Albert Behnke will in a few days open a harness shop in his father's building, corner Minn. and 1st North streets.

The time for paying the special revenue liquor and tobacco tax is drawing nigh, and must be paid on or before May 1st.

Tramp, tramp, tramp the tramps are marching. The city is full of 'em and more are coming, but it is not work that they are after.

A few copious showers of rain fell since our last issue but we need much more before vegetation can get a good start.

The veterans of Lyon and adjoining counties are talking of holding a soldiers' re-union at Marshall, May 30th, Decoration Day.

One week from next Saturday New Ulm Lodge No. 53, I. O. O. F., will give a subscription anniversary ball in Turner Hall. See announcement in another column.

In order to keep within the bounds of the appropriation the Trustees of the Hospital for Insane find it necessary to return the more harmless patients to their respective counties.

Gen. Sigel will lecture in different cities of this State during this month, in the German language. Can he not be induced to visit New Ulm, and deliver one of his lectures to our citizens?

Christ, Scher's little boy, who was so badly burned a week ago last Saturday, of which we made mention last week, died, from the injuries then received, last Monday morning at 6 o'clock.

Chas. Wagner has received a large and splendid assortment of Whitney baby carriages, the best that are made. Heads of families should examine his stock and consult his prices before placing their orders elsewhere.

Be sure to call for Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup if you are troubled with a bad cough or cold. It relieves after using the first dose. Price 25 cents. Sold at the City Drug Store.

A United States Land Office is soon to be established at Watertown, D.T. This will be a great accommodation to the vast number of emigrants now settling in that vicinity.

We would call the attention of our readers to M. Mullen's new advertisement which appears in another column. The J. I. Case & Co's. threshers are counted among the best, and Mullen is the man that will supply 'em.

The Fire Department endeavored to meet last Sunday morning for practice but chief Stolle informs us that only eight members responded, out of a membership of about seventy. Boys, if you say drill, you ought to be as good as your word.

The Redwood Gazette says that Jos. Lichtwardt of that place was arrested last week on the charge of selling liquor without a village license. The trial resulted in conviction and he was fined $25.00 and costs of prosecution.

Mothers need not be kept awake nights by the incessant coughing of their children if they have Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup at hand, and give one or two doses in season. Price only 25 cents. Sold at the City Drug Store.

Gary Inter-State—The route agents on this line from here to Sleepy Eye, H. B. Gary and E. B. Evans, are two of Nature's noblemen, jolly, whole-souled fellows, and their presence will cure the worst case of blues in a minute.

The sheriff's sale of H. Behnke Bro's stock was closed last Thursday, the goods having all been disposed of. About $8,000 was realized from the sale but after the expenses are all paid the net proceeds will be little over $6,000.

"There's nothing like home with a loving wife," said Blanchard a few evenings ago with a sigh of relief, as he threw down his hat, pulled off his coat and boots, slipped his feet into his slippers and flung himself down on the sofa.

Everybody should secure a ticket for the Grand Gift Concert, to take place in Milwaukee, June 18th, 1879. It is a purely charitable affair, and the prizes drawn are forty pianos. For particulars see announcement in another column.

Cheap Charley has rented the store room lately occupied by H. Behnke & Bro. and will remove thereto about May 1st. This will give him an opportunity to display his large stock of goods to better advantage, and at the same time bring him nearer to the business centre of the city.

St. Peter Tribune.—The disease among horses, whatever it may be, is proving fatal. Martin Peterson of New Sweden has recently lost a valuable Norman colt, and Ernest Pfeifferle and Albert Volk on the other side of the river have each lost horses lately.

As will be seen by a notice in another column Mr. F. Kohne, of Lorenzo, will sell his hotel furniture, bedding, &c., at public auction Wednesday, April 30. Mr. Kohne retires from the hotel business May 1st, and will be succeeded by M.W. Phelps, of this city.

The preliminary examination of Rev. A. J. Davis, of Madelia, for the alleged poisoning of his partner was held last week. The defense put in no plea and after the prosecution had presented their evidence the defendant was bound over in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the next term of the district court.

Minneapolis is vigorously pushing the narrow-gauge railroads for which she recently voted $250,000. A company has been formed, with Doribus Morrison as president, and the board of directors say that the contemplated lines will be pushed through as fast as the work can be done. The Hutchinson route is being surveyed this week.

The engineers have surveyed to within a mile and three-fourths south of town, and have gone to the head of the Lake. They will run a line through Marshallfield to-day or to-morrow. The engineers say they have an easy grade, and it is probable the line will be established north of the Lake, as that seems to be the most feasible route. Lincoln Co. Tribune, April 11th.

The attention of farmers and others is called to the Advertisement of the Robinson Machine Works at Richmond, Indiana.

The Manufacture is one of the oldest in country, and their purpose is to sell the best machinery at the lowest possible price for good pay. Therefore do not buy an Engine, Thresher or Horse Power or other machinery, on the high price, long credit plan, with high rate of interest until you have written to this firm for their cash and short credit prices.

We understand that sometime ago Mr. Casswell wrote up biographical sketches of several parties along the Winona & St. Peter railroad west of here for publication in the Review; but we would here state for the information of all concerned that we have never received a word of copy from him since he left New Ulm, and would advise our friends to place but little dependence on him.

The Easter festivities in our city passed off very pleasantly. On Sunday evening a goodly number of our citizens assembled at Turner Hall to witness the gymnastic exercises of Mr. Carl Gebser's scholars. We were not present ourselves but we understand that the exhibition was a No. 1. The social hop at Union Hall on Monday evening was also largely attended and passed off very pleasantly.

A meeting of the wheat-buyers of this State was held in St. Paul last week to consult as to what course they should pursue in view of the action taken by the last Legislature in regard to wheat and the grading and measuring thereof. A permanent organization was formed, called "The Minnesota Association of Grain-buyers and Warehousemen," and Mr. Van Dusen, of Rochester, was elected President of the association.

Messrs. A. G. Miller & P. W. Peterson, of St. Peter, have opened an Agricultural Implement business in our city, one door south of the Union House, and will have on sale a full line of machines, among which will be found the celebrated "Minnesota Chief Thresher," and the "Marsh Harvester and Self-Binder." Both of these gentlemen are men of business integrity and the machines they handle are classed among the best. Mr. Miller was formerly in trade here when out of the court, Mr. A. Blanchard, was business manager.

Editor Review: Please allow me to say through the columns of the Review that the Rapidan Mill is the only one that gives the farmers the full product of their wheat, and would refer your readers to the following table: For wheat weighing Mankato Review—Sheriff Schweitzer returned home on Friday last, from a ten days trip to Nebraska, whither he went in pursuit of Geo. W. Kendall, formerly of this county and afterwards of Brown county, indicted at the last term of district court for larceny. It seems that Kendall is following the vocation of a peddler or salesman, and some delay occurred in ascertaining his whereabouts, but he was finally overhauled at Crete, where the sheriff arrested him on a warrant issued by the Governor of Nebraska. He was taken before the district court on a habeas corpus, where the arrest was held good and he was remanded to the custody of the officer. Afterwards, at Lincoln, he was taken before the United States district judge, when the prisoner was discharged, the warrant being held insufficient. Satisfied that he could not hold Kendall if re-arrested, the sheriff returned home as above stated.

Why send elsewhere for clothing and men's furnishings goods when they can be obtained just as cheap and possibly cheaper at home. The new stock just received by Cheap Charly comprises everything new and novel, and he has a larger stock of spring and summer clothing than was ever before brought to this city, and his prices, as his name implies, are always "cheap."

He also has a large number of samples of cloth and if you are unable to find anything suitable in his stock you can select from samples and have your measure taken, and in course of one week your suit will be delivered to you just as ordered. His stock of boots and shoes has also been newly replenished and now comprises everything from an infant's slipper to a No. 14 boot. He is a gentleman with whom it is a pleasure to deal and, being assisted by a corps of gentlemen and obliging clerks, customers are promptly and courteously waited upon. For all further information consult his mammoth ad. in another column.

PERSONAL.

Judge Cox made our city a visit last Thursday.

R. H. Bingham and Peter Bendixen, of Lorenzo, called at our sanctum last week.

F. Kohne, Mike Fohl and Constable M. Conrad, of Lorenzo, took in the dance at Union Hall, Monday night.

F. Gerboth, of Home town, was in last Saturday to see our "Little Giant" puff and pass us a dollar for the Review.

A. A. Praxel and wife, of Lambert, spent the Sabbath in our city. We learn from Mr. Praxel that the Lambert Commercial is soon to be resuscitated.

Wm. Ross, cashier of the Blue Earth City Bank, passed a few days in our city last week on a visit to his brother C. H. Ross, cashier of the Brown County Bank.

Christian Schelble and family departed for Chicago last Saturday morning, which place they will, for the present, make their home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Schelble were old residents of this city. Mrs. Schelble having had her first husband, Mr. England, killed by the Indians in the massacre of 1862. We hope that prosperity may be with them wherever they may go.

New Ulm Sugar Manufacturing Co.

The above is the name of a company which has just been organized in this city for the purpose, as the name indicates, of manufacturing sugar and syrup. This matter of establishing a sugar refinery in our city has been talked up a long time, and various inducements were held out to outside parties contemplating establishing refineries in this State, to locate one here, but it has so far in every case resulted in naught; and a few of our enterprising citizens have at last concluded to take the matter into their own hands, and make a thorough and practical test whether marketable sugar in paying quantities can be produced from Early Amber cane and sweet corn. The gentlemen that have associated themselves together for this purpose are: Aug. Westphal, Fr. Boock, C. Roloff, William Amme, Henry Vogelhopf, August Hellmann and George Jacobs. The capital that is to be invested in buildings, machinery, &c., has been placed at $30,000, which will be ample to put in machinery capable of working up 125 to 150 acres of cane during the season. Should it be satisfactorily demonstrated that it can be made a paying investment sufficient capital will be forthcoming to enlarge the refinery. The refinery, provided the ground can be secured, is to be located on German street between 4th and 5th North streets. A sufficient quantity of Early Amber cane seed has been procured from Kansas, as also sweet corn, and can be obtained from Geo. Jacobs, who will give all information desired.

Soldiers' Graves. We have received from Capt. A. F. Rockwell, in charge of National Cemeteries, Washington, D. C., the following circular letter, which explains itself:

It is probably generally remembered that some years ago—in 1873—Congress passed a law providing for the erection of durable headstones over the graves of soldiers of the regular and volunteer forces of the United States whose remains are interred in the National Military Cemeteries. This law has been carried out, and the graves of the Nation's dead in these cemeteries are now permanently marked. At the instance of the War Department, Congress has recently authorized the erection of similar headstones over the graves of the Union soldiers who are buried in private and village cemeteries. This will be done as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. In the meantime the Quartermaster General, at Washington, will at once proceed to collect the necessary information as to where these headstones are required.

All persons having any knowledge of the burial places of soldiers in private cemeteries whose graves are not marked, are requested to communicate the fact to the Quartermaster General, and give regiment, company, and date of death of deceased, if known. Similar information is desired from parties in charge of such cemeteries.

Of course it is not intended to furnish headstones for graves over which monuments have already been erected by relatives or friends of the deceased.

Capt. Rockwell's object is to secure the widest possible circulation of this matter, in order that the War Department may be placed in possession of the facts necessary to carry out the law in the premises. Those knowing of any soldiers' graves in this vicinity not provided with headstones will do a kind act to the memory of the departed by making the fact known at once.

Tree Planting.

The tree planting season having arrived, the Des Moines Register urges the farmer of Iowa to make it one of his main spring employments to plant trees, and tells them that meteorological investigation has demonstrated that tree and crop culture has extended the rain belt far west from its boundary fifty years ago. At that period Western Iowa was considered as much a rainless desert as is Western Nebraska at the present. The Register also argues that by the growth of timber Iowa is to become as mild in atmospheric disturbances as the timbered States of the East, and shows that countries with a reasonable amount of timber are not swept by such constant and fierce winds and storms. All these considerations are just as applicable to large sections of Minnesota as to Iowa. They are well known to be trustworthy by those who have investigated the subject, and should be continually sounded in the ears of the people until they come to realize that tree planting is of as much importance as corn planting.—Jackson Republic.

New Unlike George Washington.

Thinking some who do not know C. Sear of Millford, might think there was some truth in his statement published in the Review of the 9th inst., in which he says when in my office 15 minutes he put his hand on the wire and easily pulled it out of the head of the binder. Says he asked me why I pulled out so easy, to which I made no reply. Says he asked me to thread it again, but I refused to do so. Now, Mr. Sear, I will give you a chance to make a little money. I will bet you $100 against $10 that you can't pull the wire out of the Osborne binder-head with your two hands. I will bet you $100, even, that you and your pet friend who induced you to make that childish statement can't both pull it out. Christ, you may have strength enough to break a No. 20 annealed steel wire, but it don't lay in your trousers to pull the wire out of the Osborne binder-head. As for binding large and light bundles let me inform you that the Osborne binder is noted the world over for binding large and light bundles; just as tight as if bound your two coats, when you expressed such surprise at its tightness. Now was it not the Wood's machine you were thinking of when you came to let that foolish statement be published?

Green lettuce and radishes now grace our humble noonday tables.

Our enterprising tonsorial artist Mark Cain is suffering severely with sore feet. Over exertion did it.

John Youngman has struck holl on Andy's lot at a depth of 35 ft. John is a booster at driving wells.

Geo. W. Somerville, an attorney of Rochester, Minn., has secured rooms for the purpose of opening an office in Lorenzo in about three weeks.

Quite a foot race came off last Saturday between P. Raverty and Stephenson, for a wager. R. came out second best.

A lively fist-cuff came off between two breakmen last Sunday. It is reported that one of the belligerents got pretty roughly handled.

Lorenzo was considerably excited last week over an alleged rape case, but we have been unable to learn the particulars.

Buckley is wotting that paint brush of his fore and aft to keep out of the way of that stuffed rabbit. He says he prefers solid meat. But woe to that Burnstown correspondent when he gets hold of him.

John Zieske is having his house newly painted. John says the way to draw in the ducats is to keep up appearances by making improvements and thereby let the people know that you mean business.

Everything is progressing finely in Lorenzo. Buildings are going up in every part of the village and some are very nice ones too. Andy's will be one of the best on Main st. after it is finished.

Peter Majewski says those baby carriages must be sold if he has to sell them below cost. He has received a large supply and all in need of a carriage should call on Peter and they will be suited both as regards quality and prices.

That man-hole between Zieske's and Boll's has always been an eye sore to John, but now since he has his house repainted he thinks the city council could do no less than to have it bridged over with a decent walk.

Wm. Stewart, the efficient and genial conductor on the Watertown division was the recipient last week Tuesday of a "lectic" girl weighing 10 pounds and 8 ounces.

Kimm, of whom your correspondent made mention in last issue of the Review as being the happy daddy of a 15 lb. boy, came very near putting a head on the wrong man for "Busted." He don't like that Firsher's hornpipe and prefers Yankee Doodle came to town, &c.

P. Runtz, of Runtz & Bendixen, left for Europe last week Tuesday to revisit his relatives and friends in Germany. His departure from New York will be April 23d, on one of the Hamburg & American line of steamers. He will be absent about four months.

Miss Addie Howe has opened a millinery store in D. I. Russell's building on Main street, one door east of Talbot & Rinke's store. Miss Addie is prepared to supply the ladies with anything from a feather to the nicest hat.

Our enterprising editor of the Wide Awake still hankers after game. The last time he was out he bagged a brant and called it a swan. His devil got tired eating mud-hens and so quit the service of the valiant hunter and betook himself to New Ulm.

Water is so scarce here that your correspondent sometimes has to go without tea, and it gives him the headache. Why don't our city daddies have a reservoir made and consult the R. R. Co. to have them fill and at least give us water in case of fire.

Mark Cain says he is so crowded with work that he don't know what to do. He has to keep changing the silver dollars from one pocket to the other for fear they might work through.

Work on the addition to the Lorenzo House has commenced. The masons have commenced on the foundation and the lumber is on the ground. Mr. White says he will either win or bust in the attempt.

Talk about hard times! Why, it is astonishing to see the quantity of lumber R. H. Bingham from day to day receives and the number of men employed in his yard measuring it out to the farmers. He also has received several invoices of shelf and heavy hardware, tinware, &c. Bingham is bis.

John Zieske is just rushing business. He last week disposed of four sets of harness, six large trunks, seven pairs of collars and many other trinkets. He was so elated over his "big" trade that he, in company of J. Trautmann, hied himself to St. James, where it is stated he went on a bum that eclipsed ye editor's late Chicago bum.

An interesting larceny case puzzled our legal heads the latter part of the past week. Geo. Hart, of Lone Tree, had Chas. Werring, of Golden Gate, arrested for stealing some celluloid rings from his harness, and after a two day's trial before justice Burnside the defendant was adjudged guilty.

We understand that the evidence was all circumstantial, and the defense has taken an appeal to the District Court, where, they say, Mr. Werring's innocence of the theft will be proven to the satisfaction of all.

M. MULLIN.

Burnstown Items.

M. H. Gamble is shipping "kartoffel" west.

The prairies and the trees are beginning to assume the hue of spring.

A. G. Anderson is still adding stock to his lumber yard.

Call at Both's and buy lemons and oranges. He sells them cheap.

The wheat buyers now have plenty of time to play chess, saw wood and build garden fences.

Henry Weyhe, who has been absent for sometime, has again put in an appearance.

Young Mr. Larson is about to build a new drug store. The more the merrier.

The weather the last few days has been most unexceptionally fine in this vicinity.

J. S. Colony's new house is fast approaching completion and will soon be on the lookout for groceries, &c., &c.

Our merchants are all sick counting eggs, eggs, eggs, and I imagine I can hear them say "take those blasted eggs out of our sight."

The farmers in this vicinity are generally through with their seeding, and the rain of last week has inspired new hopes in their hearts.

Lucas Fecker the other day got very large hearted, liberal minded and tolerably good natured and called us in to take "sumfin." There's nothing small about Lucas at any time, though.

The darkies of the Southern States seem to all have taken Greeley's advice, only they go north in place of west, and are making for the land flowing with milk and honey. This country may suit them and it may not.

The good ladies of this village are now all busy making garden and transplanting their tiny flower plants so that they may make no delay in showing their colors.

The Railroad company desire to stand on a solid foundation and the section men are all busy replacing rotten ties with good sound ones. This is 'as it should be.

Hans Hundson is a good man, scripturally speaking, in adding to the population of Burns another little girl, weighing 10 lbs. Keep on Hans, boys will chime in in due time.

Mr. Philip met with a misfortune a few days ago. Some emigrants camped rather in too close proximity to his stable and the sparks from their camp fire set fire to the stable, consuming it and a quantity of hay. Insurance on hay only. Such carelessness should be punished to the full extent of the law.
