ADOPT NEW RULES

LIVE STOCK DEALERS AND STATE OFFICIALS MEET IN KANSAS CITY.

TO LIFT QUARANTINE ON HOGS

Proposition Is to Establish Uniform Regulations for Both Kansas and Missouri—Government Must Approve.

Kansas City, Mo.—State officials of Kansas and Missouri, representatives of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture, and members of the Kansas City Stock Yards Company met in the Stock Exchange building and agreed upon regulations to permit the removal of the quarantine on hogs. It is proposed to establish uniform rules for Kansas and Missouri, interstate trade being a feature of the plan. These are the rules adopted:

The Kansas City Stock Yards Company shall set aside certain pens for the purpose of immunizing hogs, to be known as the Kansas City hog quarantine pens. The pens shall be under the control of the state authorities.

Pens shall be used as quarantine pens and for vaccinating such hogs. Said stock yards company shall establish a suitable dipping plant for dipping hogs, which shall be under the supervision of state authorities. All hogs must be dipped in the approved government dip before entering yards.

All hogs must be vaccinated with the serum-simultaneous method within twenty-four hours after entering pens.

No serum or virus shall be used in said pens until the plant or company producing said serum or virus obtains a permit from the above authorities. Every person vaccinating in above yard or pens must immediately report in detail on blanks furnished for the purpose the condition of hogs at time of vaccination and results following therefrom.

The owner or agent of said hogs shall report to the state authorities upon blanks furnished for the purpose the condition of said hogs at intervals of seven days.

Before removing any hogs from yards or pens the owner or agent must first get a written permission to do so and must re-dip the hogs in an approved dip before removing them.

All such removed hogs must be loaded in cars or vehicles which have been thoroughly disinfected under the direction of state authorities.

If necessary provisions must be made for feeding and watering hogs while en route.

Said hogs must be unloaded through noninfected chute and not through common stock yards.

Every purchaser of hogs shall be requested to report to state authorities the condition of said hogs on the fifteenth and thirtieth day after reaching destination. Report to be made on blanks furnished for the purpose.

The committee appointed by the Missouri State Board of Agriculture also voted to permit persons conducting feeding plants to ship hogs to their plants and keep them there until fattened, provided these persons furnish a bond of $2,500 and agree to requirements.

MOB WANTED TO LYNCH NEGRO

A Squad of Kansas City Policemen Saved a Slayer From His Own People.

Kansas City.—A squad of patrolmen, revolvers in hand, saved Wesley Robinson, negro murderer, from death at the hands of a mob of five hundred of his own race here.

Robinson confessed that he choked his wife to death and cut up the body with a butcher knife and buried it at 2213 Michigan avenue, the night of April 11. He also is suspected of having slain his 11-year-old stepdaughter, whose body was found buried near a pond in the Ridge pasture.

Robinson was caught near Lee's Summit. He confessed to the murder of his wife and accused his wife's half-sister, Jane Hill, 2402 Flora avenue, of killing the little girl. He said the Hill woman promised to marry him if he could get rid of his wife and let her get rid of the daughter, whom she did not like. Jane Hill has denied any part in the deaths so far. Robinson told the police he had buried both bodies.

A ROYAL LOVE MATCH

PRINCESS VICTORIA LOUISE OF GERMANY WEDDED TO PRINCE ERNST AT BERLIN.

MILLIONS IN WEDDING GIFTS

In Brilliance the Nuptials Far Outshone Any Similar Event During the Decade—Prince Ruler of New State.

Berlin.—Love and diplomacy entered into the marriage here of Princess Victoria Louise, the only daughter of Emperor William, and Prince Ernst August, youngest son of the duke of Cumberland.

In brilliancy and in point of the great number of royal personages present the nuptials far outshone any similar event during the past decade. Kings, monarchs of lesser rank and crown princes and princesses saw the fair-haired, blue-eyed twenty-one-year-old daughter of the German kaiser become the wife of the strapping twenty-six-year-old prince, and with the ceremony was healed a breach between the houses of Hohenzollern and Guelph which had existed for about half a century. The ceremonies really began two days ago, with the marriage ceremonies today as the climax. The civil ceremony took place in the new marble palace at Potsdam; the religious rites were celebrated in this city.

Princess Victoria Louise had for her attendants three of the prettiest girls of her own caste in Europe. They were Princess Mary, daughter of King George and Queen Mary of England; Princess Elizabeth, daughter of King Charles of Roumania; Grand Duchess Olga, eldest daughter of the Czar of Russia, and Princess Yolanda of Italy.

As would be imagined, the wedding gifts are almost fabulous. Their value is estimated at close to $3,000,000. The kaiser was so glad that the old quarrel with the house of Guelph was settled that, after the marriage had been arranged, he promised to create a new German state and make the groom the ruler of it. Accordingly Prince Ernst today became the duke of Brunswick and the grand duke of Luneberg. This gives the young husband a responsible job and makes him the equal in rank with the kings of Saxony and Wurtemberg and the prince regent of Bavaria. A considerable portion of the province of Hanover, which belongs to Prussia, was added to the new states.

REPLY DOES NOT PLEASE JAPAN

United States Left No Room for Arbitration of the Alien Land Question.

Tokio.—The Japanese are dissatisfied with the reply of the United States to the Japanese protest against the California Land bill, because it gives no leeway for arbitration. The American note denies that the Alien Land act is a violation of the existing treaty with Japan. The foreign office cabled Ambassador Chinda to place before the State Department the interpretation of the treaty as it is construed by Japan.

PROVERBS BROUGHT TO DATE

Unlike Those Generally Known, But Containing a Great Deal of Real Truth.

A man with small feet hideth them not, and she whose hands are well formed delighteth to play chess.

Why doth the virgin rejoice? Why readeth she her love letters to her sisters? Behold, there is a complicity therein, and it shall not be concealed.

Enthusiastic is women's praise of a passable damsel; yea, they lift up their voice continually, saying, Lo, she hath fine eyes. But when she who dazzleth men's sight approacheth, behold their tongues are hushed, they whisper one to another in their confusion, confessing her comeliness.

As a man with his first automobile, so is an old wife with a young husband; she is fond, yet fearful.

The shop damsel extolleth her wares, saying, Lo, I myself wear this kind. And the customer smileth bitterly, and turneth away.

To a clever woman, a man without audacity is a weariness to the spirit; and as for the timid one who obeyeth her, lo, she sendeth him upon errands. —Gelett Burgess in American Magazine.

No Room for Speeding.

Mr. Atkins was driving over his property with his daughter and a young man whom he was beginning to look upon as a possible and very desirable son-in-law.

The chauffeur, not unnaturally, was inclined to show off the motor car, but Mr. Atkins himself had higher thoughts. As John, the chauffeur, quickened his speed, he leaned over near him, and said, in a whisper:

"Not so fast, John, not so fast. You make my estate look too small."

Hops for Us All, Then.

"Even Dobbilitz has his good points."

"A remark that is enough to make the average man an optimist."

"LIKE MAGIC"

New Food Makes Wonderful Changes.

When a man has suffered from dyspepsia so many years that he can't remember when he had a natural appetite, and then hits on a way out of trouble he may be excused for saying "it acts like magic."

When it is a simple, wholesome food instead of any one of a large number of so called remedies in the form of drugs, he is more than ever likely to feel as though a sort of miracle has been performed.

A Chicago man, in the delight of restored digestion, puts it in this way:

"Like magic, fittingly describes the manner in which Grape-Nuts relieved me of poor digestion, coated tongue and loss of appetite, of many years standing."

"I tried about every medicine that was recommended to me, without relief. Then I tried Grape-Nuts on the suggestion of a friend. By the time I had finished the fourth package, my stomach was all right, and for the past two months I have been eating with a relish anything set before me. That is something I had been unable to do previously for years."

"I am stronger than ever and I consider the effects of Grape-Nuts on a weak stomach as something really wonderful. It builds up the entire body as well as the brain and nerves." Name given by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in plain.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are convincing, true, and full of human interest.
