The successful patience displayed by Hutchings in photographing children is simply marvelous. He makes a specialty of children's pictures.

Springfield capitalists are again attempting the raising of $2,000,000 as capital stock for a proposed rail road, connecting Springfield with the mineral, marble and forest country of North Arkansas.

Miss Louise Stevens, of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. Mary Harvey. Miss Stevenson is in charge of the decorative Art Studio at Hyde Park, Chicago, and we hope the lady can be prevailed upon to give an exhibit while here.

The town of Katy is in the southern part of Texas on the M. K. & T. Ry. The other day a brakeman stuck his head in the coach door and announced, "Change for Katy" A farmer put his hand in his pocket and said, "I don't know her, but here is fifty cents."

Misses Mick and Cohenour have returned from Chicago where they have been some weeks in the interest of their business; they have made some changes in their store room, which has very much improved it. The many friends of Miss Pattie Ervin will be glad to know that she will remain with this firm.

Mr Joseph Hamill and wife have returned from an extended trip through California and New Mexico. They attended the oldest church in the United States while at Las Vegas. This church was built 360 years ago; the roof had been twice destroyed by the Indians. It is well supported without, by stone piers; the old bell was brought from Spain, and was made 650 years ago.

Bert Wilhelm, living near Fairville, left Friday morning for Sacramento, Cal., where he goes on account of his health. We hope he may be greatly benefitted and take a new lease upon life in that wonderful climate.

If the best picture you ever saw was in fact a very poor one, you would say it was a very good one until you compared it with something better. Thus we judge the merit of pictures by comparison. Compare Hutchings' Photos with those made in the finest galleries in St. Louis or Kansas City.

The Merrell-Louie, Co., Syracuse, New York, will sometime in the near future demonstrate the good qualities of New England mince meat and also pumpkin pies, "Just like mother used to make." They will hold their exhibition at the grocery stores of W. E. Parrish and O. Cochran.

Allen Dale says "Hogan's Alley" and its company is as bright and sparkling as champagne and is in the hands that make it bubble with fun at every turn. Marshall Opera House, Saturday, March 11th surpasses that of any play they have ever had. This attraction will be seen at the Opera House, Saturday, March 11.

Six O'clock Dinner.

Conspicuous among the social gatherings of the week was the six o'clock dinner given by Miss Agnes Spencer on Monday evening at her home on West Eastwood St., in honor of her guest, Miss Erickson. Miss Agnes makes a charming hostess, and the occasion was characterized by a simple and genial informality which was quite refreshing.

During the evening progressive carroms were indulged in from which much fun was derived.

The dining table was set with covers for twelve; at each plate a single carnation in white or pink, was placed, also a dainty card with some familiar quotations appropriate to the occasion. The center piece to the table was also of carnations and smilax. The elegant dinner served in five courses was as follows:

First, French sardines imbedded in a little square of clear, white lemon jelly served with salted wafers.

Second, turkey, peas, potatoes, a Pitallienne, cranberry jelly, Roman punch, hot biscuits, olives, pickles.

Third, chicken salad, with whipped cream, French wafers.

Fourth, brick cream, angel food and chocolate cake.

Fifth, coffee and macaroons.

Those present were, Misses May Northern, May Brandon, Sadie Buckland, Peach Parrish, Miss Erickson, Messrs Ben and Adolph Striker, Tom Rainey, James Denny, Clayton Lamkin and Harry Francisco.

Attie Party

Backward, turn backward,
Oh time in your flight
And make me a child again,
Just for to-night.

These lines presented themselves to us on Monday when we strolled into the Leonard home on North St., and found the youngest son, Speed celebrating his sixth birthday with an attie party. The children were so happy, so free from cares and responsibility, that away down in our hearts we felt we would like to keep them children always.

There were swings, hammocks and a fish pond from which the girls drew out dolls and the boys drew tops. Joseph Leonard played the violin while they danced the cakewalk, after which they repaired to the dining room where they were served to brick cream cake, candy and fruit.

Those present were, Mary and Frances Buckner, Cary Huston, Virginia Smith, Dorothy Woodbridge, Harold Montgomery, Paul VanDyke, John Hall, Hauley Leonard, Lon and Lora Starling and Frank Duggins.

See Will Walker, Dr. Ming and Oscar Goodwin in The Gondoliers.

P. P. Club.

The P. P. Club met on Monday afternoon at Loomis' parlors, where they were served to the following elaborate luncheon:

Blue points, celery, pickles, cold turkey, old ham, jupiter salad, potato chips, hot biscuit, cranberry sauce, fruits and coffee.

Those present were, Misses Pattie Page, Louise Noble, Florian Verby, Berta Francisco, Messrs Will Walker, Adolph Striker, Ben Striker, Harry Francisco and Tom Lacy.
