

LOCAL NEWS

Monday was a legal holiday.
Do you take the REPUBLICAN?
M. K. Farmer is on the sick list this week.
Frank Miles is enjoying Christmas in Marshall.
Forest Orear spent Christmas day at Orearville.
Fresh Baltimore Oysters in bulk or can at Schlueter's.
R. E. L. Smith went to Lexington Monday on business.
J. M. Cordell is home on a visit to his family this week.
Miss Emily Black left Sunday for Columbia on a visit.
Frank Miles will start out on the road again this week.
Mrs. J. B. Webb, of Arrow Rock was up shopping Monday.
Miss Lulu Mackey is visiting Mrs. D. Manning on Odell.
Miss Doshia Rector is visiting relatives in Slater this week.
Robt. Dunn went east on the Mo. Pacific Saturday morning.
Mr. G. M. Francisco was on the sick list several days this week.
Julius Manheim is spending the holidays with friends in Colorado.
Mr. Will Burruss, of Columbia, is the guest of John Bryant and family on Capitol Hill.
Dick Richards of Columbia was a visitor Monday at the Logsdon home on Capitol Hill.
O. T. Harris of St. Louis was talking business to our merchants this week.
Mrs. C. H. Bell entertained a number of relatives at dinner Sunday.
Ed Sullivan of Arkansas is the guest of his parents on Capitol Hill.
Miss Lillian Barnum left Monday for a visit to relatives at Gilliam.
Frank Sheppard and wife left Monday for a weeks visit in St. Louis.
Rev. A. A. McGeachy left Monday for Pleasant Hill for a two days visit.
Harris Fray of Blackwater come up Monday to attend the Mistletoe reception.
Lawrence Montague is visiting his mother, Mrs. Maggie Montague in this city.
Miss Perla Harvey is the guest this week of Miss Nell Orear on East Arrow.
John McKeever of Shackelford was the guest Friday of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Carter.
Mrs. Belle Payne and daughters are visiting relatives in the Salt Springs neighborhood.
Messrs Walter Brette and Harry Wells of Sweet Springs were in Marshall Monday visiting.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goodwin, of Alma, were guests of R. E. L. Smith and family on Saturday.
Dr. Farmer, who has been visiting his brother, M. K. Farmer, left Monday for his home in Calhoun.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor and family of Mt. Leonard; F. W. Taylor, Napton and Nat Leonard and family of Hardeman were guests Monday of Mrs. S. M. Taylor on Verby St.

W. E. Parrish made a visit to Gilliam Monday and returned the same day.
Miss Eva Young spent Christmas with Miss Nell Hawkins at Fairville.
Miss Virginia Connell, of Napton is the guest of Miss Jennie Pulliam.
Walter Bishop of Kansas City, was the guest of friends in the city Sunday.
Miss Hezzie Purdom of Kansas City is the guest of Mrs. Eubank on Arrow St.
Miss Eliza Altes, of Malta Bend is visiting the home folks in the city this week.
Mrs. Phil Ott and daughter Catherine, are guests of P. H. Rea and family.
Miss Jennie Woodson, who teaches school at Wanamaker is home on a visit.
Paul Yantis, of Kansas City is the guest of his sister, Mrs. V. C. Yantis this week.
Miss Susie Henderson left Monday for her home in Glasgow for a visit of some days.
Mrs. G. A. Rogers, of Sedalia is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Patterson on Odell.
LaGrippe is raging in the eastern cities, the epidemic is almost as severe as in 1886.
Charlie Wallace, of Sedalia, a cousin of Mrs. Will Huston arrived Sunday for a visit.
Prof. Will Merry, of Blackburn, is spending his vacation in Miami, the guest of friends.
J. L. Woodbridge has been confined to the house a portion of this week from sickness.
Solon Martin of Arkolou, Kansas, came Saturday to visit the family of Dr. Martin.
W. B. Ragsdale, of the house of Rose & Buckner is visiting his parents in Paris, Mo.
Mrs. F. L. Brown and children spent several days this week with W. E. Parrish and family.
Will Lattimer, of Kansas City, is visiting his father, Geo. Lattimer and family on Capitol Hill.
Misses Lucy and Emma Burruss, of Miami, are guests this week of Mrs J. D. Fristowe.
Mrs. W. R. Dobyms entertained a number of friends at six o'clock dinner on Monday evening.
Misses Berenice Allen and Maud Love went to Bunceon Monday to visit Miss Myrtle Cordry.
John and Mike Sullivan, of Louisiana are home on a visit to their parents on Capitol Hill.
We are glad to be able to say that Mrs. S. D. Martin who has been very ill is now convalescent.
A series of meetings will begin in the First M. E. Church, Jan. 15, 1899. Everybody cordially invited.
Mrs. Lydia and daughter, Minnie, of Shackelford, is spending Christmas week with her mother, Mrs. S. King.
Miss Eva Armstrong, who has charge of the school in the Salt Springs neighborhood, is visiting her mother in this city.
Mr. Earnest Elsea of Salt Springs and Robert Snoddy of Malta Bend were the guests of friends in the city on Sunday.
Rev. A. A. McGeachy, of Fulton arrived Saturday and is the guest of P. H. Franklin and wife. Mrs. McGeachy has been here some days. Mr. McGeachy preached to the Presbyterians on Wednesday evening.

Wright's

. . . AGAIN!

We have purchased the stock of

Dry Goods and Shoes,

formerly owned by G. A. Wright and expect to continue the business . . . . .

---

Call and See Us We can interest you in prices. At present we have some ### Special Values in Underwear.

Ladies white wool vests worth 48c at	35c	Men's heavy mixed shirts worth 50c for	39c
Ladies heavy fleeced cotton vests and pants regular 35c value for	25c	A Splendid line of all wool and fleece lined hose.

Comforts and Blankets at Clearing Sale Prices.

We will still continue to carry a fine assortment of shoes. At present have some special lots AT FACTORY PRICES.

G. A. Wright will remain, with us; also Misses Viola Pifer, Katie Irvin and Bessie Roller. All will be glad to have your patronage. Yours very truly,

S. V. & E. M. Wright.

East Side Square, Marshall, Mo.

J. P. Lynott, wife, Miss Eolia Boyer and Gordon Letterman were guests of relatives at Nelson Monday.
Mr. Neff Burkhead of St. Louis attended the funeral of his uncle, the late B. T. Burkhead on Tuesday.
Mr. Ed Waddell and Col. Mitchell, of St. Louis were dinner guests of R. E. L. Smith on Sunday.
Misses Beon and Holmes of Kansas City were guests Friday of J. R. Collier and family on Highland.
Miss Emma Harvey, who is attending school in Marshall is enjoying Christmas at her home in Nelson.
Miss Maud Colvert and her guest Miss Pearl Winn went to Mayview Sunday for a visit to friends.
William Miller, wife and child of Mexico were the guests Monday of John Miller and family on Capitol Hill.
Rev. Taylor Bernard of St. Louis arrived Monday to conduct the funeral of the late F. F. Birkhead.
John Blackburn, who has been in California some ten years is back in old Saline with a view of locating.
Miss Leona Mahan returned to her home in Jefferson City Saturday after a pleasant visit to relatives in Marshall.
We are sorry to learn that Leta E Sparks, who is with her mother visiting in Blackburn, has been quite sick since away.
Mr. A. L. Liggett, wife and daughter, Miss Pauline, of Slater, and Mrs Bessie Pettecord, of Winchester, Ky., were guests of their cousin, Mrs. J. W. Winning on Capitol Hill on Christmas day. Miss Pettecord will make an extended visit.

Robert Nuckles who attends school at Kirksville, at the school of Osteopathy is home for the holidays.
Misses Jennie and Agnes King, of Nebraska are spending the holidays with their parents at Shackelford.
Leonard Henderson, of Glasgow, arrived Saturday for a visit to his cousin, Henderson Orear on East Arrow.
Harry Goodwin and Donald McLain of Kansas City were guests Sunday and Monday of Theodore Mayer.
Mr. Russell, of Springfield, Mo., arrived Sunday for a visit to his daughter, Mrs. John Miller on Highland.
Aunt Mary Tolton, an old colored woman, who died recently near Napton, was 105 years and 28 days old.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Clarksville are guests this week of Mrs. E. A. Mackey at the home of Dr. Manning.
Miss Mary Squires, who teaches in the Chicago public schools, is visiting her father, Dr. E. K. Squires on Odell.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fletcher and daughter, Miss Georgian, will spend a few days this week with relatives at Corder.
Prof. E. E. Brandon left Tuesday for Lincoln, Nebraska, where he attended the Modern Language Association meeting.
W. H. Wilhite, wife and two daughters left Monday for their home in Salisbury, after a visit to the family of B. M. Spencer.
It is reported that after Jan. 1st, the public school will give Monday for a holiday, the same day as the Mo. Valley College gives.
Elisha Hurt will leave soon for Barton Co. to take charge of the farm. W. H. Hurt and family will not leave for some months.

Miss Pearl Short spent Christmas Day with her parents at Nelson. She returned Monday and was accompanied by Mr. S. J. Ashby.
Misses Nancy Huston, of Lexington and Georgie Edwards, of Slater are guests of the Misses Parrish and attended the Mistletoe reception.
Miss Nellie Taylor, who teaches music in the Indian Territory is spending her vacation at the home of her parents R. B. Taylor and family of this city.
Miss Grace Saunders, accompanied by W. F. Schanz, spent Christmas Day in Kansas City, the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Harry Smith.
The bonds were published Sunday morning at the Catholic church, of the marriage of William Wessing and Miss Anastasia Beevins, living west of town.
Miss Agnes Spencer entertained a limited number of friends on Tuesday evening at six o'clock dinner, in honor of Misses Sabra Kennedy and Blanche Long of St. Louis.
Jim Barnett, of Alma, a nephew of Mrs. R. E. L. Smith, has been very sick, but we are glad to say improving. Dr. John Hall was called to Alma to see him on Thursday.
Miss Mamie Witner from Kansas, a sister of Mrs. W. B. Wharton arrived Saturday for a visit. Mrs. Wharton met her sister in Kansas City and they both came down together.
Frank Jones an old Marshall boy, whose father owned a livery and feed stable in this city some years ago, has now a good position in the crockery department of the Dogget Dry goods house in Kansas City. Success to him.