

NEW ULM AND VICINITY.

Republican Senatorial Convention.

A district convention of the Republicans of the Ninth Senatorial district will be held at Harmony Hall, Sleepy Eye, on Friday, Sept. 24, 1886, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for senator of said district.

The basis of representation for the counties comprising this district is one delegate for every 150 votes or major fraction thereof cast for Blaine and Logan, electors in 1884, which basis was fixed by the Republican Senatorial committee at their meeting held at New Ulm, Aug. 14, 1886. On this basis the counties comprising the district will be entitled to representations as follows:

Brown 8
Redwood 5

By order of

H. Keller, } Rep. Sena.
A. W. Pederson, } torial
J. S. G. Honner, } Committee.

California fruit at W. Eibner's.

The Republican county convention to nominate officers is called for Saturday, Sept. 25th.

The cold wave struck us Saturday. It was almost cold enough for frost Sunday night.

The "Brown County Agricultural Advertiser" is the name of a new publication now in press. 10,000 copies are being printed.

The Nicollet county fair will be held at St. Peter Sept. 10th and 11th. We are under obligations to the managers for a complimentary.

There was quite a heavy frost Monday night and in some localities vegetables and late corn suffered considerably.

We understand that Mr. E. Roloff will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner in the district composed of the towns Milford, Sigel and Stark.

The fall and winter term of the Dr. Martin Luther college begins to-day. We have not learned the exact number of students present but understand the attendance promises to be quite large.

The Springfield Times is authority for the statement that Wm. Oetting and Henry Klossner of this city will open a hardware store and agricultural machinery warehouse in Springfield.

Mr. Anton Olding while engaged in cleaning out a well yesterday brought to the surface a bottle of Hauenstein's beer manufactured and put up in 1882. The bottle was "tapped" and the beer found greatly improved by age.

The Republican caucus in Turner Hall Friday evening was quite well attended. Mr. E. G. Koch presided and Mr. Ed. Huebner acted as scribe. The caucus was very harmonious and the delegates to the county convention were elected without opposition.

The third annual fair of the Southern Minnesota Live Stock and Fair Association will be held at Mankato Sept. 21, 22, 23 and 24. It will no doubt be the best fair ever held under the auspices of the society. Our thanks are due the society for a comp.

The Redwood county fair will be held Sept. 22, 23 and 24. The Redwood G. A. R. Post will arrange a grand camp fire for the same dates to which all neighboring Posts are invited. It is intended by the managers to have theatrical performances in the evenings.

The board of education at their session last Friday unanimously adopted the recommendation of Supt. Nix to appoint Miss Clara Rehfeld to the vacant teachership in the primary class in the Union school house. Miss R. is a graduate of the Mankato normal school.

Mr. A. H. S. Perkins, editor of the Capron (Ill.) Herald, who recently visited this section, tells his readers that New Ulm, the scene of the Indian massacre of 1862 and the cyclone of 1881, is a place of about 3,500 inhabitants, and contains some beautiful residences and substantial business houses.

The Springfieldites still have faith in their coal mine. A stock company has recently been organized with J. S. Colmy, president; Gust. Nuessle, secretary and Wolfgang Schmidt, treasurer. Shares are $10 each and find ready sale. It would be a grand thing for this whole section if our Springfield friends realized expectations and unearthed coal in paying quantities.

It's a poor community that can't have a sea serpent nowadays. The last discovery of a huge monster was made in Lake Mazaska, near Faribault. It is described by the party that made the discovery as having scales of a bright hue which glistened in the sun as it glided through the water. Its length is said to be no less than thirty feet, with a head of gigantic proportions. Something must be wrong with the liquor people drink these days.

5000 bushels of CORN wanted at the New Ulm Vinegar Works. For particulars enquire of Theo. Crone, New Ulm, Minn.

Wasaca Radical.—New Ulm clerks are asking that stores and places of business be closed on Sunday. Certainly clerks should have one day of rest in seven. It is sufficiently bad to hold clerks after 8 o'clock in the evening, but entirely unjust to make them work month in and month out without a day of rest.

We understand that on Tuesday, Sept. 14th, the second day of the fair, a meeting will be held at Turner Hall with a view of organizing a horse protective association. All horse owners and others interested in the protection of horses from theft are cordially invited to be present and assist in the organization.

Slayton Gazette.—Col. Bobleter received a handsome endorsement at the hand of the Murray county convention held here last Saturday. Every delegate present voted for the resolution instructing the delegates to the state convention to use all honorable means to secure his nomination as state treasurer.

The excursion that was to start from this city to Lake Benton to-day did not materialize, nor will it. Too few took any interest in the matter to make it a success and the prime mover very sensibly directed his energies in another direction. We are quite sure our people could have put in one or more days at the lake very pleasantly, but of course all these pleasures cost money. There's the rub.

If you want to take a week's vacation, and have a good time attend the Rochester Fair. Big attractions are promised every day. Hotel and boarding houses are plenty and rates reasonable. The Association extends an invitation to any and all persons to bring tents, and camp out on their grounds during the week. Good localities will be given for the encampment, with plenty of water, and no charges for space, regular charges of admission $1.50. Season tickets 50 cents single admissions.

Less than two weeks until the opening of the county fair. It is hoped that every town in the county will be represented by a display of this year's products. Never before have the managers so exerted themselves to have a fair worthy the name and they are deserving of the hearty support of every farmer in the county. Bring on your wheat, corn, potatoes, etc., and compare notes. Every farmer has raised something worthy a place in the exhibit and it will do him no harm and may do him much good to show it.

Capt. Eckstein departed Saturday evening with Brown county's exhibit at the State Fair. So few of our people took any interest in the matter that the exhibit is far from coming up to expectations. Capt. George and Rev. A. Berghold furnished the greater part of the vegetables and other farm products. Mr. Aufderheide, Mr. Stoeckert, the Empire Mill and a few others furnished exhibits, and there is no reason why every farmer and manufacturer in the county should not have furnished something. There should at least have been a full car load.

Winona Republican.—Conductor Fred Morgan brought the passenger train from Tracy to this city last (Friday) night. When they left Tracy the cold wave, reported as being central over Dakota yesterday, was full upon them and the shivering passengers in summer clothes clamored for a fire. Fred accommodated them, and as the train passed Springfield on its way eastward it ran square into the hot wave again. The stoves were red hot, and the passengers became more so as they one and all rushed for the platform, declaring their faith in Mr. Beecher's theory that we get it here on earth.

The annual competition between the regimental rifle teams of the Minnesota National Guard will take place at the U. S. range, Fort Snelling, on the 13 and 14 of this month. The Second regiment team is constituted as follows: Lieut. E. W. Bird, Staff; Sergeants. Dodd and Carpenter, Corpl. French and Private Chandler, of Co. I; Sergeants. Shanks and Payne, Corpls. Walker and Livermore and Private Warren of Co. D. Alternates: Private Hawks, Co. C, and Private Plummer, Co. G.

We understand that the New Ulm Post has passed into the hands of Mr. A. A. Bogen and that Mr. Ernst Brandt has been completely frozen out. We in common with many of our people are considerably surprised that Mr. Brandt should be pushed aside so ruthlessly, as he has been connected with the paper for over sixteen years and has had editorial charge since Mr. L. Bogen's death. It would not be surprising if the change of proprietorship meant a change in the politics of the paper and that ere long it will appear as a clean-cut Democratic sheet. Mr. Brandt informs us that he will now devote his entire time to his duties in the probate office.

The burning out of a chimney in Mr. Dietz's residence on Minnesota street, between 3d and 4th North streets, about 12:45 p. m. last Monday, created considerable excitement for the time being. The mills sounded the fire alarm in remarkable short time, but before the fire department reached the scene of the incipient conflagration all danger had been passed. A heavy gale was blowing from the Northwest, which made the excitement; all the more intense as a fire from that quarter would have made serious work.

The Republican convention last Saturday, was composed of a representative body of men, and all but three towns in the county were represented. The action of the convention in permitting the editor of this paper to select his own delegates to the State convention was a very kind act and duly appreciated, and he sincerely hopes that the delegates who supported the motion will have no reason to regret the confidence reposed in him. The adoption of the resolution endorsing the Hon. C. K. Davis for the United States Senate was a very proper thing to do, as it no doubt sounds the sentiments of nine-tenths of the Republicans of this county.

A special to Friday's Pioneer Press says there is a great Indian scare in the southern part of Renville county, and rumors of the wildest kind are flying about. Fritz Arhnes, stage driver from Beaver Falls, says that large numbers of Indians are encamped along Beaver creek, north of Beaver Falls. Some forty of them raided the house of Henry Arhnes and so frightened the family that they fled. No damage was done save the stealing of a few chickens and some small articles. They are raiding hen roosts and gardens and stealing any small thing that comes handy all through that neighborhood. When asked what they are there for they answer, "None of your business." Arhnes also says there are several hundred of them camping in Redwood county on the Minnesota river bottoms, on the site of their former agency.

About 7:45 p. m. Friday our people were startled by the announcement that John Stragant, alias Char. Bertran, alias Geo. Mason, had broken jail and made good his escape. It appears that J. Schapekahn, the jailor, had stepped inside the corridor to lock the prisoners in their cells for the night, and as he turned to lock the corridor door Stragant, who had crouched near the door against the wall, dodged out behind him and skipped along the hall and out through the front door of the jail like a streak of lightning. By the time Mr. Schapekahn had locked the door to keep the other prisoners safe Stragant had disappeared completely in the darkness. He departed in such a hurry that he took neither hat nor coat with him. He was in jail awaiting trial at the October term of the district court for stealing a watch and some money from Albert Winkelman at Springfield last Spring. He is described as being about five feet three inches high, brown hair, grey eyes, sandy complexion, weighs about 135 pounds and is about 27 years old. He is as sharp as a razor and as slippery as an eel. Sheriff Schmid, who is making commendable efforts to recapture the criminal, offers a liberal reward for his apprehension.

LATER.—Since the above has been put in type, we learn that Stragant emerged from a cornfield in the town of Lake Hanska at dusk last Saturday evening and proceeded to the house of Elef Asleson where he enquired the way to Madelia. As Sheriff Schmid had been there during the day and gave the alarm, the stranger was at once recognized as the escaped prisoner. Asleson gave him the desired information, but invited him into the house to supper in the hope of detaining him and making his capture. Stragant was not to be caught in that way and he politely declined the invitation and proceeded on his way. Mr. A. then hitched up his team and in company with Ole Wisted and C. Roland followed and overtook the fugitive. They invited him into the wagon and ride, which he did, and they then turned around and drove back to the house. As Stragant was still coatless and hatless they put an overcoat on him and, after being joined by a fourth man, a start for New Ulm was made. Stragant entered a decided objection to this procedure and jumped from the wagon and again made good his escape. One of the men grabbed him as he jumped but the overcoat only remained in his hand.

Democratic Caucus.

If anyone expected a strife between the Kelly-Doran Democrats and the anti-Friday evening caucus he was sadly disappointed. If there were any conflicting elements in the caucus they did not clash and a more harmonious gathering it would be hard to imagine. The caucus was organized by the election of Mr. E. G. Pahl chairman and Mr. C. W. H. Heideman secretary. Delegates were elected to the county convention as follows: C. W. H. Heideman, E. G. Pahl, R. Pfeifferle, Dr. Randall, M. Mullen, Ed. Dunkel, John Schmid and Fr. Pfander. The whole business was done in five minutes.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Asst. P. M. Weddendorf is doing St. Paul and Minneapolis to-day.

—Burt W. Lyon, editor of the Springfield Times, was calling on our people yesterday.

—Frank M. Whitney, night operator at this station, was called down to Winona last week on business.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Peterson, Mrs. Pfeifferle, Geo. Schneider and several others from this city are taking in the State Fair and Minneapolis exposition this week.

—Mr. J. H. Strasser, for the past two years on the editorial staff of the Minneapolis Herald, arrived in our city Thursday evening to assume editorial charge of the New Ulm Post.

—Herman Kuehnle, who has been in California for sometime, returned home a few days ago. Mr. K. was quite ill during his absence but says he is all right now. He looks it.

—Fred Hauenstein has accepted a position in a jewelry store in Owatonna. Fred is an exemplary young man and will soon ingratiate himself with Owatonna's best society.

—Mr. Hermann, the St. Paul professor of gymnastics, was called home Friday evening. He promised to return in October and join in a goose hunt with the boys. 'Tis well.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican county convention met at the Court House at 1:30 o'clock p. m. Saturday, Aug. 28th, and was called to order by Mr. K. H. Helling, chairman of the Republican county committee. The convention organized by the election of Mr. Edwin Paulson, of Linden, as chairman and Mr. Ernst Brandt, of New Ulm, as secretary. On motion, the chair appointed a committee on credentials as follows: John Lind, Clement Halverson, Gust. Spellbrink. The committee made report showing the following named delegates present and entitled to seats in the convention:

The report of the committee was adopted.

On motion, Jos. Bobleter, candidate for State Treasurer, was authorized to name delegates and alternates to the State convention. He thanked the convention for the honor conferred and explained that while he knew the gentlemen present were all his friends and that he would be greatly pleased to have them all go to St. Paul as delegates, but as the county was only entitled to four he hoped the convention would pardon him if he selected such delegates as in his opinion could best further his interests. He named the following:

DELEGATES. John Lind, Fr. Burg, S. D. Peterson, W. W. Smith.

ALTERNATES. And. W. Pederson, W. Hauenstein, C. Halverson, Geo. Heart.

On motion, the chair appointed a committee of five to report names for delegates to the Ninth district senatorial convention. The committee after a brief consultation recommended the election of the following delegates, whose recommendation was adopted: Jos. Bobleter, C. W. A. Krook, C. D. Griffith, A. W. Pederson, A. J. Gilman, D. I. Russell, John Neuman, Geo. W. Harrington.

Hon. John Lind offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that: Recognizing with pride the worth of Col. Jos. Bobleter, both as a citizen and as a soldier and veteran, with full confidence in his integrity, ability and fitness, we heartily commend him to the State Convention for nomination for State Treasurer, and our delegates are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

Resolved, further: That it is the sense of this convention, that no man shall be nominated for a legislative office at the hands of the Republicans in this district, who is not in favor of the election of Gov. C. K. Davis to the U. S. Senate at the ensuing session, and who will not publicly pledge his best efforts and his vote to secure such result. There being no further business the convention adjourned sine die.
