GRAPHICS

Carter Bros, dentists, south side H. C. McCahan's pacer is showing fine speed. J. M. Kellogg, of Bullion, is preparing to build a fine barn.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Johnson, of Lexington, are visiting Kirksville relatives. There were four additions to the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday.

S. M. Pickler's Reindeer is said to be by far the fastest horse at the fair grounds. The marshal of Clarence has received orders to close all business houses on Sunday.

The continued rains this week have been a serious set back to the hopes of the farmers. On account of the washout the O. K. trains have not been able to reach Trenton this week.

W. L. Cochrane, of this city, has been elected principal of the Lancaster public schools. The ladies of the Columbian XXX will give an entertainment and banquet at Pool's hotel next Thursday evening.

It is reported that several hundred feet of the O. K. track washed out between Gaunt and Trenton Monday afternoon. Farmers who have been fortunate enough to get a part of their corn planted, report that it is coming up nicely.

The Missouri State Horticultural Society will meet at Chillicothe June 7, and will remain in session three days. The Farmers' Alliance congressional convention held at Macon last Tuesday, nominated H. J. Bronson, of Lewis county, for Congress.

We publish in this issue of the GRAPHIC a very interesting letter from Frank Kafter in regard to the Keeley Institute at Excelsior Springs. Read it. Farmers need not be discouraged on account of lateness of the season. A late spring is usually followed by a late fall, and sufficient time given for the maturing of crops.

W. L. Smith's shoe shop has been moved to the Foster building, southwest corner of the square, first door west of Hayes barber shop. The Chariton River Wednesday morning was twenty feet above low water mark, and rising at the rate of nearly a foot an hour. Another overflow is expected.

L. A. THOMPSON, of Macon, has withdrawn from the congressional contest. His withdrawal leaves Cotney, Giles and Marchand to make the fight against Hatch. The court house in Lancaster has been condemned as unsafe, and the Queen City Transcript proposes to raise $40,000 by subscription to build a new one at Queen City.

A. B. Brunemer, postmaster at Laclede, is under arrest for taking money from registered letters. Mr. Brunemer is an old and respected citizen of Linn county, and his arrest has caused great surprise and excitement. The Methodist Episcopal church will observe Children's Day next Sunday. The Pastor will preach to the young people in the morning, and at night the Children's Day concert program will be rendered by the young people.

Prof. S. F. DeVore the noted Phrenologist, of New York City, who was here 2 years ago will lecture in the Christian church Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday nights, June 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7. Blindfold examinations. Admission free. Private examinations at the Pool House.

F. M. UNDERWOOD, a prominent farmer and sheep raiser of Schuyler county, was in Kirksville Friday on business. Joseph Douglass went to Kansas City Monday night on a short business trip. He returned home Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller, Miss Green, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe, Mr. Tom Still and Dr. Webb, of Macon, attended Ascension services here last Thursday evening. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Noonan.

The society ladies gave their gentleman friends a card party at the residence of Joseph Baum Tuesday evening. A delightful time was enjoyed by all present. The Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias made a fine showing in the procession Monday morning. The Select Knights A. O. U. W. also attracted very favorable notice from visitors.

Arrangements for a Fourth of July celebration should not be neglected. The time for the celebration is now approaching, and Kirksville should make an effort to excel the excellent work of last year. There was another wash out on the O. K. road Wednesday, just west of Novinger. A freight train was ditched and three cars were thrown from the track. The passenger train only went as far west as Novinger Wednesday night.

The suit of Gaunt Crebs against Six and Bennett, to recover the value of a diamond ring they had won from him by gambling, was tried Wednesday. They returned the ring to Crebs, and were then given light fines in the police court for gambling.

Mrs. Dann gave an elegant luncheon at her residence to her lady friends Wednesday at 12:30 p. m. Those present, were Mesdames Andrew Ellison, Frank Parker, John Kennedy, D. C. Pierce, John Guinan and J. K. Musick. Prof. G. H. Laughlin will preach at the Christian church next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning theme—"The Gospel at Antioch." Evening theme—"Three Great Men of God." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. and Y. P. S. C. E. at 4 p. m. All are cordially invited to these services.

Mrs. B. F. Eads sent a plant to the World's Fair at Chicago Wednesday. It is a Black Prince fuchsia and is nearly five and a half feet in height. The expressage on the plant was $1.40, which will be paid by the Fair. Commissioners. The G. A. R. post occupied its new quarters, the A. O. U. W. hall, for the first time Wednesday evening. Their regular meetings are held the first Wednesdays in each month at 7 p. m. and the third Thursdays in each month at 1 p. m.

Last week was the most favorable week of the season for agricultural pursuits, and plowing and planting were rushed. Had the weather continued fair through this week a large acreage of corn would have been planted. Ascension Day was appropriately celebrated by Ely Commandery of this city Thursday evening of last week, June 20. The Commandery marched from the Masonic hall, headed by the Lyceum Theater band at 8 o'clock, to the Cumberland church where the exercises were held. After the regular ascension services by the commandery the address was pronounced by Sir Knight Rev. H. B. Davis of Moberly.

Tom Sparks, a colored boy, was brought up Thursday and fined, with costs, $2.50 for breaking window lights out of Peter Earley's house, in default of which he was put in the calaboose; but when night came he got so frightened at being alone in the darkness that his father was permitted to stay with him. The next evening the boy was permitted to go home and sleep, with the injunction to return the next morning, but he failed to appear, having in the meanwhile sought other pastures, much to the relief of all parties concerned.—Edina Independent.

Rev. J. B. Mitchell is to be in Marshall next Sabbath to preach the Baccalaureate sermon of Missouri Valley College. The services in the C. P. church here that day will be conducted by Mrs. Alice Orr Langhlin, of Springfield, Mo. The Topic in the forenoon will be, "What shall we do with our girls?" and in the evening, "The character and importance of interior missions." This latter service will be included in the anniversary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the congregation. All are cordially invited. Both themes are among the living ones of our day.

Memorial Service. Memorials service in this city was largely attended notwithstanding the threatening aspect of the weather, and was more elaborate than that of any previous year. At 10 o'clock a. m. the procession formed at the southwest corner of the square, and was headed by Corporal Dix Post, G. A. R. followed by Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias, Select Knights, A. O. U. W. and fire department, all in uniform.

The procession marched down the south side of the square, thence east to the north side, thence west to the cemetery. On arrival at the cemetery the G. A. R. secret societies, and fire department formed a circle about the cenotaph, which had been erected for the occasion to the memory of the fallen heroes. Post Commander W. H. Chadeayne read the introductory address to the comrades and was followed by Chaplain Joseph Pope, who led in prayer. The Post Commander then read Commander's address to the public which was followed by strewing of flowers by officer of the day, John Haner. After the song, "America" by the choir and the artillery salute to the dead, the chaplain pronounced the benediction, and the audience was dismissed to the work of decorating the graves. Owing to a shower of rain the procession did not reform and march back to the square as had been contemplated. At 2 o'clock Maj. R. D. Cramer delivered the Memorial address in the Opera House to a large audience. There were also short speeches by Prof. Muir, Revs. Mitchell and Marvin, of this city, and Captain G. D. Gray, of Glenwood.

Griffin will appear at the Opera House in her wonderful imitations, costume impersonations, recitations, character sketches etc., assisted by some of the best local talent. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of the order of Knights of Pythias of this city, and no efforts will be spared to make the evening pleasant. Miss Griffin never fails to delight her audiences. Come out and enjoy the treat. Admission 15c and 25c. Seats on sale at Normal Book Store.

The Handsomest Lady in Kirksville. Remarkable to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs was a superior remedy as it stopped her cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merits, any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50c. and $1.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolved, that in the death of comrade Daniel L. Hughes Col. Forber post No. 33, G. A. R. of Missouri loses one of her valued and respected members, one who was loyal to her principles, devoted to her interest and worthy of her honors.

Resolved, that the members of this post extend to the wife of our deceased comrade their heartfelt sympathy, and whilst our lips are mute in the presence of this sore bereavement as her tears flow for the loss of a husband, ours fall for the loss of that precious possession, a friend and a comrade.

Resolved, that this preamble and these resolutions be entered upon the records of the post and that a copy of them furnished to the wife of the deceased, and that the Macon Republican, Home Press and Kirksville GRAPHIC be requested to publish the same.

JACOB GILSTRAP, G. J. TOMKINS, Com. G. H. ASHLOCK.

DIED. REED—Nettie Belle Pickens, daughter of Wm. and Mary Pickens, was born May 6, 1864; was married to Frank Reed Jan. 11, 1880; died at her home near Willmathville, May 19.

Year after year the seasons come in their order; regularly the days succeed each other. We know these things are so, and expect them. But who can tell us at what season death will come, or what day may finish our earthly career. Thou, O Death, hast all times and seasons for thine own.

Only a few weeks ago, Nettie was in usual health; she and her family had no intimation that they were soon to be separated. Disease came with little warning, and in spite of medical aid and careful nursing, in a few days she passed away from earth, leaving husband and children, father, mother, brothers and sisters stricken with grief. God called her home. He has also said—I am the resurrection and the life; he that believes in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. Only this can give comfort by the hope of meeting again where death can never enter, and where all is joy and peace. Funeral services were held in Trinity church, conducted by Rev. Williams. Then all that was mortal was laid reverently to rest in Fort Madison cemetery.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write: 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.'"
