Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, North and South Dakota News in a Nutshell.

MINNESOTA.

The funeral of August F. Poehler, of Henderson was conducted under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, assisted by the Sons of Herman.

The gripe is prevalent in Rochester and Olmsted county to an alarming degree. Several leading citizens are seriously ill, and the disease proved fatal in the case of Owen McNiff, an old citizen.

Charles Reardon a convict at the state prison, died of pneumonia. Reardon was serving a three year's sentence for assault in the second degree. He was sentenced from Winona, Oct. 5, 1889.

Mrs. Samuel Burkhart, a resident of Wabasha since 1855, died at her home recently of old age, being in her ninety-second year. She was the mother of Senator Henry Burkhart of Wabasha.

Work has been commenced on the new opera house at Detroit, just two weeks from the date of the fire which destroyed the old one. Contractor John L. Bjorkquist has the job for $18,200. He has a large crew of men at work.

The district court has convened at Glenwood. There is considerable excitement owing to the grand jury investigations as to liquor being sold without license, some forty witnesses having been summoned to appear and testify.

District court convened at Waseca to try the case of the county against the bondsmen of Charles McKenna, defaulting county treasurer. It will be remembered that McKenna decamped, leaving the county several thousand short, and the country is endeavoring to get it from his hands.

E. Kendall, Belle Plaine's city justice, drove to the Minnesota river to water his team. It being very high and the ice was moving freely. It is supposed the horses made a rush to turn around, but got tangled. They were found floundering in the mud and water nearly perished from cold, but the old gentleman could not be found.

The organization of the lumbermen's union was perfected at Stillwater. The union aims at preventing a 10 per cent discount of time checks when cashed in the spring, and provides a sick and death benefit to members. A petition is being prepared asking mill owners to cut down the number of hours for a day's work from 11 to 10.

John Sheldon of High Forest was driving over the old territorial bridge near Salem, which was submerged to the depth of 400 feet by high water, when, becoming frightened, his team backed off from the bridge into the Zumbro river, throwing him underneath the wagon box. The team valued at $400, was drowned, and Mr. Sheldon barely managed to save his own life.

The Goodhue County Farmers' club, in order to ascertain fully the advantages offered here for the successful cultivation of sugar beets, has offered a series of prizes to those in this country who engage in this culture for experimental purposes. A large number have already signified their intention of doing so, and it is expected that more will follow their example.

The Red River presbytery met at Warren. James Compton was elected moderator, Dr. George Pollock of Pegasus Falls was elected delegate to the general assembly, which meets in Detroit, Mich., in May. Rev. J. H. Johnson of Western was elected alternate. A. P. Frank of Warren was elected lay delegate and James Compton alternate. An overture was sent to the general assembly asking it to examine into the heterodoxy of Prof. Buggs.

There is great disappointment by Republican politicians at Brainerd over the attempt to defeat the Brainerd city charter amendments that had been put through the legislature by Representatives Stivers and Hemstead. Gov. Merriam was labored with to veto the charter but in vain. The delegation that went from here for that purpose returned to-day, saying the governor could not be moved to interfere. The Democrats and Knights of Labor score quite a victory by the charges secured.

At the municipal election for the city of Wabasha, the citizens' ticket was elected without opposition. The newly elected officers are as follows: Mayor, Simon E. Drury; recorder, R. E. Stearns; treasurer, M. A. Odink; assessor, R. E. Stearns; justice, R. E. Stearns; alderman first ward, C. C. Hirsch; alderman second ward, Henry Schwedes; alderman third ward, C. J. Haines; constable first ward, Robert McClarney; constable second ward, Robert Whiting; constable third ward, Charles Greenwood.

NORTH DAKOTA.

At the city election at Jamestown Mayor Fuller and Treasurer Webster were re-elected. George Purchase was elected magistrate, and Alfred Steele, Dan Buckley, James Hayes and W. H. Fletcher, aldermen.

Manager Gottschalk of the Fargo opera house, was tried on the charge of assaulting Walter Doheny of Grand Forks, and acquitted. The trouble grew out of Doheny getting the wrong seat and refusing to give it up.

Fire totally destroyed Peoples & Shields' lively stable and contents at Mandan. Thirteen horses were cremated. Race's harness shop, the adjoining building, was a total loss. He saved about half his stock. Both parties are insured.

Seeding is well under way in the vicinity of Church's Ferry especially on the high land. The ground is thoroughly moist to the depth of four feet. Many farmers who spent the winter elsewhere have returned more fully satisfied with this country than ever before.

At a largely attended mass meeting held at Bismarck it was resolved to ask ex-Senator Pierce to urge upon the secretary of war the importance of retaining at Bismarck the headquarters of the engineer in charge of the improvements on the upper Missouri.

Papers were served on representatives of J. J. Hill at Fargo, to show cause why a proxy should not be given to Edwards to vote the stock held by Hill at the election of directors, as ordered by the court. It is thought that this will further complicate what already seems a fifteen puzzle to those seeking control of the Argus.

A larger acreage of wheat will be sown this year than ever in the vicinity of Mandan, and already a good deal has been done in this direction. In some parts of this country the farmers sowed their wheat in January and some in the fall. The ground is now in excellent condition, moist and in good shape to work.

Public Examiner Wallace has issued a circular notifying any man whom it may concern, that after April 20 all violators of the state banking law will be dealt with according to law. Some private bankers, in order to evade assessment for 1891 taxes, are neglecting to comply with section 27, requiring incorporation, and the circular is directed against them.

A Minto special says: The weather is delightful now. There has been plenty of moisture and a great deal of mud this spring. This, in connection with the fact that the ground was thoroughly soaked last fall, will put the soil in the best possible condition for a crop. Seeding will begin two or three weeks later than last season, but the prospects of a good crop are better for that. The plowed fields are drying off fast under a hot sun and warm wind. It is thought some farmers will commence seeding this week.

Col. E. S. Nettleton, engineer in charge of the government irrigation investigation in the plain region, was at Jamestown consulting with Senator Casey and made a preliminary survey of the season's work. He has gone south. An irrigation station for the purpose of determining what can be done will be established here. Some investigations will be made this year with a view to ascertaining the practicability of irrigating the Jim river valley from the Missouri. The plan is thought to be feasible if the Missouri is tapped somewhere to the north. Col. Nettleton stated that from May 15 to Oct. 1, the greater part of the time of the commission would be spent in the Dakotas.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Mitchell's brick manufactory has been removed to Spencer, Ia.

Citizens of Parker are taking the preliminary steps toward building an opera house.

A large amount of scientific apparatus has been received from Philadelphia for the use of Watertown schools.

A spring has been discovered at Sturgis, the water of which will cause hair to grow on the balded of heads.

The citizens of Pierre have been holding a mass convention to urge the resumption of work on the Aberdeen-Pierre railroad.

John Whitmayer recently disposed of three quarter sections of land ten miles northwest of Scotland for $4,100.

State Engineer Baldwin has already located twelve artesian wells and has applications for twenty more. He believes there will be 100 artesian wells put down this year under the Melville law.

Pierre laborers are not satisfied with the wages paid them and a general strike is contemplated. They claim the necessities of life are not in proportion to their salaries. The Journal thinks the move unwise.

Frank Grover, a farmer living three miles north of Faulkton, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a shotgun. Dependency is supposed to be the cause of the act. He leaves a widow and two small children.

Fred Hundley was sentenced to fourteen years at hard labor in the penitentiary. On June 5 last, Fred and his father, Hon. Z. T. Hundley, were putting down a carpet when they got into a difficulty over some trivial matter and Fred shot his father dead. Deceased at the time was editor of the Herald-Democrat and chairman of the state Democratic central committee.

Charles H. Herriek, a young unmarried farmer of Vermont City, Edmunds county, committed suicide in his shack, by cutting his throat with a jack knife. In February last Herriek was arrested and bound over on the charge of attempting to defraud the government by affixing a canceled 2-cent stamp to a letter and mailing same. It is believed this trouble unbalanced his mind, and that while temporarily insane he took his life. None of Herriek's neighbors believes that he knowingly perpetrated the offense.

Prof. Albert E. Foster of Sioux Falls has been arrested on the charge of bigamy. The charges against him are that in Hamilton, Ont., he married a young lady by the name of Carrie Windom. Two years afterward he married a lady in Peru, Ind., who is known as Florence No. 2. In 1889 he appeared in Newport, Ky., where he gained entrance to the best circles, and married the daughter of Cephas Knight, a prominent and wealthy merchant. Last December he came to Sioux Falls. His arrest was caused by the father of No. 3. A requisition has been applied for and he will be taken to Newport, Ky., for trial.

WISCONSIN.

Three children are drowned at Birch Lake Wisconsin.

The village of Shrocton, Wis., has been almost totally destroyed by fire. Total loss, $30,000.

The farm residence of John McKee, near Delavan, was burned with most of its contents.

Sammy Clemmons, a son of Capt. Clemmons, of Berlin, is believed to have perished in a snow-slide in Idaho.

The Indian delegation led Black River Falls for Washington to try to secure a part of the principal of their trust fund.

A porcupine that weighed about twenty-five pounds was killed in Janesville. Its quills were from 11 to 13 inches long.

Mrs. Timothy Wooden, a pioneer resident at Grafton, died at Englewood, Ill., where she had been residing with her daughter.

Dr. Wm. F. Smith, the Chicago oculist who died recently, was, it is said, to have been married to Miss Lizzie Merrill, of Manitowish.

The German Reformed church building at Waukesha, formerly occupied by Carroll college is being torn down to make way for a new structure.

Reports from all over the state indicate that the ground is in good condition and that farm work is in full blast. Much small grain has already been sown.

George A. Barry of Eau Claire received his commission as register of the United States land office, succeeding L. P. Hotchkiss, resigned.

The Northwestern Lumber company, of Eau Claire, opened the sawing season recently by starting its Porterville mills. Other mills will start early.

The thorne presented at St. Paul's Episcopal cathedral at Fond du Lac is in place. It is richly carved, is 17 feet high and cost the donor, Mrs. E. C. Davis, of Boston, about $1,200.

The bondsmen of ex-County Treasurer Sever Serley of Chippewa Falls paid $15,000 the amount at which they compromised with the county board in full settlement. Serley will be tried for embezzlement next month.

Officers and employees of the Southern Minnesota division of the Milwaukee are at La Crosse looking for houses. It is settled that the entire plant, shops as well as general offices, will be moved here. La Crosse business men have urged the removal of the offices as a matter of business convenience, but never asked more than that. They are very much pleased with the promised change.

About 325 persons are now in the line of files at the land office, at Ashland. An attempt was made and was successful in one instance to drop the guards, stationed by those in line to keep out intruders. A bottle of whisky containing some drug was offered them. Only one of the guards took a drink, and he was soon unconscious. The men feel very indignant over the affair, and are now fully confirmed in their belief that a rush will be made on them before the 17th.

The Winnebagoes, after nearly two weeks of delay and contention, and after agreeing on and then disagreeing on, at least a dozen different delegations, at last sent the following delegates to Washington: Big Hawk, Red Cloud, Green Cloud, Jim Eagle and John Staca. The financial trouble was settled and the matter will be dropped. From what can be learned the mission will be fruitless so far as receiving aid beyond the interest on their trust fund, which amounts to about $27,000 annually. That the Indians are sorely in need of more aid is beyond any doubt, but such aid will have to come through congressional enactment, which will not be possible until the next congress assembles.

IOWA.

Cattle in the vicinity of Sioux City are dying in great numbers for want of hay. The short crop of last year is exhausted, and cattle can be bought for a mere song.

At Davenport, the bell clothing store was burned out early. It was owned by Max Weber of Chicago. A stock of shoes owned by E. E. Murray & Co. was also destroyed. Loss, $35,000; fully insured.

Rev. Wm. Salter, D. D., has resigned the pastorate of the Congregational church at Burlington after a continuous service in that pulpit for 43 years. He came to Iowa in 1848 and was the first of the pioneer preachers of the Northwest.

A sale of 135 lots for the benefit of the German English college took place at Charles City. The premises bid upon that number amounted to $3,450, or nearly $25 per lot. The sale was then adjourned to April 18, when the balance of the lots will be sold. Work is expected to commence upon the college buildings shortly.

It is officially given out that the warehouses and other property of the St. Louis & St. Paul Packet company, between and including St. Louis and Davenport, together with the packet Gem City, have been sold to the Diamond Jo line. This means the final abandonment of the upper Mississippi river by the St. Paul line as the only seaworthy boat remaining in its possession is the St. Paul, which will probably be leased by the Diamond Jo line.

Adolph Arndt, a farmer living in Newark township, near Fort Dodge was arrested on information of a river land squatter. This is a revival of the celebrated river land trouble. Arndt purchased land from which the informant had been evicted. The latter now causes his arrest as the matter is still pending in the courts, and until decided, squatters will probably be entitled to hold the land.

There was great excitement in Dubuque over the resignation of Alderman Babcock, of the Second ward, who had previously stated that he would take this course if Dennis Smith, independent candidate in First ward, was elected alderman. Mr. Babcock is an Englishman, landlord of the Merchant's Hotel and a democrat. Smith is an Irishman, also a democrat, and the Irish people are indignant over the action of Ald. Babcock.

Beer and whisky are still flowing freely over the bars of the thirty saloons recently enjoined through the efforts of the state temperance alliance in Webster county. The decrees have been issued, but Sheriff Adams has refused to serve the papers unless the fees are paid in advance. State's Attorney Baker, of the Alliance, has threatened the sheriff with criminal proceedings for refusal to perform his duties if he persists in refusing to serve like injunctions. He has persisted, and matters are now at a standstill.

"August Flower"

I had been troubled five months with Dyspepsia. The doctors told me it was chronic. I had a fullness after eating and a heavy load in the pit of my stomach. I suffered frequently from a Water Brash of clear matter. Sometimes a deathly Sickness at the Stomach would overtake me. Then again I would have the terrible pains of Wind Colic. At such times I would try to belch and could not. I was working then for Thomas McHenry, Druggist, Cor. Irwin and Western Ave., Allegheny City, Pa., in whose employ I had been for seven years. Finally I used August Flower, and after using just one bottle for two weeks, was entirely relieved of all the trouble. I can now eat things I dared not touch before. I would like to refer you to Mr. McHenry, for whom I worked, who knows all about my condition, and from whom I bought the medicine. I live with my wife and family at 39 James St., Allegheny City, Pa. Signed, JOHN D. COX.

Journalistic Enterprise in Paris. Most new inventions especially journalistic inventions come from America; but it is to the versatile Parisians that the credit of the very latest thing in journalism is due. The Compagnie Generale des Voitures is on the point of starting a paper, entitled Paris-Voitures, which is original in more ways than one. Noisy news-vendors are to give way to automatic machines. Every cab is to be furnished with one of these; you put a 10-cent piece in the slot and you draw out a Paris-Voitures. The paper is to contain the bills of the theatres, illustrated notes, and "tips" for the races. As if this were not sufficient inducement to the ordinary boulevardier to make the double investment in the cab and the paper for the company's benefit, the happy purchase of the paper is insured against any accident that may happen in the course of the drive. This device is not now heard of for the first time, but it may prove reassuring to the cautious foreigner, who is alarmed at the reckless driving of the Paris John. By a purely original contrivance the holder of a Paris-Voitures is to be entitled to a discount of 10 per cent. at the principal shops mentioned in the paper. Lastly, in the spirit of true utilitarian philosophy, business is to be combined with philanthropy; the automatic machine company which undertakes the distribution promising to devote 10 per cent. of its profits to founding a cabmen's refuge.—Pall Mall Gazette.

A Mistake Somewhere. "Got fine boy here," telegraphed Spriggins to his wife's mother, after the arrival of his first son and heir. Six hours later he was surprised to see his mother-in-law walk into his office, tearful-eyed and sad of face. "O, Joseph," she gasped, "isn't it too perfectly dreadful?" "Dreadful? I think it's grand!" said Spriggins, in the vaulting pride of young fatherhood. "O, Joseph! How can you say so! Is Mamie alive?" "Why, certainly, and doing splendidly." "I'm surprised to hear it: I supposed I'd find the poor girl dead! It's the awfullest thing I ever heard of!" "Why," said Spriggins, resentfully, "we thought you'd be tickled to death." "Tickled? I've cried ever since I got the telegram. I wonder you can be so calm, and I'd like to know what poor Mamie is to do! Oh it is awful! I just sat with that telegram on my lap and cried all the way here!" The telegram fell from her trembling hand as she spoke. Spriggins picked it up and read: "Got five boys here."—Drake's Magazine.

Prince of Meissonier's Pictures. Meissonier had the distinction of obtaining the highest price per square inch for his work which has ever been obtained; even the £30,000 paid for the "Angelus" of Millet sinks into insignificance before the sums which, not once but a dozen times, were paid for his canvases. Even the reproductions of his works have followed suit, and the proofs of one only just issued are selling at sixty guineas apiece. As a sample of the prices obtained, M. Delahante, who bought Meissonier's picture "1814," depicting the retreat of Napoleon's army from Moscow, paid £3,600 for the work, and it was ultimately bought by M. Chaularcher for £34,000. The millionaire American bought pictures of Meissonier at his own price—sometimes £12,000—and a number of his most famous works are on this side of the Atlantic.

No Soap. It is stated that soap in India is regarded almost in the light of a natural curiosity, for it is rarely if ever to be obtained at a shopkeeper there. Of course it is sold in the largest towns; but the amount used by the natives must be very small, seeing that the total consumption of soap in India last year was only 5,000 tons. This means that the amount used by each person for the year was considerably less than one ounce.—Chamber's Journal.
