James Lorton, living near Troy Mills and one of our oldest citizens, died Wednesday night. He was interred yesterday in the Bear Creek cemetery.

UNCLE ROB'T WILLIS, three miles northwest of town, has just finished one of the largest and most complete barns in the country. Mackey & Son, formerly of Iowa, were the contractors. Mr. Jesse Hardin, a near neighbor of Mr. Willis, also began the erection of a large barn Monday morning. We are glad to note these evidences of prosperity in our county.

On the 6th a number of our young folks started on their journey to Kirksville, where they will be engaged in school for the coming year. Their names are as follows: G. W. Fisher, who is an old student of that place, and is now finishing up his fourth years work. G. A. Hendrickson and Scott Asher, both of whom are intelligent and energetic young men, making their first attempts to a higher education. Miss Ella Ford who was in attendance last year and returned to finish up the work of the two years course. Miss Maria Wolse, is one who has attended the Trenton school for some time past and changes for the Normal. Miss Mary Evans, is making her first attempt, and as she has always been a persistent and industrious worker in the country schools, she will be sure to succeed in her new efforts. In fact, the entire crowd was worthy of representing Grundy in the way of students.—Grundy county Times.

The following ladies and gentlemen left Sunday by special train to attend the National Triennial Conclave of Knights Templar in St. Louis: Mrs. D. C. Pierce, Mrs. Dr. Goben, Mrs. Geo. Social intercourse is not the object of the Woman's Relief Corps, yet all feel strengthened by this union of effort to alleviate the sufferings of those whose misfortunes in many cases, have been brought upon them by noble sacrifices, the fruits of which we now enjoy. Corps No. 14 hopes to show from time to time that the ladies of Kirksville, and vicinity lack neither in patriotism nor in gratitude to the noble men who gave their all to preserve the precious liberties we enjoy.

Old Soldiers Picnic.

The old soldiers, of Clay Township, will hold a picnic, Oct. 24, 1886, one mile east of Sperry P. O. in the grove near Jacob Waddell's. There will be good speaking and splendid music.
