Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Saves eggs and produces food just as appetizing and delicious at lower cost. The usual number of eggs may be reduced one-half or more in most recipes and often left out altogether by adding a small quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

Try the following recipes and see how well this plan works. You must use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to obtain the best results.

EGGLESS MUFFINS

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening
No eggs

DIRECTIONS—Mix and sift dry ingredients, add milk and melted shortening and beat until smooth. Bake in greased muffin tins in hot oven 20 to 25 minutes.

(The old method called for 2 eggs)

CORN BREAD

Obituary of Mrs. Tufts

Mary E. Tufts, nee Dinwiddie, was born in Lincoln Co., Kentucky, August 4, 1837 and died at the home of Byron Lamme, Laclede, Mo., Saturday, July 21, 1917, lacking 14 days of completing eighty years.

She came with her parents to Missouri when she was but three years old. The family settled in Boone county, near Columbia. She attended the rural schools and completed her education at Christian college in Columbia. At the age of 13 she united with the Christian Church of which she was a faithful member the rest of her life. In her early womanhood she united in marriage with W. H. Garrett of Linn county, who died 17 years later.

In a few years she united with the Hon. E. D. Harvey of Meadville, Mo., who died some years later.

About 14 years ago she was married to W. H. Tufts, who passed away about 7 years ago, since which time the widow has made her home with her only brother, W. M. Dinwiddie, and Byron Lamme of Laclede, Mo., to whom she was as a mother and who was to her as a son and at whose home she fell asleep in death, comforted and cared for by those who loved her.

It can be truly said that a good woman has gone to her reward. The funeral service was conducted from the Lamme home, three miles north of Laclede, Monday, July 23, at 10 a. m. Rev. R. E. L. Prunty of California, Mo., a personal friend of many years, assisted by the local pastors of Laclede, conducted the funeral service. The body was tenderly laid away in the Tufts family burying ground in Sumner, Mo.

Mrs. Tufts possessed the qualities which deeply endeared her to all who knew her. Independent in her thinking, yet bearing toward those who differed from her was kind and considerate. She had decided views socially, politically and religiously, yet she never sought to arbitrarily force her views upon others as a test of fellowship. The strength and wide scope of her sympathies added greatly to the beauty and charm of her character. She loved the beautiful and the true and was touched to smiles or tears by the joys or sorrow which affected the lives of others.

She gave herself in a beautiful ministry to the erring, the misguided and the sorrowing ones of her community, but her own disappointments and sorrows she bore in the sanctuary of her great heart, like one born into the world to bear her own and others burdens. Kindness, sympathy and love distinguished her, and charity, loyalty to high ideals and benevolence made her the great hearted woman she was.

She interested herself in others and received the largest measure of affection, love and confidence in return. The glory of motherhood was denied her, yet she gave a mother's love to the life of many who today lead in the social, educational and religious life of Linn county and who keep as a priceless treasure the memory of this mother's love.

She gave liberally of her means that infancy might not be neglected and that old age might be blessed with Christian care.

Thousands of dollars of her money found their way into the tender ministries of the church, and if "all for whom she did some kindly deed should bring a blossom to her grave, she would sleep beneath a wilderness of flowers." She led the simple life, and the dominant note in her ministry was service and sacrifice for love's sake, and we can say of her:

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Yea, saith the Spirit, from henceforth they shall rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Tax Law to be Enforced

The Missouri tax commission announces that it is going to enforce the new law that requires assessors to take oath that he will assess all property at what he believes to be its actual cash value, requires the person listing property to make a true and correct statement of his property, and its value.

Rural Social Function

Farrar, Misses Beulah Berry, Myrtle Ridings, Dorothy Harris, Jean Frazier, Minnie McCune, Nellie Harris, Ruth Foreman, Fannie McCune, Byrdie Power, Edna Peacher, and Jay Stark, Robert Kenne, Frank Fain, Guy Stark, Myron Peacher, Jesse Sharp, Leonard Frazier, Morris Stephens, Ross Welsh, Johnnie McCune, Willard Palmer, Harry Peacher, Raymond Garside and Theodore Sharp.

The One Big Chautauqua

The Meadville chautauqua, the one big event that everybody can attend, enjoy and be benefitted by, will be held August 18 to 26 inclusive. The Meadville chautauqua has won a permanent place in the life of the people of this part of the state and it is looked forward to with increased interest and anticipation each year. The exceptional beauty of the grounds, the careful provisions made for the safety and comfort of the campers, the excellence of the program and the confidence born of past success, should make the assembly of 1917 the most successful of any of the preceding years.

Pershing's Picture in Army Museum

A Paris letter published in New York last Sunday says: Flanked by portraits of such illustrious soldiers as Napoleon, Turenne, Hoch and MacMahon, the picture of Maj. Gen. John J. Pershing now hangs on the hallowed walls of the French Army Museum at the Invalides.

Executed in a week by Jean Boucher, the official army painter, it is a striking portrait of the American commander and worthy to rank as a memento for generations to come of the chief of the first body of American troops to set foot on French soil.

Already thousands of Parisians have filed before the picture lifting their hats in homage to the sister republic.

Gen. Pershing has appointed as his interpreter Alvan F. Sanborn, an American magazine writer. Meanwhile he is polishing up his French, while Joffre, whom he is in constant contact, is taking lessons in English every night at his villa at Auteuil. Very soon the two great campaigners will be able to converse without an interpreter.
