GRAPHICS.

Remember the poultry show. Fine weather for corn gathering.

Thos. Gibson is making extensive improvements on his dwelling.

S. J. Miller wants to buy good oats for which he will pay 21 cents per bushel.

Wellington Halliday has purchased the residence property of Henry Felker.

The Entertainment announced last week, will occur on Friday evening Nov. 4th at 8 o'clock.

J. W. Tinsman received another order for ten photographic back grounds, from Denver Colorado, this week.

The ladies of the L. H. I. B. will give an egg social at an early day. Further announcements next week.

The protracted meetings at the Christian church will continue until Monday evening. Up to last night there had been thirty-seven additions to the church.

Eld. A. Russell, preached in Queen City last Sunday morning and evening, and will preach there again, in the M. E. Church, South, the second Sunday in November, morning and evening.

A very fine colt was exhibited on our streets last Thursday, and attracted a great deal of attention. The colt was the property of A. C. Farr, and weighed 690 lbs, though only six months old.

The first of the series of the Normal Entertainments announced last week will take place on Friday night November 4th at eight o'clock promptly. Season tickets with reserved seats 75cts. Single tickets 25c.

A vote to determine whether cows should be permitted to run at large within the corporate limits of Kirksville, was taken last Tuesday. It resulted in 203 for restraining to 63 against. The cow is not so popular as she was.

We have been informed that Walter C. took second money in the free for all race at Macon City, trotting the mile in 2-36 with track in bad condition. He also took second money at Trenton trotting the fastest heat ever trotted on the Trenton track.

Deputy Sheriff Herron and Constable Moore, arrested a tramp near Novinger one day this week. He had in his possession a full kit of burglar's tools and was evidently bent on mischief. He is now in jail here awaiting identification.

Jacob Saer living on P. M. Smith's farm eleven miles southwest of town, had three acres of corn which yielded 834 bushels per acre. In another field one-half acre was measured and the yield was 53 bushels or 106 bushels per acre.

Wednesday of this week Jacob Waddill, of Sperry, purchased a fine three-year-old heifer and calf from Jno. Pervine, of Polk township, paying for them $155. These animals are very fine, are of the Young Mary tribe and were formerly from the herd of J. G. Jamison.

"Riding the goat" has always been considered a perilous business, and it proved unusually so to Geo. Meeks' little grand-son last Friday morning. While using the goat as a pony the goat tried to imitate a bucking broncho and threw the little fellow breaking his arm and otherwise severely injuring him.

A Collision occurred between the north bound passenger train and the freight going south at Macon City last Thursday afternoon. The engines were demolished, two freight cars badly damaged. The passengers received a violent shaking but none were seriously hurt. William Murphy of this place, was on the passenger train and received five dollars for the injuries he sustained.

There was a law suit held in Justice Richey's court Monday to determine, who are the present owners of the "Brashear Citizen." The court decided that it belongs to R. M. Brashear of this city and B. G. McBroom of Brashear. However the question of ownership will be taken to a higher court. Strange that a paper of so brilliant parentage, should now go begging for recognition and a paltry support.

The first two ladies named are sisters of Mrs. Martin.

Deputies United States Marshals, Chas. McCune and E. D. Taylor, arrived in town from Huntsville with four young men, yesterday morning. They are under arrest charged with peddling plug tobacco. They claim that they have been working on a railroad in Michigan, and when discharged were unable to get their money, and had to take their pay in tobacco. When they got hungry they sold it for something to eat. The supposition is that they "cracked" a store somewhere and carried off the tobacco. They are a tough looking set at any rate, and do not look as though they had recently suffered from the pangs of hunger.

Polk township challenges any township in the county to show a better record, in proportion to area, in the production of small grain than does that township this season. A man has been appointed to make a careful estimate of all the grain and seed threshed in the township and when the estimate is completed will be published in the GRAPHIC. Any township that desires to compete against "Little Polk" can appoint a committee to make the estimate. The estimate will be made on the machine measurement.

The funeral of Mr. Edwin Darrow took place from the family residence last Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. After the funeral discourse by Simpson Ely the body was taken in charge by the G. A. R. and conveyed to the cemetery. The order of the procession was as follows: Cornet band, which played a dirge during the march to the grave, Corporal Dix Post G. A. R. No. 22. Artillery, gun and carriage decorated with flags and draped in mourning, hearse with guard, pall bearers, citizens in carriages. Upon the arrival at the grave the beautiful and impressive burial service of the G. A. R. was read by Dr. Brown, acting commander, and Sanford Snyder, Chaplain. After the reading of the burial service the burial salute was fired, when the vast concourse returned to their homes, feeling that one of Adair's best, purest and noblest citizens had been laid to his final rest.
