The union Central is one of the most reliable of the old line companies, and writes a very liberal policy. If you want life insurance, give the Union Central a consideration.

Taylor McDowell, son of John McDowell, living west of Sublette, met with a serious accident Monday. He was crawling through a barbed wire fence with a sharp ax in his hand, when in some manner the ax slipped almost severing the third and fourth fingers from his left hand. Dr. Wilson of Greentop, dressed the wound.

The Curtis school house of Pettis township was burned Thursday night of last week. The building was being moved from the original site to the center of the district, and the removal, it seems, created considerable dissatisfaction, which, it is alleged, caused the building to be burned. Charley Rothe, who had the contract for moving the building, lost all his tools and ropes which is a severe blow to him.

Monday morning Mrs. J. C. Pierce, who lives about twelve miles west of Kirksville, was coming to town accompanied by her daughter and Miss Letta Shaver. When about two miles from town Mrs. Pierce drove over a stump and all were thrown out of the wagon. Mrs. Pierce had a hip fractured and two ribs broken besides suffering serious internal injuries. Miss Shaver had her left wrist and Miss Pierce her right wrist fractured. Dr. Nee was hastily summoned, and went to their relief. After making them as comfortable as possible, he had them brought to town, and taken to the home of Mrs. Pierce's mother-in-law.
