

HOME-SEEKERS EXCURSIONS

VIA WABASH

On January 15th, February 5th and 19th, March 5th and 19th, and April 2nd and 16th, 1901, the Wabash will sell Home-seekers' tickets at rate of one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip to points in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Indian Territory, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Southwest Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North and South Carolina, North and South Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Wyoming and to points in many other states.

Tickets are limited to 21 days from date of sale and allow stop-over privileges at certain points on the going trip. For further information call on nearest ticket agent, or address

H. E. Watts, Pass. and Ticket Agent, Moberly, Mo.

LOCAL IN BRIEF

James Lee, of Gilliam, was a visitor Friday.

Mrs. Amelia Schott is very ill with pneumonia.

R. P. Spencer returned Monday from Fayette.

A. F. Rector returned Friday from Jefferson City.

Wm. Kellett, of the county, was in the city Friday.

Miss Viola Pifer is out again after a week's illness.

Miss Alice Scott is numbered among the sick this week.

G. W. Halter, of Hannibal, visited in this city Friday.

Robert Smith is out again after an attack of tonsillitis.

Miss Lula Laner has recovered from a recent illness.

Miss Katherine Blair is visiting relatives in Columbia.

Mrs. James Wingfield has been on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Frank Ayres has returned from a visit to Slater friends.

Mrs. Emmett Merry is quite sick at her home on Vest street.

Mrs. Lee Pelot, of Alma, was a visitor in our city Saturday.

Mrs. James Jackson, of Blackburn, was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Jane Bruce is convalescent after an illness of several weeks.

R. M. Woodruff and wife of Blackwater were in Marshall Friday.

Misses Bessie and Pearl Oldham are recovering from a short illness.

Mrs. S. O. Martin who has been very ill with grip is convalescent.

Miss Stella Sanger is at her post at Jake Kret's after a week's illness.

Miss E. M. Moore, of Versailles, was the guest of friends here Friday.

J. S. Eddins, of Sedalia, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this city.

Louis Hering, Jr., of Blackburn, was a visitor in the county seat Friday.

John O'Bannon and wife were guests of Mrs. Robert Smith at Fairville Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boulger, of Shackelford, were in shopping Saturday.

Mrs. E. S. Place was able to be out Saturday for the first time in two weeks.

Miss Annie Booth was out Saturday for the first time since her two-weeks illness.

Miss Viola Hunter, the guest of Miss Pearl Porter, returned to her home on Friday.

Mrs. Frank Boyd has been quite sick for ten days with a severe attack of grip.

Miss Emma Grecian who has been quite sick at her home in Blosser is out again.

Deputy Circuit Clerk Pat Loftis is himself again after an illness of several weeks.

W. S. Alexander and wife, of Blackburn, were guests of friends in Marshall Friday.

Miss Rozzie Yancey, of Armstrong, the guest of Miss Bessie Sparks, has returned home.

Misses Estelle Dawes and Bessie Orear were guests of Mrs. E. W. Dawes Thursday.

L. J. Putsch, son of William Putsch is out again after a serious illness from vaccination.

S. P. Huston and wife, of Malta Bend, were among Saturday's visitors at Ming's Hotel.

C. M. Buckner spent Sunday in Hannibal, where he sold a big bill of goods the day before.

Mrs. Mary Price at Hotel Hurt has been confined to her room part of the week with a deep cold.

Mrs. Marsh Field, of Napton, returned Friday from a visit to Mrs. J. W. Webb at Waverly.

R. E. Holloway made a trip to Centralia recently on business for the Rea & Page Milling Co.

Mrs. Howard, the guest of Father Hogan, of Shackelford, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Why not try Osteopathy as practiced by Dr. R. H. Nuckles when you fail to get results otherwise. 492

Robert Ewell of the New York store is at his post again, after an illness of ten days from vaccination.

Peter Sheue, of Excelsior Springs, is visiting the families of Will Sheue and George Rose of this city.

Miss Pearl Parrish was away from the New York store several days recently with a vaccinated arm.

M. E. Bradford of Glenwood, Iowa, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Whitted.

Mrs. L. W. Scott who for two weeks has been quite sick with a severe case of genuine grip is convalescent.

The ladies of the Baptist church are observing this week as the week of prayer. Services from 3 to 4.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dobbs, Saturday, January 5, 1901, at their home at Elm Grove, a daughter.

Bert Powers, the guest of friends here for ten days or more, has returned to his home at St. Joseph.

Miss Dora Brightwell left Saturday for her home in Slater after a visit to Miss Edna Brightwell of this city.

Hiram Winning, one of our popular young business men, left this week for Kansas City to remain permanently.

Miss Lulu Ward, saleslady at Mitchell's jewelry store returned Friday from a visit to friends at Odessa.

Dr. R. H. Nuckles is the only Osteopath in Saline county who is a graduate of Dr. A. T. Still, of Kirksville, Mo. 492

Miss Fannie Tobb, of Kansas City, was the guest this week of Miss Fannie Taylor at her home on Yerby street.

Miss Gertrude Culbertson of this city has recently accepted a position as nurse at Eastworth Hospital, St. Joseph.

Do you know what Osteopathy can do in your case? Call on Dr. R. H. Nuckles. Consultation and examination free. 492

George M. Patterson left Friday for St. Louis after a pleasant visit to his parents, J. M. Patterson and family in this city.

J. P. Hobbs and sister returned to their home in Hannibal Tuesday, after spending the holidays with L. Presley and family.

Misses Mollie and Lilly Bell, of Miami, were guests of Mrs. George Latimer and Mrs. C. L. Bell the first of the week.

J. C. Thompson and family returned from Boonville Friday, where they attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Rolwing.

Will Young, of Oak Ridge, struck the limb of a tree in one of his eyes recently and it is thought he will lose the sight of his eye.

Mrs. G. W. Hunter and sister, Miss Victor Levy, the latter of whom teaches at the Shelby school house, were visitors here Saturday.

Father Hogan and Frank Mitchell, of Shackelford, have returned from Kentucky, where they visited the latter's sister, Sister Alagonda.

H. H. Downing left Friday night for Battle Creek, Mich., for a visit to Mrs. Downing, who has been spending some weeks in the sanitarium there.

Mrs. W. W. Barks left last week for Henssaler, Mo., to be with her mother, who has an attack of grip. She will be away several weeks.

W. C. Haynie, of the old firm of Haynie Bros., has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Maple City Soapworks of Monmouth Ill.

Miss Ethel Sparks, one of the popular and charming young ladies of Kansas City, is the guest this week of Mrs. Aubrey Conway on West Arrow street.

Mrs. C. P. Gould, of Bogard, Carroll county, and Mrs. Juliette Mercereau, of Union, New York, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Lee Tucker, of this city.

Miss Mildred Parrish was the guest Tuesday of Miss Beulah Sharp, the first time the young lady has been out in three weeks as a result of a vaccinated arm.

The ladies of the Catholic church at Shackelford gave an oyster supper at Shackelford on Wednesday night that proved quite a success socially and financially.

Mrs. James Noonan and children, who spent the holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Folk have returned to their home in Kansas City.

Rev. H. A. Mitchell and wife, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Boone DeGarmo and William Mitchell and family have returned to their home in Pettis county.

Mrs. Georgie Brunaugh accompanied Miss Hale to Malta Bend on the afternoon of Friday. The weather being simply delightful, the drive was a pleasant one.

Mrs. J. W. Goodwin and daughters Mrs. Minnie Barnett and daughter, Carrie, returned to Alma Saturday and spent Sunday, starting out again Monday morning.

Rev. J. de Q. Donehoo and daughters, Eleanor and Katherine and son James, returned Sunday morning from a visit to Mr. Donehoo's mother in West Virginia.

Miss Elizabeth Whitaker, who was quite sick with grip during all of the Christmas vacation, taught Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, but was quite sick again Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Abiel Leonard and children returned Friday from Boonville where they assisted in nursing and attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Martha Stephens Rolwing.

O. L. Hutchings for fine photographs. Established 1895. Phone 256. 22