ABOUT ALL SORTS OF SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interestin Bits of News of All Sorts

Come to Laclede next Thursday and enjoy the big celebration.

The Forker baseball team was defeated 6 to 5 by the Meadville team in a good game at Meadville Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Marie Hunter and children of Brookfield spent a few days this week with her mother, Mrs. Johanna Mathiasch. They are moving back to Slater, where Mr. Hunter has employment.

Let the Lomax Pantatorium collect your laundry next Monday or Tuesday and deliver it Saturday. The Quincey Laundry Co., to whom they send, does perfect work only. Patrons outside of town, leave work at Lomax's store.

C. B. Talbott is having a 14x24-foot addition built to the O. A. Talbott Grain Company's grain house, with an office 12x18 feet at the west end, and will put in a pair of wagon scales, preparatory to buying grain and seeds from the farmers in this vicinity.

Of course you are planning to attend the Meadville chautauqua this year, and if you are not, you should, because it will be worth your time and money every day. If you expect to buy season tickets, now is the time to do it, because they will cost you more next week. The program this year is a splendid one, with every day a big day.

The concert given under the direction of Prof. F. E. Washburn of Brookfield at the opera house last Saturday night, rendered by Earl Adams of Linneus, the Runnels Twins of Gallatin and the Linn Quartette of Brookfield, and Mrs. J. E. Cornish as pianist was exceptionally good and delighted all who heard it. Every number on the program was encored, some them repeatedly.

The trip of the Laclede baseball team last week resulted in disaster. The boys lost two games Wednesday and Thursday to the strong semi-professional Unionville team. An umpire who refused to call strikes lost them the first game, and even at that Unionville scored but once after the second inning. On their way home the boys stopped off at Browning and lost another game there.
