 The St. James Plaindealer gives currency to the report that Mr. B. C. Sanborn of the Madelia Times was last week arrested for cruelty to animals, the charge being that he allowed his stock to go without food until two had died and another was unable to rise.
 Officials of the Northwestern road to the number of three, concluding Gen. Sanborn, were here Monday and selected the site for the new depot. Being unable to secure the track grounds desired they have changed the location to First South and the depot will be built there before the first of August. It will cost in the neighborhood of $18,000.
 Mrs. Jahnke, mother of Fred Jahnke of Cottonwood and sister of Peter Scherer of this city died at her home in the former town on Thursday at the advanced age of 96 years. She was one of the earliest settlers in Brown county and almost up to the time of her death was in possession of excellent health. The funeral was held on Saturday and among those in attendance was Mrs. Huber of Minneapolis.
 A row occurred in the saloon on the corner of Broadway and First North Streets late Sunday night and to judge from the reports it must have been shameful. Why the authorities have nothing to say on the matter is strange and stranger still is the fact that an effort is always made to hush such things up. It cannot be that circumstances make such conduct in the proprietors of these places legitimate.

M. Schluch of Lone Tree Lake fell from a wagon in Morgan on Saturday and sustained severe internal injuries. Dr. Strickler of this city was summoned and upon arriving at the injured man's home found him in a very critical condition. It is doubtful if he can live.
 The edict went forth on Monday that the stock-yards, the coal and ice sheds of the railroad company and all the sheds of the mills must be removed by July 1st to make room for two new tracks. This will compel an expenditure of about $2,000 by each of the mills for new sheds. Building will therefore be active in that section of town all summer.
 The Winthrop Mill was destroyed by fire early Thursday morning and the only buildings saved were the coal sheds and an empty warehouse. The fire was discovered at about 1:45 o'clock, but by that time was burning inside from top to bottom. The mill was owned by Klossner Bros. and B. F. Kiesling, formerly of this city, and was erected in 1886. The total loss on building, machinery, grain and flour is about $30,000 covered by insurance to the extent of $22,000.
 Edward Newmann, formerly of Brown county, has the plans drawn up for his new brick block, opposite Sinclair Bros. store on North Ave. It will be brick, veneered, plate glass front, 52x 60 feet, full size basement and two stories high. One-half the block has already been rented to Nyberg & Jensen for a furniture store and the other half will probably be occupied by the owner for a saloon. The building will be one of the best and most imposing in town.—Fairmont Sentinel.
 It was 35 years ago this week that the families of the first settlers in New Ulm started out from Cincinnati and came west to cast their lot in a new and strange land. Going by boat down the Ohio river, stopping at St. Louis and then coming slowly north to St. Paul and down the Minnesota to where our beautiful little city is now located they were just a month on the road and the memories of that trip will always be fresh in their minds. Very few of those who formed that party are now residing in New Ulm, but to converse with those who have remained here through thirty-five years of thrilling experiences is interesting indeed.
 Rev. E. E. Kummer, the notorious Sibley county preacher, who visited New Ulm once and threatened to bring legal proceedings against certain New Ulm preachers, winding up his visit with somewhat hilarious conduct, has commenced suit against Messrs. Herman F. Otin, Herman Pahl, Aug. Osterman, Fred Kuske, Francis Cadwell, William Drethko, Jacob Geib, Charles Woehler and John C. Stover, on the grounds of unlawful ejection from his parish residence, and the deprivation of his alleged possession. The case will come up for hearing at the spring term of the United States District court: to be held in the city of Mankato. Willich & Lambert, of St. Paul, will appear for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Peck, Leeman, and McKenzie, for the defendants.
 Col. Bobleter was feeling somewhat downcast yesterday over the loss of the Capitol Bowling club badge, although he still had left the Press Bowling club badge, which was pinned to his magnificent left breast. Wednesday afternoon as the colonel's horse and buggy were standing near the capitol laundry team came dashing along the street and crashed into the colonel's rig, smashing his buggy, not injuring the horse in the least. The animal, being the property of a colonel, is used to war's alarms, and made no attempts to run, but the colonel, supposing his wife to be in the buggy, was considerably excited and rushed to the rescue. Mrs. Bobleter had seen the impending collision, and had wisely stepped down and out. By the time the colonel had restored some order from the wreck he found the gold badge of the Capitol club was gone.—St. Paul Dispatch of Friday.
 A well-attended caucus of Republican voters was held at Turner Hall on Thursday evening for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the convention at Sleepy Eye on the 18th. Peter Scherer presided over the meeting while A. F. Reim acted as secretary. After the call was read Mr. Roos suggested that the delegates be selected by wards and this was done with the following results: First ward, C. L. Roos, C. W. A. Krook and C. H. Hornburg, delegates; John Larson, L. G. Vogel and Jos. A. Eckstein as alternates; Second ward, T. Crone, Jacob Klossner and F. W. Johnson, delegates, and C. E. Luemke, F. Burg and Geo. Book as alternates; Third Ward, Henry Hanschen, E. G. Koch and F. Burg jr., delegates, with power to appoint substitutes. After the caucus, a meeting of the Republican club was held and it was evident from the interest taken that a determined effort is to be made this year to place New Ulm unmistakably in the Republican column. The following gentlemen have already been selected to do active work: G. Schmidt, S. D. Peterson, L. G. Vogel, H. D. Beussmann, Herman Schapekahn, F. Burg, L. B. Krook and A. F. Reim. Many new members enlisted in the club work and the campaign promises to be just as successful and enthusiastic as that two years ago.

IT IS MAYOR E. G. KOCH NOW.
 The Non-Partisan Ticket Meets with but little Opposition.
 Frank beats Schmidt, Rudolphi does up Schmuicker and Steinhauser knocks out Reim.
 Yesterday was election day and owing to the unfavorable weather no excitement was noticeable. Electioneering was dispensed with except in the Third ward, and the new system proved very satisfactory. The result was as follows:
 Mayor, E. G. Koch.....504
 Clerk, L. Schilling.....493
 Treasurer, H. G. Mueller.....484
 Justices, A. Blanchard.....452
 Jacob Nix.....422
 Constables, J. C. Geiger.....406
 O. C. Seiter.....430
 Alderman, 1st ward, Frank.....93
 Schmidt.....91
 Schmuicker.....86
 Rudolphi.....126
 Alderman, 2d ward, Reim.....62
