In consequence of the exuberant harvest our town is improving rapidly. Building operations will be carried on more lively than ever. Gust. Lambrecht will build a two thousand dollar house and a large barn on his farm near the Cottonwood river. Adolph Schubert will put up a large barn and numerous others will make similar improvements. Verily our town is prospering.

Essig can boast of a "Brass Band" now. The band numbers quite a number of pieces and is making rapid progress under the able leadership of Mike Heinen of New Ulm. We have as yet been unable to learn the name of the new musical force, but it will undoubtedly be called "The Essig Cornet Band."

Aug. Essig, one of our prosperous farmers, has recently bought a large farm from his brother Henry, who is in the machine business at Springfield. The farm is situated near Sanborn and is said to be one of the finest in Cottonwood Co. Aug. paid something like $6,000 for it.

Fred Lehmann, the former wheat buyer at Essig, will remove his family to Sleepy Eye in the near future at which place he is in business.
