W. H. Baird, the old man who was struck by a train May 16, died Monday at the home of S. C. Wellman, where he was being cared for. In writing to renew his subscription to the Blade, F. C. Bothel, a former Jefferson township farmer, now of Sedgwick, Colo., says in part: "A small tornado visited us a few weeks ago and wrecked some outbuildings, blew our windmill down and almost took our house. We were very thankful that it was no worse and have everything about to its place again. Best prospects since we have been here for an immense crop. Best wishes to the Blade family and all old friends."

Shortly after midnight Thursday all of the locomotive whistles in the Burlington yards were turned those when the round house was discovered on fire. An explosion of a headlight is the supposed cause of the fire. The floor and walls were so saturated with oil that the fire made rapid headway. The employes were in the new part of the building where they had been taking their midnight lunch and the blaze had gained considerable headway before it was discovered. The fire fighters confined the fire to the five north stalls. The heat was so intense that the five engines in these stalls could not be got out and they are badly damaged. The five north stalls were entirely destroyed.—Gazette.

One Minute

Washers are labor-savers. Absolutely the finest running washing machine that has ever been shown.

Friction is reduced to the minimum.

Breakage is practically eliminated.

The fly-wheel and drive gear are geared one to seven; that is, for each turn of the drive gear the fly-wheel makes seven revolutions. This gives some idea of the vast power exercised by the operator.

But there is another superior feature found ONLY IN THE ONE MINUTE. It has a compound lever—a lever on a lever.

No other manufacturer has yet had the nerve to try to imitate that. This is a wonderfully strong point. It greatly increases the power of the operator.

Kindly call at our store and let us show you the many other good features found only in this machine.

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief After Many Years

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Daniel Kintner, of Defiance, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"I had stomach trouble when I was eighteen years old that broke down my health, and for years I suffered with nervousness, headache, indigestion and nervous spasms. The spasms got so bad I would have them three or four times a week. After trying nearly every remedy recommended, I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I must say it helped me wonderfully. I have had no severe nervousness for several years."

MRS. DAN KINTNER,
1002 Pleasant St., Defiance, O.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.
