Fine weather. And the farmers are very busy. The Society I. I. O. O. F. F. will give an entertainment soon. Plant six grains of corn to the hill. Better than ten replant.

The man who "stands in" with officers empowered to make arrests, might, in an occasional sense, be termed lucky. Jacob Shafer is the owner of an ewe which has four lambs. The lambs are all living and doing well. Why can't he be?

It detracts very much from the dignity and interest of an entertainment when those taking part so far forget themselves as to whisper or chew gum during the exercises.

Our artist, J. W. Tinsman, is a full month behind in filling orders for back-grounds. He received a call from Nebraska this week to fresco a church edifice, but on account of pressure of business, had to decline it.

A pleasant company of friends assembled at Pool's hotel Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Carrie Eggleston's friend, Miss Jennie Burroughs, of Denver, Col., who is making a flying visit. All declare a pleasant time.

Rev. Sharp will deliver a Sunday School address next Sunday at the Koehlymer school house, at 10:30 a. m. and at Troy Mills school house at 3 p. m. All in the community—parents, youths, and little children—cordially invited.

Peter J. Brown tripped on a loose board in the side walk last Friday morning and received a violent fall, badly bruising his face and breaking his nose. It might be a safe policy for the town authorities to keep the plank in the side walks nailed down.

The Macon postoffice was broken into Monday morning. The safe was blown open and about $45 worth of stamps and a few registered packages were taken. Fortunately the postmaster had deposited the greater part of the funds in St. Louis the day before.

The attitude of Catholicism toward our public schools—a problem of grave concern at the present time—is to be discussed from opposite premises in the June number of the North American Review, by M. C. O'Byrne, of North Carolina, against the Roman Catholic Church, and Bishop Keane, of Virginia, in defence of its policy.

At the medical convention, called to investigate the charges against Dr. Sage, Dr. R. H. Browne stated that the appointment of a committee to investigate the professional conduct or character of any member, before written charges and specifications were presented, was illegal and irregular, and moved that that part of the record of the last meeting, appointing a committee to investigate the conduct or character of Dr. Sage, be expunged. The motion carried.

Williams Brothers are making the tobacco business lively in Kirksville. They have distributed a very large amount of tobacco seed among the tobacco growers of this county, and their customers report them growing finely. From the tobacco reports in other tobacco growing states, the indications are that tobacco will be a paying crop this season. The highest price they have paid for tobacco this year is 5 cents per pound, and yet, at this price, crops have brought their owners $60 per acre. Their large barn is now filled with tobacco in excellent condition, and it will be shipped in June. Their sorter, Oscar Williams, is without doubt the best in the county. The tobacco interest in Adair county is a growing one, and we hope to see a rich harvest in this crop next fall.

Last Friday evening a large audience assembled at the Normal Chapel to witness the declamatory contest for the William T. Baird, prize medal. The contestants were Misses Lizzie Davis, Lula Fisher, Tillis Tompson, Ida M. Fowler, Sallie Rhodes, Lula Gentry, Messrs Geo. F. Nason, Thos. J. Cleeton and W. E. Blanton.

The entertainment was hardly so good as in former years. Those deserving special mention for the excellence of their performances are Misses Davis, Fowler, Gentry and Mr. Blanton. Miss Davis rendered the pathetic story "The Painter of Seville," in a clear, strong, musical voice and being the possessor of a magnificent physique appeared on the stage to excellent advantage.

"Lost in the Sea Fog," by Miss Lula Gentry, was the gem of the evening. To successfully personate, one's own identity must be lost; and Miss Gentry possesses this faculty in a remarkable degree. This power coupled with an excellent voice and appropriate gestures brought forth a storm of applause at the close of her recitation.

Mr. W. E. Blanton, with only a short preparation declaimed "Catalina's Defiance" in a very creditable manner. Miss Ida Fowler, the successful candidate for the honors, recited "Sister and I." This is a very difficult selection and portions of it were excellently rendered by Miss Ida.

The judges were Rev. Phanstiel, of Troy, Mo., Prof. McMullen, Mexico, Mo., and Wm. Green, Kirksville. They remained out but a few minutes, when Rev. Phanstiel stepped upon the rostrum and in a few well chosen words presented the medal to Miss Ida Fowler.

The Normal choir with Miss Carrie Eggleston as accompanist, furnished some excellent music during the evening.

ONE PRICE HOUSE SAYINGS.

A bear story is not necessarily the naked truth, but it is the naked truth that N. Y. Store carries the line of ladies, fine shoes. Their stock is the largest and best selected in this section of the country. Whoever might have had the shoe trade of this city in the past, they certainly have the big end of it today, and have secured it by selling good honest goods at such low prices as to bring them within the reach of all. If you want a good shoe, no mind, a good shoe, at the very lowest price of any market, go there to buy it.

A lucky fisherman is one who does not catch the rheumatism, but the man who is fishing for bargains will find the best angling ground at the N. Y. Store and among their many bargains they will find none more benefiting than their line of parasols. Their prices are the very lowest. Call and inspect.

Somebody—or maybe nobody—has said, nothing should be done in a hurry, but catching fleas, but we are inclined to think there are some other things that should be done in a hurry. For instance when the N. Y. Store advertises a grand clearing up sale on carpets it is the part of wisdom to go at once and get you a carpet while you can. They are offering a rare opportunity to get a carpet for less than it is worth. They inaugurated this grand clearance sale in order to make room for an entirely new line. Carpets 25 per cent cheaper than you can possibly buy them elsewhere. Call soon.

The alligator, though a sleepy looking thing, is known when awake for business, to have plenty of snap to him, and you should all have business snap enough about you to snap at the chance of great bargains which the N. Y. Store is offering in white dress goods and trimmings. You will find they are selling these goods cheaper than any other concern in the county. Many of you remember the great inducements they offered and the enormous sale they had on these goods last season, but their prices are even lower this season than then. No other house in the city can present such inducements in these goods.

Now we want to say something about our dress goods department. We often speak of this but we do not believe we have ever overdrawn the picture. We believe it is generally conceded that we carry the largest stock of dress goods in the county, and it is certainly unusually full and choice this season. We have all the shades and styles, and our prices though they have always been the lowest are lower this season than ever before. Ask to see our line of satin blouses, cut merinos, ottomans, Henrietta cloths, amour cloths, etc., and yes, we do not hesitate to say that we are offering the best black silks for the money now before the trade of this city. We are making a special on our line of silks and are satisfied that no other concern will duplicate our prices. We invite comparison and defy competition. You will lose money if you do not inspect our line of silks before you buy.

Gents, remember we have the best assortment of heavy shoes and fine dress shoes and will sell them cheaper than those concerns who are so noisy about their shoe trade. Gents our line of hats, in ur and straw, we would invite you to examine. You will always find us with a very choice assortment of the very latest styles in dress hats and you will find our prices lower than those fellows who would make you believe that no one carries a line of hats but themselves.

We are offering great special bargains in clothing. If you want a nice suit of clothes, if you want a cheap suit you will find special inducements to buy it at J. F. WHITACRE & CO'S.

NEW YORK STORE Three Rooms from the North End of the West Side of the Square.

Fine Stock Notes. The wonderful stride Adair county is taking in the way of fine stock, is not only a surprise, but most cheering. The farmers are becoming thoroughly alive to their interests and already they are beginning to reap the harvest. The demand for good stock is so great that they are being purchased at fancy prices, while yet very young.

Mr. Jas. Crow sold a colt a short time since, for $100. Rebehy Hynds, near Millard, who is making a specialty of fine horses and cattle and now has fine herds of both, has refused $100 for a colt only a few days old. Mr. E. J. G. Jamison sold a fine bull calf, a few days since, not yet ten months old, weighing 800 pounds, at a fancy figure and his "Hudson," Duke of Side View, three years old tipped the beam last Saturday afternoon at 215 lbs. and is in fair flesh. He is a very nice animal and attracted much attention.

Besides the above there are a host of others that are doing much for Adair county. Among them, Kellogg Bros., Hamilton Bros., T. C. Campbell, C. T. Rice, B. S. Kerns, S. J. Miller, J. S. Cole, Henton & Graves, Nelson Cole, S. A. McCoy, John Cheffey, Geo. Rice and Geo. A. Giller. We are glad that the day has come, when we need not longer be ashamed of the stock grown in our county. A rapid increase in wealth from now on, is an assurance and we only regret that we are not better acquainted with the fine stock men of Adair county, that our notes might be more complete.

We invite all to kindly aid in keeping us posted on any interest in the county, that our readers may know of the progress we are making as a prosperous people.

Economy Hog Feeder. Last Tuesday we witnessed a test of the above named feeder. Mr. Sloan had kept about fifteen hogs away from feed till their appetites were keenly whetted. He then opened the door and the swine went at the feeders with a rush. However they soon became quiet, for the feeder is so constructed that it is impossible for them to stow their hogish dispositions. Not a grain of corn or an ounce of meal can be wasted. The hoppers when filled requiring no more attention till empty. All who have seen it pronounce it just the thing, and it must soon come into general use. You can feed corn, Hungarian seed, meal or shipstuf.

Narrow Escape. On Thursday morning, a little son of Jacob Shafer who live in Liberty township, was badly gored by an angry bull. The horn of the angry animal entered the right arm, about four inches from the shoulder tearing a frightful gash, extending to the armpit. The left collar bone was also broken. Mr. Shafer who was near seized a club and drove the bull away or the boy would have been killed on the spot. The little fellow was brought to town, and put in care of Doctors Coo & Sparling, who dressed the wound and set the broken bone. At last accounts he was doing well.

MAYNARD'S COUGH CANDY. Recommended by the Leading Physicians as a Tonic and Expectorant. We take pleasure in making known to the public this valuable candy, as a medicine. It is made with a view of combining the best known remedies for bronchial troubles with pure candy, in such a manner as to make a medicine with very pleasant to taste, yet it takes the place of the costly syrups and troches manufactured and sold as patent medicines. Mr. Maynard has been manufacturing this candy using it for years and has testimonials from physicians and patients wherever he has sold it, speaking in the highest terms of its efficacy as a medicine. It is splendid for coughs, colds and hoarseness, and when melted and taken as a syrup will cure croup. It gives us great pleasure to publish the following testimonial, from our best physicians recommending J. C. Maynard's Cough Candy: Dr. T. W. SHAW—

A prominent physician, formerly of Macon City, but now of Philadelphia says: "The prescription from which Maynard's Cough Candy is made, is a better remedy for throat or bronchial troubles than the many troches and lung balsams now in the market." Dr. F. A. GUYOT—

Of Kirksville, says: "I cheerfully endorse the above." Dr. GOODSON—

Of Macon City, says: "It is a tonic and expectorant, and very strengthening to the lungs." Dr. T. S. TREBEY—

Formerly of Macon City, but now of Lebanon, Tenn., says: "This candy undoubtedly saved me and my son from a spell of pneumonia. I will further give you privilege to sign my name to anything in commendation of your Cough Candy." It is further recommended by some of the leading physicians in the country.
