

Francis M. Taylor, Editor and Proprietor. Glasgow, Mo.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 21, 1865.

We direct the attention of all those wishing to secure a most valuable tract of land to the advertisement of MARION F. HAYS, Adm'r. The tract lies near Glasgow, and is of a superior quality of soil, and eligibly located. It is not often that better bargains are offered at public sale.

GLASGOW FEMALE SEMINARY.—This Institution was re-opened on Monday last for the education of young ladies. Competent Teachers, of ample qualifications and experience, have been secured, and every effort will be made by Mr. SPROTTEN to give full satisfaction to his patrons.

GREAT CHANCE FOR BARGAINS.—The Hudson Town Company desiring to wind up their business, will offer at public auction, on Wednesday next, at Macon, all their remaining unsold lots, some six or seven hundred in number. A great sale like this should attract the attention of speculators. Macon is situated at the junction of the Hannibal and St. Joseph R. R., is pushing ahead rapidly, and will ere long become the metropolis of North Missouri.

SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES.—John Chamberlain, Esq., of this place, is the agent for the sale of Singer's Sewing Machines. Any one wishing to purchase one of these valuable "family institutions" will consult their interest by dealing with him. He will sell them at St. Louis prices, and gives the additional advantage of instruction in their use.

At a meeting of the Executive Board of Mount Pleasant Association, United Baptists, at Roanoke, on the 14th inst., Elders F. M. Stark and James Burton were appointed Missionaries for the ensuing six months. Their labors will be principally directed to Chariton county. The next meeting of the Board will be held at Roanoke on the first Wednesday in December next. It is the privilege of each church in the Association to send one member and they are requested to do so.

REPRESENTATIVE.—By a notice of sheriff JACKSON in another column, it will be seen a special election is ordered for Representative of this county, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. GREEN. The adjourned Session of the Legislature meets this fall.

The friends of Major REEVES LEONARD, of Fayette, are desirous that he should become a candidate. We have been acquainted with him from early boyhood, and are well acquainted and well pleased with his services in behalf of the Union and against the rebellion, and certainly they are such as should be satisfactory to every Union man. From the first he espoused the cause of his country with all the energy and honesty of his nature. This was in a community five-sixths of which was strongly and vindictively rebel. Those who have served their country so well and faithfully deserve their grateful remembrance when the danger is past. There is no citizen of our county who has done more to uphold the authority of the Government than Major Leonard.

Every few days our wharf at this place, liberal in its dimensions, is packed with goods, merchandize, and other freights, destined for the use of our people, showing at a glance the commercial and business importance of our city. Upon the whole, our people have not been disastrously affected by the ravages of war, and since its close have awakened to new life and energy. Vast and unusual amounts of merchandize are now to be found upon the shelves of our merchants, whose preparation and resources to meet all the demands of the surrounding country are ample and liberal. Glasgow is the best trading point, decidedly, in this section. We have but to go steadily forward with industry and energy, to reap the benefits of the great natural advantages we enjoy. A most promising future is held out before our people.

The Pacific Railroad is completed through its entire length across our State. It was finished on the 19th inst. This is probably the most important Railroad enterprise in our State, and will add immensely in its rapid development, and add largely to the resources of the State. Its cost was a little over $10,000,000.

Mr. Frai Nichols brought to the Randolph Citizen office a few days ago a cotton plant which is five feet in length, and has eighteen branches and fifty-five pods and blooms. Such a luxuriant growth of the plant in this latitude ought to induce a more extensive cultivation of it.

See notice of city election for three Councilmen in another column.

The whole of the plank on the plank road between Huntsville and Roanoke has been sold by Commissioner Wright. It brought $216.

A fruit grower near Hannibal, Mo., sold, this season, $20 worth of cherries as the product of one tree.

We notice that a Catholic priest of Jefferson City, and one at Hannibal, and a preacher of Pike county, have been arrested and bound over, for preaching without taking the oath.

The Pope proposes to celebrate next year, at Rome, the eighteen hundredth anniversary of the martyrdom of St. Peter who was crucified A. D., June 29, 66. It is anticipated that unheard of numbers will flock to the Eternal City on such a call.

The Grand Jury of New York City on Friday last, brought in twelve indictments against Edward B. Ketchum, the gold check forger, eleven of which were for forgery in the third degree, and the other for larceny, in abstracting $225,000 in five-hundred dollar bonds, deposited with the firm by the State Bank of Hartford. The accused will probably be arraigned for trial during the present week.

Red, White and Red, the favorite traitors colors, and of which the confederate flag was composed, is henceforth to be the uniform of the convicts in the Missouri Penitentiary.

We understand a troupe of three hundred hands at are work on the link of railroad, that is to connect Hannibal and Naples, and is expected to complete the connection this year.

Oysters will be very plenty this season, and the reason is, that along the shores of Virginia are vast beds of the bivalves that have lain undisturbed during the last four years, with nothing else to do but grow large and get fat.

The hop crop in Wisconsin this year is unprecedented. A very low estimate places its value at two millions. In the vicinity of Kilbourn City, $750,000 worth have already been contracted for.

The Government, it is understood, intends to publish, as a public document, the records of the Andersonville Prison, giving the names, regiment and residence of every person who died there, as far as known. The number of names on the manuscript list is upward of 14,000.

Fifteen hundred and twenty-six steerage passengers arrived at New York one day last week on board the new English steamship Queen, from Liverpool. This is said to be the largest human cargo which ever crossed the Atlantic in one vessel and on one voyage.

A few days since, one thousand eighty-eight emigrants arrived in one ship at New York, from Liverpool. Europeans are pouring upon us.

Chattanooga is now one of the permanent fortresses of the United States, and is said to present truly a military appearance. There are now stored at that place about seven million dollars worth of stores belonging to the Government.

"Are you still in the land of the living?" inquired a man of an aged friend. "No, but I am going there." This world is the shadow; heaven is the reality.

The exports of specie for the past eight months has been only $20,000,000. We are mining gold and silver at the rate of $80,000,000 a year.

"The sultry summer past, September comes, Soft twilight of the slow declining year. Beneath its yellow lustre groves and woods, Checked by one night's frost with various hues, While yet no wind has swept a leaf away, Shine doubly rich."

On the question of re-uniting with the Church North, the vote in the Kentucky Methodist Conference stood,—for re-union, 25; against it, 37.

Gen. Grant and a number of his staff have been in St. Louis the past week, and met with very flattering receptions.

The Washington Star says an order will be shortly issued returning general officers of volunteers to their proper ranks in the regular army. This will reduce a large number of Major and Brigadier Generals to Captains and Lieutenants.

Kansas Colored Convention. A Convention of the colored citizens of Kansas is called to meet at Leavenworth City on the 4th of October. The objects are thus set forth in the call:

The primary object of this Convention will be to inaugurate movements having for their object the amendment of State Constitution by striking out the word "white," and thus securing to colored citizens equality before the law.

Secondly, We hope to do something toward aiding in the proper adjustment of the vital questions involved in the reconstruction of the late rebellious States, to the end that the sacrifice of so much blood and treasure may not have been in vain, but that the cause of liberty and justice may secure gains proportionate to the magnitude of the conflict.

The word "white" in the organic law of Kansas, of Missouri, and other States, will be the great political issue upon which parties will divide. In fact, we may say, they are now divided on this very issue.

In Iowa, and in Ohio, the question of "negro suffrage" is directly before the people, and forms a prominent issue.

For the Howard Union. Lines Written on the View from the Glasgow Male Academy.

And I set here to gaze awhile Upon the lovely scene, Before me spread on every side With light and shade between; For leaden clouds athwart the sky, Come every now and then; Between glad earth and splendid sun, But soon 'tis clear again.

Those silent trees in yonder wood, In autumn's color clad, Seem mourning for the summer past When greener robes they had; Just over there the woods and fields Seem blending into one, While over all a hazy cloud Now hides the gorgeous sun.

Yonder 'neath those tortuous cliffs, Winds a rolling river, Enclosed by cold grey mossy rocks Whose forms shall last forever, But from those steep and jagged cliffs There pours the crystal spring, And among the over arching limbs Bright birds are wont to sing.

And that blue line of sloping hills Formed by the hand of God, Ah! often have my youthful feet Among their valleys led. The hills, I loved them when a boy, And truant often played That I might roam among the scenes Where the red man's feet had strayed.

MABRY.

The Freedmen's Bureau. General Clinton B. Fisk, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for Kentucky, Tennessee and North Alabama, reports to General Howard that the Freedmen's Courts throughout that district are constantly crowded with freedmen, who complain bitterly of the loss of back-pay, and also of other acts of injustice being done them.

On July 1st, 7,151 freedmen were subsisted by our government, and the number now have been reduced to 979, mostly aged and infirm. The white refugees on July 1st numbered 5,969, and at the date of the dispatch to Gen. Howard they were reduced to 11.

We are requested to announce Major REEVES LEONARD, of Fayette, as the Union candidate for the Legislature from Howard county, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. Green.

MARRIED. By Rev. Joe D. Keebaugh, on the 20th inst., at the residence of the Bride's mother, Capt. E. B. CUNNINGHAM, to Miss IRENE ROOPER, both of Glasgow, Mo.

Gold dollar received. Old fashion revived! We return our thanks to the happy pair for their remembrance of the printer, and wish them a long life of unalloyed happiness. Blessings be on them! long may Joy shadow them with its wing, And o'er their destiny may Love His happy radiance fling. Long may the bride's cheek bloom, as now, Unchanged by grief or tears, And Friendship's holiest influence bring Peace to their future years.

In Fulton, on the morning of the 14th, by W. B. Tucker, Esq., Mr. EBEN CORBY, of Brunswick, to Miss HATTIE, only daughter of William Smoot, Esq., formerly of Warsaw.

DIED. On Sunday night last, Sept. 17th, Mrs. CATHARINE BROOKS, wife of James Brooks, of this place.

UNION PORTRAITS. MAGNIFICENT IMPERIAL STEEL PLATE ENGRAVINGS.

We have just published the following Portraits, engraved by the celebrated Artist, A. H. Ritchie, from Photographs by Brady: 1.—President Abraham Lincoln. 2.—Lieutenant-General Ulysses S. Grant. 3.—Major-General Winfield Scott Hancock. 4.—Major-General George B. McClellan. 5.—Major-General William T. Sherman. 6.—Major-General Phil. Sheridan. 7.—Rear-Admiral David G. Farragut. 8.—Hon. Horace Greley.

TESTIMONY FROM COMPETENT JUDGES. From the President's Private Secretary, WASHINGTON, July 25, 1864. Messrs. DERRY & MILLE, Publishers: The superb engravings of the President, General Grant, and General Hancock, have been received. They will be most highly prized not only for the absolute fidelity of the likenesses, but for the spirit and grace, and exquisite finish.

The President wishes me to congratulate you upon the success and beauty of the engravings, and to testify to the entire faithfulness of the likenesses. While admirable as works of art, they are regularly faithful and correct portraits of the eminent individuals they represent.—(New York Evening Post.

Both for the rarity as well as the supreme excellence of the work, do we welcome the appearance of these engravings by the artist, A. H. Ritchie. The likenesses are literally perfect, and the fineness of the engraving certainly not excelled. Considering the magnitude of the work, they are sold very low.—(New York Tribune.

The civil and military heroes of the war are at last in a fair way to have their faces handed down to posterity, in a manner worthy of their fame. As regards the fidelity of the likenesses, it is enough to say that they are engraved by Mr. A. H. Ritchie. It is safe to predict that neither as lectures or portraits will this series be surpassed.

New York Times. We want agents in every town in the North-west, to whom exclusive right to territory will be given. We can furnish the Engravings framed at the lowest wholesale rates. The price of each Engraving is $1. 40 per copy, and will be allowed to agents. Sample copies will be sent to Agents by mail or express, safely packed, free of charge, on receipt of 75 cents. GEO. C. W. SHERWOOD, Publishers. P. O. Box 2013. 118 Lake St., Chicago, Ill. Sept. 21, 1865—4w.

LIST OF LETTERS, REMAINING in the Post-Office at Glasgow, Mo., September 21, 1865, which if not called for in one month, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, Washington City: Boyart, W. H. Luster, Sallie Branner, D. M. Parker, Charlotte Cowin, Andy Rice, Elizabeth (2.) Cook, Richard Reese, E. Dohseker, Thos. Scripture, Blanche Fry, R. M. Tolson, A. C. Lee, John B. F. W. DIGGES, P. M. September 21, 1865.

COME and examine those beautiful Photographs! Just the thing to fill those empty places in your album. PALMER & CO. Glasgow, Sept. 21.
