—Tramps are becoming numerous in this locality but thus far their behavior has not been of a disturbing character.

"Show us how divine a thing a woman may be made" by smoothing out the wrinkles caused by neuralgia or toothache. This can be done only in one way. Invest twenty-five cents in a bottle of Salvation Oil, the great pain remedy.

One tricycle appeared to be quite a family conveyance. On the front rode papa and mamma, working the treadles with praiseworthy energy, and behind, in a tiny two-wheeled cart attached by the shafts to a tricycle, a lad of 4 or 5 years lounged luxuriously, rolling along on the road and reminding one of the lilies that neither toil nor spin.—Boston Traveller.

The mothers that always disagree about the beauty of their respective babies, always agree on the fact nothing can equal that delightful and pleasant remedy, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A man must look up and be hopeful, particularly when he is trying to drink from a jug.—New Orleans Picayune.

You will never succeed in finding permanent relief from rheumatism until you have used St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure. Price fifty cents.

In the three years' use of the Brooklyn Bridge over 45,000,000 persons have crossed it, and only two or three jumped off. This shows that the structure is being devoted to the use for which it was intended.—Puck.

If you have a cough or cold, do not dose yourself with poisonous narcotics, but take Red Star Cough Cure, which contains no opiates, and is safe, prompt, and sure. Price, twenty-five cents a bottle.

A Brooklyn girl wants to know, "If it is true that kissing will cure freckles." Wouldn't say positively, but a simple receipt like this is worth trying. Call after business hours.

Wonderful Cures.

W.D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. The laborer and his hire are causing a good deal of trouble just now. The laborer is kicking because it isn't any higher.—Somerville Journal.

Meyer was fined two dollars and costs.

Our readers are cautioned about buying medicines which are not endorsed by some well known druggist. Chas. L. Roos, Druggist has made at thorough study of Blood diseases, and after a careful investigation, and many practical tests, positively asserts that "Poker's Blood Elixir will cure all blood disorders, ridding the system of its impurities, and leaving it strong, vigorous and healthy he warrants it. It is a certain cure for all skin diseases. 1

"I see the Socialists of Chicago are in a ferment," observed the judge "You surely are mistaken," replied the major. "Mistaken! Nothing of the kind. Didn't I see it in the paper?" "Can't help it if you did. Ferment means to work, and that's something Socialists don't do."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

During a serious run of whooping cough at Stillwater, N. Y., the physicians found that Acker's English Remedy was a positive cure, and prescribed it very freely. Chas. L. Roos, Druggist says that in all his experience he never has known any medicine to equal it. He guarantees it to cure all Coughs (especially chronic cases), Croup, Asthma and Consumption. 2

"Pap," said little Jacob, looking up from his Sunday school paper, "there is a piece that says 'Beer versus Whisky.' Shall I read it?" "Trow dat paber in de schutevo, Shaky. Inny mans vot says dot beer is vorss ar visky ain't fit for nodings except kindling-wood." 3

In order that sufferers may know that Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will always cure them, Ch. L. Roos, Druggist, emphatically says that if the Tablets do not relieve every case of Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Heartburn, &c., &c., he does not want any pay. The physicians say they are the finest combination that can be found. Price 25 cents.
