

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again. Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

The End.

M. Deperdussin, a Paris silk merchant, aeroplane builder and the owner of four theaters, secured large advances of money on supposed enormous stocks of silk, and his total indebtedness, chiefly to Paris bankers, amounts to $8,000,000. He owned an aeroplane factory in Paris, owned newspapers, owned flying grounds at Etampes and Villacourblay, workshops for building motor boats and hydroaeroplanes, and three magnificent country seats. Before he launched out in his silk schemes he was a traveler for a chocolate firm in Belgium, and in 1896 he was earning his living as a cabaret singer. When he became wealthy he was wont to make up merry parties of four or five young women and have them at dinner. When they unfolded their napkins each of the girls would find a thousand franc note—$200—in her napkin. M. Deperdussin is now in prison.

No Better.

Herr August Bebel, the late German Socialist leader, whose funeral at Zurich was attended by 15,000 people, was not a pessimist. "Herr Bebel," said a Chicago Socialist, "once denounced pessimism in my presence. He said that many of us become pessimists through reading in newspapers stories about the corruptness of the entire world. Then, like little Karl's father, we adopt too skeptical a view of modern life. 'Little Karl,' he said, 'one day asked: "'Papa, is there really honor among thieves?" "'No," the father replied. "No, my son; thieves are just as bad as other people."'"

At the Fortune Teller's.

"I am sorry, lady, but I see in the near future a light young man who is going to make trouble for you with your husband."
"Oh, that's a common thing. He's the young man who reads our gas meter."

It's usually the fast young man who is left at the post.

SECOND GAME TO NEW YORK

Mathewson Succeeded in Holding the Athletics Runless for Ten Innings—Score 3 to 0.

Philadelphia.—Christy Mathewson, master manipulator of the baseball, led the New Yorks to victory at Shibe Park, when he shut out the Philadelphia in a 10-inning battle by a 3 to 0 score in the second game of the world's series.

Hero of a decade of league and world's championship play, the veteran rose to the highest pinnacle of his diamond career by an exhibition of all around play that wrung volleys of applause from the twenty thousand Athletic supporters. The score

BUSH TOO MUCH FOR GIANTS

Third Game of World's Series Goes to Mack's Team by a Score of 8 to 2.

New York.—A new star blazed forth in the world's series baseball firmament when Leslie Bush pitched the Philadelphia Athletics to victory over the New York Giants in the third game of the championship struggle by a score of 8 to 2. Bush was materially aided in his rush to a pedestal in the baseball hall of fame by the savage batting of his teammates, but the major portion of the glory was accorded by both bugs and players to the youngster, who started the diamond veterans with his speed and control in his debut in a world's series. The score by innings:

New York000 010 100-2 5 1

Batteries—Bush and Schang; Tesreau and McLean.

AGAIN BENDER WON HIS GAME

Athletics Take the Fourth of the World's Series by a Score of 6 to 5.

Philadelphia.—But one victory stands between the Philadelphia Athletics and the world's championship in baseball, for the Mackmen defeated the New York Giants at Shibe Park, 6 to 5, in the fourth game of the titular series. Before the contest was clinched, however, 20,000 Quaker City fans suffered a period of anxious suspense that will keep the Giants' eleventh hour batting rally green in their memory for some seasons to come. The game effort of the National players to overtake their rivals in the closing inning of the game changed the entire complexion of the battle, lifting what appeared to be a one-sided match into a contest that hung in the balance until the last putout. The score by innings:

R. H. E.
New York000 000 320-5 8 2
Philadelphia010 320 00x-6 9 0

Batteries—Demaree, Marquard and McLean; Bender and Schang.

THE WORLD'S SERIES ENDS

The Athletics Took the Fifth and Final Game by a Score of 3 to 1.

New York.—Eddie Plank won the world's series championship for Connie Mack's Athletics when in the fifth game of the series the Athletics annexed their fourth victory by the score of 3 to 1. The score by innings:

R. H. E.

New York000 010 000-1 2 2

Batteries—Plank and Schang, Mathewson and McLean.

Total attendance, 151,000. Total receipts, $325,980. Players' share, $135,163.89, of which the Athletics get 60 per cent, or $81,118.33 to each player, while the losers take 40 per cent, or $53,965.56 to each player. Each club's total share, $79,109.50. National commission's share, $32,598.

ADOLPHUS BUSCH IS DEAD

End Comes to the Millionaire St. Louis Brewer in Germany—Had Been Ill Seven Years.

St. Louis.—A telegram was received here announcing the death at Lagen-schwalbach, Germany, of Adolphus Busch, the multi-millionaire brewer. Mr. Busch had been a sufferer from dropsy for seven years, but when his son, August A., left here a few weeks ago to join him at his castle on the Rhine, he did not know that his father was dangerously ill. In addition to his brewery interests in St. Louis, Mr. Busch also was a director in several banks here and of several public utilities corporations. He also was interested in breweries in San Antonio, Tex., Galveston and Fort Worth, and owned ice manufacturing plants in various parts of the country. He was head of the foreign department of the St. Louis World's Fair.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 19.

REPORT OF THE SPIES.

LESSON TEXT—Numbers 13:1-3, 25-33. GOLDEN TEXT—"If God is for us, who is against us?" Rom. 8:31.

Kadesh Barnea marks the place of the Israelites' first great defeat. Long and bitterly did they regret that day of unbelief and not till a new generation was reared did the nation as such enter into the land of promise. The act of that day was the culmination of a whole train of unbelief, and truly they chose death rather than life. (Josh. 24:15.)

I. The Spies, vv. 1-3. God had commanded Israel to possess the land, now as a precautionary measure they went about to "investigate." This act, which was not a part of God's program, but by divine permission, was a reflection upon God's word about the character of the land. (See v. 19.) The eternal questions of man are to know the why and the how. God told Moses to send these men as a concession to their lack of faith, but it cost Israel forty added years of exile. The inheritance prepared for the faithful are always conditioned upon obedience. (Heb. 11:8, etc.) This act, commanded by God at the request of the people, was a means, an opportunity, whereby they discovered themselves.

A True Type.

II. The Majority Report, vv. 25-29. Though these spies spent forty days in conducting their investigation (a modern form of political graft), yet every step was a corroboration of God's word and the years of desolation which followed correspond to the number of days they were absent from the camp. The first or the affirmative part of their report was fine, but the negative was so exaggerated as to turn the twelve tribes to an act which amounted to a catastrophe. This land and this report is such a true type of our Christian experience. They brought back the evidence of the truth of God's description of the land (Ex. 13:5 and Deut. 8:7-10) which was to be for them a resting place after their wilderness journey (Heb. 3:8-11, 14 and 4:8, 9). But these spies had seen other things, things to discourage, viz., men, strong men, entrenched men (v. 28). They saw those tribes God had said they would find (Ex. 13:5). They not only saw all of this but, like all unbelievers, they magnified their enemies. Today we see evil entrenched behind special privilege, we see the forces of evil that appear to us as giants and unbeliever cries out, "Who is sufficient?"

III. The Minority Report, vv. 30-33.

Majorities may rule but minorities are more frequently right, witness history. A great cry of despair (Ch. 14:1) greeted this report. Caleb stilled the people (v. 30) that they might get the other side of the story. His report agreed with the majority as to the desirability of possessing the land; indeed, we surmise it was Caleb and Joshua who brought their evidence with them (v. 23). Their report differed, however, in its conclusion. To the picture of the strength of those scattered throughout the land Caleb bluntly replied, "Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." (Ch. 14:7; Phil. 4:19.) Ten men looked upon man, the two saw behind man, God, a God who was able. The ten lost their lives even as they feared, whereas Caleb and Joshua lived to enjoy the fruits of their vision of faith. (Ch. 14:6-8, Josh. 15:14.) Unbelief cries, "We be not able," of course not, for "vain is the help of man," but belief, seeing God, in the words of Caleb cries out for immediate action. "Unbelief shuts itself out of promised blessings (Heb. 3:19); it always has and is still so doing. Unbelief exaggerates and contradicts.

Must Consider Entire Story.

IV. The Sequel, Ch. 14. No teacher can properly present this lesson without considering the entire story. The amazed people (14:1-4); the solemn protest of Joshua and Caleb (v. 6-11) was met with threatened death and God interviewed to protect his faithful ones (Ps. 34:7). The unkind anger of Jehovah (v. 11, 12) is met by that magnificent revelation of the beauty and strength of the character of Moses (vv. 13-19). He based his appeal upon the necessity of maintaining the honor of God's word and pleads for mercy and compassion. This appeal was answered by a gracious pardon for the people, but with it came a declaration that discipline was necessary.

Making Good.

She—See here! Did you tell me you were going to make a noise in local politics?

He—So I did. I am part of the "spontaneous applause" at the conventions.

Needs Courage.

Mother—Now, children, I want you to kiss Miss Lemon good-by.

Elder Brother—Come on, Billy, be a sport. It'll be over in a second.—Life.

Natural Business.

"What is that grass widow trying to do with her flirtations?"

"Trying to make hay while the sun shines."

No, Cynthia, marrying an artist or sculptor does not make one a model wife.

Goats may be raised profitably on land which is unsuited for any kind of cultivation.

Ingrates.

A couple of congressmen from Missouri were one day discussing the political non-activity of a number of their constituents who, by their influence, had been "placed."
"This civil service idea is a fraud," said one of the representatives. "Just as soon as these fellows got warm in their seats they snapped their fingers at me. Once fixed, they made up their minds to do no more work for the party."
"I have in mind," said the other member, "the case of a fellow in my district whom I helped to get into the internal revenue service. He was worse than any of the chaps to which you refer. Just as soon as he got his place he joined the church, and ever since he has been useless as far as our political organization is concerned."

His Motive.

"Why did Nero set fire to Rome?"
"Because he wanted to awake some burning enthusiasm."

Women of Middle Age

From 40 to 50 Woman's Critical Period.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, severe headaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularity, constipation and dizziness are promptly treated by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life. This is the most critical period of woman's life and she who neglects the care of her health at this time invites incurable disease and pain. Why not be guided by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It is an indisputable fact that this grand old remedy has helped thousands of women to pass through this trying period with comfort and safety. Thousands of genuine and honest testimonials support this fact.

From Mrs. HENRY HEAVILIN, Cadiz, Ohio.

Fort Worth, Texas.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and derived great benefit from its use. It carried me safely through the Change of Life when I was in bad health. I had that all gone feeling most of the time, and headache constantly, I was very nervous and the hot flashes were very bad. I had tried other remedies and doctors, but did not improve until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has now been sometime since I took the Compound and I have had no return of my old complaints. I always praise your remedies to weak women."—Mrs. HENRY HEAVILIN, R. F. D. No. 5, Cadiz, Ohio.

From Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do. "One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong, well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice, and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine from a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."—Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

From Mrs. F. P. MULLENDORE, Munford, Ala.

Munford, Ala.—"I was so weak and nervous while passing through the Change of Life that I could hardly live. My husband had to nail rubber on all the gates for I could not stand to have a gate slam. "I also had backache and a fullness in my stomach. I noticed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was advertised for such cases and I sent and got a bottle. It did me so much good that I kept on taking it and found it to be all you claim. I recommend it to all women afflicted as I was."—Mrs. F. P. MULLENDORE, Munford, Ala.
