YOUR OPPORTUNITY.
I have just unpacked my holiday goods, of which I have a remarkably beautiful assortment this year, and the public will find it to their interest to inspect the many desirable articles now on exhibition on my counters and shelves. Lamps, fancy dishes and glassware of all sorts and in the prettiest patterns are included in the stock and I invite one and all to take advantage of an early opportunity to make their Christmas selections.

F. H. Behnke.

WELL.

What is it? Oh I have been puzzled to know what to buy for Christmas. Is that all? Why go to Hauenstein, the Jeweler.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family, and consider it the best I have ever tried.—W. J. Flowers, Doraville, Ga. 50 cent bottles for sale by O. M. Olsen, Druggist.

A H!

When a small boy finds his powers of expression failing on account of the beauty of the subject in hand, he just says:

A H!

We are not small boys, nor are you, but we venture to say that you will join us in a chorus of Ahs! when you see our line of Gold Watches. Come now, examine and price them at

There will be a Thanksgiving concert in the Methodist church to-morrow evening. Services will also be held in the Congregational church in the morning.

James Crowley, the Marshall man, who has been serving a sentence of 90 days in our county jail for violation of the Scheffer law, was released Thursday morning.

The two hose companies will start a club room in the school house in German Park. The city has given them the use of the large room in the second story free of charge.

Lind & Hagberg will be located in their new offices in about a week. As all the furniture will be of oak, they will have as fine a suite of rooms as any law firm in Southern Minnesota.

H. L. Blethen of Minneapolis has accepted the position of engineer in the New Ulm Roller Mill and will move his family to this city next month. Mr. Blethen is a cousin of Alden J., formerly editor of the Minneapolis Tribune.

The Redpath Star Concert Company which appears here on the 16th of next month is an attraction of the highest order. Secure your seats early, therefore, and help along the worthy effort that is being made to give New Ulm deserving entertainments.

The signers to the Danz guarantee fund have appropriated the dividend of $30 to the purchase of a large oak table and comfortable oak chairs. These will be appreciated at future meetings of the signers, who seem to have established themselves as a sort of permanent lyceum bureau.

The Hamlin's Wizard Oil Advertising Co. have the boards at the Union Hall this week. An entertainment of music, acrobatic performances and old jokes together with a lot of presents is given each evening.

Judge Brandt, of New Ulm, was in the city on Saturday. His trip here was to visit the hospital for the purpose of seeing how Brown county patients are getting along. Mr. Brandt is one of the most popular judges in the state.—St. Peter Herald.

There will be a basket social at the residence of Hon. John Lind on Tuesday evening, December 1st, for the benefit of the Congregational church. Each lady attending is requested to bring a luncheon in basket for two. The public are cordially invited.

A prosperous farmer of Ridgely has been detected at Fairfax selling sand in his wheat. In a year of plenty like this when wheat is almost as numerous as sand, a man's grasping greed must be tremendous when he is tempted to resort to such methods of money-making as this.

Negotiations are being made by the New Ulm lyceum bureau with an eastern concern to secure Bill Nye for one lecture in this city. A better idea could hardly have entered one's head. Nye is preeminently the nation's funny man and, to use a common expression, "it is well worth the price of admission alone" to see him.

A man charged with horse stealing was asked by one of our justices the other day if he was ever arrested for stealing. He replied in the affirmative and when questioned in detail explained that he had stolen water melons and apples. Were all people so frank in their admissions, the number of thieves in our midst would seem alarming.

Senator Tawney of Winona talked about politics in the First district for a short while when in the city on Saturday. The Democrats, he said, would renominate Harries, and the Republicans had many good men who could win. The only thing that the Republicans needed to look after was harmony over the selection of their own candidate.

Down in Nicollet last week, it is said a troupe of ten played Othello, Hamlet and Richard III, and it is also claimed that this troupe of tragedians "barnstormers" will visit New Ulm. We have not learned exactly of the appreciation of the audiences for their performances, but in all human probability it was a good deal like that which is commonly supposed to possess the mind of the critical editor upon not receiving any "comps."

B. S. Marti of Fairfax spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Blanchard is spending the week in Mankato.

Attorney Steinhauer visited Sleepy Eye and Springfield on business last Wednesday.

The steam heating plant was placed in Messrs. Lind & Hagberg's new store and offices this week. The rest of the building will not be furnished with steam heating apparatus until next year.

Mr. Schaeffer, the Windom man, from whose lung and intestines Dr. Strickler in a delicate operation extricated pieces of a broken rib, is improving rapidly at the hospital and is now able to take short drives.

An exchange states that the May Louise Aigen Company, which played here this season, is minus a treasurer and several hundred dollars. When here they looked as though they had been minus dollars for some time.—St. Peter Herald.

J. B. Kennedy was arrested last Saturday night by Night-watch Gulden and lodged in Hotel de Schmelz, the apartments of which are pleasant or unpleasant according to one's taste. Monday morning he was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $8.25.

Herman Mueller, clerk in the post-office, left for St. Paul Monday evening to be present at a banquet tendered by the Pioneer Press Company to its Northwestern agents. In addition to the banquet, free railroad fare and a ride about the city were among the courtesies extended.

James Patterson, brakeman on the Redwood branch, met with a painful accident on Tuesday of last week. Just as the train pulled out from Redwood Falls, he slipped, in attempting to board the engine, and fell so that the drive wheels passed over his foot, severing it at the ankle.

The new Evangelical church will be dedicated next Sunday. In the morning Rev. Eyrych of Le Sueur will preach, at 2:30 in the afternoon Rev. Meske will deliver a sermon and in the evening at 7:30 the congregation will be addressed by Rev. Baumgarten of the Methodist church.

Albert Behnke is engaged in circulating a petition among the business men, requesting the railroad company to place a flag-man at the Centre Street crossing for the protection of the public. Years ago when the trains ran once or twice a day there was no need for anything of this kind, but now, when engines pass the crossing every few minutes, it is a precaution that is really necessary.

W. J. Bean, one of Nicollet county's best known farmers, was in the city on Monday and was surprised at the manner in which New Ulm is climbing to the front rank among the cities of Minnesota. He remembers the time, he says, when it was only a small hamlet, and the evidences of hustling which are present in every branch of the city's business are such as to feel proud of.

While blasting stones on C. Stuebe's farm near town last Wednesday, Jos. Macho was the victim of an accident of frequent occurrence. The dynamite charge did not explode at the proper time and in trying to remove the dangerous stuff, it went off and badly disfigured his left hand. Dr. Strickler dressed the wound after amputating the little finger, and the man will soon be able to use the injured member.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Seiter was the scene of a delightful and interesting cinch party on Saturday evening. About twenty-five couples were present and all were made to feel that hospitality and sociability which is cheering and enjoyable. Sixteen games were played and the head prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Lind, while the "booby" rewards were captured through brilliant but unsuccessful playing by Miss Sommer and F. W. Johnson.

The A. O. U. W. lodge of this city is in a flourishing condition, containing as it does 110 active and progressive members. The roll is constantly being added to and the meetings are always largely attended. At the last session officers were elected for the ensuing year and they are as follows: P. M. W. Otto Pless; M. W., Fred Pfander; Overseer, Dr. L. A. Fritzsche; Foreman, Theo. Mueller; Recorder, T. H. Jappe; Financier, A. H. Wagner; Receiver, Chas. Wagner; Guide, F. Bachman; I. W., Frank Spoerhase; O. W., C. A. Mueller; Trustee, Geo. T. Biever.

A meeting of citizens was held at Turner Hall Monday evening to discuss the best means of raising New Ulm's share of the additional World's Fair fund. Several methods were suggested and it was finally resolved that Messrs. Silverson, Roos and Lind serve as a committee to take the matter in hand. During the discussion of the proposition some very effective talks were made by Congressman Lind, C. W. H. Heide-mann, Chas. Silverson, Wm. Hummel and Peter Scherer, the last two being opposed to raising the money except by city or county appropriation. The preponderance of sentiment, however, was for holding Brown county up with the rest.

Mrs. Edwin Staggs of Minneapolis is here on a visit with her father, J. C. Rudolph.

Mrs. Louis Palmer of Gibbon has been spending the week with Mrs. H. H. Vogelphol.

Senator James A. Tawney of Winona was in the city on legal business last Saturday. Mr. Tawney is generally looked upon as the man who will succeed Harries as congressman from the First district.

The tubular well which supplies water for August Schell's brewery is being enlarged on account of increase of business, and for the present water is being pumped from the Cottonwood river by a traction engine.

L. L. Burrell, one of the prosperous farmers of Redwood county, was in the city Thursday. Mr. Burrell came to Minnesota at an early day, being the third white boy to enter Mankato, and by untiring industry has slowly accumulated of this world's goods until now he is the owner of half a section of rich farming land. He also owns a large stock farm and is doing good work for his section of the country with Norman and Hambletonian stock as well as Shorthorn cattle.

Fortcoming numbers of the Review will contain some interesting articles. Among them will be one by Pres. L. C. Lord of the Moorhead Normal school on the benefits of public libraries and the best methods of supporting them, another by Congressman Lind on the effect of recent congressional legislation, the probable action of the majority in the next house, and the results of the same on the coming presidential contest, still another on the political situation by Col. R. G. Evans of the national Republican Committee, and one by Hon. W. R. Estes, United States consul, on the effects of reciprocity legislation as viewed by himself.

On Monday there occurred the happy marriage of two young couples who are very well known in New Ulm. The wedding was a double one and the contracting parties were Wm. Julius and Miss Lotie Blass and Henry Vedder and Miss Bertha Julius. All of these are so well known that they require no special mention at this time, and all that the Review can do is to wish them great, round measures of joy. They deserve it, all of them, and with it we trust will come prosperity in a steady flow. After the ceremony, which was held at the residence of Rev. Plut, the young people visited the home of a relative in Cottonwood where a hearty reception was in store for them. There the evening was spent with great pleasure to all.

The Danz orchestra was "up a stump" at Rochester. When going from Owatonna to that city on Monday afternoon a stranger grabbed a music case out of the car and jumped off the train. Charles Freeman jumped after him and the train left Freeman behind. As Freeman had all the sheet music in his grip the orchestra was in a predicament and the guarantors wanted to cancel the contract and postpone the concert. Mr. Danz, however, prepared a solo programme of Straks, Miss Williams, Laird and Miss Heegaard. On these selections the applause was tremendous. There was a big house. Freeman came 30 miles in a buggy on a cold night, and arrived at 10 o'clock. He walked into the hall and down to the stage, nearly half-frozen, amid deafening applause. Danz is entitled to great credit in satisfying the people, and Freeman was the hero of the hour in saving the company.

Last Thursday afternoon Sheriff Schmelz arrested a stranger on the suspicion that he was a horse thief. Friday afternoon County Attorney Robertson came down and a hearing was held before Judge Blanchard. William James Allen was the name of the prisoner and it developed during the course of the examination, that he came to town from Dakota Wednesday evening after a week's spree. In New Ulm he kept up his Bacchanalian amusement and Thursday morning found him pretty drunk. Then he met a stranger who had a pony which he offered for sale. Allen was told by the owner that he could have all he got over $20 if he would help sell it, and in his drunken state he took the horse from Henry Seifert's barn and wandered with it into the suburbs of the city. There he was arrested and lodged in jail. On the witness stand he told what was, to all appearances, a pretty straight story, and so Judge Blanchard discharged him with the admonition that he "get out of town as quick as God Almighty would let him."
