PUNGENT PARAGRAPHS.

—'Is young Jimmie improving in his habits work?' 'I dunno. Either he's improv'n, or we're gittin' used to it.'—Washington-Star.

—'I see that one sewing machine is supposed to do the work of twelve women.' He—'What idiot has gone and invented a talking attachment?'—Inter Ocean.

—'Gus—'If you don't give it to me at once, I'll kiss you.' Madge—'And if I give it to you, you will let me alone?' Gus—'Certainly.' Madge—'Well—you can't have it.'—Demorest's.

—'Fanny, isn't it, how we men get baldheaded and you women don't?'—'I don't think it's strange. You know we never get to be old enough for that.'—South Boston News.

—'Visitor—'Who's that man?' Dime Museum Proprietor—'That, sir, is the man who once heard Mr. McKinley made a speech in which he did not speak of me.'—Chicago Record.

—'Still she hesitated. "You are poor," she argued; "while I have a million." Springing forward impetuously, he gathered her to his bosom. "I will marry you," he cried, "for all that!"—True.

—'What are you here for, George?' 'I've been tucked up, suh, fer raisin' hogs.' 'Why, there's no law against that?' 'Dat's what I tell um, sah; but dey sorter found out dat I raise de hogs over de fence.'—Atlanta Constitution.

—'Think!—"How complete the big dry goods stores are nowadays! Do you know that they serve luncheon for shoppers?" Knowitt—"Yes, but they don't provide board and lodging for customers waiting for their change."—N. Y. Sun.

—'In Russia criminals are often sentenced to be kept awake until insanity and death result. Now, how do you suppose they keep them from falling asleep?' Little Girl (oldest of a small family)—'I expect they give 'em a baby to take care of.'—Truth.

—'Hilda—'If women were given the ballot, do you think the greater part of them would become republicans or democrats?' Wicks—"It is impossible to say; but so far as the housewife girls are concerned, they would probably remain as at present—'independent.'—Boston Transcript.

—'The doctor had turned on the transportation question, and Mr. Jagway, who was indulging in one of his regular spells of being perfectly sober, observed: "If I had my way about it the government would own the railroads and carry people anywhere for one rate of fare without regard to distance, just as I should like to have my feet on the ground."—Boston Transcript.

—'The Heathen Chinee. Is not a beauty. No more are you when your composition has an orange tint. That means that you are bilious, a fact further evidenced by discoloration on the right side, sick headache, vertigo, nausea and furred tongue. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will take the bile out of your blood, regulate your bowels, set your stomach in good working order—in two words, cure you. Use it and cease to be yellow. It cures malarial, rheumatic and kidney trouble.'—Chicago Inter Ocean.

—'SAILOR (defiantly)—"It will take more than you to hold me. I'll tell you." Captain (calmly)—"Oh, how cunning. Can't you coax the little dear out this way?"—Chicago Record.
