The marriage of Peter Gareis, of this place, and Miss Mary Brenner, of Morgan, was solemnized at the Lutheran church by Rev. Albrecht yesterday afternoon. The Review extends its best wishes.

Someone, connected with the national weather bureau, made the prediction a few months ago that the present summer would be a cool one. Ninety-five degrees in the shade on the 20th of June hardly bears out the assertion.

F. P. Brown, of Blue Earth City, who is a candidate for secretary of state on the Republican ticket, was in the city last Wednesday, looking over his political prospects. Mr. Brown is now Register of Deeds of Faribault County, and is a Norwegian.

The residences of C. L. Roos and Mr. Dittbrenner, who lives at the foot of the college bluffs, were entered by thieves on circus day, and robbed of a few small articles of little value. It is only to be wondered at, that more houses were not broken into.

At Olser's drugstore can be seen the frame, containing the pictures of the members of Charity Lodge, A. F. and A. M. It measures 42 by 54 inches, and is made to hold 69 cabinet size photographs. When filled and placed in its proper position, it will constitute a nice ornament to the Masonic lodge room.

At the Lutheran Synod at St. Paul last week the proposition, presented from New Ulm, to build a residence for the rector was accepted, and building will proceed at once. The Synod also selected another professor for the college. He is a young man, and is at present in the St. Louis Seminary. He has studied both in this country and Germany, and is said to be well qualified for the position which he has been selected to fill.

H. B. Constans, of St. Paul, has been in the city the past few days, shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances. Mr. Constans was at one time mayor of New Ulm and also auditor of Brown County. In the latter capacity he secured Mr. Richard Fischer as deputy, and it was to attend his funeral that he came to New Ulm. He received notice of the death too late, however, and arrived here the day after the funeral had occurred.

Jacob Flachsenhar, a prominent citizen of Mankato, was killed last Thursday afternoon by a falling box of stone, attached to a derrick. He was just passing along the side of the building and in under the derrick, when the man, who managed the brake, lost control of it and allowed the box of stone, weighing about a ton, to fall on Mr. Flachsenhar, crushing and killing him immediately. He was president of the school board, and belonged to several societies, among which were the Ancient Workmen, Sons of Hermann, and Odd Fellows.

Dr. Strickler, of this place, and Dr. Workman, of Tracy, amputated the leg of James Hennessey, a Tracy man, at the hospital last Thursday afternoon. When six years old, Hennessey attempted to jump from a moving train, and in so doing the front of his right leg caught on a spike and was torn open from the middle of the thigh to the shin. The wound was sewed up, but after some time broke open and failed to heal again. It went along that way until a few months ago when cancerous disease set in and necessitated amputation to avoid death. He is now thirty years of age.

A little son arrived in the family of Louis E. Fritsche on Saturday.

Dr. Berry has been very sick the past few days and is still very low.

Alfred Roos is acting as book-keeper for the New Ulm Elevator Company.

The New Ulm Elevator company commenced business yesterday. The office is at the Empire Mill's new building.

Examinations were held in the Lutheran schools on Monday with very good results. The schools have now closed till August 18th.

Messrs. Boesch and Maltzahn have let the contract for their new buildings to a Mr. Gillman, of Minneapolis. Mr. Hanschen will do the mason work.

Davy Crockett, an English play, will be presented by home talent at Turner Hall on the evening of the fourth. The play is a good one, and should be well patronized.

Jos. A. Eckstein, who has been at Boston the past two weeks in attendance upon the annual session of the National Lodge of A. O. U. W., returned to New Ulm last Friday.

Niels Johnson, of Bernadotte, was arrested here last Thursday for being drunk and disorderly. A night's rest in the Bastille cooled off his hilarity, and brought him out the next morning a sober man.

The circus on Thursday was visited by people from miles around. Winthrop, Fairfax, Golden Gate, Springfield and Sleepy Eye were all well represented. The latter place must have been half deserted on that day.

The rose gardens this year are unusually beautiful and it is a pleasure to visit such places as that of Mr. Windmueller, who makes a business of rose culture. Among the private gardens, that of Chas. Stolle is none the less rich in beauty and fragrance.

Christian Backer and Bertha Knees, both of Milford, were married by Rev. Albrecht yesterday afternoon. The parties are well known both in and around New Ulm and have numerous friends, who will join with us in extending heartiest congratulations.

Mankato is having more than its share of sad and painful accidents. On Sunday, Hon. P. A. Foster and Mr. Robert Lind were drowned while bathing in the Minnesota river. The former was a prominent young attorney, and the latter a successful business man.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church will give a strawberry and ice cream festival at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Ross this (Wednesday) evening. This is the first festival of the kind given this season, and those who attend may rest assured of a pleasant time. The social will be for the benefit of the Congregational church and all are cordially invited to attend.

A meeting of the Sioux Monument Committee was held at St. Paul recently, but nothing was done, owing to the absence of Dr. Daniels, of St. Peter. Mr. Pfander, however, has informed us that the committee have as much as agreed on the material to be used, and will settle the matter definitely, both as to material and contract, as soon as all the members can get together. This will be sometime next week.

A case of sunstroke in which John Brunner, son of Xavier Brunner of West Newton, was the victim, is reported from last Friday. The young man was taking an engine to town on that day, and before he had gone far he experienced a curious feeling in the head. He recovered soon, however, and endured the excessive heat until he had reached the Diepolder's hill, when he was again attacked and seriously. He was brought to the hospital, placed in care of physicians, and by night was well enough to return home.

Mr. William Winkelman, from New Ulm, Minn., who was in the lime business at the Great Cottonwood and also proprietor of the Roller Mill at Springfield in that state, came west and after much looking around both here and in the Pacific Coast States has decided to become a citizen of Helena. He has found limestone at Ellison, thirty miles from Helena, which he says is not excelled in the state of Montana. Mr. Winkelman has bought the limekiln there. We wish him much luck in his undertaking, and hope the contractors will do business with him. An acquaintance of 32 years enables us to speak highly of him.—Montana Staats Zeitung.

During circus day at St. Peter, a gang of crooks worked the nut-shell game with a good deal of success. Men, old enough to know better, and men, who are otherwise very careful in spending their money, proved to be the suckers, and as a general rule they did not stop with five or ten dollars but went in for fifty or a hundred. A church deacon, a poor man, who stopped his paper because of his poverty, an energetic farmer, and others who lay claims to great shrewdness, were among those who foolishly bet on another man's game and meekly dropped their little roll on the shell that didn't happen to contain the ball. Verily, the day for big suckers is not yet past.

Rudolph Seiter, in partnership with a Mr. Frank Fischer from St. Joseph, Mo., will open a portrait gallery in the Leibold building.

The five best scores at the last rifle shoot were made by the following in the order given: Gustav Goetch, C. Brust, E. Herzog, August Brandt and E. Brandt.

H. H. Ross, of Columbus, Wis., will handle cash from behind the counters of the Brown County Bank during the summer vacation. He is a nephew of C. H. Ross.

A double wedding among prominent young Lafayette people will occur next Monday. The parties are Jos. Klingler and Mary Gabriel, and Jos. Weninger and Annie Klingler.

The following New Ulm teachers will attend the meeting of the National Educational Association at St. Paul next week: Miss Clara Rehfeld, Miss Mary McCaughin, Prof. Robt. Nix and G. Fischer.

Schubert & Flor, of this city, have been given the contract to furnish the Cottonwood and Milford Farmers' Club with twine. They agreed to furnish an article, half manilla and half sisal, for 12½ cents a pound.

The following relatives from abroad were in attendance at the funeral of Mr. Richard Fischer: Mr. and Mrs. Marek of Minneapolis, Mrs. Braun and son, of Wabasha, and Hugo Fischer, of Quincy, Ill. The latter will remain here till August.

The New Ulm enumerators have finished their work, and while there has been an increase, we are sorry to say that the figures fall far short of the expectation of the majority. The population on the returns will not average much over four to every vote cast at the bond election.

The opening of the flowers of a night, blooming cereus afforded quite an attraction in the window of T. Crone's clothing store on Monday evening. It is a feature of this strange plant that it blooms only once a year and then for only one night. The bud commences to open at sunset, and is closed and withered away by day-break.

H. Frenzel is doing a rushing business these days, and a look into his pop and cider establishment at the present time is interesting. A nice thing about Mr. Frenzel's productions, is the fact that he uses only the very best spring water, thus ensuring only the purest drinks. With continually increasing and improved facilities, also, he is better able now than ever to satisfy his growing trade.

A lawn festival will be given to-night at the home of Rev. A. Berghold. The beautiful gardens, lighted with Chinese lanterns, will be opened at eight o'clock and everybody is welcome. Ice cream, soda water and like refreshments will be served to all comers, and it is intended, amid social chat and pleasant gatherings, to have a regular old-fashioned garden party. Whatever money is taken in, will be used in the purchase of a beautiful stained glass window for the new church.

Wm. Pfander returned from New York Saturday evening. The principal business transacted by the Turner Convention, he tells us, consisted in the decision to accept of a donation by two ladies of a piece of ground in Milwaukee, valued at $50,000, and to unite the German American Teachers' Seminary and the Seminary of the North American Turner Bund for the instruction of teachers in gymnastics, in one. Buildings for these united schools will be erected, the estimated cost of which is placed at $66,000.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Eleonore Winkelman to Mr. Herman Gerber, of Helena, Montana. The bride is the daughter of Mr. William Winkelman, of Cottonwood, who for years has been identified with the interests of New Ulm and Brown County in more ways than one. She is a lady who is generally esteemed and who has hosts of friends. Mr. Gerber is a young gentleman who is in business at Helena. He comes well spoken of, and has certainly been lucky in the selection of his bride. The marriage will occur next Tuesday, and the Review takes this early opportunity of offering its wishes for the happiness and most prosperous of lives.

Saturday night, five young adventurers started up the river in the new steamboat, with the intention of going to Redwood Falls. When darkness overtook them, the boat steered towards shore, and at the same time turned around. A dispute then followed as to which way was up river, and which way was down, and the approaching day had already commenced to spread forth its light, before the crew had reached a decision and were again started on their way towards the river's source. At about seven the next morning, it began to rain, the water almost pouring down in sheets. Drenched through and through, with little hope of a bright day before them, the boys turned homeward, when they had gone as far as West Newton, arriving here as tired as could be, but still persisting that the experience was a nice one.

Quite a number will go from here to St. Peter and Springfield on the fourth.

Wm. Pfander will go to St. Peter today on matters connected with the coming re-union at that place.

County Auditor Bertrand has appointed Ernst Bellmann his deputy; the latter took charge of his position yesterday, July 1st.

Upon the basis of gross receipts for the year ending March 31, 1890, the postoffice at this place has been entered as a third class salaried office and the salary increased $100. This is certainly good news to the postmaster.

Work is again in progress at the new court house. It is to be hoped that the recommendation of the grand jury will be heeded by the commissioners and that the hammer, saw and trowel will be given no rest until the structure is entirely completed.

They say that the Second Regiment is not in favor of camping again at Lake City, but will come to New Ulm next year. Well, if they are willing to come of their own accord, they are welcome, but as far as New Ulm is concerned we think her citizens are done asking for encampment favors.

The following have been licensed to wed: Christopher Schlieman and Mary Zimmermann, Isaac Olson and Petra Harbo, Martin Paulsen and Anna Thompson, Fred Radatzke and Bertha Donner, John McCarthy and Ellen Regan, Christian C. Backer and Bertha Knees, Peter Gareis and Mary Brenner, Frank A. C. Retzlaff and Mary Schuetz, and Bernhard C. Larson and Mary Moe.

One after another, the old farmer pioneers of this vicinity are laying aside the plow and reaper and moving to town to enjoy that well deserved rest and comfort which is needed after years of hard work. Gottfried Hoehne and Bernard Fesemeyer, two prominent pioneers of Cottonwood, now have their residences in New Ulm well under way towards completion, and Nicklaus Klinkhammer, Anton Henle and Mrs. Dorathea Sturm are also making preparations to build residences near the Catholic church, with the view of having them completed and ready for occupancy before winter sets in.

The unusual absence on Thursday of everything, that bore any resemblance to a fair or confidence man, was largely due to the prompt and decisive action of our worthy mayor, Mr. Wagner. No license was granted to anyone to work the nutshell and other rackets, and the circus men were given to understand from the start that the first attempt at anything of that kind would be sufficient to hold the circus management itself responsible. Warnings like this and an extra police force succeeded in making the day a very quiet one, and many there are who can now look back and thank the efficient authorities in that they are money ahead instead of fifty or a hundred dollars out on another man's game.

As stated in the last issue of the Review, no great preparations have been made to celebrate the Fourth here, but those who come to New Ulm, may feel satisfied that they will have fully as much amusement if not more than will be given in many towns, which have advertised their celebrations with posters as large as a barn door. In the morning, the exhibition drill and parade of Burg's Battery will take place and in the afternoon, as will be seen from notices in another column, exercises will be held at both Turner Hall Park and Schmucker's. In the evening an English theatre will be presented at Turner Hall and dances at all of the halls will furnish amusement to every lover of the "light fantastic." Again we say, if you would have a good time on the 4th, come to New Ulm.
