The large shipments of candy from the Kirksville Candy Factory are attracting the attention of Kirksville's business men. The very large orders given this concern by outside towns, are due to the superior quality of the goods. Merit wins.

Daniel Quinlin, a section hand was killed Tuesday of last week by a passing Santa Fe train, near Baring. He stepped aside from the track to allow the train to pass, and when the train had passed was found by his companions dead beside the track.

A great ten days' sale of millinery at Mrs. Leech's west side store, commencing Saturday May 10th. Great reduction in trimmed and untrimmed hats, flowers, feathers, veilings, laces, jets and novelties. If you doubt it come and see for yourself and be convinced.

The Highland Park Cemetery Association have already completed a large amount of grading on their streets and avenues in the park, and this week let the grading contract for 1060 feet more. The Association will keep pushing the work, and in time the park will be one of the most attractive in the state. This is a commendable enterprise, and we are glad to see the work in the hands of some of the most progressive young men of our city.

The musical recital given by Miss Florence Stafford's classes in piano and vocal music at the residence of George J. Eckert Monday evening was a decided success. The spacious parlor was filled with an appreciative audience, that was delightfully entertained for nearly two hours. All showed the careful training of a skillful and competent teacher, and the recital only added to the already high standing of Miss Stafford's ability as an instructor in piano and vocal music.

Thos. Wycoff, of Wyaconda who was arrested for robbing the mails had his trial before Commissioner Musick, Monday evening, and was bound over to the U. S. court at Hannibal. Wycoff had purchased a watch at Wyaconda and ordered it sent by mail to Gorin. When the mail arrived at Gorin the postmaster emptied the mail out on the counter, and Wycoff who was watching, picked up the watch and slipped it into his pocket. He then demanded the watch of the postmaster. Dennis Sullivan, the postoffice inspector was informed, and for four months he has kept Wycoff under his eye. Wycoff finally sold the watch at Marceline and was arrested. Much credit is due Mr. Sullivan for his skill as a detective.

On Thursday of last week the residence of Jacob Henry Shibley, of Shibley's Point, was destroyed by fire. A strong wind was blowing and the fire got well under headway before it was discovered. When help arrived the fire was so far advanced that nothing could be done toward saving the household goods and clothing. The family is left without anything except the clothing they had on at the time of the fire. Mr. Shibley is a man, who has always been ready to help the unfortunate, and needy, and has given liberally of his means to support worthy and charitable institutions. It would now be only just that the friends of Mr. Shibley manifest the same spirit toward him, and contribute of their means to help him bear his loss.
