The first floor of F. H. Retzlaff's new building was finished during the fine weather of last week and will be ready for occupancy by the owner in a few days.

Editor Steinhauser ought to write an article now on marriage as a howling success. It's only a girl to be sure, but then "he ought to be thankful for that."

It is estimated that 10,000 bushels of wheat were marketed here Saturday. A good deal of this came from Belgrade and from sections in the vicinity of Sleepy Eye and Fairfax.

Richard Fischer of this city has been chosen president of the class of '92 in the pharmacy department of the Ann Arbor University. Evidently Dick's mustache has made him popular.

Prof. Hoehness of the college will spend his vacation in St. Louis where he will also be married. The congratulations of the Review are his and a wish for a most prosperous and happy union.

Wheat is worth 80 cents in New Ulm today.

Mrs. Rehfeld is spending the week with St. Paul relatives.

Mrs. Helen Seiter returned from a month's visit in St. Paul yesterday.

An infant child of John Steljes died Saturday and was buried on Sunday.

Attorney Jos. A. Eckstein went to Slayton Friday morning on legal business.

Several bridge contractors are in the city this week, awaiting action by the council on their several bids.

The club dance at Turner Hall on Wednesday evening was attended by about twenty couples. It is needless to add that a very enjoyable time was had.

Lawn-tennis was played here on Saturday with enjoyment. How's that as an indication of Minnesota weather, you howlers about salubrious southern climate?

Miss Maggie Rasmussen, a daughter of Andrew Rasmussen of Linden, was married to Lars Jensen of Blue Earth county on Wednesday by Judge Brandt.

In Mankato last week Judge Severance sentenced Albert Annis to 2 1/2 years and 6 months at hard labor in Stillwater for an outrage upon Mrs. Ida Gilmore. This was his third offense of this kind.

H. A. Subilia enlisted himself during the week in the good work of securing Christmas donations for the state school for the feeble-minded in Faribault. He raised something like $21 in cash, besides toys and other appropriate gifts.

We have heard it rumored that an injunction would be entered against the building of the bridges. We certainly trust that there is nothing in this report, for the welfare of the town to a great extent demands that they be built.

John Mayer was over from Winthrop Wednesday and together with his brother August, made a settlement with his guardian, A. Westphal, both having arrived at the age of twenty-one. The estate leaves them in possession of several thousand dollars each.

The Eagle Mill Co. on Saturday donated 14,000 pounds of flour to the sufferers from starvation in Russia in response to a circular appeal from Gov. Merriam. The Roller and Empire Mills also made liberal donations, so that nearly a car of flour was sent from this place.

M. Mitzen, the young fellow who has been in jail here for stealing goods from a store in Marshall, was released on Wednesday. While confined here he made all possible effort to conceal his identity, but in spite of all his "aliases" it leaked out before he left that he was the son of a preacher.

The High School Lyceum elected the following officers: President, H. Kiesling; vice-president, E. Valikanje; recording secretary, R. P. Yates; corresponding secretary, H. Roos; treasurer, H. Raabe; committee on by-laws, H. Held, R. P. Yates and H. Kiesling. The object and purpose of the league is to cultivate good citizenship, which is certainly a very worthy aim.

Jos. Schnobrich swore out a complaint against Jos. Gulden of Cottonwood on Wednesday for using abusive language. The defendant appeared before Justice Blanchard the same day, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $15. Let this be a warning to others who are tempted to indulge in profanity. It is not only a bad habit, but the law does not always allow it.

The Modern Woodmen Lodge have elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Consul, O. C. Strickler; Advisor, J. F. Crowell; Banker, F. H. Behnke; Clerk, Robert Lohbeyde; Watchman, N. J. The annual ball given by the Sons of Hermann was, like all former dances under the auspices of that lodge, a jolly and sociable affair. The old folks took part in the dances and a happy time was had by all who were present. The tableaux were also very fine.

O'Neil, the Sibley county man who killed his neighbor, Collins, in a quarrel, was convicted of murder in the first degree, for which the penalty is hanging. Cy. Wellington defended him, but the jury attached but little weight to his plea of justifiable homicide.

W. F. Schmidt, our cigar manufacturer, has concluded that the business does not agree with him and he has closed up his affairs here and gone to New Ulm. He sold his building to his brother, G. E. Schmidt, who in turn rented it to J. D. Owens.—Tracy Republican.

Councilman Roos is in receipt of a letter from Assistant General Superintendent Hallenbeck in which he says he cannot comply with the council's request to have flagmen placed at the Centre and First South street crossings. Such a demand, he claims, is not made by any city in Minnesota.

A team, belonging to Chas. Stuebe and hitched to the dray wagon of the Vinegar Works, indulged in a runaway on Thursday morning, and in their wild course cleared the German Park fence and dashed over a large pile of stones. The driver, a young fellow named Tschoppel, was thrown from his seat and dragged along the ground and over the stones until his body was badly bruised. Everything considered, he was extremely fortunate in escaping death.

On the Pelt Creek bridge between Lambert and Revere on Wednesday night, an aged lady named Mrs. John Moody was killed. She was walking from Lambert to Revere about half-past eight in the evening, and had entered upon the bridge when No. 24 came speeding along and threw the lady to the ground from a height of sixty feet. She was instantly killed by the shock, of course, but, strange to say, the only visible wound was a slight cut in the lip. The woman was 55 years old, and her home was near Springfield.

Dr. Brodda, who is awaiting trial in jail here for starving his child, prides himself upon his shrewdness, but last Friday he was very nicely tripped up. The old fellow pretended that his legs were paralyzed. A physician was accordingly asked for, and Dr. Fritsche called. He asked the old man to lift his leg but the old fellow said he couldn't. To test his truthfulness, Fritsche pricked the ball of his foot with a pin, and no sooner had he done so, than the would-be paralyzed limb was raised with all the force of the hind foot of a mule in the best of health. Hereafter the shrewd old gent will be more careful in what he says to the attendants about the jail.

A. W. Bingham was in Minneapolis Saturday on business.

Rev. Pax of Sleepy Eye was a visitor with Rev. Plut on Friday.

August Friday of Nicollet visited over Sunday with his son, Chas. Vogel. Lars Sorenson, clerk of District 18 in Eden, had business at the courthouse on Friday.

When Chas. Brust stuck out a shingle last week reading "Bread Wanted" his sense of humor almost vied successfully with that of Bill Nye.

At the annual meeting of Hecker Post last week the following officers were elected: Commander, Col. Wm. Pfander; Senior Vice Commander, Louis Schilling; Junior Vice Commander, R. Pfeifferle; Quartermaster, Wm. Hummel; Officer of the Day, B. Marschner; Surgeon, Geo. Merkle; Chaplain, F. Friedmann; Officer of the Guard, John Stuetz.

Geo. Struckman, who in early days visited New Ulm and who is also an uncle of C. W. H. Heideman and Mrs. G. Schmidt, has been made chairman of the committee on roads and bridges appointed from among the Cook county, Ill. commissioners. The Chicago Inter Ocean speaks of him as a man of experience and ability, who stands well in Cook county.

Charity Lodge No. 98, A. F. and A. M., will be presided over during the coming year by the following officers: Dr. A. Marden, W. M.; E. Brandt, S. W.; T. Crone, J. W.; F. H. Behnke, Treasurer; O. M. Olsen, Secretary; C. W. H. Heideman, S. D.; A. Blanchard, J. D.; B. F. Webber, Chaplain; George Bevier, Marshal; Wm. Hummel, S. S.; J. F. Crowell, J. S.; A. Roth, Tyler.

The following from the St. James Plaidealer will be of interest to many in this vicinity who know Mr. Schweppe: Mr. Schweppe informs us that in the spring, probably in May, a thoroughly equipped machine shop will be established by the firm of which he is senior partner. Arrangements are also being made by the same firm to start a medium-sized foundry at the same time. Both branches of business are needed in the city and we trust the firm will carry out their present intentions and establish the two concerns.

It is a matter of much regret that the sale of tickets for the Redpath Concert Co. has not been more rapid. The troupe, it must be remembered, is not one of the ordinary kind, but one of national reputation and every member is an artist who has commanded the best of notices from the great city dailies. Furthermore they have been secured for New Ulm by a large guarantee and it should be to the interest of our citizens to see that no one is a loser by endeavoring to give the people of New Ulm first-class and high grade entertainments.

A certain travelling man has been here for a week now, who has not eaten anything since his arrival. During all this time he has drugged himself with whiskey until at present he is a most fit subject for Dr. Keeley's cure. Overcoat, watch and even shoes have all been pawned to satisfy his terrible thirst and in his delirium he is the helpless victim of the wiles of others. Upon coming to his senses he will be seized by bitter remorse and the pangs of self-judged shame will strike at his more manly feelings. Then the torture is terrible and the subject an object of pity.

A serious joke is related on three young men, of Bernadotte. They started one day last week to massacre a Durham animal of the masculine gender. Two long ropes were fastened to the vicious animal to which on each side were attached two of the party. The third was stationed with a shot gun, about ten feet to the front. The gun was loaded with a heavy charge of powder and buckshot and was instantly discharged in the direction of Mr. Durham. It failed to reach the target, and, instead, scattered itself over one of the young men about ten feet to one side. And he, whose maiden name is Emil Johnson, is nursing a very sore leg, while the animal is in the best of spirits.—St. Peter Herald.
