DEATHS

Mrs. L. A. Hagan

died suddenly at her home at the Cottage Hotel Sunday evening of heart failure. She was feeling unusually well during the day and after supper in the evening sang with her husband in the hotel office. She went to her room later and must have been feeling badly as she laid upon her bed without undressing. About 10.30 she got up and asked Mr. Hagan to call Mrs. Billingsly as she was very sick. A doctor was also sent for but she had expired before his arrival.

Mrs. Hagan was a splendid Christian woman. She was 68 years old Tuesday and was married to the surviving husband more than fifty years ago. Two children were born to the union both of whom preceded her in death. Her funeral occurred Sunday afternoon at the Christian church conducted by her pastor, Rev. B. T. Wharton.

George Nye

died at his home northeast of Malta Bend Wednesday, Feb. 12th, after a long illness of dropsy. He was seriously ill about a year ago but rallied enough to get around and he thought was on the road to complete recovery.

He was 52 years, 11 months and 3 days old and resided on the same place over 50 years.

His wife and two children survive. Also three sisters—Mrs. J. W. Blackburn, Blosser; Mrs. Wm. Mullins, Miami; Mrs. Maggie Allen, Miami. Funeral services were held yesterday forenoon at the residence and burial in the North cemetery at Malta Bend. Rev. Ira W. Barnett, pastor of the Malta Bend Presbyterian church, conducted the funeral services.

Mr. Nye was a substantial citizen, a good husband and father, and his death is a sad loss to the community. We extend sympathy.

I. O. Striker

Marshall's oldest merchant, died at his home in West Marshall after a week's illness of pneumonia Tuesday forenoon, aged 75 years on last Christmas Day.

Mr. Striker was one of Marshall's best citizens and his departure is greatly regretted.

He leaves seven sons and three daughters, as follows: Miss Maude, Adolph, Wm., Mrs. Phil Nock, Ben, Miss Lennie, Carl, Herbert, Harry and Walter. All the children were present at the funeral except Herbert, who is in California.

Funeral services were held at the residence at 4 p. m. Wednesday conducted by Rev. L. P. Bowen, assisted by Dr. W. H. Black. The funeral was one of the most largely attended ever known in Marshall. Out of respect for the departed merchant, all the stores closed from 4 to 5 p. m. Wednesday. The remains were taken after the services to St. Louis for interment. His life has been a long and useful one and the people of Marshall regardless of political or religious be-

Mary Helen McCord

the beautiful four-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Hugh McCord, died at their home in Nevada on Feb. 6th, of scarlet fever.

J. A. Jessup

an old and prominent citizen of Miami, died Feb. 3d, 1908, aged 65 years, of Bright's disease. His remains were laid to rest in the Miami cemetery.

Shirley Vaughters

son of W. C. Vaughter, until recently a resident of Marshall, died of consumption at Alamogordo, N. M., on Feb. 6th, aged 21 years.

Mrs. Mary F. Alison

wife of A. J. Alison, of 6 miles east of Marshall, died Tuesday, February 11th, of pneumonia, aged 75 years, 6 months and 5 days. Funeral services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Wm. Vardeman at 10 a. m. Wednesday and burial at Ridge Park cemetery at 2 p. m. The husband, three daughters and three sons survive.

Annie D. Heuman

It has pleased our heavenly Father to send the death angel into our midst and earth has one less earthly treasure. On Feb. 7, at 1 p. m. Annie Dannah, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Heumann of Little Rock drew her last breath, succumbing to a short illness of pneumonia. Although she had the best of medical attention, yet the efforts to save her life were futile. She was a bright and beautiful child loved by all who knew her. She had a sweet disposition but as a fragrant flower is plucked to shed its sweet odor elsewhere. She has gone hence, leaving sweet memories of her short life to those who are left behind. Her time of sojourn upon earth was but brief—6 years, 4 months and one day, the date of birth being Oct. 6, 1901. All is well, her happy spirit is at rest in the arms of Jesus where she waits to greet those who shall come after to that blessed abode.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. J. Hosto at the Evangelical church near Little Rock, where the remains were interred in the cemetery. His text was from Job 1:21, "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord," from which he made some touching remarks. May the Lord tenderly console the bereaved.

"Oh how sweet it will be in that beautiful land
So free from all sorrow and pain,
With songs on our lips and with harps in
in our hands
To meet one another again."

Mrs. Bertha Ashley

The Ashley family was again visited by the Death Angel Sunday when Bertha, wife of Ernest Ashley was taken to the better world. Mr. and Mrs. Ashley have resided in Kansas City for a number of years and Mrs. Ashley died in a hospital there. She underwent a difficult operation five weeks ago, resulting in blood poisoning and death. Her remains were brought to Marshall and laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery Monday afternoon, after services at the First husband and a boy 9 years old and an infant of five weeks survive.

Mrs. E. J. Dunlap

died at her home in Gilliam yesterday (Thursday) at 4 a. m. Funeral at 1 p. m. today.

Mrs. Phebe Caverl

col., died Sunday night at 11.30, of pneumonia, aged 78 years. She was making her home with her son-in-law Jack Williams, near the C. & A. depot. Five children survive her—Mrs. Tompkins, Martin, Mrs. Amanda Williams, Mrs. Sophia Strange and Percy. Her remains were taken to Nelson for burial Wednesday.

Fred Miller

col., died Saturday at his mother's home in Marshall at 4.15 a. m. of heart trouble, aged about 23 years. His remains were buried at Fairview cemetery Sunday. He leaves a wife also to mourn his early death.

Mrs. Ella Mason

col., wife of Elzie Mason, died at her home on South Brunswick Ave. at 9 a. m. Monday, Feb. 10th aged 45 years, 10 months and 3 days. Funeral services were held at the North Street M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Reeves, after which the remains were laid to rest in Rock Creek cemetery.

Romeo Simpson Dead

Romeo Simpson, the colored man shot by Deputy Sheriff Roland Smith two weeks ago, died at the county jail Wednesday morning of his wounds complicated with pneumonia. Simpson was a desperate and dangerous negro, although his parents residing here are respectable citizens.

As stated at the time, the shooting was caused by Simpson's resisting arrest and under conditions that thoroughly exonerate Mr. Smith.

If Simpson had lived he would have had to face beside the charge of robbing Hagan's grocery, the robbery of the Mt. Leonard and Shackleford depots and also blackmailing the C. & A. officials—having written three letters in which he threatened to blow up the passenger trains in case $10,000 was not dropped off the train specified when a flag was seen at the side of the track. These crimes were fixed on him and probably others would have been found had he been able to stand trial.

Don't forget the Republican mass meeting at the city hall next Tuesday night to nominate a city ticket.

Change at Miami

F. R. McDaniel who purchased G. T. Taylor's dry goods store at Miami recently sent G. S. Taylor, Chas. Wilson and John Elder over Tuesday to get the big safe he purchased of Emory Brown. Mr. McDaniel will take charge on March 2d.

Will be Tried for First Degree Murder

Gen. R. C. Horne was arraigned in the criminal court at Kansas City Saturday and he will be tried on a charge of murder in the first degree

MARSHALL NOT WRECKED

Most of the Steel Buildings Still in Good Shape.

According to the Kansas City dailies Marshall was at the mercy of a band of "night riders" last Friday night who literally shot the town to pieces. The Journal said that forty masked men entered the town on horseback, rode around the square firing a volley at each corner, left a warning to a number of our citizens to leave town at once, etc.

The facts as near as we can learn them are that half a dozen country boys returning from a dance on horseback passed through Marshall about midnight and boy-like "cracked" a few jokes, which to the Journal reporter sounded like shots and the laughter following like war whoops. The undertakers all claim there was no unusual rush of business the following day—the doctors could not be interviewed as they have not yet recovered from the scare! And of course the injured are uncared for!

But apart from this matter entirely there is a spark of truth in something the Journal said—or rather the Journal article was partially based on something that really happened. Thursday morning auctioneer Frank M. Stone found the following note in pencil capitals on his door:

"Mr. Stone, you better leave Marshall at once or you will be murdered. There are some parties laying for you. Better go at once—this is a serious matter. Go, and go fast. 'Wet's' give you 2 days to leave."

We hunted up Mr. Stone and he said regarding the matter: "I haven't seen any night riders neither have I heard any shooting on the streets of Marshall. I am not worrying over the notice on my door. I am still in Marshall and will remain here unless the Lord comes after me, but I haven't any fear of humanity and if they want me I can be easily found. There was a report in a Kansas City paper pertaining to a conversation between myself and an officer stating that he loaned me a gun, which is not true. But I have a young cannon of my own loaded with log chains and spike nails shivering for a job. I have not accused anyone of putting the notice on the door, but will say this: that I consider the guilty party a low bred, cheap, insignificant, dirty cowardly cur, who would run himself to death if he was out and heard a leaf stir by wayside."

Meyer-Naeglin

Robert H. Meyer, of Blackburn and Miss Anna Laura Naegelin, of near Blosser, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Naegelin, Wednesday, Feb. 12th at 11 a. m., Rev. H. Limper of Blackburn officiating. Owing to the illness of Mr. Naegelin the wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate relatives being present.

Mr. Meyer is a son of W. H. Meyers of Blackburn and is a young man of sterling worth while the bride is an accompany who will make home-life pleasant for her husband. They represent two of Saline well-to-do and prominent German families. They will reside on the Wm. Opper farm north of Blackburn.

Church Notes

A number of foreign Missionaries and prominent men of the country are on the program, which will continue through the day and at night. Visitors from all over the county invited. Rev. H. N. Bullark, stated clerk of the Presbyterian Synod of Missouri, died at his home in Kansas City Wednesday of pneumonia. He was in Marshall Wednesday of last week making arrangements for the meeting here of the Missouri Presbyterian Assembly, so that his death is quite sudden. He was 33 years old.

The Young Men's Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church last week elected the following new officers: Judge Samuel Davis, president; J. T. Fisher, vice-president; H. C. Corder, jr., secretary and treasurer.

Rev. W. R. Dobyns and Mr. Huggins, of St. Joseph, presented the cause of the school in the Ozarks at Forsythe before the members of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening.
