

County News

ARROW ROCK

A bright, happy New Year greeting to all.

The Union Christmas tree at the Methodist church attracted quite a crowd. The splendid program was enjoyed by all present and old Santa acted well his part. The young as well as the old went away rejoicing.

Kate and Mary Swinney, of the county, attended the Christmas tree while spending a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. M. Bingham.

The oyster and ice cream supper given by the ladies of the Christian church was quite a success. The handsome sum of $52 being realized.

John Howard and Frank Wilmarth were in town Saturday evening attending the oyster supper and smiling on the fair sex.

It looks very suspicious the way a certain young man from Cooper Co. rides his prancing gray steed around in West Arrow Rock, rain or shine.

Misses Ola and Lula Piper, of near Little Rock, accompanied by Miss May Pearson, spend a part of the holidays with their cousin, R. C. Piper and family.

Miss Sadie Stean, of Columbia and sister, Miss Georgia, of Fulton, are home from school for the holidays.

Frank Watts and sister, Miss Pearl, of Howard Co., visited Saturday at the home of their Uncle, Will Amick and took in the oyster supper.

A crowd of young people gathered at a surprise party Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. McGuire and spent a very pleasant time.

Lonnie Bingham returned home Tuesday after a two months stay with relatives in Shelby Co. Mo.

Misses Marion and Anna Tyler of Marshall, are visiting friends in Arrow Rock and vicinity.

Mrs. Becraft and little daughter, of Shackelford, visited a few days last week with her brother, E. P. Grimes and family.

SALT SPRINGS

The roads are in a very bad condition and getting worse all the time.

J. P. Fulkerson and wife entertained at a turkey dinner on New Years day in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Galoway.

Annie Blair Brown returned to her school work at Marshall Monday after spending the holidays at home.

I. Kemeto our young Japanese friend preached a good sermon at the Mt. Leonard Church Sunday night. His knowledge of the scripture acquired since his conversion, two years ago seems wonderful.

Call on H. E. Dingley for rubber boots and shoes.

H. E. Dingley and wife were pleasantly surprised New Years evening by several neighbors dropping in to spend a few hours. The noted game Sherlock Holmes with apples, peanuts and candy might be mentioned as pastime of the evening.

Greene and Stella Dingley were visitors here Monday.

John Brown Jr. and I. Kemeto returned to Parkville College Tuesday morning, after a ten days of pleasant recreation.

Mrs. Simpson and children, of Shackelford, and Mrs. Collier and children visited Mrs. U. C. King Saturday.

Oranges, lemons and a lot of fresh candy for sale at Dingley's.

Jas. Orr and son, Harry, have gone on a business trip through Texas hunting farming land.

H. E. Dingley and wife attended the Baptist Sunday School Convention Friday and Saturday held at Slater, leaving H. A. Thomas in charge of business here.

J. H. McLemon and children took the evening train for Higginsville Wednesday afternoon.

The lecture held at Salt Springs church was a success. The ladies took in $16.70 for refreshments. The house was comfortably full, and a social time was spent after the lecture.

NEW HOME

After a week's vacation for Xmas our schools started on New Years.

Several from this place attended services at Elmwood Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Georgia Beattie and baby, of Oklahoma, are visiting her parents, of Elmwood. She was also here to attend the burial of her sister, Mrs. Early Davis, who died Dec. 27th 1905.

Rev. Welborn was the dinner guest of D. M. Harris and family Sunday. The meeting he was to conduct at Elmwood was deferred on account of the unfavorable weather and roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monegali, Mr. and Mrs. John Fordham and Mayme Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Genenkie were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Monegali and family.

Allie Carmean spent the holidays with home folks.

A crowd of young folks surprised Miss Delphia and Rufus Edwards, of Elmwood, Saturday night, those present report a jolly time.

Willis Lemmon and son, Glenn, are on the sick list this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fischer Dec. 25th, 1905, a son.

Miss Dollie Harris was the dinner guest of the Misses McKinney Saturday.

Miss Tillie Lemon left Thursday for Webb City, to visit her sister, Mrs. C. D. Sims.

Mrs. John Dierking and daughter, Misses Nelle and Effie and little son, Merl, were the guests of D. M. Harris and family Sunday.

CRETCHER

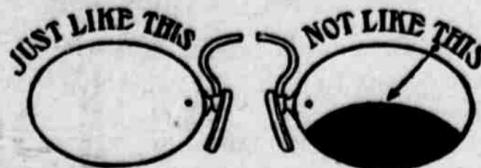

A happy New Year to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Oaks and little daughter, Miss Viola, visited J. P. Wilson's last Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Akeman, Dec. 27th, a fine nine pound girl.

Newton Ehart, Jim Crain, Charlie King and two sons, Emmett and Edgar, came in

Get the Latest

INVISIBLE BIFOCALS and everything else in Spectacles or nose glasses at Dr. L. Gillaspay, who makes a specialty of correcting all kinds of defective vision.

He cures headaches which are produced from eye strain, he prevents and straightens cross-eyes without the use of knife, and adjusts your spectacles when all others fail. See him if you have trouble with your eyes or spectacles. Satisfaction guaranteed; prices right; examination free

DR. L. GILLASPY,

Office with Dr. G. C. Emerson, East Side Square,

MARSHALL, MO.

from North Dakota last Saturday.

Rev. Cole filled his appointment at Christian Union last Sunday.

Will Curry, of Longwood, visited his brother, Jones, here and his brother Sam, at Mt. Leonard last week.

James Coffey moved to Mt. Leonard last week and Logan Pritchard moved to the Neal farm, where Mr. Coffey had lived.

What is the matter with Green Mound, Herndon, and Salt Pond? Keep writing.

Casper Oaks and J. P. Wilson left Tuesday for Lawton Okla., to look for locations.

Miss Edna Akeman visited Jas. O'neal's last Sunday.

My, oh my! Don't you hear dem' bells ringing?

Miss Bessie Deadman visited her uncle, John Van Buskirk last week.

J. P. Wilson and family visited H. W. Jackson's a while last Friday night.

Mrs. Maria Cundiff has been ailing for a week or so.

Mrs. John Hayes and daughter, Miss Ovie and Miss Nora Maloney visited Mrs. Jones Curry last Wednesday evening.

My, but the roads are bad.

SALINE POINT

The holidays are over and the people are beginning their work with the new year.

Will Davis and wife, of Dawn, Mo., spent the holidays with relatives.

Elbert Moore who has been sick for some time is getting along nicely.

A good many people are wondering where a certain young lady got that nice little ring Christmas.

J. W. Douglas, wife and children of the Ayres neighborhood spent several days here last week visiting relatives.

Rev. Cobb, of Miami is conducting a protracted meeting at Rich Chapel this week.

A party and oyster supper was given at the home of Silvester Dilley Wednesday night Dec. 27. Lewis Kelley furnished music with his graphophone, and an enjoyable time was had.

There are some of the most accomodating boys around here we ever saw, they help the old folks home with their children nearly every night they are out anywhere.

Forced to Starve

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At P. H. Franklin's drug store. Only 25c.

HERNDON

Walter Witcher and wife, of Oklohoma, and Jim Sanders and wife, of North Dakota, are visiting at the home of Tate Witcher.

We are having the biggest snow of the season at this writing. It will be fine on the wheat.

Mrs George Falkner is reported sick the first of the week.

J. M. Clark came in from Iowa last week to spend a few weeks at home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hall on Dec. 31, a girl.

J. S. Clark is on the sick list again.

GRAND PASS

The Windmeyer family, Tegtmeier family, Biesemeyer and wife, also John Ernst, Henry Wahmeyer, Henry Homemeyer, and Dessie Brown spent New Years Day with the "Ruff-Arens-Meyer" families.

John LeFries and family moved on Friday to Arkansas. This "move" came as a surprise as he was considered a permanent fixture.

Henry Homemeyer is visiting the Windmeyers' this week.

August Bauer and Otto Tegtmeier are visiting relatives in Morgan county.

Our church bells rang out the old year and rang in the new year at midnight Sunday.

Some of our boys made "New Year Resolutions." Sam says he's going to "quit playin' flinch." Fritz says "sleepin' late won't go mit him longer." Neal has "swore off cussin." Irvin resolves to "make fire fer th' ole woman o' mornin's," while Frank "lows he'll wean hisself of the bottle"; even Joanny resolves to "not sass back."

Some express wonder, why it is that Windmeyer gets so many visitors from a distance. This is no "wonder" to the writer for a more accomodating and sociable man would be hard to find.

NORTON

Happy New Year to all!

Miss Luella Irvine commenced her school New Year Day with a good attendance.

Rev. McCord and wife are guests of J. H. Seber's.

Mrs. Jess VanWinkle is on the sick list.

Mrs. A. G. Griffiths and daughter were shopping in Nor on Saturday.

John Yates and family spent Christmas with G. W. Wood and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood spent Tuesday with A. H. Yates and family.

Harry Swisher was shopping in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary. Robinson was the guest at Mrs. Lyles Friday.

We are sorry to learn of the death of little Dorothy Liles. She past away Saturday at 2 o'clock a. m.

Two little angels now on high They had in hand tozether room. Two lives now bid us to the sky, Two fingers beckon us to come. Lord, give us strength our loss to bear And lead us in the heavenly way Oh may we meet our children there In rooms of everlasting day.

NEW FRANKFORT

Miss Kate Wilming is visiting Lena Webster near Slater.

Mr. Hudson, of near Mt. Leonard, spent Thursday with friends in New Frankfort.

Mr. Kennel, of Kansas City was in New Frankfort one day the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thierfelder entertained a number of their friends at dinner Monday among them were Rev. W. H. Manshardt and wife of Glasgow.

Miss Kate Ruff returned from an extended visit with her brother in Oklahoma.

Miss Volley Heinzier of near Sharon is spending the week with her parents.

J. Sayers is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Robt. Gabb.

J. B. Hawkins and wife, of Slater, visited his mother who is quite low.

Jim Cumbaugh and family returned from a visit with relatives in Leroy, Ill.

Vernet Jones is reported convalescing.

Miss Kate Hawkins has been employed to teach the Good Hope school as Miss Winn the former teacher is still quite sick.

Miss Nellie Cooper opened up school Tuesday morning.

Forest Rhoades transacted business in Marshall Wednesday.

HARMONY

The Harmony congregation was somewhat disappointed Sunday as Rev. Clemens failed to fill his appointment.

Rev. Cobb, of Miami, is holding a protracted meeting at Rich Chapel at present.

Charles Lynn has returned from a visit of several days at Grand Pass.

Mrs. S. F. White and son, Fremont Mayfield and niece, Miss Ida Burnside, returned Wednesday after a visit of several days to relatives in Kansas City.

A social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pad Mullins Friday night. Quite a number of the bluff boys attended the social.

Joseph Burnside returned to Hale to take up school again after a week's vacation.

Rev. Chapman preached several very interesting sermons to the Macedonia congregation last week.

Miss Cynthia Lyon is improving slowly from a very severe attack of pneumonia and typhoid fever.

Little Arthur Drummonds is quite sick at this writing

John Vaughn and family were the guests of Pad Mullins and family Christmas Day.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ovie Lyon, Wednesday Dec. 20, a daughter.

Dame Rumor says, wedding bells will ring in our vicinity soon.

Mrs. Sue Gibbons, of Slater, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Amos Sullivan this week.

Joe Burnside and George Bartlett have returned to Carroll county, after spending the holidays here.

John Moore and Schuyler White were driving the lightning express Saturday.

Ask Ida how she likes the city.

Frank Singleton, of Leavenworth, is visiting relatives here this week.

LITTLE ROCK

Geo. Pearson returned from Kansas City Saturday afternoon and if any information is wanted about that place, call on him.

Ehler Bros. bought a span of mules from Joe Kesaw New Year's day for $327. The mules were bought to be used on the Philippine Island east of here, and can't be beat in these parts—16 hands high and 4 years old.

Ehlers Bros. commenced a cash business on Jan. 1st, but the people of Little Rock don't mind that as they've always got their pockets full of coin.

The boys enjoyed the holidays very much, and say they wouldn't care if Christmas came every week, so they could have "pleasant dreams"

The debate that took place last Friday night was a success, but it was a mock trial instead as follows: Henry Thornton was tried for stealing a turkey November 29, from Mote Ehlers; Judge Trout presided; Jessie Hensick was sheriff; Mr. Thornton, clerk. The jury was as follows: Harvey Neff, Harvey Johnson, Lon Taylor, John Johnson, Jack Johnson, Joe Duncan. The witnesses for the state are T. M. Ehlers, O. L. Piper, Mrs. Davidson, Dr. Thornton, Sherlock Holmes. Witnesses for the defense, Henry Thornton, Marvin Furney, Millard Thornton, Mason Childress, Herbert Furney, Henry Bierbeum, Tom Jackson, and Dr. Sharp. The attorneys for the state were Dr. Davidson and Harvey Neff, for the defense were Col. Will Gaby and Hon. George Thornton. The decision was given in favor of Mr. Thornton and the blame of the turkey stealing thrown on Judge Trout and Dr. Davidson. This (Friday) evening the debate will be, "Resolved, that a woman has a right to vote." Everybody is invited.

The shooting match was a success at Little Rock Monday evening and next Saturday afternoon there will be another match at Little Rock. Everybody invited.

Watching the old year out and the new one in took place at Pete Bender's. All enjoyed themselves very much and all made new obligations for the new year—1906.

Itch cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Never fails. Sold by Trigg & Fisher, Druggists, tf

Special Homeseekers' Excursion To south and south east, on Jan. 2 and 16, and on Feb. 6 and 20, limit 21 days, with stop-over either way. Also one way colonists rates to south and southwest. Apply at C. & A. ticket office for particulars.

O. E. Hawthorne, Agt.