

Clothing, Clothing, Clothing,

To the trade, did you know that we own at least one half our Clothing Stock
At Less Than Half Price.

We have recently made some good trades in this line and we find that we are over-stocked, and in order to unload, we propose for a short time to make prices at a price that will move the goods. Now come and see what we have to offer you. Lots of our Clothing will be offered at less than half former prices.

If You Want to Save Money

Yours to Please

M. K. FARMER.

Northeast Corner Square, Marshall, Mo.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Tom Peter, of St. Louis, is in the city visiting relatives.

Miss Frances Wood is still unable to walk without the use of her crutch.

Miss Edith Smith, of Sweet Springs, is the guest of Miss Lulu Lankin on Hill.

Capt. Thomas Loftis left Tuesday for Stoberly to attend the Decoration exercises there.

Miss Hickman, of Kansas City, will arrive this week for a visit to Mrs. Bruce Marmaduke.

Joe Pope, of Jefferson City, gets the contract for furnishing the paving work around the square.

Prof. George McMillin left Monday night for Vandalia, Ind., where he will study under Prof. Merrill.

M. H. Alexander, from St. Louis, spent several days in our city this week in the interest of the State Fair.

Mrs. E. E. Baroun and her daughter Susan will leave Friday for Gilliam for a weeks' visit with relatives.

James King arrived Sunday night from Montana for a visit to his mother, Mrs. Mary E. King on East Arrow street.

Rev. W. W. Elwang, of Columbia, filled the pulpit at the Presbyterian church on Sunday, both morning and evening.

Mr and Mrs. W. H. Stephens, of Bunceton, guests of Dr and Mrs. Black Saturday and Sunday, spent Monday evening and Tuesday with Mrs. Abiel Leonard on North street.

Mr and Mrs. W. H. Eldson, who have been in this city visiting Mrs. Ida H. Shaw and other relatives, left Sunday night for their home in St. Louis after a most pleasant visit. Mrs. Eldson has many friends in Marshall who were delighted to meet her husband, who is a prominent man in St. Louis business circles.

Col. Vines Marmaduke has returned from a brief visit to Denver, Col.

Mrs. Joe M. James, living near Stella, is visiting her parents, H. H. Nichols and wife.

Noble Drenough left Friday for St. Louis, where he will spend the summer with relatives.

Low and Walter Conroy, of Independence, are visiting Mr and Mrs. Thomas Bright on Capitol Hill.

Miss Jennie Marmaduke arrived Friday from St. Louis and is visiting Mrs. Bruce Marmaduke, on East Arrow St.

Judge Sparks left Sunday to join Mrs. Sparks in Keokuk, and they will make an extended visit throughout the state.

Montague Condon arrived from Cuba on Saturday afternoon for a visit to his mother, Mrs. J. H. Condon, of this city.

Miss Mary Menyer, who has been the guest of her Aunt, Mrs. Nichols, for some nine months, left last week for her home in Denver.

Frank Higley, Jr., who has recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended school the past winter, was in the city Saturday shaking hands with his many friends.

Prof. G. Pitts, of St. Louis, is in the city for the purpose of organizing a class in physical training. He teaches dumb bell exercises and abdominal breathing, club singing, etc. Perfect satisfaction is guaranteed.

Mrs. J. P. Lynd and daughter, Miss Theron, of Kansas City, guests of her mother, Mrs. Georgia Bruce, and grandmother, Mrs. Jane Bruce, will leave this week for Colorado Springs, where they go on account of Mrs. Lynd's health. They will spend the summer and we hope the glorious climate of Colorado may make her strong and well again.

Mrs. M. J. Sauls, of Miami, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. N. Melk Myers, on Highland.

Mrs. S. G. Edwards, of Texell, Texas, is visiting her parents, R. B. Glolds and wife, of this city.

W. J. Hawkins, superintendent of one of the Kansas City schools, made a trip to Marshall on business this week.

Miss Ella Deany, of Kansas City, arrived Saturday morning for a visit to Gen. H. Allison and wife on East North St.

Dr. W. R. Doleys has returned from Davenport, where he preached the Evangelical sermon to the Kempter school.

Miss Paula Strother, of Fresno, California, arrived Thursday and will make an extended visit to her brother, Wallace Strother and family.

Rev. Joshua Harless, of Everett Springs, spent Monday night in the city, the guest of Rev. Bohan's family. He left Tuesday for Columbia.

Miss Laynia Yearby, formerly of Marshall, but more recently of Denton, Texas, arrived this last week for an extended visit to Dr. Wm. Harris and wife, and other relatives.

We are glad to see the improvement in the Marshall green house. Let Rose is doing the brick work, and the rooms, when completed, will be Dutch feet. This has been a long needed improvement.

Along in the winter, General Superintendent M. Sweeney, of the M., K. and T. Ry., was riding along the line in company with one of the Division Superintendents. The latter judged Mr. Sweeney pointed to a large pond by the roadside, which was frozen around the edge with open water in the middle, saying, "Mike, how would you like to take a bath out there?" Mike's quick reply was: "I'd rather wait till the end of the fiscal year."

Col. James Sparks, wife and baby, Leta, have returned from a two weeks visit with the parents of Mrs. Sparks at Mt. Leonard.

A letter from Mr and Mrs. Frank Sheppard says they are settled for the summer at Long Beach, California, and are delighted with the climate.

Gen. Wyker got the contract for carpeting the new Okla. Fellows' hall. He also had a handsome carpet on the entire lower floor of Miss' Hall last week.

H. T. Yates, who has been passing on with the New York Herald for some time, left Monday for Kansas City, Iowa, where he will open a racket store.

Mrs. C. W. Crouch has returned from an extended visit to her children Mrs. F. W. Jones, in Olathe, Mo. She was accompanied by her grand children, Master Clifford and Miss Flossie Jones, who will spend the summer.

Harry Pransless, with his daughter, trip, accompanied by Messrs. Will Walker, H. M. Spencer and Prof. Peters, was among the bandoneo excursions that filled the public square of the best town in the State.

Mrs. Matthew King is greatly improving her business house on the south side of the square. New slating, new paper and paint will when some stone pavement will make it a very handsome room when completed. It will be occupied by House DeGarmo.

As is well known, toward the end of the fiscal year, officials of all railway corporations economize as much as is practicable, in order to make a good showing for their respective departments. Many of the excuses for failures to do this and that are charged up to the approach of the end of the "fiscal year". The Fiscal year of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Ry. ends June 30th.