

GIRL SUFFERED TERRIBLY

At Regular Intervals—Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured her.

Adrian, Texas.—"I take pleasure in adding my testimonial to the great list and hope that it will be of interest to suffering women. For four years I suffered untold agonies at regular intervals. Such pains and cramps, severe chills and sickness at stomach, then finally hemorrhages until I would be nearly blind. I had five doctors and none of them could do more than relieve me for a time.

"I saw your advertisement in a paper and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took seven boxes of it and used two bottles of the Sanative Wash, and I am completely cured of my trouble. When I began taking the Compound I only weighed ninety-six pounds and now I weigh one hundred and twenty-six pounds. If anyone wishes to address me in person I will cheerfully answer all letters, as I cannot speak too highly of the Pinkham remedies."—Miss JESSIE MARSH, Adrian, Texas.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

RESINOL RELIEVED ITCHING INSTANTLY

And Completely Cured Skin Humor.

If you have eczema or any other itching, burning skin trouble, the best evidence of what Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment can do for you is the word of one who was cured by them after weeks of suffering. Adolph Schoen, 742 Shepherd Ave., Brooklyn, writes:

Nov. 1, 1912.—"At first little red spots were seen on my arms and body, which I noticed were getting larger every day. They itched me so much that I scratched myself until I bled. There were times when I stood up all night and scratched. I was troubled about three weeks, during which time I used — which seemed to do me no good whatever. Then, finally, I thought of trying Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. As soon as I applied Resinol Ointment I felt much relief. After using it a few times, I noticed the sore spots slowly fading away, and in about a month I was cured completely."

The soothing, healing balsams in Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, penetrate every tiny pore of the skin, clearing it of all impurities, driving away eczema, rashes, ringworm, psoriasis, and other eruptions, and making pimples and blackheads impossible. Prescribed by physicians for eighteen years. For free samples write to Dept. 8-K, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Going Half Way. Rutgers Jewett, the literary adviser, was urging a young novelist to take up his residence in New York. "Come to New York," he said, "and then, in every emergency, the publishers and magazine editors can turn to you."

"Men continually tell me," Mr. Jewett continued, "that things never come their way. I feel like shouting in reply: "But why not try putting yourself in the right place?"

MAY BE FEW FIGHTS ON TARIFF

HOUSE AND SENATE LEADERS PRACTICALLY AGREED.

A General Revision Bill Approved by President Wilson Nearly Ready for Congress.

Washington, D. C.—The Democratic Tariff Revision bill is finished, with the exception of a final decision upon the sugar tariff. From beginning to end it is a measure modeled in accord with the ideas of President Wilson, with wool, meats and many other foodstuffs and clothing materials on the free list; with low duties upon all agricultural products and foodstuffs that are not free; and with the tariff on chemical, steel and other commercial products cut far below the present protective rates.

The senate tariff leaders asked for an opportunity to study the bill. They will then confer with Oscar W. Underwood, chairman of the house committee on ways and means, and later will have a final conference with President Wilson. A careful analysis of the senate will be made in the meantime, to determine whether free wool, "one cent sugar" and low rates on "market basket" products will prove acceptable to a majority of the Democrats.

Briefly summarized, the tariff developments were: President Wilson's ultimatum to sugar interests, that they must agree to a tariff of one cent per pound for three years, with free sugar after that time, or he would attempt to secure free sugar at once.

The completion of the bill by the ways and means committee with the exception of the sugar schedule. On this, the committee is prepared to agree on free sugar if the President insists. Income tax rates fixed at 1 per cent for all corporation incomes above $5,000; 1 per cent on personal incomes from $4,000 to $20,000; 2 per cent from $20,000 to $50,000; 3 per cent from $50,000 to $100,000; 4 per cent above $100,000.

The President submitted his proposal on the sugar tariff to Representative Broussard of Louisiana early in the day. Louisiana senators and representatives conferred throughout the day, and sounded out other members of the senate, to determine whether enough strength could be secured to fight the free sugar features of the plan. They had reached no decision at this time, however, as to the course they would take.

SUFFRAGETTES USING BOMBS

A Railway Station at Oxted in Surrey Blown Up to Revenge Pankhurst.

Oxted, Surrey, England.—Suffragettes blew up the railway station at Oxted in Surrey. An alarm clock set for 3 o'clock, a contrivance similar to those used by dynamiters in America, was found in the wreckage, and also a loaded revolver. Militant placards told that the explosion was the work of the women.

The lavatory of the station was demolished and the walls, windows and doors damaged. So far as known nobody was injured.

Stockport, England.—Explosives partly wrecked a London & North-western railway train near here. The carriages were almost empty and nobody was injured. Suffragettes were suspected of the wrecking, in revenge for the conviction of Mrs. Pankhurst.

London.—Warnings were sent out by the directors of all the railroad systems in the United Kingdom to the effect that militant suffragettes had threatened to burn stations in various parts of the country. Patrols will be stationed at all stations and in tunnels.

CHARGE ON THE COMMUNITY

Care of Those Afflicted With Tuberculosis Plainly a Drag on the General Welfare.

Dr. H. L. Barnes, superintendent of the Rhode Island State sanatorium, has recently demonstrated by some interesting studies of patients discharged as "apparently cured" from that institution, that a sanatorium is a sound investment for any state or city. The gross earnings of 170 ex-patients obtained in 1911 amounted to $102,752, and those of 211 cases in 1912 to $112,021. By applying the same average earnings to all ex-patients of the sanatorium living in 1911 and 1912, Dr. Barnes concludes that their income in these two years was $551,000. This sum is more than three times the cost of maintenance of the sanatorium, including interest at 4 per cent on the original investment and depreciation charges. Dr. Barnes concludes, however, "While institutions for the cure of tuberculosis are good investments, there is good reason for thinking that institutions for the isolation of far advanced cases would be still better investments."

BREAKING OUT ON LEG

Hilltop, Kan.—"About two years ago I began to notice a breaking out on my leg. At first it was very small but soon it began to spread until it formed large blotches. The itching was terrible and almost constant. Many nights I could not sleep at all. After scratching it to relieve the itching it would burn so dreadfully that I thought I could not stand it. For nearly a year I tried all kinds of salves and ointment, but found no relief. Some salves seemed to make it worse until there were ugly sores, which would break open and run.

"One day I saw an advertisement of Cuticura Remedies. I got a sample of the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and began by washing the sores with the Cuticura Soap, then applying the Cuticura Ointment twice a day. I noticed a change and got more Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in a few weeks I was cured. It has healed so nicely that no scar remains." (Signed) Mrs. Anna A. Lew, Dec. 17, 1911.

A CLERGYMAN'S TESTIMONY.

The Rev. Edmund Heslop of Wighton, Pa., suffered from Dropsy for a year. His limbs and feet were swollen and puffed. He had heart fluttering, was dizzy and exhausted at the least exertion. Hands and feet were cold and he had such a dragging sensation across the loins that it was difficult to move. After using 5 boxes of Dodds Kidney Pills the swelling disappeared and he felt himself again. He says he has been benefited and blessed by the use of Dodds Kidney Pills. Several months later he wrote: I have not changed my faith in your remedy since the above statement was authorized. Correspond with Rev. E. Heslop about this wonderful remedy.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 13 JACOB AT BETHEL.

LESSON TEXT—Gen. 28:10-22. GOLDEN TEXT—"I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever thou goest." Gen. 28:15.

Esau, like the foolish virgins, became wise after his opportunity had passed. Though there was a partial subsequent reformation (28:6-9) it was not real repentance. Jacob was obliged to flee from his brother's anger. In order to get him off in safety Rebekah prompted Isaac to send Jacob to her brother Laban, ostensibly to seek a wife (27:48), but in reality "for a few days," that he might escape Esau's wrath.

Couch of Stones. I. The Refuge, vv. 10, 11. Every wrong act entails retribution. Leaving the luxurious home in Beersheba, Jacob went towards Haran, which name signifies "a parched place." Out yonder in the desert at a certain place, not any particular one, this refugee tarried during the long cold hours of the night. Gathering a few stones as a rude couch, Jacob slept. There are three things to consider about him that night: (1) He was lonely, which gave him time to meditate upon his life and his actions; (2) he was in a great fear (27:43), which of course quickened his thoughts as to the ultimate outcome of these experiences, and (3) he was certainly weary. What a picture, a weary, troubled, sinful fugitive whose experience had brought him to a time and into surroundings wherein he was compelled to think on his ways.

If only men would think and not stifle conscience more of them would throw themselves upon the mercy of a loving father.

II. The Revelation, vv. 12-15. Jacob was not in reality alone. Both God and his angels were there in that lonely desert place, Ps. 34:7-139:7. It was not an accident that caused Jacob to dream that night. Undoubtedly this dream came from God. Dreams were frequently used of God as a means of revelation, a method that is not needful now that we have the holy spirit, John 7:13. Verily all heaven was at Jacob's right hand.

There are three distinguishing features about this revelation: (1) The Ladder. This might have been suggested to Jacob by the nature of the mountainous country over which he had been or was passing. A ladder is a means whereby we attain unto the higher things; (2) The Angels. They were first ascending, then descending; suggesting, in his extremity, Jacob's ascending prayer and God's descending answer thereto. In this the hour of Jacob's deepest trial God stood at the top of the ladder ready to reveal himself and to succor: see 35:3. There is in point of fact a close and a real connection between earth and heaven, only a veil intervenes. Jesus is our means of communication between a holy God and sinful men. John 14:6, Heb. 10:19, 20; (3) God. Jehovah introduced himself in a most gracious and comforting manner. He it was (v. 13) that had protected and guided Jacob's father and grandfather.

Jacob Arose. III. The Result, vv. 16-22. Jacob awakened and the ladder was removed, but the revelation remained. The presence, the keeping power, the guidance and the ultimately finished work in Jacob's life remained after the dream had passed. So much was he impressed with this that he exclaims: "Surely the Lord is in this place." Jacob's fear (v. 17) is the beginning of wisdom, Ps. 111:10, see also 32:28. The words "gate of heaven," v. 17, signifies the gate to a populous city; in like manner we have the promise of an encamping host ever about us, Ps. 34:7, 2; Kings 6:16, 17. Jacob went a step further, he arose, signifying action. It is not enough to have a vision. Godly fear is always accompanied by action. Taking of the thing at hand, a stone, Jacob erected a memorial, and pouring oil (consecration) upon it, he called the name of that place Beth-el, the house of God. In like manner God would have us to take of the common things of our every-day life and erect a holy memorial out of them to the honor and glory of his name. 'Twas not alone the place of vision, but also of prayer, and true prayer involves work.

This lesson is a wonderful revelation of the love, grace and patience of God watching over and dealing with one of his erring children. Jacob had forfeited his home by his folly. Note his surprised expression, "Surely the Lord was in this place and I knew it not."
