

COUNTY NEWS.

Slater Items.

Will Mead is at home for the holidays.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

J. R. Neal, of Marshall, spent Sunday in this city.

Miss Elah Jackson went to Marshall Thursday afternoon to visit friends.

Miss Rowena Reid spent Christmas day in Sweet Springs, the guest of Miss Maud Ray.

B. F. Orear, of Marshall, passed through this city Monday after a visit to his parents at Orearville.

Misses Mira and Mattie Mead, who have been attending school at Lexington, are home for the holidays.

Miss Grace Humes returned to her home in this city Tuesday afternoon after a visit to her aunt Mrs. J. Moss at Gilliam.

Miss Roma Fleet came home from Liberty Friday to spend the holidays with her mother. Mrs. Lou Fleet north of town.

Miss Mary Tipping came down on "47" Tuesday morning and will spend a few days with Miss Sallie Hickman south of town.

Misses Carrie, Della and Mary Rhoades came up from Columbia where they have been attending school, to visit friends and relatives.

Herbert Baggary, wife and little daughter, Maurine went to Odessa Monday afternoon to spend the holidays with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Ella Ruby, of Golden, Colorado, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Meda Smith, in this city, went to St. Louis Tuesday for a short visit to friends after which she will return to her home in Colorado.

L. A. Wilnite of Slater is hereby authorized to take collections and subscriptions for the SALINE REPUBLICAN. All money paid to him, will be duly credited to your account upon our books and we hope the friends of this paper will accord to him the good treatment, which has characterized their support of this paper.

Malta Bend Items.

Our Bank took a holiday Monday. Allen Day is doing a large for business.

Dr. Brown is moving into his new house.

Ed Rozell was doing business in Marshall Tuesday.

J. M. Christian has gone to Grand Pass to spend the winter.

Mabel Wilson of Ottawa, Kansas, is visiting her many friends.

A protracted meeting will begin at the M E Church next week.

Mr. E. Harley Haskin left for his home Lenexa, Kan. Tuesday.

Wm McClelland of Salt Springs visited at the M E parsonage.

Hattie Grubb of Bates City is visiting her, sister, Mrs. W. M. Rozell.

M. W. Walker and wife entertained a number of their friends Monday.

Mr. Harry Haskin and wife of Lenexa, Kan. are spending the holidays here.

Mrs. Frank Wilson, of Pleasant Hill, is visiting her parents, V. M. Bradshaw.

Rev. C. J. Haworth of Iowa is visiting at the home of Rev. Oscar Lunbeck.

The eclipse of the moon on Tuesday evening was observed by quite a number of citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fulton's little child has been very sick for some time, but is improving.

W. R. Needles is thinking some of moving to Brookfield where he will work for the H & St. J. R. R.

Rev. Wharton of Marshall will deliver a lecture at the Christian church Thursday afternoon to the children.

Miss Lizette Vinyard of St. Louis will arrive here this week and make her home with Rev. C. C. James and family.

A very pleasant evening was spent by a goodly number of our young people at the Houston Bro's home, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Chas. Stevens formerly of this place, but now of Elmo, Kan. is here visiting her parents, Mr. A. H. Roberts and wife.

Our churches had appropriate exercises and gave the Sunday School scholars a treat of candy and fruit on Saturday evening.

We hope all the readers of the Republican had a merry Christmas and we hope they will enjoy a happy and prosperous New Year.

Rev. D. B. Lander delivered a lecture at the Presbyterian Church Monday night. Subject—Cuba. The proceeds amounting to about $16 will be used to secure singing books.

Our boys who have been away attending school, have all gotten home to spend their vacation. We hope their rest will do them good and they will get to work with renewed energies. Success to you boys.

From the Plains.

Thomas Eastham is visiting friends in Kansas City this week.

James Harline and Albert Marks of K. C. are visiting Chris Marks and lady.

Mrs. Sude Isaac of Miami is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Needles this week.

W. C. Hill and lady departed Sunday for Miami and Sharon to visit relatives.

Mrs. C. B. Little departed Monday for her home in Kansas City after a few weeks visit to her father, W. F. Godman.

Try E. Cox, the shoe maker for boot and shoe repairing, he will treat you right.

W. A. and James Haynie of Miami were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nye through Xmas.

Wm. Lebew has gone south again. On his return he will bring a better half with him, we are told.

Quite a number attended an entertainment at the east Plains school house Friday before Xmas.

E. Cox of Malta Bend, will repair boots, shoes and rubber goods at had rock prices. Your patronage solicited.

U. G. Needles and wife were in Miami Tuesday. Mrs. N's sister, Mrs. Harry Martin accompanied them home for a few days visit.

Andy Johnson failed to tell us that a young man came to his house to visit indefinitely. Mrs. Johnson and guest are getting along nicely.

A social entertainment was tendered quite a number of the young folks of the vicinity at the hospitable home of J. W. Blackburn Tuesday of this week.

A large gathering of young folks assembled with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Williamson Tuesday night, partook of choice refreshments, played various games and tripped the light fantastic until a late hour. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Shackelford Items.

J. W. Jahn was in Marshall Monday.

Bob Smith is sick with the tonsillitis. Mr. Welch of Mt. Leonard was here Monday.

Charley Bacon of Salt Springs was here Saturday.

J. Jacoby of Marshall was here on business Monday.

Mrs. Campbell was in Marshall shopping Saturday.

T. H. Graybael and wife spent Xmas day with Mrs. Hutcherson.

Mrs. Miller, of Kansas City, returned to her home Thursday.

Will Carter, of Cretcher, spent Xmas day with his sister, Mrs. Jim Weaver.

Misses Florence and Lela Tickemeyer are spending the holidays at home.

Mr. Evans, of near Salt Springs took the train at this place for Marshall Monday.

Henry Hillebrand, Mr. and Mrs. Jahn and Miss Maudie Smith spent Wednesday with the Misses Evans near Salt Springs.

Miss Armstrong, who is teaching in the Salt Springs neighborhood, took the train at this place for her home in Marshall, where she will spend the holidays.

Those who took the train at this station Saturday from the Salt Springs vicinity were, Aivis Vawter, E. Colvert, J. Fulkerson, J. Thomas, Earnest Eliza and B. Kennedy and two little sons, Charlie and Eibert.

Miss Lillie Evans of Salt Springs, returned from Warrensburg Friday evening, where she has been attending school, to spend the holidays at home. Henry Hillebrand, also, returned the same eve from Warrensburg, where he has been attending school this year.

WANTED!

Reliable man in this vicinity to open a small office and handle my goods. Position permanent and good pay. If your record is O. K. here is an opening for you. Kindly mention this paper when writing.

A. M. MORRIS, Cincinnati, O.

THE NEW YORK STORE

FOR THE 12 DAYS

BETWEEN

Dec. 26 and Jan. 6,

WE WILL HOLD OUR

ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

In Every Department In
Our Store we will Offer at Prices that Cannot Fail to Sell Them.

Cloaks at about 50c on the Dollar.

Some Snaps in Bleached and Brown Domestics.

Table Linen and Napkins
Have Been Knifed

Blankets and Comforts at Prices to Close

Overcoats marked so low that we won't have any left for Spring.

Clothing for Men and Boys have Sale Price on them.

The Dress Goods Department has some Tempting Bargains

If you will come and get some of our Sale Prices we will not have to talk to convince you.

MAYER & SON.