THE NEWS.

The residence and farm of Mr. H. Dixon, west of Jefferson City about a mile, has been sold for $8,000, nearly $50 per acre.

A swordfish was harpooned off Cape Elizabeth on Friday which was fourteen feet in length and weighed seventeen hundred pounds. His sword was three feet, ten inches long.

The Salt Lake Daily Telegraph has the name of Brigham Young hoisted as a candidate for Governor of Dugart.

Some forty acres on the Missouri, near Jefferson, have been purchased at $75 per acre, by enterprising citizens, who intend devoting them to the culture of fruits, particularly of the vine.

The Empress Eugenie has sent a thousand francs to a New York orphan asylum.

Queen Victoria's salary is about two millions per annum.

A rebel pamphlet contains a list of casualties (confederate) in the battle of Chancellorsville May 2nd and 3rd, 1863. The total killed were 1,581; wounded, 8,700.
The rebels had twenty-seven brigades of troops engaged.

The Oil City News gives the number of oil companies at 1,457, with a total capital of $50,594,000.

Queen Victoria is said to have invested in an American Coal Oil Company, the stock of which is being sold in London.

Southeast Missouri, says the Cape Girardeau Argus, will soon be as quiet as before the war. Emigration is beginning to flow back into the interior, new buildings are going up all over the city, and the sound of the mason's trowel and the carpenter's hammer is to be heard from early morn to dewy eve in the erection of new habitation for man.

Judge Gholson, of Mississippi, thinks the war has settled two things: 1. Slavery is dead; 2. States cannot secede. The Judge is a wise man.

The sympathizers in Memphis are projecting a home for the crippled and destitute rebel soldiers of West Tennessee.

In the month of June, 1865, 677,721 acres were taken up at Traverse City, Michigan, under the homestead law, for actual settlement.

The Louisville Democrat thinks that sixty thousand slaves have gone over the river on General Palmer's passes.

The population of Chicago is estimated by the publisher of the New City Directory, at 226,000. The Chicago papers are much elated thereat.

Edmund A. Pollard, formerly editor of the Richmond Examiner, has gone to San Domingo to live. This will add an additional "horror" to the place.

Jacob Thomson, the rebel agent in Canada, has abandoned his associates, carrying with him all that remained of the "Confederate funds."

An oil well has been discovered on Mar-rowbone Creek, Cheatham county, Tenn., but sixteen miles from Nashville. It runs a steady stream of oil of pure quality.

The amount of pay annually of Brigadier and Major Generals recently assigned to commands in the several Military Divisions and Departments, will amount to one million five hundred and fifty thousand dollars. In 1861 this portion of the military establishment cost the country thirty thousand dollars.

The subscriptions that are being taken up among Southern sympathizers in Washington city for the benefit of Mrs. Jeff-Davis have reached the sum of $6,510.
The lowest contribution to the fund was $10, and the highest $500.

Fifteen travelers, with their families, passed through Kansas City, on Friday last, on their way to their home in North Missouri. Five years ago they went to Texas, on a tour of observation, with a view of settling there. They have been prospecting ever since, and are now returning satisfied with the surroundings of the old homesteads.

The carriage presented to President Lincoln by a number of gentlemen in New York city is offered for sale, by advertisement in the papers of Washington city. Its original cost was $2,000.

MARRIAGE.—Some three hundred "unbleached Americans" heretofore recognized as married, had the ceremony solemnized in Canton, Mo., in one week.

The new Territory of Montana is estimated to contain a population of at least 50,000 white inhabitants, though it has only been settled about three years.

Every foreigner who has honorably served in the army one year, is entitled to be at once naturalized without previously declaring his intentions.

The modest virgin, the prudent wife, or the careful matron is much more serviceable in life than petticoated philosophers, blustering heroes, or virago queens. She who makes her husband and her children happy, who reclaims the one from vice and trains up the others to virtue, is a much greater character than ladies described in romance, whose occupation is to murder mankind with shafts from their quiver or eyes.

WOMAN was not taken from man's head to rule over him, nor from his feet to be trampled upon, but from his side and under his arm, to be protected, and near his heart to be cherished and loved.

A NEW RELIGION.

A new religious sect, says the New York World, was inaugurated at New York, on Monday, July 31st. A man named Davidson, a Scotchman by birth, was at the meeting and claimed to be a brother of Christ. A portion of the East river is to be consecrated for baptismal purposes. The leader of the new sect is a man named Noyes Wheeler, a native of Massachusetts, who claimed to be specially empowered by the angel Gabriel to found a new religion, under the name and title of "The New Spiritual Baptist Church, and Progressive Association." Noyes styles himself "Chief of the Israelitish Tribe," and says that he has devoted the portion of the East river in order that "he may be immersed therein by a high priestess, the daughter of Zion and the handmaiden of the Lord, with whom he will build up the new church."

A description of this latest prophet cannot fail to be interesting. He might be regarded as an octogenarian; his form attenuated, his height about five feet ten inches and his locks long and gray. There is something about his face which tells you he is one of the Massachusetts Utopians, who are ready to exclaim with the blasphemous Frenchman, that if they were in the Garden of Eden when the world was made they could have suggested some very important improvements. His hair is parted in the middle, another ominous sign of the theological transition, and his beard is grizzly in quality and patriarchal in length.

Such was Noyes Wheeler as seen last Sunday in Metropolitan Hall, where he gave due notice of his determination to found the aforesaid new religion in a very short time.

RELIGES.—The Cincinnati Commercial says:

The rage for relics in this county is somewhat astounding. A respectable dressed gentleman was noticed the other day putting in his pocket a brick from the wall in front of Mr. Lincoln's house, and this is but one of ten thousand follies.

The entire stairway upon which Colonel Ellsworth was killed, in Alexandria, has been cut into chips and carried away. The tree, at the foot of which Sikes shot Key in Washington, has been barked and cut until it is dead. The oak tree under which Gen. Grant talked with Pemberton and arranged the terms of the surrender of Vicksburg, has been annihilated; and recently a party dug into the ground ten feet for the roots of the historic oak. An elm tree which Abraham Lincoln planted front in of his old house in Springfield, of course will be in pieces and destroyed.

ROBBERY AND CAPTURE OF THE ROBBERS.

—On Friday morning last William Hudson and J. Hurley went to the house of J. Hicks, near Thomasville, in this county.
Mr. Hicks was in Huntsville at the time.
They took from the house two revolvers.
After they left, Morris Hicks and two of the Epperly boys went in pursuit and after travelling three miles they overtook and arrested the men and took them before Esquire W. A. Thomas, by whom they were tried, and on default of $250 bond-each, were sent to jail at Mexico, to wait the action of the circuit court.

Hurley is from Putnam county, and has served a term of enlistment in the federal army.

Hudson, after serving six months in the rebel army deserted at Pea Ridge, and enlisted in the federal service, and served about two years. He was raised in this county.

They will be tried at the next term of our Circuit Court, when all the facts in the case will be elicited.—[Randolph Citizen-16th.

A CARNIVAL OF CRIME.—Poisoning, shooting, stabbing, revenge, insanity and suicide seem to have taken possession of the stage, and are acting their bloody tragedy from one end of the land to the other.
In one issue of a New York contemporary we find twelve horrible accounts of deaths by violence. A son poisons his mother, a woman stabs the paramour of her husband, a man shoots his wife, a lunatic fires into a railway train and kills an infant in the nurse's arms, a disappointed lover drowns himself, a ruffian murders two little chil
