. BOBLETER, EDITOR & PROP'R.

Next Thursday is the last working day of the Legislature. The Senate will very likely be convened in extra session as a court of impeachment.

H. P. Hall, editor of the St. Paul Globe, has made another presidential prediction. This time it is Thomas A. Hendricks that he predicts, will be the next President.

A convention of delegates of the Greenback and Reform Parties was held at Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 22d, and effected the organization of a new party; to be known as the National Party.

The House of Representatives reached a vote on the Judge Page impeachment case, late last Wednesday night, and the resolution for impeachment was adopted by the emphatic vote of 71 yeas, to 20 nays. The speaker subsequently appointed a committee to impeach Hon. Sherman Page, Judge of the 10th Judicial Dist. at the bar of the Senate. This matter will cost the State all of $10,000 before they get through with it, so it will be seen that it is an expensive luxury for the people to elect incompetent judges.

The St. Paul Dispatch entered upon its eleventh year of existence on the first of March. The Dispatch under its present management is a most excellent paper. Although the only "true blue" Republican daily paper in the State, it treats all political questions in a fair candid way. Its news columns always contain the latest news, while its editorial columns bristle with spicy editorials. The weekly edition is made up of good reading matter, and is a like the paper for the merchant, the mechanic and the farmer.

Hon. Benjamin F. Wade, of Ohio, died at his residence in Jefferson at 6:30 last Saturday morning. Mr. Wade was born 1800 and during his life he has held many important positions of trust. He had great influence in the Senate during the war and was President of the Senate, and became ex-officio Vice-President of the United States when Lincoln's death promoted Andrew Johnson President. He was an ardent advocate of the nomination and election of President Hayes, although he was not in accord with the President's so-called southern policy.

DAD'S DOLLAR.

At 1:40 p. m. last Thursday President Hayes returned the silver bill to the House of Representatives, where it originated, without his signature, presenting his objections in a special message. The Senate and House of Representatives promptly passed the bill over the President's veto, the former by a vote of 46 to 19 and the later by a vote of 193 to 72, more than the required two thirds in either house. Never before was a veto so summarily disposed of. The veto message was presented to the House at 1:40, and at four o'clock the bill became a law, notwithstanding the President's objections.

Judge Cox Vindicated.

The committee appointed by the House of Representatives to investigate the charges made against E. St. Julien Cox by the Lanesboro Journal, held a meeting last Saturday and examined several witnesses. The committee reported to the House last Monday, that from a fair investigation of the subject matter, and all testimony offered, the committee find that Hon. E. St. Julien Cox, Judge of the Ninth Judicial District, was not intoxicated while presiding on the bench during the term of Court lately held by him at Fairmont, Martin county, and that his conduct as a judge while so presiding was not in any manner censurable, and that the charges in the Lanesboro Journal are wholly false, slanderous and untrue.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

Hon. C. C. Brandt can now rest on his laurels. Col. Hicks, a member from Minneapolis, and a very warm opponent of the Merrill school book law introduced the following resolution in the House of Representatives last Friday:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this House, the Hon. C. C. Brandt, in receiving the sum of fifty dollars tendered him as a bribe for his vote on the school text book bill and the acceptance of the same by him for the purpose of exposure to this House of the attempted bribery, was influenced by no other than honest motives, and he is hereby fully exonerated from any suspicion of impure motives in his action."

The resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote. The papers of the bribery investigating committee had been referred to the Attorney General the day before, where no doubt they will be allowed to slumber.
