Mrs. Gills, exclusive gem gallery west side of the square. EXPLANATION: GIVE EARLY ON THE PEOPLE. Minute mathematical calculations have demonstrated to an incontrovertible certainty that all men are approaching the era of metempsychosis. Therefore during your natural lifetime you should live well and economical. To do this successfully it becomes necessary for you to purchase that which is required to keep the chemical laboratory that manufactures life forces, and the materials adequate for the proper preservation of its mysterious operations, at W. H. Turner's grocery store, west side at McGovern's old stand. Great Improvements. McCormick's new reaper, mower and droppers. These are unquestionably the finest harvesting machinery in the world. Don't buy anything else without carefully examining them. Full line of repairs always on hand. Sinks and revolving hay rakes at Link & Blackman's.

A First Class Meat Market. Mr. John Miller, so long and so favorably known to the citizens of this city, in connection with the meat market business, has moved into his new brick building, two doors from the south west corner of the square. A very large and tastefully furnished and conveniently arranged refrigerator, capable of storing and preserving a large quantity of fresh meat, stands near the center of the house, and is so arranged that the temperature within stands almost at the freezing point in the warmest of weather. The public can therefore rely on finding a choice variety of meats on hand, and always in the best condition. His facilities are now unrivaled, and we predict a big business for the coming year. Call and see him in his new place.

By the Car Load. A large lot of the celebrated Quincy Castle Mills Flour, in four different grades including the New Process just received at Halliday Bros. They are "business" when you want to talk grocery, and keep right up with the times. Call and see them.

Special Notices—Minimum type, next to advertising columns, 1/2 Local rates after first insertion. Accurate record kept of each week's circulation, and charges made accordingly.

PERSONAL GRAPHICS.

Mr. J. T. Miller, of Unionville, one of the permanent republicans of that city, came to Kirkville Tuesday morning. Mr. Miller was on his way to the temperance convention at Edina. Mr. Miller will read the Graphic during the campaign.

Mr. Ira D. Chamberlain, twenty years ago a citizen of Kirkville, is stopping at the Parole House. Mr. Chamberlain remembers many changes in Kirkville since that time, industrially, socially and politically. He was then hounded, threatened, and publicly attacked, because he believed in freedom, instead of slavery.

Mr. J. C. McClelland and wife, of Clay township, was in town and gave us a pleasant call Tuesday last. Mr. G. W. Tharrell, of Floyd's Creek, was in town Monday, and gave us a pleasant call. He could not do without the Graphic any longer.

Mr. J. Vaughn, one of our best farmers was in town Tuesday last. He believes in the Graphic, and subscribed for it to send to his brother in Pennsylvania. Miss Willie Robinson of Winchester, Virginia, is visiting her brother, of the New York State.

We are pleased to see Mr. C. A. Barnard, who has been quite sick, again on the street. C. Boynton, who has been for some time in Moberly, came home for a short stay this week.

Mr. G. F. Williams has been re-appointed deputy United States Marshal for this district. It is a good appointment, for he has been a very efficient officer.

Mrs. Dr. Weaver, of Ringo's Point, left on Wednesday morning for Rochester, N. Y., on a visit. She was accompanied this far by her daughter, Miss Ida.

Mr. J. D. Holloway, merchant from Brashear, was in town Wednesday, making preparations for the coming Fourth of July celebration, at Brashear, a notice of which appears in another column.

Rev. J. B. Mitchell and Rev. J. C. Shipp were in attendance at the Edina temperance convention this week. Elder Shimmate, of Louisiana, was in town the first part of this week.

W. B. Reynolds, of Winemontville, was attending court this week. Mr. Jerome Shomer, of Greencastle spent several days of the present week in attendance at circuit court in this place.

Mr. A. Donoghue took in the Brashear basket meeting last Sunday, but could not tell the text when he got back. We understand Mr. F. S. Hong thinks of visiting Eureka Springs and perhaps Colorado in search of health this summer.

We were sorry to hear that G. W. Toll, of Toll & Parents photographers, has been on the sick list this week. Mr. Mitchell, of the firm of Drysdale & Mitchell, attorneys, Macon, has been in town the present week.

Mr. C. W. Thompson, of Illinois, is assisting W. E. Foster at the St. Louis, Washak & Pacific railroad depot. Miss Emma Hoye is visiting friends in Iowa.

J. A. Richter has opened a store at Cookville. Mrs. Vanburin, of Knox county, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Halliday, this week.

Mrs. H. Mason is on a visit to friends in Greencastle. Lieut. Pierre Travis, who has just graduated at West Point, returned home Thursday evening. He has been assigned to duty in Dakota.

E. A. Hope went to St. Louis this week, but is expected home today. We are sorry to learn that A. L. Shepherd is laid up sick this week.

Prof. G. A. Smith went to Columbia this week. After spending a few days at his former home in Vernon county, he expects to engage in institute work at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and will be home in time for the institute at this place.

Mr. C. E. Thrasher, with his wife, Mrs. Randall of Brashear, was in town Thursday buying furniture, queensware, etc., for regular housekeeping.

Back Mason, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Milan was in town Thursday. Wishing to keep thoroughly posted on home matters he called in and subscribed for the Graphic.

Mr. J. T. Tate, who has been working at his trade as carpenter, in Kansas City for several months past, returned home Wednesday in answer to a telegram announcing the illness of one of his children.

Mrs. Wm. Hart and her little son started on a visit to her daughter in Kansas, Tuesday night. Mrs. W. L. Foster, of Brashear, was in town Thursday.

Mr. O. S. Cady, of Quincy spent a few days here this week. Prohibition Meeting. The prohibition meeting Monday night, at the M. E. Church was quite well attended. A number of delegates from Putnam and Shelby counties, en route to the temperance convention at Edina, were in attendance. Short speeches, and remarks were made by Messrs. Rummel, Hart and Barnett, of Unionville, and Elder Shumake.

LOCAL GRAPHICS.

The Graphic has no pets. These are beautiful nights. New friends for the Graphic report daily.

A criticism, to be any account, must be honest. The democrats have been hanging by the jagged edge this week.

The Graphic campaign pole is neat but not grand. A gentleman returning from a trip through the country districts says the Graphic is all the go.

Such crop prospects were perhaps never before known in Adair county. Business ought to get a big boom this fall.

We have been promised news correspondents from Greencastle, Brashear, Greentop, Sublette and Millard. We want a good item gatherer from every township in the county.

The population of Kirksville will be about 2,300. This does not include Normal students, or transient persons, and is about one thousand more than the last census.

All our hotels have done a rushing business for the past two weeks. After court things will quiet down a little. Mr. David Bachman lost a pocket book, Tuesday, on or near the square. It contained about fifty dollars. Notices were printed at this office offering five dollars reward for the return of the money.

There are three kinds of hair—languid hair, laked hair, and hair parted in the middle. The first is tender, the second more tender, the last bar-tender.

We have received the program of the July races of the agricultural, mechanical and stock growers' association of Milan, which come off on the 8th, 9th, and 10th of July next. Fifteen purses ranging from ten to one hundred dollars are offered for running and trotting races. John M. Swallow is secretary of the association.

Rev. Prof. Free will deliver a lecture entitled "The bible vindicated against Ingersollism," on Tuesday evening at the Christian church. Admittance 25c. Lecture begins at 8 o'clock.

Donoghue Bros. A couple of fellows at Buffalo Wallow in the extreme northwest part of the county struck a bonanza in the shape of a whisky saloon, without license, and were doing a thriving business, until deputy U. S. Marshall G. F. Williams, of this place got wind of the matter, and went up to interview them. He found the two men, John Lowe and James Nicholas, on their way to a picnic with a six gallon keg of the "fo-be-joyful" fluid made the arrest. They seemed quite willing to come to town with him but asked permission to make arrangements for the sale of the six gallons before they came away, but the marshal was not accommodating enough to comply. They were brought here and tried before commissioner Musick and bound over for their appearance before the United States court at St. Louis, and Marshal Williams took them down Wednesday night.

Our postmaster says we were misinformed in regard to the amount of the office allowed for clerk hire, and exhibits the regular vouchers for forty-five dollars per quarter as the whole amount he is able to secure for that purpose, making fifteen per month.—What extra is paid over this amount comes out of the regular salary of the postmaster. That salary is presumed to be sufficient to ensure efficient service.

The following item which will be of interest to our citizens, we clip from the Brookfield Gazette: The Kansas City Journal has the following, which accounts for some of the surveying managers which have been recently going about. It will do for an eye opener, anyhow: Mr. D. Lee Slatapars, an engineer in the employ of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, is in the city, having completed the second survey of the proposed route for the extension of the Burlington road from Vicksburg, near the state of Missouri, to Kansas. The road will pass through Kirksville and Laclede, and will be 240 miles long. The engineer says that they have found a good route, with comparatively easy grades. They will cross the river at this city.

Donoghue Bros. Temperance Convention. The twelfth congressional district temperance convention was held in Edina, on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Large delegations were present from Schuyler and Putnam, small ones from the other counties. Mr. Turner, of Unionville, was elected president, and Mrs. McQuoid, of Edina, vice-president.

Interesting discussions were had on "how to promote the work" and "are the temperance people responsible for agitation and disturbance in church, society and state growing up on the question?"

Prof. J. U. Barnard was elected vice president for Adair county. Next meeting to be held at Kahoka in Clark county.

Dr. Mitchell made a fine speech and a children's meeting was held. Miss Tatlow presided at the organ and furnished excellent music.

The following important resolution was adopted: Resolved that the convention respectfully invites the physicians of this congressional district, to consider at their conventions, the practice of giving strong drinks, as a medicine, and that we request them to consider whether the practice may not be largely dispensed with.

REMEMBER. That D. S. GUPE deals in all the best and the STRUTTY First Class Sewing Machine, buys for Cash, and sells on his own account. He challenges COMPETITION, in any shape, either as to price or Quality. Do not purchase of any one until you have given him a call, and avoid being imposed upon by worthless, rebuilt and second hand stock.

The delegates to the Edina prohibition convention, returned Wednesday evening. Several of our citizens went to La Plata Thursday, to attend the Knight Templar celebration at that place.

Donoghue Bros. We are sorry to learn the chintz bugs are making their appearance in destructive numbers in portions of our county.

Donoghue Bros. FOR SALE.—Wishing to retire from the Hotel business, I offer my GOOD WILL and Hotel furniture for sale at reasonable rates. For further particulars call on or address, S. H. WILLIAMS, Parcells House, Kirksville, Mo.

Grand Celebration. The citizens of Brashear and vicinity will celebrate the Independence of the United States, on Saturday, July 3rd, 1880, in appropriate style.

The Rev. J. J. Bentley will be the orator of the day, with speeches and addresses from other prominent speakers. Good music will be in attendance. The proceedings will conclude with the grandest display of fire works ever seen in this vicinity. Come everybody and have a good time.

Political Rumors.

It is rumored that M. F. Strook wants to be candidate for sheriff on the republican ticket.

It is rumored that Tom Bell, of Clay township may be a candidate for county judge on the republican ticket.

It is rumored that John Shibley is likely to be a candidate for county judge on the democratic ticket.

It is rumored that, though the Democrat gave the Graphic the benefit of its immense moral support in the beginning, it is now opposed with the new party.

It is rumored that John L. Porter will be a candidate for collector on the greenback ticket.

It is rumored that Al Tinsman is a candidate for sheriff on the greenback ticket.

It is rumored that John Kirk will be a candidate for sheriff on the greenback ticket.

It is rumored that G. W. Cooper will be a candidate for collector on the greenback ticket.

It is rumored that O. P. Milligan will be a candidate for county judge on the greenback ticket.

It is rumored that John M. London will be appointed minister to England when Weaver is elected president.

It is rumored that the twins have lately been engaged in a little piece of very respectable business.

It is rumored that there are still being some very pathetic appeals made by the democrats to the greenbackers for a fusion in the county.

It is rumored that there has been a syndicate formed to crush the Graphic. No use gentlemen, it can't be done.

Hayde Brown was hung at Huntsville yesterday.

Donoghue Bros. Papers have been filed for a new trial of the case of Evans vs. Baylor.

Mr. James Henderson, took out final naturalization papers, renouncing all fealty and allegiance to her majesty, the Queen of England, on Wednesday morning, and became an American citizen. Mr. Henderson is a native of Scotland.

AT COST. Ladies' Dress Goods. At W. B. Harlan's. Summer Goods, Ladies' Linnen Suits, Now offered at cost at W. B. HARLAN'S.

Donoghue Bros. Following the lead of the Graphic the Democrat raises a pole in honor of its party nomination. The pole is 72 feet above the ground and although crooked and knotty, speaks well for the enterprise of the Democrat. There was considerable trouble in getting it up, and at one time it seemed as if they would fail, but a few republicans kindly lent a helping hand and it was brought to a perpendicular. A broom crowns the top of the pole, which means they are going to sweep everything clean, so they say. The 2d of November will show who does the sweeping. Although the Democrat pole is just 20 feet higher than ours, we still feel proud of ours; proud of it because it is straight and pretty, and proud of it because we feel confident victory will perch upon its banner, in November next.

Forward that standard sheet, "Who breaks the foe, but falls before us, With freedom's solemn oath our feet, And freedom's banner streaming o'er us."

That New Railroad. The following item which will be of interest to our citizens, we clip from the Brookfield Gazette: The Kansas City Journal has the following, which accounts for some of the surveying managers which have been recently going about. The Convention.

Dr. S. R. Jones, of Jackson Mississippi, brother of Mrs. Guy Chandler, is visiting here. Mr. Jones is a minister of the Christian church and was formerly a newspaper man.

J. W. Shrook will remain in Kirksville during vacation, and give instructions on Organ, Piano, Violin or Guitar.

We find just before going to press that we have unwittingly been giving the Democrat credit for the pole raised in front of that office, when it was a party enterprise instead. Our pole is a private little office concern of our own. Just wait till you see the republican 1st pole.—If you want to see a pole.

1st. It is rumored that Dr. John edits two papers in the interests of three parties.

2d. It is rumored that he has a partnership in two papers.

3d. It is rumored he has no interest in either.

We are not aware that a single postmaster constitutes the republican party, and the Democrat isn't called on to take a hand in this little affair, anyhow.

Speaking of Gen. Garfield the Democrats say: "In a military point of view he was a bold fearless and dashing General—but these qualifications as a general thing more or less disqualify a man from making him a good civil governor."

If four years patriotic service during actual war disqualifies a man, how about one who has been thirty-six years continuously in the army?

The case of attracting most public interest at the present term of court was that of Miss Sue. Evans vs. N. A. Baylor being a suit for slander, with damages claimed in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars. The suit was ably conducted on the part of the plaintiff by Messrs. Hinson & Prentiss, and on the part of the defendant by Messrs. Cooper & Greenway. Verdict for the defendant.

All the poetry unavoidably crowded out till next issue.

KIRKSVILLE BACK YARDS.—J. W. Bernard, proprietor, fine lot of new brick on hand and for sale. 9-3

TO DIE TOGETHER. "We Will See Each Other Early in the Morning." The Globe-Democrat of the 22d contains a long dispatch giving the particulars of the suicide of the young wife of Hayde Brown, who expired his terrible crime on the gallows near Huntsville, yesterday. The dispatch says that on the evening of the 21st she visited her husband as usual and succeeded in conveying to him some arsenic with which he might cheat the hangman. As they parted she said "We will see each other in the morning." Returning home she went into a bed room, laid down on the floor and coolly placed a pistol to her right temple and discharged it. Death resulted instantly. Two letters were found, which indicated the mutual plan of husband and wife to die by their own hands, and officers at once proceeded to Brown's cell to prevent his carrying out the plan. Seeing he was to be searched, Brown attempted to swallow the poison but was prevented after a hard struggle. Their child, a little boy is being taken care of till friends shall provide for it, in the family of Prof. Greenwood.

Donoghue Bros. Donoghue Bros. Sublett Stiffings. Sublett, Mo., June 29.—Not seeing any correspondence from here, I thought I would let you know that our little village is not dead or sleeping, but is moving on, with the rest of the world.

We take three Kirksville papers, but of all, yours seems to be the favorite. Our crops are looking well, and if the season continues favorable, farmers will pull clear of debt this year, and the money lender will not have the pleasure of raking in any more of our bankrupt farms, for almost nothing.

Our community is not to be outdone in the way of education, both moral and intellectual, for we have a good Sunday school, and under the efficient management of Miss Julia E. Mitchell, is doing good work.

Our day school deserves mention also under the supervision of Miss R. E. Hubble, the students are making good progress.

No one is dead, sick or dying in our community at this writing. Eco.

Greenop Items. We learn that R. R. Wells, of Greentop, is building a large two-story frame, with the upper story fitted up for an Odd Fellows hall. He also purchased the warehouse at that point, has repaired it up in good style for business.

Greenop proposes to hold a regular old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration in this year.

Several persons joined the M. E. church recently and were baptized Sunday.

Donoghue Bros. A BIG BOXANZA. A Big one Struck In Kirksville.

The enterprising manager of the Boston Store, in this city, finding that his store-room was growing too small to accommodate his constantly increasing throng of customers, and at the same time properly displaying the thousands and thousands of articles of utility and beauty which crowd its shelves and fill its counters, has rented and opened out on the south side of the square a branch store, where their large stock of Queensware, Glassware, and other articles which have been heretofore partially crowded out of sight, can now be examined by the public. Call and see them in the building recently occupied by Jack Bailey. Low prices a specialty.

Gen. Hancock Nominated on a Hard Money Platform.

English, of Indiana, for Vice-President.

The democracy after two days session, met on Thursday morning and nominated Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock for president.

The excitement during the last few minutes of the ballot was intense. The scheme whereby New York sought to fast upon the convention the name of Randall of Pennsylvania, was quickly detected as a conspiracy of the Tilden manipulators and a movement was at once made to combine upon some strong man. It was apparent at once that Hancock was the only candidate upon whom a successful concentration could be made. When Wisconsin led off the break for Hancock there was THEMSELEVES CHEERING. Hasty consultations among other delegations, one state after another changed, indescribable confusion ensued chairman after chairman of the various delegations rose upon his feet and for awhile vainly sought to be heard. The solid coming over of New York settled the business.

The final ballot stood: Hancock 765, Bayard 2 Hendricks 30, Tilden 1. W. H. English, of Indiana, was then unanimously elected as candidate for vice president.

DEMOCRATIC BLOW OUT. How the Democrats Ratified their Ticket and Waved the B. S. Across the Chasin.

Thursday night the democracy enthused. The crowd minus the republicans drawn out through curiosity was of but moderate dimensions, such as would naturally be attracted by a bonfire and a brass band.

Boxes and barrels which had been hoarded up by Tilden, for months were freely rolled out till a pile sufficient for a big bonfire was accumulated. This was the work of the "inevitable" boy who always flourishes on such occasions "with out regard to politics."

An early hour the anvil was set going and the match applied. Still following in the pattern laid down by the republicans a procession was formed and paraded around the streets, with more flags than has graced a democratic celebration since 1860. Good.

THE SPEECHES. Returning to the bonfire after the swing around the circle Dr. A. H. John was called out and responded nobly. The doctor was equal to the occasion and favored the crowd with one of his old republican speeches adapted to the new phase of affairs.

In the course of his remarks he said that "General Hancock was a patriot and one of the few democrats who stood by his country, and fought in the hour of peril" and helped crush out the rebellion.

Jan. Ellison in response to calls nominated the box, and responded in a short speech in which he said the civil war was superior to the military service, and then gracefully stepped down.

A. L. Woods, candidate for secretary of state, was loudly called for and said he could not disregard the urgent call of his friends, and of course endorsed the ticket.

Hon. Jas. M. DeFrance then in answer to calls appeared and gave in his surrender to the union soldier, said that Hancock had not been fairly treated during the war, and that the democracy proposed to vindicate him.

Ringo was loudly called for, as also was Judge Ellison, but remained invisible.

After which the boys took a hand and played at political speech making much to their own satisfaction and the amusement of the crowd.

We congratulate the democracy on their boom and wish them much joy with their ticket. They have at last come to see that it is odious, and reliefs must take a back seat. Shake.
