Visiting Cards at the Review office.

Capt. Nix, the city assessor, will soon begin to make his annual rounds.

J. B. Villikanje will accept our thanks for a savory mess of Mushrooms.

A new lot of croquet sets have just been received by Jos. Bobleter.

The indomitable umbrella mender was in town last Saturday. What next?

A hail storm lasting about twenty minutes passed over some parts of this county last Friday.

The summer term of our public school commenced last Monday with 350 scholars in the several classes.

A runaway enlivened our city Sunday evening. No damage done any further than breaking the seach of the wagon.

We would call the attention of such of our city readers as deal in the "Arden" to the notice of Capt. Nix, which appears in another column.

The Redwood Falls Gazette speaks in highly complimentary terms of the lecture delivered in that town by Prof. Nix, of this city, last week.

We are informed that another effort will be made this summer to find coal, in paying quantities, at the coal fields in Burnstowa.

The weather the past week was cold and cloudy, and last Friday night it froze considerable, doing a great deal of damage to growing vegetables and fruit.

The Governor's Guard had a grand target practice last Sunday. Sergt. Hanft proved himself to be the best marksman, and private H. Subilia second, while private Arnoldi brought up a good third.

A little girl of Jacob Rohner, living in the town of Cottonwood, fell from a bench last Friday evening dislocating her left shoulder and breaking the collar-bone. Dr. Berry has the case in charge, and the little sufferer is doing as well as can be expected.

Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup is particularly recommended for children. It is the most pleasant, soothing and effective Cough remedy known. Call on your druggist and try a bottle of it, it only costs 25 cents. Sold by Jos. Bobleter.

Once more death has visited the family of John Neumann, of this city, and took away their baby child, aged eleven months and fourteen days. It died of inflammation of the bowels on Thursday afternoon and was buried on Saturday.

The county Auditor wishes it to be distinctly understood that no orders for State text books from town Clerks will be entertained, or receive attention, unless the clerk's bond has been filed with him. Parties calling for books must have a written order from the clerk, or the clerk must call for them personally, as positively no books will be sent by mail or express.

One trial is sufficient to convince the most skeptical of the invaluable and unfailing efficacy of Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup for curing Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. Try it by all means. Price 25 cents. Sold by Jos. Bobleter.

PERSONAL.

—R. B. Simmons, one of the merchants of Golden Gate, paid the Review office a visit last week.

—Carl Holtz, the popular landlord of the Dakota House at Beaver Falls, was in our city last week making purchases.

—Hon. L. D. Rice, chairman of the board of County Commissioners, was in the city last Monday.

—Jack Kelly returned from his wild goose chase after W. F. Smith, last Friday evening.

—M. O. Hall, of Granite Falls, and a brother from Kasson were in our city yesterday with a view of locating here.

—Peter Scherer, treasurer of the Board of Education, visited St. Paul Monday with reference to placing the bonds to be issued for the erection of the new school house.

We learn from the St. Peter Tribune that a fatal railroad accident happened in that city on the W. & St. P. R. R. last Tuesday evening, by which William B. Torrey Jr., of Mankato, lost his life. Mr. Torrey was 17 years of age, and had been acting station agent at Nicollet Station about a week. When he met with the accident he was on his way to Mankato, on a freight train, and when near the Hospital for Insane he attempted to go forward from the caboose to the engine, and had made his way over the whole train of 42 cars, when a sudden starting up of the train threw him to the ground between the cars. The whole train passed over his left arm and leg, fearfully crushing them and drawing his body under so that his shoulders and left side were badly mutilated. Mr. Palmatier, the watchman at the bridge, found him a few minutes after the accident and he was at once conveyed to the Nicollet House, in St. Peter, where everything was done that was possible to relieve the poor sufferer. He died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. He was conscious to the last, and knowing that his parents had been sent for, seemed anxious to hold out until they arrive, but he breathed his last but a moment before they arrived.

DISTRICT COURT OF BROWN CO. } Ninth Judicial Dist., State of Minn. } MAY TERM, 1878.

The May general term of the district court convened last week, Tuesday, May 7th. Hon. E. St. Julien Cox, judge of this district presiding. There was a full attendance of the legal fraternity from this city, together with a sprinkling of attorneys from St. Paul, St. Peter and St. James. After the preliminary business had been gone through with the following cases were taken up and disposed of:

John N. Nenko vs. Winona & St. Peter Railroad company. Continued by consent of counsel, until next term of court.

W. H. Stevens vs. W. Montgomery. Continued by consent of parties.

S. L. Sheldon vs. Ole Nelson and Iver Knudsen. Continued until next term of court.

Herman Geske vs. Wm. Winkelmann. Action on note. Jury trial. Judgement for plaintiff against defendant $288.70.

Michael Soles vs. M. Mullen. Case dismissed for want of prosecution.
 Dorathea Altermatt vs. M. Simmers. Jury trial. Verdict in favor of plaintiff $300.

 Geo. Hoffmann vs. Gottfried Kasulke, Anna C. Kasulke. Jury trial. Jury failed to agree.

On motion of B. F. Webber a committee of three consisting of Webber, Kuhlman and Lind were appointed to draft resolutions of sympathy on the death of Hon. Chas. Roos. The committee reported the following:

Whereas since the last session of this Court the Hon. Chas. Roos, an attorney of this Court, has deceased; Therefore Resolved,

That we recognize in the life of the deceased an example of strict and unyielding honesty; ever true to his friends and fearless, prompt and faithful in the discharge of his public and private duties. Resolved,

That the members of this bar hereby express their highest respects for the memory of their deceased brother and with emotions of profound regard and grief tender this tribute to his memory. Resolved,

That the members of this bar while mourning his loss, tender their sincere sympathy to the family of the deceased. Resolved,

That these resolutions be spread upon the Records of this Court and that a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of the deceased.
 B. F. WEBBER.
 JOHN LIND.
 GEO. KUHLMAN.

After the resolutions had been read Judge Cox made the following well pointed order.

General Term, Brown Co., Dist. Court } May 10, 1878. }

Gentlemen of the bar: I am extremely proper and in keeping with the respect due from the members of the bar, as well as a duty the latter owed to themselves and their brethren in the profession, that when the grim messenger calls a brother to his other Jurisdiction, removes one from our midst, leaving his place silent, and the legacy of a good name, cherished by those with whom our walk in life has been cast, an encouragement stimulating the living to emulate the virtues of the dead. Particularly so it is in the demise of the Hon. Charles Roos who though never an active participant in practice at the bar so long and ably filled the position of an officer of this court. As a public man his life was pure and spotless. As an attorney, one whose walks were in the paths of justice given to the encouragement of strife among his fellow men. As a private individual, true in his friendships, honest in his conversation, honest in every transaction. In short he squared his conduct through life to the justian precepts "Honeste vivere, alterum non laedere, sumi onique tribuere." To the citizens of Brown Co. the sympathy of this bench and bar are fully extended as well as to his family in the imperable loss they have sustained. The resolutions offered by the committee are adopted and the same are ordered to be spread at large upon the records of this court.
 E. ST. JULIEN COX, Judge.

The court adjourned Saturday, at 10 a. m. having been in session five days. But before its adjournment judge Cox politely thanked the officers of the court, the jury and the attorneys in attendance for the courtesy extended the court. The gentlemanly and business like manner with which judge Cox dispatched the business before the court won him golden opinions. Judge McDonald, of Shakopee, presided part of the term, as judge Cox had been interested in some of the cases that came up for trial.

LINDEN,

MAY 5th, 1878.

Editor Review:—I have been a constant reader of your valuable paper since the first number was issued, but, as yet, I have seen very little in its columns from the town of Linden. The town of Linden is situated in the southwest corner of Brown county, and is one of the most thriving towns in the county, and I shall hereafter endeavor to let the outer world know of our doings, providing your editorship will allow my communications to appear in the columns of the Review.

Just now our farmers are busily engaged planting corn, wheat, oats, barley and rice. Looking splendid and we all feel hopeful of getting a beautiful harvest, and several parties have given orders for self-binders. I understand that S. D. Peterson, of your city, has already sold and delivered three in this town. I think Mr. Peterson is a good man to deal with, and he has sold more reapers in this town than all the other agents combined. I was sorry to hear that he had dropped the McCormick machines for the Woods'. I hope that Peter Christensen, who now handles the McCormick machines, will do as well with the "old stand-by" as Mr. Peterson did.

The young folks had a very pleasant dance last night, up in Jack Hushley's granary. Three of the best violin players in this vicinity furnished the music. Some of the girls were dressed very becomingly, and not a few, wishing to show their new shoes and pretty feet, had their toes tread upon. Moral—Ladies keep your pretty little feet at home.

The railroad land of the St. Paul & Sioux City Railroad Co., situated in this town, has nearly all been bought up.

We have two Lutheran congregations. One is called the conference, and is presided over by Rev. N. Olson, of Owatonna. The other is called the Wisconsin Synod, which is presided over by Rev. Mr. Green.

We also have a small Mormon congregation in our midst, but as yet they are without a Saint and the preaching is done by John L. Henning. The male members of the latter named denomination do not exactly follow the teachings of their church, as each one so far is blessed with but one wife; but this may be accounted for; as girls are scarce, and married women do not care to leave their present husbands for one that has already got one wife.

The Review is received by our people with great favor, and there are more copies of it taken than of any other paper. It is one of the best papers in the State and its cheapness commends itself to everyone.
 C. F.

There are a certain class of people in this city who, no doubt with a desire to make themselves popular with the masses, are continually raising questions, and agitating new projects that constantly keep the community in a furor, to the detriment of the welfare of the city. Hardly has one question been settled, and the people congratulate themselves upon the prospect of having peace for awhile, when these men raise some new project with which they can keep the community haggling and quibbling.

The latest thing upon the tapis is the abolishment of the free ferry, and when the city council was in session last week for the purpose of considering the feasibility of establishing a free pontoon bridge, a petition was presented praying that the free ferry should be abolished and that the sum of two or three hundred dollars should be appropriated out of the city-treasury for each of the three ferries; in consideration of which the ferrymen would agree to charge parties crossing on their respective ferries only ten cents. The petition was signed "The Buerger Verein." (The Citizen's Association.) But pray, who constitutes the so-called Buerger Verein? Is it some local secret association, or has it something to do with the communistic socialistic organizations that are developing themselves in the larger cities? These were the questions that puzzled the councilors, and the petition was referred back to those that presented it with a request that some bonafide citizens names should be attached to it, before it could be entertained. The petition was circulated by Mr. Westphal last Monday, and we understand received quite a number of signatures, and probably will again be presented at the next meeting of the council.

For our own part we don't think there is much business about this sort of thing. The commercial and other interests of the city do not only demand that a free ferry be maintained, but that a pontoon or some other kind of a bridge be established at an early day, as teams are sometimes kept waiting for an hour before their turn comes to be set across. While the cities of St. Peter, Le Sueur and Henderson have built free bridges that cost thousands of dollars; and Shakopee, Mankato and St. Paul are agitating the necessities of building bridges; Ramsey Co. having but two weeks ago voted $100,000 by a large majority, to build a bridge across the Mississippi river, at Fort Snelling, it is a shame that men should be found in this community little enough to flaunt a petition around to have the free ferry abolished, that costs the city but a paltry sum annually. Why do not those parties that do not want the trade from the other side of the river circulate a petition, that a fence be built along the river bank, and thereby give the farmers to understand that we do not want their trade? There would be just about as much sense in it. In conclusion we are glad to state that the city council does not favor any such foolhardy project, but will go right along and establish a pontoon bridge at an early day.

Brey & Epple received 200 head of steers last Monday, destined for Chicago.

"HANG OUT YOUR BANNERS!"

THE ST. PAUL HARVESTER WORKS GAIN A GRAND VICTORY!—AN ABSOLUTELY PERFECT BINDER - NEWS FROM THE WHEAT FIELDS OF TEXAS.

Pioneer Press.

On calling at the office of the St. Paul Harvester Works yesterday, the reporter found everything in the best of humor, and giving evidence that something had occurred that greatly pleased them. On inquiry it was learned that a telegram had just been received by Mr. E. M. Deane, President of the Company, from Dallas Texas. The message was brief but it was important: "The improved binder is working splendidly, HANG OUT YOUR BANNERS! SHAKE!"

A Harvester with the new Binder has been at work in the fields of Dallas for four days, and it has completely satisfied the most sanguine hopes of those interested. The first day it was working in very heavy green wheat, and the wind was blowing a hurricane, but everything worked to a charm, and not a single mishap has occurred since it commenced operation.

It is no wonder that the company should feel jubilant, as now, besides the best Harvesters, they have succeeded in producing an ABSOLUTELY PERFECT BINDER, something no other manufacturer can boast of. For a long time they have had an accomplished inventor at work, determined at any cost to discover an appliance that should perform the important work of binding grain perfectly. Their success will prove a national blessing.

Now with the best Harvester and the best Binder in the world, not only the people of St. Paul, but of Minnesota may be pardoned for feeling a high degree of pride. They produce the biggest crops of wheat, and they can make the machinery to promptly take care of it!

[Editor] M. Mullen is the agent for these reliable machines for New Ulm and vicinity, and he will be pleased to take orders or give any information in regard to them that may be wanted.

THE COMING CIRCUS.

A St. Louis Description of Cole's New York and New Orleans Circus and Menagerie. Which will exhibit at New Ulm, June 4th.

From the St. Louis Republican.

The combination proves to be one in which the best use is made of a large amount of excellent material. The menagerie is not alone a collection of animals to be wondered at for their rarity, but also to be admired for the perfection of training to which they have been brought. The trick elephant "Siam" shows himself a marvel of intelligence and docility; the camels enter the ring and acquit themselves with credit; the monkeys ride with the evident enjoyment of stable boys, and the ponies perform with almost human intelligence. Mr. Sebastian's bareback riding is at once graceful and daring, and Mr. William O'Dale's five-horse act was a perfect triumph. Signor Marquez also does a showy bit of riding in Indian character. In the way of tumbling and gymnastics the company is especially strong. The three Herbert brothers accomplish with wonderful ease the feats which are usually achieved with the greatest difficulty, and they go far ahead of most of their competitors in brilliant performances. Mr. Long is a very fine leaper, and the "Renos" have rarely been equaled on the horizontal bar. Miss. Claife was much admired for her graceful and bold act on the flying rings. The two clowns, Pico and Mr. McEntire, know how to fill in the time with comic business and happy sallies, so that there is no drag in any part of the performance. Perhaps the most wonderful exhibition of all was the utterly reckless manner in which Mr. Geo. Conklin carried himself in the den of lion. He bullied the magnificent brutes with a perfect power of domination. They leaped over him and played with him, lay down at his feet and took their food from his hands just as he chose to give it to them. Having given it to them, he would even take it away again, though they were evidently hungry enough. Altogether it was a remarkable display. Capt. and Mrs. Bates the largest people in the world, were introduced in the ring during the early part of the evening and were voted immense. Taken all in all the show combines as many attractions as have ever been brought together under one canvas.

The menagerie is admirably arranged for the convenience of spectators, being in a separate part of the pavilion from the circus, and so placed that all can see without being crowded. There is a large herd of dromedaries, and among them a wee bit of a thing only three weeks old. Another curiosity in this part of the show is a great monkey with a curiously human looking face and a nose as red as an old toper's.

The horses, both those which appear in the ring and those shown in the street parade, are generally commended for their beauty and excellent condition.

We are sorry to learn that Frank Kennedy, for a number of years route agent in the W. & St. P. R. R., is about to resign his position. Frank was a good mail clerk and the service will lose a valuable man by his resignation. We are informed that he contemplates going into the merchantile business at Prairie Siding, D. T.

PATENTS

obtained for Inventors, in the United States, Canada, and Europe, at reduced rates. With our private Patent Office located in Washington, directly opposite United States Patent Office, we are able to attend to all Patent Business with greater promptness and dispatch and less cost, than other patent attorneys, who are at a distance from Washington, and who have, therefore, to employ "associate attorneys." We make preliminary examinations and furnish opinions as to patentability, free of charge, and all who are interested in new inventions and Patents are invited to send for a copy of our "Guide for obtaining Patents," which is sent free to any address, and contains complete instructions how to obtain Patents, and other valuable matter. We refer to the German-American National Bank, Washington, D. C.; the Royal Swedish, Norwegian, and Danish Locations; at Washington, Hon. Joseph Casey, late Chief Justice U. S. Court of Claims; to the Office of the U. S. Patent Office, and to Senators and Members of Congress from every State.
