E. Barney has shipped 144 calves from near Chicago to Schuyler county.

The republicans are making a lively tussle with the democracy of Schuyler this year.

The democrats were long faces Tuesday night when the returns came in from Ohio.

The Memphis Democrat reports an epidemic of gray-flax and sore throat in Scotland county, which has resulted in ten deaths recently.

The rally Tuesday, and Tuesday night though not very widely advertised was a grand success. Hundreds were unable to get into the hall at night to witness the proceedings.

Hart Bros. hardware store at Green-castle was burglarized Tuesday night. The thieves first broke open the chest at the depot to get tools for the purpose. After getting the safe opened they took flight and fled.

Last week the doctors succeeded in extracting an ounce ball from the thigh of our Circuit Clerk, W. J. Ashlock. It has been a constant reminder to him of Lone Jack over twenty years since. We learn he is recovering rapidly from the effects of the operation.

Rev. J. B. Mitchell and W. T. Baird Esq., left for Sedalia Tuesday to attend the Synod of Missouri of the C. P. Church, which convened in that city Wednesday at 11 a. m. Mr. Mitchell expects to be gone over Sabbath and Prot. Nason will fill his pulpit that evening at the usual hour.

We learn that one thousand kegs of powder were at the Kirksville depot this week this week. As the republicans didn't order it we presume our democratic friends must have expected it as a salute over the Ohio election. It was the case they will doubtless "file it away for future reference."

I am willing to reach down and help men up to a higher place but cannot afford to lie down in the mud for them to step on to reach higher ground.

Mrs. W. J. Brasfield left Thursday morning for Sedalia to attend a meeting of the Synodical Auxiliary Society of the Woman's Board of Foreign missions of that church.

Adair county has a People's ticket, and the Kirksville Democrat predicts that it will sweep the county "like a prairie fire." We know nothing about the political situation over there, but we have an idea that Brother Chappell is spreading it on pretty thick. —Green City Bugle.

You are correct, Bro. Graves. Step up head.

"Your carriage horses are slaving fearfully. If they go on at this rate there will soon be scarcely a grease spot of them left. Take them of the clover, boy; put them in the stable, and give them some of Day's Horse and Cattle Powder. That is what they want." It costs only 25 cents.

GREEN GROVE, ADAIR CO., Sept. 28.

Elder A. Russell at this place to-day addressed a full house. And the congregation regardless of faith, creed or politics, by a standing vote, unanimously expressed their entire confidence in the elder, as a worthy christian minister, and this they did, not ignorant of the fact, that a few in Kirksville were trying to crush him.

A Kirksville Institution.

Have you ever visited or looked through the "Star Store" in Kirksville? Often private enterprise by its magnitude grows into the proportions of a public institution and is counted an object of local pride as an index of the progress of the community. The "Star Store" so widely known, and so justly famed throughout northeast Missouri comes under this head. Its numerous departments, crowded with the varied products of human skill and ingenuity; its tasteful and orderly arrangement of the thousands of articles that comprise its stock; the wonderful system which keeps each department complete; and the eight or nine assistants that are constantly kept busy waiting on its crowds of customers; and the wonderfully low price at which its proprietors are able to offer their goods all combine to make the Star Store, a popular institution in Kirksville. A visit to Kirksville is not complete without a call at the Star Store, for it comes nearer being an "Exposition" than anything of the kind this side of the great building in St. Louis, that so many thousands have visited in the past.

OBITUARY.

FISHER—The subject of this sketch John H. Fisher was born in St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 2nd, 1850, and died at the home of his parents, near miles north of Ledford, Aug. 18th, 1884. He was 33 years, 8 months and 5 days of age. The deceased was formerly a student at this place. The following is clipped from a Sedalia paper: "He was a young man of great promise, of strong intellect, a faithful member of County Line Baptist church, an earnest worker in the Sabbath school and prayer meeting, and leader of the choir of his church. He professed faith in Christ in his fifth year, under the administration of Rev. J. K. Godbey, and it was his request that Bro. Godbey should preach his funeral sermon. He was only 27 weeks, during which time he fully expected death. When his physician informed him that he could not live, he calmly and unflinchingly replied, 'God's will be done, not mine.' Then he called his father, mother, sisters and brothers around him and directed them as to the arrangement of his affairs, as calmly and collectedly as only a noble nature, tempered by love for conservation to God, could do, requesting them all to meet him in the good land, to which he was going soon, where they would sing together the praises of God, friends, neighbors, old associates, and even strangers, decked about his bed with flowers and loving words. They came with hearts full of pity and love; they went away strengthened and comforted, by the pure, earnest and God-trusting manner in which the young man met death. He remained perfectly conscious to the last and his mind was wonderfully clear. He gave directions for his funeral, naming the pall-bearers and giving their directions, which were strictly carried out. He was engaged in the study of medicine, had attended one course of lectures and promised much for the future. His funeral was attended by perhaps the largest concourse of people that has assembled on a similar occasion, in this community for many years. In this fitting manner was the body of John H. Fisher consigned to the earth whence it came, and his soul took flight to the God who gave it him."

At Rest.

Minnie, daughter of Henry and Anna Feller, died Sept. 4th, 1884, at 2:30 o'clock p. m. Her little girl was born on the 12th of Jan. She had been sick about eight days. Her disease was of the nature of diphtheria.

The lovely child is safe and happy with the blessed Jesus. "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Mat. 19, 14. When her parents would grieve for her they may rejoice to know that she is happy with the precious Savior and when Christ who is her life shall appear, then shall she also appear with him in glory. — G. W. S.
