Mrs. Leech for Millinery. Programme for the C. E. convention next week. The Adair county Institute will convene Aug. 10, instead of Aug. 3; as heretofore announced.

Children's Day exercises at the C. P. church, Sunday evening; Sermon by the pastor in the morning.

Subjects in the Baptist church Sunday: Morning, "God pleading the cause of his people." Evening: "Danger of Religious Indecision."

G. C. Farmer & Son, late of Missouri Valley, Mo., have purchased Cole's hardware stock, and will continue the business at the old stand.

Rev. Canfield will officiate on Sunday, June 14th, in Trinity Episcopal church at 11 a. m. No Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. No service at night. All are welcome.

At the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath at 11 a. m., the pastor will preach an illustrated sermon to children, subject, "Seed time and harvest." Usual evening service at 8 p. m.

Misses Mande and Cecile Finley, Ora Musick and Ola Jonas have organized a mandolin club. As this is leap year the most highly favored young gentlemen may expect an occasional serenade.

The Osteopathic entertainment will be given at the Opera House Monday evening, June 15, under the direction of Prof. C. V. Kerr. A splendid programme has been arranged, and the entertainment will be first class.

Rev. W. A. Crawford, former Chaplain of the Lansing penitentiary, Kansas, is in the city considering a proposition to take charge of and conduct, the Kirksville Mercantile college. While here he is the guest of his old time friend, Dr. Turner.

The St. Louis Republic has made arrangements to cover the political news of all parties in the coming campaign in a way that has never been equaled by any newspaper. Those who wish to keep posted should subscribe at once. The Republic, daily and Sunday, has been reduced to $6 a year, $3 for 6 months or 60 cents a month. The Twice-a-Week Republic is $1 a year.

The boys of our city have organized a base ball team to play during the season of 1896, and solicit the public patronage at every game. A number of the business men have donated liberally for the benefit of the game, and the boys propose to show that they appreciate the kindness. A close game was played Saturday with the Sloan Point nine. The score was 10 to 4 in favor of Kirksville.

Harvey Smith and Francis Kin-kaid, who were arrested last week charged with Mrs. Aubrey's death, were released Tuesday, as no positive evidence could be found against them. Mrs. Aubrey was a young widow 23 years old, and came here from Monmouth, Ill., April 1. She was engaged to be married to Elsea Smith, and when she arrived here went at once to the home of the Smiths in Walnut township. The wedding was to have occurred May 15. On Friday morning, May 8th, just after breakfast she became sick and was seized with convulsions which lasted until May 23, when she died from exhaustion. All agree that she died from strychnine poisoning, but as to who administered the fatal dose has so far baffled the officers.

The business men of the town have engaged the band for two concerts a week in the park.

Adair will celebrate the Glorious Fourth on the Thomas Welch farm. Further announcement next week.

Chas. Glaspell, of Kansas City, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, attended the Shriners banquet here Friday night.

Fred Tinsman, Luther Belshe, Ora Buckmaster, E. A. Evans and Chas. Grassie who have been traveling in Colorado and Utah for several months are at home for a short visit.

A. E. Black writes from Hurdland, that they have been troubled with army worms, Democrats, and county seat movers, but all have vanished and nothing but McKinley is heard at the present time.

William Dodson, of St. Louis, of the firm of Dodson & Hill, Henry Hodson, of St. Louis and Abe Dodson, of Carlinville, Ill., are here this week on account of the illness of their father James Dodson.

In some towns you will find filthy barbers with poor tools and dirty towels and mugs. But an examination of the O. K. barber shop will convince you that they have none but neat, first class workmen, good tools and clean towels. Try the O. K. shop.

The business men have kindly consented to decorate their business houses during the session of the C. E. convention. The national colors have been selected as the colors of the convention. Hannibal was handsomely decorated during the annual session last year.

On account of the rain last Sunday evening the Children's Day exercises at the Christian church were postponed one week. If nothing prevents, the Children's Day exercises will be given next Sunday evening. Preaching service in the morning. All are cordially invited.

Two much cannot be said in praise of the Kirksville Concert Band, which, under the able direction of Mr. H. L. Spangler, has made for itself a reputation in this part of the state. The music for the commencement entertainments was furnished by this band. The selections were without exception very beautiful and entertaining, and have added much to the success of the closing entertainments of the Normal.

The Kirksville Association bicycle race took place at the Fair Grounds Wednesday afternoon. The music was furnished by the Kirksville Cornet Band. The Half Mile Novice race was won by Walter Dobson. Frank Harrington 2, and Bert May 3. The One Third Mile Association race was won by Chas. Harrington. Ross Prather, of Browning 2, Geo. Atterberry 3. The One Mile Association race was won by Chas. Harrington, the men following in the same order as in the preceding race. The One-Half Mile Association race won by Ross Prather. Chas. Harrington 2, and Geo. Atterberry 3. The Quarter Mile Association race won by Prather with Chas. Harrington and Geo. Atterberry following. The Two Mile race to be done in six minutes was declared off as the contestants ran overtime.

Moila Temple, Ancient and Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of St. Joseph, made a pilgrimage to Kirksville last Friday. The object of this pilgrimage was to give thirty worthy applicants a camel's ride across the hot sands of the desert, enlighten them in the Arabic mysteries and land them safely in the synposium of the faithful. The Shriners arrived by special train Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and after quenching their thirst with zem-zem and camel's milk, they partook of an excellent supper at Hotel Willard. At 7 o'clock a grand parade was made through the principal streets of the city. At 8 o'clock the session opened in Masonic Hall and continued until low twelve, after which all repaired to the banquet at the Willard. Here the time was passed until 2:15 a. m., when the visiting Shriners took the special train for their return to St. Joseph. Among the novices enlightened were A. P. Willard, J. O. Gooch, R. M.
