

No Rest—No Peace

over, for weak kidneys, backache, irregular kidney action and uric acid trouble. Thousands of grateful recommendations throughout the country prove their worth.

WOULD ALMOST FAINT

Cared After Doctors Failed

Mrs. Henry Zumbach, Hutchinson, Mich., says: "Last winter a terrible sharp pain caught me in my back and from that time on I had a constant backache. If I used a broom, it just seemed as if my back were breaking. I was so nervous day and night and at times I got so dizzy I thought I was going to faint. At night I had to put a pillow under my back for the slight relief that this gave me. I got so weak I could not do anything. The doctor said I had a floating kidney and two specialists in Minneapolis said the same. The physician here, Dr. J. C. Smith, told me a story of reading about Doan's Kidney Pills. I had someone get the bottle. As soon as I began using them, I got better and by the time I had finished the third box, I didn't have a bit of pain. I can now do any kind of work without suffering and all the symptoms of kidney complaint have left me. Doan's Kidney Pills have certainly proved to be a great deal of help and I would like to see no one who is troubled in this way to neglect them to other kidney sufferers."

There's no rest and little peace for a person whose kidneys are out of order. Lame in the morning, suffering in the back and sharp stabs of pain with every sudden strain, the day is just one round of pain and trouble. It would be strange if all-day backache did not wear on the temper, but it is not only on that account that people who suffer with weak kidneys are nervous, cross and irritable. Uric acid is poison to the nerves, and when the kidneys are not working well, this acid collects in the blood and works upon the nerves, causing headache, dizziness, languor, an inclination to worry over trifles, and a suspicious, short temper. Rheumatic pain, neuralgia, sciatica, lumbago, neuritis and gravel are further steps in uric acid poisoning. Don't neglect kidney weakness. An aching back, with unnatural passages of the kidney secretions, is cause enough to startle the kidneys. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy which has been used for years, the world over, for weak kidneys, backache, irregular kidney action and uric acid trouble. Thousands of grateful recommendations throughout the country prove their worth.

FARM ANIMALS

INDIVIDUAL HOUSE FOR HOGS

Only Sunshine and Ventilation Needed Can Be Had at Doors—Lantern Furnishes Needed Heat.

For 20 years the A style of individual house has been in use. We were well satisfied with them, writes John M. Jamison in the American Swineherd, until we saw a neighbor using something that we liked better. Then we were anxious for some of the old ones to go to pieces, so we could build a few of the new ones to give them a trial. Recently we built three, and liked them so well that we shall take to pieces the balance of the old-style ones and make them go as far as they will in building the new ones. The most satisfactory dimensions are as follows: Six feet square, 2 1/2 feet high at the back and 5 1/2 feet at front. The creep door, 18 inches wide and two feet high, cut in the east end, six inches from the southeast corner. The large door, 18 inches wide and 4 1/2 feet high, cut in south side at east end corner. Should be built of the best matched lumber, batted or tongued and grooved, of the best quality. If metal is used for roof, it should be laid over paper or felt of some kind, to prevent moisture forming on the under side of the roof, which keeps the floor wet. It should be built as close as possible. The only ventilation and sunshine needed can be had at the doors. When the weather is too cold for safe farrowing, a lantern can be hung to a rafter on the high side, with a short hurdle across the floors. There is no need of crawling to get away from an angry sow. That small travel just exactly one foot in four minutes. Mr. Zahnizer says, and computing distance at the rate of travel shown Mr. Zahnizer has figured out that it would require 15 days for that small to move a mile.

FOR THE LIVE STOCK RAISER

Animals Must Be Developed to Highest Degree Possible—Buildings and Feed Are Factors.

Every animal capable of making money for the owner of $100 an acre land must be well bred, well fed and provided with the right kind of surroundings to develop all of its latent possibilities to the very highest degree. Some farmers spend too much money for buildings and farm equipments; others spend too little. One extreme is quite as bad as the other. The high price of land in the best live stock growing sections is a potent reason why farmers must keep better records. Neither the scrub nor the poorly fed animal can pay a profit on high priced land. No man should buy improved live stock until he has plenty of the right kind of feed and suitable buildings. Winter is the time when tuberculosis is apt to invade a herd of cattle. See to it now that the barn is in the most sanitary shape into which it can be put. Above all supply good ventilation, plenty of sunshine and storage free from dust, and be eternally vigilant to detect the slightest cough or symptom of the dread scourge. If the farmer is looking for quick returns in live stock and for a large percentage on the money invested, there are no animals on the farm that will beat the sow and the ewe.

Rations for Gilts.

At the Iowa experiment station they have found that good rations for gilts carrying litters are: (1) Corn 88 to 90 per cent; meal or tankage containing 60 per cent protein, 10 to 12 per cent. (2) Corn, 75 per cent; fine-cut clover or alfalfa, 25 per cent. (3) Corn, 50 per cent; oats, meal or tankage, 10 per cent. For old sows the proportion of meal or tankage may be cut down practically one-third to two-thirds and still give good results.

LIVE STOCK NOTES

There is absolutely no excuse for a filthy hog pen. Do not winter ticks on the sheep, for it is all money out of pocket. Both rape and pea pasture are valuable aids in fattening pigs for market. A kicking horse is a poor investment, especially where there are children. You will have to hunt a long time before you will find a better feed for sheep than oats. The average male will do as much work at two years as the horse will at three or four. World's Wasted Wealth. Experts have estimated that if the forests of the world were scientifically operated they would yield the equivalent of from thirty to one hundred and twenty times the present consumption of wood annually. Reporters in the Scraggington Home. Mrs. Scraggington—"You never amounted to anything until I married you. If I were suddenly taken away where would you be?" Mr. Scraggington—"At the funeral, if sober enough to go."

FORCED TO STERN MEASURES

Religious Instruction must be judiciously administered if it is to be effective with children. Otherwise—well, this is the story told by a good adult friend of the small Chicago maiden who suffered in this behalf.

The little girl had accompanied a "small comrade to Sunday school, this being her first experience of the kind. She went off blithely, but returned home crying. Maternal questions elicited the sad fact that Millie, her recent hostess, had slapped her. "Why did you do that?" Millie was asked in sternest indignation. After some hesitation Millie divulged the bitter truth. "Well, the lesson today was about God," she said, "and as we came home I asked Jessie if she loved God, and—"

"Well, well, out with it!" cried Jessie's mother. "What did Jessie say?" "What could she have said to cause you to treat her so unkindly?" "Well—I asked her did she love God, and she said—"

"What did she say?" repeated Jessie's mother. "She said, 'No, I don't even like Him'—so I thought she needed punishing, and I slapped her face."

Snail's Real Pace. "At a snail's pace" is a common expression and usually signifies very slow gait, but what do you suppose is the actual speed by a snail in traveling? We can give it to you in accurate figures. One foot in four minutes, or at the rate of one mile in 16 days, if traveling continuously.

Overpayment. A certain statesman, condemning the international marriage that is based on mercenary and sordid grounds, said in Washington: "Another pretty American countess—she inherited eight millions from her father's wholesale hardware plant—has found marriage a disappointment."

Her dyed and corseted old husband said bitterly to her one day: "Ours was a business marriage. You bought my title with your millions, as you'd buy a yard of cloth in a shop."

Queer Reasons for Pride. Some weeks ago when the Volturno burned in midocean a few of the men rushed the boats and were knocked down by the captain. What became of such men in after days? Do they hide in shame from their fellows, fearful that they may be recognized and their infamy proclaimed? Not necessarily. A public librarian was once visited by a man who came to him for a book on notable shipwrecks. He searched the pages eagerly, then pointed out a passage referring to a sea man who tried to take a woman's place in a lifeboat, and had been shot by the captain. "I'm that man," he declared, proud that his exploit should appear in print and offered to show the shot wound to support his claim!

Never Too Late. Rev. Madison Peters said of New Year's resolutions the other day in Brooklyn: "I'd advise every one with a bad habit—whether it's alcohol or profanity, gambling or morphine—to swear off hopefully."

Some poor fellows, especially among the alcoholics, think it's too late—their lives are ruined—no rope is left. "But, as I always point out to them, a man is never too old to reform, though frequently he is too young to realize this truth."

Probably Not. A young man timidly approached the father of the girl of his choice and asked for her hand in marriage. "I am not at all certain," said the father, "that my daughter loves you sufficiently to warrant me in entrusting her to your keeping."

Playing Safe. "Senator Wombat is bitterly disappointed in the wireless system." "How so?" "He thought you could send a wireless message without anything being put on paper."

The Property. Kriss—The Browns are divorced. Krose—Who has the custody of the car?—Town Topics.

RUSH TO SECURE THE CROSS

Christmas Ceremonies That Mark the Celebration in Russia and the Balkan States.

The Russian Christmas falls on January 7. On that day St. Peterburg celebrates the birth of Christ at blessing the River Neva. A procession of priests, followed by a huge crowd, march to the river, the ice is broken, and a cross dipped in the water. In spite of the intense cold, often many degrees below zero, piously-minded persons rush into the river to bathe themselves in the sanctified water.

A similar Christmas ceremony is enacted in those Rumanian towns which lie on the Danube, but in this case the people are dressed to represent various biblical characters, such as Herod, Pontius Pilate, etc., and the cross is not merely dipped, but hung into the water. Then follows a terrific rush to secure the blessed emblem—a rush so fearful that often lives are lost, for it is firmly believed that its possession will bring the owner good fortune not only for the year, but for the rest of his life.

ECZEMA ON ENTIRE SCALP

R. F. D. No. 2, Sunfield, Mich.—I was troubled with eczema. It began with a sore on the top of the scalp, broke out as a pimple and grew larger until it was a large red spot with a crust or scab over it. This became larger finally covering the entire scalp and spreading to different parts of the body, the limbs and back and in the ears. These sores grew larger gradually until some were as large as a quarter of a dollar. They would itch and if scratched they would bleed and smart. The clothing would irritate them at night when it was being removed causing them to itch and smart so I could not sleep. A watery fluid would run from them. My scalp became covered with a scale and when the hair was raised up it would raise this scale; the hair was coming out terribly.

No relief about six months and not to be treated and after using Cuticura Soap and Ointment with two applications we could notice a great difference. It began to get better right away. Weakness. The sick seaman Evans tried the destiny of the Scott Antarctic expedition. The weakest link in the chain gives the value to the chain. Civilization follows the path of least resistance. The done or black sheep of the family causes the attention of the group on him, impairing its economic efficiency in effect dominates the household. HAD NO RIGHT TO BE OUT Little Jasper Indignant Because His Product Seemingly Had Disobeyed His Orders.

Little Jasper Senior learned from the minister's sermon one Sunday that man was made of clay, so after returning from church he resolved to make him a man after his own fashion. The work proceeded in the clay bank back of the garden until his mother called Jasper to luncheon. He had completed all of the man save one leg.

That afternoon Jasper and his mother, while walking along the street, met a man with one leg, walking with crutches. Jasper accosted him and grabbed his coat. "See here!" he said. "I thought I told you to stay there in the yard till I put that other leg on you."—Judge.

VALUE OF TALK.

A young lawyer was defending an old convict on the charge of burglary in a state where the court rules allow each side one hour to address the jury. The young lawyer, somewhat nervous, consulted a veteran member of the bar who happened to be standing near. "How much time do you think I should take up in addressing the jury?" he asked in a rather pompous manner. "Take the full hour," was the gruff reply. "The full hour? Why, I intended to take only fifteen minutes." "Take the full hour," repeated the old lawyer. "But why?" "Because the longer you talk the longer you will keep your client out of jail."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Warp of Women.

"I don't understand my wife." "How now?" "When I think I'm going to die, she tells me nothing's the matter with me. Yet sometimes, when I'm feeling my best, she will suddenly burst into tears and say she doesn't know what she is going to do when I am gone."

The Badgered Barber.

The Patron—How old are you, barber? The Barber—who is used to badgering—Thirty-nine, sir. The Patron—And how long have you been bald? The Barber—Lemme see, sir. Ah, yes; I was quite bald 39 years ago."

What It Means.

Hip—What does it mean to say that a girl is as pretty as a picture? Hip—Merely a frame of mind.—Michigan Gargoyle.

The Obstacle.

"Can't you pull some wires to get an interest in that company?" "No; it's a wireless company."

A new German electrical heating unit is made of fine resistance wires woven across pure asbestos threads.

THE DIFFERENCE.

A new book on Cecil Rhodes gives an excuse for a story about him which may be new to England. Rhodes' manly and sense of importance met with little opposition, as a rule, but a little German clerk in the Transvaal government offices at Johannesburg before the war once taught him a lesson. "Please attend to me at once," thundered the Colossus. "I can't wait." "When your turn comes, mister," replied the clerk. "Confound you, man, don't you know who I am?" asked Rhodes. "Oh, yes, I know you; but don't worry about me," was the clerk's untruffled reply. "If you were in Capetown I'd have you discharged at once," roared the great man. "Yes," said the clerk, very coolly. "I've heard they discharge people in Capetown for doing their duty. But this isn't Capetown—this is a republic!"—Manchester Guardian.

PRIDE OF THE NATION.

S. S. Shubert, the theatrical manager, was praising the American chorus girl. "She is not only prettier," said Mr. Shubert, "than her English or French or Italian sister, but she is also brighter, gayer, wittier. It's a pleasure to hear her talk. "Two chorus girls were lunching near me the other day. Their skirts were slashed, and they wore those smart new-fangled shoes that fasten with ribbon—narrow ribbon running in criss-cross up their long, slim, silken ankles. "I've got no use for your rub-rub college boy," said the first chorus girl, swinging her shapely foot in and out of her slashed skirt. "He reminds me of a china doll." "Why?" asked the other girl. "Because he's so pink and pretty!" "No," said the first chorus girl. "Because he gets broke so soon!"

Sacrificed.

Ethel—So Kate is finally married. How did she come to take the plunge? Marie—She didn't. She was shoved off by three younger sisters.

NEW WAY OF FINDING WATER

An Arizona observer has found out how to find the aquifers, whether water is near the surface or not. When the moisture grows up into form from the ground surface lies within fifty feet of the surface, but if it remains a sharp prospect for finding water can't be so good.
