

days I was at his shop, when he presented the certificate referred to above, except a word or so, which I signed without reflection. In an hour or two I returned to Mr. Kennedy, and told him on reflection it did not give a fair statement, and that he should not publish the same, but that I would have one made out giving the truth in full, to which he agreed. In a few days I called again and had Mr. J. B. Henderson to make out the one published below, which he refused to take, observing that it sustained Draper in his position.

ORSON REED.

I hereby certify that sometime in last July, in a conversation with Edwin Draper, a member of the Board of Council, I mentioned the fact that I held a warrant against the city of Louisiana, and should soon need the money, and in speaking of the amount due on said warrant, the question of my right to charge interest thereon came up, when Mr. Draper stated that I was not entitled to interest. I stated it was entitled to interest, and in the argument gave the opinion of William Luce and W. K. Kennedy, sustaining my position. I did not state that either of them had guaranteed to me the payment of interest, nor did I ever consider it as any more than a mere opinion, not at all binding upon the city.

Long John wentworth, M. C. from Chicago, was cowed in the streets of Chicago on election day, by Richard L. Willson, late Postmaster of that city.

All who enter into the marriage state from mercenary motive, though they may enlarge their possessions, and increase their fortune, live in splendid misery, and find that they have bartered happiness for wealth.

Power and liberty are like heat and moisture: where they are well mixed, everything prospers, where they are single, they are destructive.

JENNY LIND'S THUMB.—She uses it freely.—It was the custom of Jenny Lind, during her provincial tour through England, upon entering the theatre in the evening, to seize the first man she met with, carpenter, scene shifter or gas man, and shake him by the thumb, in friendly token. The custom is not confined to Sweden. Walter Scott says of Rob Roy, to Bailie Nicol Jarvie, "There's my thumb—I'll ne'er beguile you."

According to the census returns, Keokuk has a population of 2,519, and Muscatine 3,100. Judging from the appearance of the two places, we should have transposed the figures. But if "figures don't lie," and census takers make no mistakes, we shall have to subscribe to that cautionary maxim which teaches us to distrust appearances.—[Keokuk Whig.]

A curious exhibition is in course of preparation for the World's Fair, by Mr. Wyld, M. P., the eminent map engraver.—He is constructing a huge globe, of 56 feet in diameter, which will be provided with a convenient mode of ingress and egress, the different countries of the world will be represented upon the inner, and not upon the outer surface, and the interior will be fitted up with galleries and staircases, so as to enable the visitor to make a tour of the world, and visit each of the countries whose industry or productions will be displayed in the Great Exhibition.

The Mexican treasury is in a deplorable state of collapse. The expenditures largely exceed the revenue. The Minister of Finance, in a communication to Congress, declared that, unless means of replenishing the treasury are devised, it will be necessary to authorize a suspension of payment by the Government.

The Days that are Gone.

BY SHERIDAN.

No more shall the spring my lost pleasure restore,
Unheeded I still wander alone,
And, sunk in dejection, forever deplore
The sweets of the days that are gone.
While the sun as it rises to others shines bright,
I think how it formerly shone;
While others call blossoms, I find but a blight,
And sigh for the days that are gone.

I stray where the dew falls through moon-lighted groves,
And list to the nightingale's song,
Her plaints still remind me of long banished joys,
And the sweets of the days that are gone.
Each dew-drop that steals from the dark eye of night,
Is a tear for the bliss that is flown;
While others call blossoms, I find but a blight,
And sigh for the days that are gone.

RUNAWAY SLAVES.

ALL persons are hereby notified that on the 31st day of July, ultimo, two negro men slaves, calling themselves STEPHEN and JOSHUA, were apprehended near Atlas, Illinois, and committed to my custody. Stephen is a very black negro, about five feet seven or eight inches high, and has lost the left half of his upper front teeth, which he says were kicked out by a mule, he is supposed to be about thirty years of age, but states his age to be 28 years. Joshua is a likely young fellow, about 5 feet 8 inches high, of a dark copper complexion, sprightly countenance, and speaks pleasantly and fluently. He says he is 23 years of age. Both negroes are well informed, and would probably weigh about 140 lbs. each. Both were indifferently clad at the time of their delivery to me. They state that they belong to one William Moore, of Ray county, Mo., who resides between Richmond and Lexington. That they together with one other slave, a yellow fellow, left home about a month since, and that said last mentioned slave was apprehended at Portland, Mo., at night, in the attempt to get into a skiff to descend the river. Said slaves are now in the jail of Pike county, Missouri. The owner of said slaves is hereby requested to come forward and pay all charges incurred by reason of the apprehension and custody of said slaves, or I shall, on the 25th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, proceed to sell them to the highest bidder for cash in hand, before the court house door in Bowling Green, Pike county, Missouri, for the payment of the costs and charges aforesaid.

H. G. FARRELL'S genuine Arabian Liniment is a most extraordinary medicine, the truth of which is placed beyond doubt by the vast sales of the article, and the many cures being daily performed by it, which previously had resisted all other medicines and the skill of the best physicians in the world. It is composed of balsams, extracts and gums peculiar to Arabia—possessing, in a concentrated form, all their stimulating, Anodyne, penetrating, unctuous and revulsive properties, and the same which, ages ago, were used by the "Sons of the Desert," with such miraculous success, in curing the diseases of both man and beast.

Read the following Remarkable Cures, which should of themselves place

H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment

far beyond any similar remedy.

About a year and a half ago, a swelling appeared in my wife's stomach, gradually increasing in size until it became as large as my fist, and so sore that she could not bear the least pressure upon it without giving her extreme pain. I got the advice of our best doctors, and they differed in opinion about it; some said it was an Ague Cake or Enlargement of the Spleen; some, that it was an Enlargement of the Ovaries; and others said it was a Tumor of the Ovaries, and could not be cured except by cutting it out. In this critical situation, I was persuaded to try H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment upon it, and strange as it may appear, upon the third application she began to improve, and has continued getting better daily, until now she is as well as ever—enjoying excellent health.
D. MCCONNELL.

Peoria, March 5th 1849.

The Opinion of an Old Experienced and Scientific Farrier.

WASHINGTON, Iowa, June 26, 1849.

From the speedy and permanent cures, both on man and beast, which your Arabian Liniment is performing, I do not hesitate to pronounce it the Great Remedy of the Age. I have practiced doctoring horses for these twenty years, and have tried all the various liniments, ointments, &c., so much puffed up in the papers; but I must say that H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment exceeds any that I ever made use of. By its use, I have cured Sweeney and Spavin long after they had been pronounced incurable, and I have cured more than fifty horses this season with your Liniment, embracing every shade of disease, from scratches and bruises up to Spavin, Ring-Bone and Sweeney. I can also bear testimony of its good effects on the human system. I was confined nearly all last winter to my room with Rheumatism, and could get nothing to help me, until I commenced the use of your Liniment, which entirely cured me.
Wm. R. GRIMES.

Sun Pain of 10 years' standing cured by H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment.

Mr. H. G. FARRELL.—Dear Sir: I had been afflicted with the "Sun Pain" for the last ten years, and could never get relief except by bleeding; but by the use of H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, applied over the temples about three or four times a day, it was entirely removed, and I have felt nothing of it since. I went into the stable one night, to apply it to a horse's sore leg, and being very lame he stumbled and fell against my legs, crushing and bruising them so badly that they turned black as my hat, rendering them powerless. I applied your Liniment, and was well enough in a few days to go about again as usual. I also crushed my finger in a shocking manner, by letting a backlog fall upon it; your Liniment soon healed it up, though.
