

THE LACLEDE BLADE.

Volume 33, Number 30

LACLEDE, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1922.

$1.00 A Year in Advance

TOWN AND COUNTRY

About Local People and Events and Other Matters of Interest

See Barton's fine line of stationery.

Some household goods for sale by Mrs. E. B. Skulley.

See the beautiful decorations on display at Rexall Store.

Dr. Amos Lewis spent Thanksgiving with friends near Purdin.

The Rexall Store is full of new goods at reasonable prices. Come in and take a look.

A nice line of perfumes, toilet water and everything in that line at the Rexall Store.

Do your Christmas shopping early and be sure and get prices at the Rexall Store before buying.

The Rexall Store has never had a prettier line of greeting cards, post cards, etc., than at this holiday season.

On account of Thanksgiving The Blade goes to press this week 24 hours ahead of the regular time.

How about a Hotpoint electric iron this Christmas? We have a limited supply on hand. Caywood & Baum Electric Shop.

Ross Welsh left Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with friends at Columbia and attend the Missouri-Kansas football game.

Ross Loudon and Lee E. Hamilton have been drawn from this township to serve as jury-men in the December term of the circuit court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilbert, Mrs. E. E. Robertson and Miss Laura Love of Brookfield attended a meeting of the Eastern Star chapter here Monday evening.

Troy Wood and family have moved from near Meadville to the Mrs. Baskins farm southwest of Laclede. Mrs. Baskins and family have moved to Brookfield.

The barn at the Methodist parsonage has been torn down and the material used in building a coal house and garage, improving the looks of the property very much.

The Laclede Farmers Exchange have supplied their customers with two cars of genuine Old Ben coal the past week. Old Ben has been rather hard to get this season.

Judge O. F. Libby has moved his law office from the Willard building where it has been for many years, to the east room of the Allen building, larger and more comfortable quarters.

How about a Royal Electric Cleaner in your home for Christmas? A small cash payment on delivery and the balance in easy monthly payments. We have them in stock for immediate delivery. Caywood & Baum Electric Shop.

Thank-Offering Service

The annual thank-offering service of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will be held Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock with Miss Elizabeth Wells as speaker. This is "Children's Year" let us make it the most profitable year ever. Slogan, "The Little Red School House."

Lose Eldest Daughter

The sympathy of the entire community go out to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thompson of Centerville, Iowa, over the death of their eldest daughter, Tessie May, who passed away at the hospital in Keokuk last Friday, November 24, 1922, at the age of 15 years, 2 months and 6 days.

While not a member of any church Tessie May had been in Sunday school and taken active part in church activities since a small child and until her health failed her in June of this year, and was a patient sufferer.

She was a student in the Centerville high school, being a Sophomore of 1922. She will be greatly missed by all her associates both at school and church as well as in the home. Those surviving are the parents, two sisters, Virginia and Lovelle, another sister, Dorothy, having preceded her in death November 8, 1921.

Funeral services were held at Centerville and the remains brought to Laclede Sunday noon. Short services were held at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. N. J. Thompson, conducted by Rev. Yount, and burial made in the Laclede cemetery by Directors Thorne and Dickson.

Attention, Rebekahs

All members of Laclede Rebekah Lodge No. 189, are requested to be present at annual roll call, Monday evening, December 4, 1922.—Orville Mahurin, secretary.

Hog Feed

The Farmers Exchange will have a car of hog feed, tankage, cotton seed meal, oil meal and alfalfa molasses the latter part of this week, and the prices will be right.

Half An Hour

of your time spent in our cheerful new studio will enable you to relieve your mind of much tedious planning and worry over Christmas shopping. Why not make this Christmas a truly happy one both for yourself and friends by giving portraits? We can make the sitting any evening if you write or phone for an appointment. The Gress Studio, Art & Gift Shop, Brookfield.

Single Comb Leghorns

100 of our yearling hens, all high producers, at $1.00 each. Must sell to make room for our pullets. If you want some of these good hens, act quick. H. M. Bartimus.

Dairy Feed

With butter fat worth 50 cents on the local market you certainly cannot afford to neglect feeding your cows a feed that produces the most cream. We will have on track within a few days a car containing Fisks Favorite Feed for dairy cows, which is, without any question, the best known dairy feed. Do not fail to give it a trial; it will please you.

Laclede Farmers Exchange.

More Eggs

With eggs 45 to 50 cents per doz. on the local market, parties having given Quisenberry quality feeds a fair test will be glad to know that we are going to receive a car of Laying mash within the next few days. Laclede Farmers Exchange.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

Laclede is to have another eating place. A room has been partitioned off in the southeast corner of the Groes garage building and Mrs. J. A. Sloan will open a restaurant and short or house there as soon as the room is ready.

Miss Hazel Wilson, president of the Standard Bearers of Laclede, was a guest of the Standard Bearers of Linneus at a farewell banquet, Thursday evening of last week, in honor of Miss Lillian Linn, who is soon to return to Laclede to reside.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold their annual bazaar and chicken dinner at the Rest Room on Saturday, December 9. In addition to an elegant dinner they will have many articles on sale suitable for Christmas presents and invite the patronage of all.

John Disney has had some substantial improvements made to the basement of his business house, the north half of the Wilson building. A cement floor has been laid and the walls and ceiling plastered and the entire room put in good condition for use. Wm. Matthes, who owns the south half of the building, has sand hauled for like improvements to his basement.

The Legion boys had a record attendance at their picture show, "Flashes of Action," put on last Friday evening for the benefit of the post. The house was packed at the first show and two-thirds full at the second show. A reading by Miss Hazel Wilson and a vocal solo by Mrs. Flo Shell, were pleasing features in addition to the pictures. The Legion members are to be congratulated on their splendid management and success of their first entertainment. The receipts of the evening were $127.00.

Rolla Wade, son of Mrs. Wm. Wade and graduate of the Laclede high school, who has been attending the Chillicothe Business College, made a record-breaking at that institution finishing the complete course in less than seven months and is now at work in the Burlington offices at Hannibal. He passed through Laclede Sunday night to report for duty Monday morning. The usual time to complete the business course is nine months. Rolla's many Laclede friends congratulate him on the fine record he is making.

Alfalfa Hay

Parties wanting alfalfa hay for their dairy cows will do well to place this order with the Farmers Exchange now, as they will have a car of third cutting alfalfa on track within 2 or 3 days. Don't wait until it is gone.

Coal Coal

We have our second car of Old Ben Coal in within the past week. The best time in the world to get it is when we have it. Laclede Farmers Ex.

Local and Personal

Miss Merle Kranz is home from the Kirksville college for Thanksgiving.

The public schools have a two days vacation, Thursday and Friday, this week.

Mrs. Lillie Barr of Brookfield is visiting Mrs. Ezra Pease and family this week.

Mrs. Grace Barber of Brookfield spent Monday afternoon with Laclede friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Finney spent Thanksgiving with his sister and family near New Boston.

Mrs. J. E. Welsh visited a few days this week with Mrs. G. W. Thompson in Chillicothe.

Milk for sale at 8 cents delivered morning or night. Inquire of Mrs. Wm Matthes.

Miss Eulah May Estes is home from the teachers college at Kirksville for the Thanksgiving vacation.

H. E. Foster has returned to his home near Forker after undergoing an operation at a hospital in Kirksville.

Mrs. E. T. Osgood of Brookfield spent Tuesday here with Mrs. L. J. Henley and Emmogene and Ivan Osgood.

Mrs. L. B. Dowell spent Thanksgiving with her daughters, Mrs. Power and Mrs. Swank and families in Brookfield.

Misses Frances Talbot, Ethel Garside and Florence Hanavan attended the football game at Columbia, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Jackson and children of Mendon were Sunday guests of Ira Frakes and family near Forker.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lomax and H. W. Lomax and family ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lomax in Brookfield.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Potter are at Columbia spending Thanksgiving with their son, Loren, and attending the Missouri-Kansas football game.

Max Jongs, Clifford Shell, H. C. Carothers, and Harold Standly motored to Columbia yesterday morning to see the big Thanksgiving football game.

Misses Beatrice Lomax, Bernadine Fay and Frances Frakes, students at the teachers college at Kirksville, are spending the Thanksgiving vacation with home folks near Forker.

The first quarterly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Lee Hamilton, Wednesday afternoon, December 6, at 2:00 o'clock.

Orville Mahurin, Thomas Wade, Harry Peacher, Arthur Glover and Raymond Garside left early Thursday morning to drive to Columbia to witness the Missouri-Kansas football game.

Mrs. Dr. Marshall of St. Louis arrived Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Joe Disney, the doctor to come Saturday and visit over Sunday. They are now located in St. Louis where the doctor is said to be having big practice.

Card of Thanks

We hereby tender our most sincere thanks to friends for the help and sympathy given us during our late bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thompson.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Brief Mention of Those Who Come and Go During the Week

Santa Claus' headquarters at the Rexall Store.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Rowland spent Sunday with relatives near Purdin.

Have you been to the Rexall Store to see the nice line of Christmas presents.

Mrs. Etta Foreman is home from spending a month with relatives at Liberty.

Mrs. W. O. Z. Endicott went to Tina Tuesday to spend the week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Burke in Brookfield.

Misses Lois Gould and Helen Henton are visiting Miss Lulu Hanson at Stephens College, Columbia.

Manager J. L. Welsh spent the first of the week in Kansas City on business for the Laclede Farmers Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bigger are spending Thanksgiving with their son, Judge B. E. Bigger and wife at Hannibal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barton are spending Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Hatcher and family at Columbia.

J. W. Wallace visited his brother, Thomas Wallace and wife at Olatha last week and also attended the stock show at Kansas City.

Mrs. Mable Dueby returned to her home at Omaha, Nebr., this week after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winegar.

E. B. Skulley and son, Herbert, visited his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Walker, in Kansas City last week and also attended the stock show.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Anderson spent last week in Kansas City attending the stock show and drove a new Star touring car home for the Clarkson garage at Brookfield.

Miss Catherine Moore left Wednesday for Macon where she joined a party of young friends to motor to Columbia to spend Thanksgiving and attend the football game.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Weatherly were here from Redfield, S. Dak., Saturday visiting relatives and looking after some matters connected with the Weatherly farm south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wyatt motored over from Marceline last Sunday and spent the day with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. W. Reed and family. Grandma Bailey came with them and will spend the winter here with the Reed family.

Mrs. J. H. Knight of Casper, Wyoming, spent Thursday with Laclede friends. Mrs. Knight, with her husband, at one time conducted the Anderson house in this city. Mr. Knight afterwards being killed while working as a brakeman on the Burlington.

Farm Loans

Money to Loan on terms of 5 per cent. W. S. Savage.