Jas. Bassett is remodeling and modernizing his residence and when completed will have a neat and comfortable home. It is a valuable improvement to that part of town.

Are you insured against property loss should a storm like that of Great Bend, Kans., Nov. 10, 1915, visit your locality? This would be real "preparedness" at low cost to you. See Plowman & Jones.

Fred Hanson had a car of hogs on the St. Louis market last Friday that topped the market. There is no feeder in the country that sends nicer stuff to market than Mr. Hanson. Chirs Hanson accompanied the shipment.

Every farmer and every one interested in farming within the trade radius of this town should be at the opera house next Monday night to hear Dr. Wheeler, the soil expert. There will be no expense to those attending and nothing will be offered for sale, it being purely an educational meeting.

Soil Expert Coming

Dr. Wheeler of Boston, Mass., connected with the agricultural bureau, will lecture at the opera house in Laclede next Monday night, April 10, to begin at 7:15. Dr. Wheeler is a soil expert and will talk on soil and plant life and endeavor to give beneficial suggestions to farmers with the hopes of helping them to raise larger crops and better grain. The lecture is free to all who care to attend, the expense being borne by the business men of Laclede. His lectures are very instructive and cover everything in regard to the handling of the soil the right way to produce big crops. The farmers are not only invited but urged to attend this meeting and help get as many out as possible.

Brenner-Kerr

At the Methodist parsonage on March 29, the Rev. H. J. Dueker pronounced the words that made Mr. E. Fred Brenner of Laclede and Miss Belva Beulah Beatrice Kerr of Sumner, one till death them do part. This highly esteemed young couple have already gone to housekeeping on the Mahurin farm near the Locust Creek school house. They started out with bright prospects of a happy married life. May their anticipations be fully realized is the wish of their many friends.

Attracting New Business

F. H. Longacre of Macon, who has leased the Eichman building was here Wednesday arranging to open his ice cream and confectionery store as soon as the building can be gotten ready. The Bagby drug stock is now being packed and will be either moved to another building or shipped out of town. Mr. Longacre has a large ice cream and butter factory at Macon and his branch house here will supply his customers north, south and west of Laclede. The splendid train service we enjoy makes this a fine shipping point and is attracting the attention of those seeking a good business location.

Large Attendance at Funeral

There was a large attendance at the funeral of S. C. Kuhn held at the home last Friday afternoon, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Those from a distance were W. D. Kuhn, Holton, Kans., W. J. Kuhn and wife of Kansas City, W. R. Crawford and wife and Mrs. Nellie Seamon of Humphreys, W. R. Kent and wife of Osgood, J. C. R. of Utica, and Henry West and Henry Shuster and family of Brookfield.

Fanchon Flour

Next Saturday we will give away 100 sample sacks of Fanchon flour, only one to a family. First come, first served. We are unloading a car of this famous flour and feed, which we bought away below the present market prices. You get the benefit. We will sell during our special sale or until this car load is gone at $1.60 a sack or in 10 sack lots at $1.55 a sack. Bran $1.10 and shorts $1.35 a sack. Come to the Model for special values in all departments, good up to April 15th. You are entitled to your share in our sacrifice.

J. B. PATRICK.

Regular meeting of the Eastern Star chapter next Monday night at 8 o'clock. All members urged to attend and be on time.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

There is to be something out of the ordinary, something special, at the Laclede opera house Saturday night. In addition to the regular bill of pictures will be "Nemo," the great jail breaker in vaudeville. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Harry E. Mahurin of Brookfield was in Laclede last Friday and made this office a pleasant business call. Mr. Mahurin is now filling orders for everbearing strawberry plants from his fruit farm and those who want strawberries throughout the summer should try them.

E. E. Benson has spent the past week at Urbana, Ill., being called there last Sunday by the death of his little niece, the six months old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Baker. The funeral was held Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Baker have the sympathy of their many Laclede friends.

At the school election held Tuesday J. B. Carothers and Adolph Brendahl were re-elected members of the board without opposition. The usual levy and nine months term carried almost unanimously. The judges of election were B. S. Rankin, Geo. Wate, L. M. Wilson, Henry Ehrlich and J. W. Power.

Regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors at Woodmen hall Friday afternoon of this week at the usual hour. A full attendance is desired and all members who have cards will please present them at this meeting as the contest will close soon and candidates should be ready for adoption by the last of April if possible.

The musical entertainment given by the Sympathetic Orchestra composed of high school students with H. Griffin Standly, conductor, under the direction of Miss B. Enid Allen, was enjoyed and appreciated by a large attendance at the opera house last Friday night. The proceeds amounted to $35 which goes toward paying a music instructor for the school.

It is good news to their many friends here to learn that Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barton are planning to make their home in Laclede again after a few years spent in Brookfield. They have been here this week negotiating for a residence property, and it is hoped it will not be long until Mr. Barton is again identified with the business interests of the town.

The annual convention of the Womens Foreign Missionary Society of the Brookfield district of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at Macon on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 25 and 26. An interesting program has been arranged by Mrs. Luther Hardaway, district president, of Marceline, and Mrs. C. C. Bigger, district corresponding secretary, of Laclede.

The annual junior-senior banquet was held at the Rest Room last Saturday evening. The room was tastily decorated in the senior colors—red and white. The entertaining features were in keeping with "All Fools Day," and excellent music was furnished with Harold Standly at the piano. A four course luncheon was served, the table decorations being red and white carnations.

Geo. C. Jones was down from Linneus last Sunday and spent a few hours with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bowlby of Carrollton visited relatives here this week, guests of Mrs. Bowby's mother, Mrs. J. C. Carothers.

A. J. Hearn, manager of the Talbott grain house at Hale, spent Tuesday at the company's headquarters here in Laclede on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Knight have gone to the country and expect to spend the summer at the home of their daughter, Mrs. S. C. Kuhn on route two.

Mrs. Beatrice Harter entertained a number of her young friends at a birthday party last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and all had a delightful time.

A. M. Walker shipped in a fine Percheron stallion this week to place at the head of herd of registered mares. He is a ton horse with plenty of quality and should be seen by breeders.

Geo. W. Anderson, republican candidate for sheriff, while out on a campaigning tour, spent a few hours among the voters here last Thursday. Mr. Anderson has a large acquaintance over the county and will see every republican between now and the August primary.

The Parent-Teachers Association will hold their regular meeting Friday afternoon, April 14. Election of officers will take place at this meeting. All members are requested to be present and the public is invited to attend. Some very important matters will be up for consideration.

CITIZENS TICKET WON

Allen, Mayor; Lomax, Judge; F. R. Power, Marshal

Up to Monday evening it looked as if the Citizens Ticket drafted at the business men's meeting a week before would be elected without opposition, but a few were dissatisfied and another was gotten out as the People's Ticket. It happened, however, that there were more "citizens" than "people" and the Citizens ticket was elected by about two to one from top to bottom.

On the Peoples Ticket was Geo. Calhoun for mayor; Bloss Myers for police judge and Polly Pease for marshal. No candidates for aldermen were named.

The Citizens Ticket was as given in THE BLADE last week except it was Adolph Brendahl who had been nominated for alderman in the west ward instead of Geo. Plowman.

The result in the east ward was: For mayor, H. L. Allen, 49; Calhoun, 24; for police judge, H. C. Lomax, 49; Myers, 23; for marshal, F. R. Power, 47; Pease, 28. J. H. Nichols was elected alderman without opposition.

For mayor, Allen, 49; Calhoun, 17; for police judge, Lomax, 47; Myers, 19; for marshal, Power, 45; Pease, 21; Brendahl was elected alderman without opposition.

Very little work was done on either side. The "people" hustled around in the morning but soon gave it up and one could hardly tell an election was being held.

The new officials are all good, clean, capable men, representative citizens who are interested in the welfare of the town and community and we may well expect the progressive and business like administration of the city affairs to continue.

In the east ward the judges were E. Childress, John Nelson, Al. Willard and John Sweem. In the west ward John Reed, A. C. Moore, Ed. Randall and John Polson.
