DEATH CALLS AGAIN.

Gen. Slocum Answers the Summons at Buffalo, N. Y.

Gen. Slocum died at 12:05 o'clock this morning at his home...

Gen. Slocum had been ill only a few days, and death was not unexpected...

Just before 6 o'clock last night he suddenly began to sink...

His family physician, who had charge of the case, was summoned...

Gen. Slocum was at once in a serious condition of his patient...

He called Dr. Fuhs and Dr. Benjamin F. Westbrook in consultation...

They succeeded in arresting Gen. Slocum's relapse, and he was thought to be getting better...

At 8 o'clock, however, he suddenly grew worse, and his family was summoned to his bedside...

Gen. Slocum was at 11 o'clock in a coma, and fell into a deep sleep...

Three-quarters of an hour, a few minutes before midnight he awoke and spoke to his family...

At 12:05, perfectly conscious of his approaching end, he died a painless death...

Gen. Slocum was born in Delphi, Oneida county, N. Y., September 21, 1827...

He was therefore in his sixty-seventh year when he was graduated at the United States military academy at West Point...

He was assigned to the First Artillery, and was ordered to Florida the same year...

He was promoted to major in 1856, and assigned his commission in October, 1856...

He was engaged in the practice of law at Syracuse, N. Y., where he was a member of the bar...

On May 21, 1861, he was appointed colonel of the 15th New York regiment...

He was assigned to the command of a brigade in the Army of the Potomac...

He was severely wounded on August 9, 1861, at the battle of Bull Run...

THE MISSING TWELVE.

These Men Have Been Forth in the Great Glaciers of the Alps...

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 15.—The list of the missing employees of the American Glucose Co. still numbers twelve...

It is now certain that they perished in the main building. The office is surrounded by Polish night bird women...

waiting for news of their missing kinsmen or friends. Last evening search for the missing bodies began. Smoke was rising in great volumes from the smoldering wreck...

On the fatal results the fire is the worst that has visited Buffalo since the burning of the Richmond hotel...

and the horror of the disaster is added to by the statement of employes that the number reported missing does not represent the actual loss of life...

The twelve missing men were all married, and consequently their absence was reported promptly by their families...

but the workmen say that there were many unmarried men, who lived in boarding houses, and express the belief that many of those also fell victims to the flames...

THREE WATERPOUTS.

Visit the Vicinity of San Antonio, Tex., Doing Great Damage.

New ORLEANS, April 15.—The Times-Democrat's San Antonio special says: Three waterpouts, which did considerable damage to property here, occurred last night...

The most damaging one occurred in Ken county. At Kenville several houses were washed away and a large number of cattle on adjoining ranches were drowned in the Gundalough river...

which rose from a few inches to twelve feet in a few minutes.

About an hour later another waterpout occurred near Hunter, a few miles north of here...

The south-bound International & Great Northern passenger train was caught in it and delayed four hours on account of the track being covered by several feet of water.

The third waterpout was west of here, near the town of Standart. The Southern Pacific track is covered with the flood of water for a distance of several miles.

FATALLY INJURED.

Results of the Explosion of a Burning Tank Car in Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Fire started at 6:30 a. m. in a Union Line oil tank car standing in the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad yards...

near Sacramento avenue and Kenzie street. It burned slowly until 8:30 o'clock and then exploded, wrecking adjoining rolling stock and fatally injuring several men...

Among those killed were a letter carrier and a number of railway employes. The most seriously injured are: Patrick Fitzsimmons, burned and will die...

John Foute, letter carrier; burned about the face and hands; will die.

Joseph Cransden, slightly burned. Most of the injured were taken to Bennett hospital. In each case the wounds were inflicted by burning oil.

The cause of the accident was a fire of burning rubbish in the yards.

ADMIRAL DE MELLO.

Surrenders to Uruguay After Being Driven Out of Rio Grande do Sul.

MONTEVIDEO, April 15.—Admiral De Mello has surrendered to the Uruguayan authorities with the 100 troops who disembarked on the frontier of Uruguay, after having been driven out of the state of Rio Grande do Sul by the troops of President Peixoto...

The rebellion in Brazil may be said to have completely collapsed. The authorities of Uruguay have disarmed the insurgents.

The state of siege at Rio de Janeiro has been extended to June 13, but it is believed that in the view of the surrender of Admiral De Mello and the insurgent forces, the Brazilian government will shortly be able to raise the state of siege.

AN INSANE JUROR.

Causes the Abrupt Postponement of a Trial.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 15.—The session of the state court against James P. Bachman, a prominent young man charged with procuring an abortion upon a young girl, who claims he seduced her, was brought abruptly to a temporary close this morning by the insanity of a juror, John Foose, Jr.

The jury has been wrestling with the case two days, and Foose has showed signs of insanity from the first. Friday night he became violent, and this morning Judge Jordan discharged the jury. Foose, in his dementia, thought he had been convicted of murder and was going to be hanged. Bachman was released on bail.

BRECKENRIDGE WILL GO AND LOOK AFTER HIS FENCES.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Representative Breckenridge says that he will not take his seat in the senate until the season has started directly for home and commence his fight for re-nomination and re-election to congress. He intends to speak in every election precinct in the district, or as he expressed it, in every public hall and school-house.

THE ARMOR-PLATE INFORMERS WANT A FURTHER INVESTIGATION.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 15.—The armor-plate informers are still anxious to have a further investigation of the armor-plate scandal by the government. In an interview Edward Hill, one of the informers, said: "Equity will cause to be reopened an award which has been mistakenly awarded at through the concealment of material facts by the defendant. We desire a reopening of the case, as we believe the settlement was improperly made, and not sufficient as warranted by the evidence furnished."

PUBLIC OFFICIALS AS ROBBER.

OLNEY, Ill., April 15.—Joseph Johnson, living 3 miles north of Noble, was awakened Thursday night by two men who demanded his money. One seized his wife, the other held the old man at the point of a revolver. Upon refusal the man confronting Johnson fired two shots at his intended victim without inflicting injury. The woman pulled the man off her assailant's face and recognized the man as Andrew Gatewood, recently elected town clerk of Noble township. Gatewood and his accomplice, ex-Town Clerk Thomas Miller, were arrested.

THE ARMENIAN PATRIARCH RESIGNS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 16.—Mgr. Aechikian, the Armenian patriarch, has resigned, owing to the onerous duties of his office.

THE OZARK.

The thirteenth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Missouri was held at Lebanon.

The attendance was large. There was a parade and several hundred veterans were in line. They marched to the public school house, where the exercises were held.

An entertainment was given at the school house, and also at the address of welcome and Commander Burton responded. The encampment closed with a ban supper and campfire.

Following the exercises, the Grand Army of the Republic, St. Louis, senior vice-commander, Louis Fischer, Salem junior vice-commander, R. B. Vanhook, and the medical director, Dr. Brown, Seattle; chaplain, Rev. W. C. Calland, Springfield. Nineteen delegates were elected to the national encampment.

The next encampment will be held at Mason.

The Woman's Relief corps elected the following officers: Mrs. A. G. Briggs, Joplin, senior vice-president; Mrs. Hoffman, junior vice-president; Mrs. Fannie Vanhook, secretary; Mrs. Mary Sheppard, Brookfield, treasurer; and Mrs. Amy Hill, Springfield, chaplain.

The Woman's Relief corps for old and dependent veterans and their wives and children.

MISSOURI NOT A MOTHER OF STATEMEN.

Missouri, says a Washington dispatch, is not a prolific mother of statesmen.

Champ Clark says that of all the great men who have collaborated to make Pike county famous only two of them, Matt Reynolds and Joe Bowers, were really born there. Ex-Senator James W. Blair, settled in Louisiana; Campbell, George W. Anderson, Col. Champ himself and the long line of illustrious men associated with Pike county history were only adopted sons of the state.

Only one senator and five representatives are native Missourians, and they are: James W. Blair, 1850-1856; George W. Anderson, 1856-1862; and three others.

The native Missourians in congress is a very short one. It will receive an accession of one, when Mr. Blair, of Louisiana, recently elevated from the house to the senate, is elected. Harry W. Ozden has been nominated by the democratic party to succeed Blair in the house.

Mr. Ozden was born in Missouri, was 18 when the war broke out, enlisted in the 1st Missouri, and was discharged at the close of the war, and is a cotton planter.

SADDEN DEATH OF EX-SENATOR MAJORS.

Ex-Senate Senator Samuel C. Majors was found dead in bed at his home in Fayette on the morning of the 13th.

His death is attributed to heart disease. When Mrs. Majors awoke she spoke to her husband, and he had passed away as she slept without a struggle.

Mr. Majors was 63 years old, fell from a fourth-story window in Cincinnati on the 18th. Her escape was a most miraculous one. No bones were broken, nor was the child perceptibly injured in any other way.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

In the senate, on the 14th, Mr. Quay made a speech against the tariff bill. A resolution, previously offered by Mr. Quay, that on the 21st, between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m., a hearing should be given to a bill introduced by Senator Quay, was adopted.

The further deficiency bill—appropriating about $1,500,000—was passed. In the house, no quorum voting on the motion to approve the journal, adjournment was taken.

The Pollard-Breckenridge breach-of-promise case was brought to a close in Washington on the 14th, the jury returning a verdict in favor of Miss Pollard and awarding her $15,000 damages. Mr. Breckenridge's attorneys will move for a new trial, falling in which will carry the case to the supreme court of the District of Columbia.
