GRAPHICS. Attend the Republican rally Saturday.

Mrs. Leech for Millinery. Come to the last grand rally Saturday, Oct. 31.

Speakers of National renown will be here Saturday. Come out to hear them.

If you want the interests of Adair county and Kirksville placed in able hands vote for Hon. S. M. Pickler for representative.

Service at Episcopal church at 11 a. m. Sunday. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. The Rev. Canfield will officiate; the Holy communion will be administered.

By request of the W. C. T. U. Eld. Ely will preach a temperance sermon in the Christian church next Sunday evening, November 1. All are invited.

Rev. M. C. Hardin, of the M. E. church, South, will preach both morning and evening on Sunday. The subject for the evening will be the 'Gold and Silver Question.' Miss Hulet will sing an appropriate solo.

Friday evening, Nov. 6th, at 8 o'clock, First Recital at the new hall of the Richard Wagner Conservatory of Music. Miss Pearl Hulet, the new vocal teacher, will sing. The program is unusually rich. Admission free. Patrons especially are invited.

Mr. Cal. Pollock who has been traveling in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Old Mexico, for two years, returned to Kirksville Tuesday morning to visit his family and vote for McKinley. He says that the published statement that he is or was for free silver is an infamous lie. He will vote for honest money and protection as he has always done.

Mr. Geo. C. Lewis and wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Schoeneman last Saturday during the Bryan rally, at Quincy. He took them in his family carriage and visited every point of interest in Quincy, treating them the same as the Quincy people were treated when they came on an excursion to Kirksville.

It was expected that Mayor Noonan whose duty it is to see that strangers of respectability visiting our city are treated courteously, would interfere and quell the exhibition of hoodlumism at the depot Thursday morning. But such expectations were not realized. As agent for the Wabash company, having charge of the depot and grounds, he could have enforced order. As Mayor, a short, dignified appeal would have settled the whole matter. The appeal was lacking.

Tuesday afternoon Dan Morrow, the fifteen year old son of L. A. Morrow, started to drive across the main track of the Wabash while a freight train was switching. The train had been cut at the crossing and the boy did not see the engine backing down when he started across the track, as the cars hid it from view. Just as his wagon got on the track the cars caught it and smashed the hind wheels and broke the coupling. The horses ran away dragging the boy with them over the macadam, bruising him in a terrible manner. He got loose from the horses in front of S. M. Link's residence, where he was taken in an unconscious condition. Dr. Thomas still dressed his wounds and bruises, and he was taken home, where he lies in a precarious condition.

Died.

DODSON—Thursday morning of typhoid fever, Mr. Thomas Dodson, aged 73 years. Mr. Dodson had lived in Adair county for more than 60 years, was a prosperous farmer, and one of our most highly respected citizens. Funeral took from the Cumberland church this morning at 10 o'clock. The Masonic order conducted the funeral service at the grave.

Sedalia in 1864 obtained the county seat of Pettis county from Georgetown, on the condition, expressed in the removal act of the Legislature itself, that Sedalia and its vicinity would furnish suitable buildings for a Court House. Although brick and stone were plentiful in Missouri at that time, Sedalia furnished a one story frame building, without office vaults and the necessary conveniences of a Court House. This inflammable structure, as was to be expected, caught fire after a few years and burned down, and the tax payers of the county then built a suitable Court House. Thus did Sedalia break faith with the people of her own county in the Pettis County Court House matter.

Extract from Speech of John R. Musick at Bethel, Mo.

Now fellow citizens I want to call your attention to our nominee for congress, Maj. C. N. Clark. (Applause) Without uttering a word in disparagement of any other candidate or former official I beg to repeat the statement of a time-honored Democrat in this district, the Major Clark has done more in two years in congress for his constituents than his predecessor did in sixteen. (Wild cheers and cries of "that's so")

Major Clark by his keen foresight, wisdom and patriotism has added six cents to every bushel of wheat the American farmers produce (cheers) and the same in proportion to every American agricultural product.

How has he done this? you ask. I will endeavor to make it so plain that a wayfaring man, though lacking the ordinary intelligence may understand me. According, even to Senator Peffer, as I have just shown you, the price on American wheat is fixed by the Liverpool markets. The cost of freight is deducted from that market price. The cost of transportation of wheat from Boston to Liverpool was eight cents per bushel.

Major Clark as a member of the River and Harbors committee in conjunction with other wise and patriotic statesmen, secured from the ship owners a pledge to reduce freights from eight cents to two cents per bushel, if an appropriation could be obtained to deepen the harbor one foot, or give their ships one foot more of water. A ship is so constructed that when half loaded, with an additional foot of water it can carry as much more freight, and the ship owners could well afford for an additional foot to reduce their freights from eight to two cents per bushel. The appropriation was secured and it is that bit of legislation which now makes your wheat worth forty-five, instead of thirty-nine cents per bushel, and heaven knows, it is low enough at even fifty-five cents.

Now fellow citizens, as a business proposition, I ask you if a man who in ten years can save countless millions to the farmers of this country, is not worthy of being returned (cheers and cries of "he is.") Then without regard to party go to the polls in November and cast your vote for Major C. N. Clark, the friend of the farmer and the laborer. The man who believes that honest toil should be rewarded with an honest dollar. (Wild cheers and applause.)

The biggest rally of the campaign will occur Saturday. Every Republican in the county is expected to be present.

Capital Removal.

The capital removal scheme is a gigantic land speculation inaugurated by the Commonwealth Development Company of Sedalia, backed up by a Chicago syndicate and a New York surety company, and if successful will irretrievably injure all classes at Jefferson City, and victimize the people of the entire State. Let it be overwhelmingly defeated, and the land speculators taught a lesson never to be forgotten. Scratch Yes on your ballot and vote No on Capital Removal. Don't overlook it.

To the Voters of Adair County.

There has been circulated in a secret and covert manner a willful and malicious falsehood by some unscrupulous assassin of character, to the effect that I am a member of the American Protective Association, commonly called the A. P. A., and I take this method to denounce such statements as absolutely and unqualifiedly false in every particular and the author of such reports as a willful and malicious falsifier. I am not a member of the A. P. A. here or elsewhere, and never was, and I make this statement believing that your sense of honesty and fairness will resent any such secret and cowardly attack.

Very Respectfully, NEWTON E. WILLIAMS
